DENISE DeBARTOLO YORK & JOHN YORK

CO-CHAIRMEN

Denise and John York bring long and distinguished careers in sports and business to their roles as Co-Chairmen of the San Francisco 49ers, where they combine their passion for building a championship team with their commitment to being the best possible business partners and community citizens.

A THIRTY YEAR LEGACY IN BUSINESS AND PRO SPORTS

Since Denise's father, Edward J. DeBartolo Sr., purchased the 49ers in 1977, she has been an integral part of more than three decades of 49ers football, including 41 playoff contests and five Super Bowl victories. Earlier in her career, Denise served as President of the Pittsburgh Penguins hockey team. Under her leadership, the Penguins were revitalized and transformed into a championship team, winning the Stanley Cup. She is one of only 12 women to have her name engraved on the Stanley Cup.

A successful entrepreneur, John spent years as Senior Vice President/Director of Racing Operations for the DeBartolo Corporation, instituting programs designed to enhance the fan experience and raise the profile of thoroughbred horse racing. John, a noted pathologist, began his business career in 1982 as founder of DeYor Laboratories in Youngstown, Ohio. From three employees, he molded the company into a 500-person operation with facilities in three states before selling the company to Corning, Inc. in 1993.

As owners of the 49ers, Denise and John provide the resources and guidance to uphold the 49ers celebrated history and oversee the team's relationship with the Commissioner of the National Football League and other team owners.

TAKING A LEADERSHIP ROLE IN THE NFL

Denise and John's dedication to the sport of football extends to the top levels of the NFL.

Denise is an active member of the Pro Football Hall of Fame Committee, where she helps to oversee the League's ongoing support of the museum that pays tribute to the triumphs of pro football's greatest stars, including 14 legendary members of the San Francisco 49ers.

John is Chairman of the NFL's Health & Safety Advisory Committee, which was established in 2011. He is also a member of both the League's Audit and International committees, the latter of which he previously served as Chairman. Under his leadership, the 49ers became the first team to play a regular season game outside the borders of the United States, taking on the Arizona Cardinals in front of 100,000 fans at Azteca Stadium in Mexico City. The League expanded its presence abroad with regular season games at Wembley Stadium in London, England, under his direction. The 49ers are set to play the Jacksonville Jaguars at Wembley in October of 2013. It marks the second 49ers appearance in London in the last four years, as the 49ers hosted the Denver Broncos at Wembley in 2010.

CELEBRATING THE TEAM'S LEGENDARY HISTORY

Denise and John have played a pivotal role in reaching out to former players and coaches to help celebrate six monumental decades of 49ers football. Over the past decade, Denise and John have brought back every Hall of Fame enshrinee from the 49ers to be honored at Candlestick Park for their tremendous contributions to Bay Area sports.

When Levi's® Stadium opens in 2014, one of the premiere features of the venue will be the 49ers Hall of Fame. The 20,000-square-foot facility will utilize cutting-edge technology to bring to life the legacy and mystique of the 49ers. Visitors will be treated to an educational trek through the history of the franchise and the Bay Area.

Under the guidance of Denise and John, the team enhanced its annual alumni weekend event to give all players who have donned the red and gold throughout the team's history a chance to catch up with old friends. As part of the event, the former players are recognized on the field during a half-time celebration at Candlestick Park, where so many of them made their mark on history. They have also worked with players like Joe Montana, Steve Young and Dwight Clark, and the members of the 1981 49ers defense to re-enact and commemorate some of the team's most famous plays such as "The Catch" and the goal line stand that propelled the team to its first Super Bowl victory.

ENHANCING THE FAN EXPERIENCE

Denise and John are dedicated to embracing the passion of 49ers fans everywhere. They are committed to giving fans an opportunity to experience the excitement of 49ers football year-round. From the team's annual Winter Fest Fundraiser in Lake Tahoe, to Pasta Bowl in Santa Clara and Fan Fest at Candlestick Park each summer, they have made it their mission to embrace the fans as family.

On game days, they have spearheaded the effort to create a great atmosphere for fans by making significant enhancements to Candlestick Park, from the creation of the Alumni Tailgate Party and Faithful City, to improvements inside the stadium such as new flat screen TVs, new escalators and remodeled restrooms.

They've also provided new opportunities for fans to participate in the excitement of 49ers football by giving local musicians the opportunity to sing the national anthem in front of 68,000 fans at the 'Stick, and providing opportunities to local talent to participate in half-time events on the field.

MAKING A DIFFERENCE IN THE LIVES OF OTHERS

Under the leadership of Denise and John, the team's community outreach programs and 49ers Foundation have grown tremendously.

The San Francisco 49ers Foundation is the non-profit community funding extension of the San Francisco 49ers. Now in its 21st year, the 49ers Foundation supports development programs for underserved youth that keep them, "Safe, On Track, and In School." The San Francisco 49ers are promoting RESPECT for schools and community by donating a significant portion of the foundation's funding toward family violence prevention programs and activities that teach youth leadership and respect. Since 1992, the Foundation has donated over $20 million to support non-profits, including $2.9 million in 2012. In 2012, 100% of players participated in one-or-more community program and were joined by ownership, coaching staff, executives and their families at most of these events.

In recognition of their community involvement, the couple has been honored with a number of accolades including City Year's Service Leadership Award, Silicon Valley Exemplary Community Leadership Award by Silicon Valley FACES, Outstanding Corporate Philanthropy Award at the Catholic Charities/Catholic Youth Organization's Loaves & Fishes Dinner, and inclusion on the Top Corporate Philanthropists list for the San Jose/Silicon Valley Business Journal.

The couple's passion for community involvement extends beyond the Bay Area as well. John has been honored with Loyola University's Strich Medal - the highest honor awarded by the school - for his ongoing contributions to his alma mater. Denise and John were honored with the Youngstown Hearing & Speech Center's Great Communicators Award in recognition of their philanthropic leadership. The couple continues to support the Boys and Girls Club of Youngstown and the Mahoning Valley United Way, while also being intimately involved with the Edward J. DeBartolo Sr. Memorial Scholarship Foundation which awards college scholarships to deserving Youngstown area high school seniors.

Denise continues to provide mentoring and tuition assistance for at risk youth throughout all levels of education. She is also involved with the No Stone Unturned Foundation, which provides support for children and their families affected by developmental and neurological disorders. Denise is also passionate about cancer related causes, including The Serenity Garden at the Joanie Abdu Comprehensive Breast Care Center and the A Way With Words Foundation.

PUTTING FAMILY FIRST

Though Denise and John have accomplished much in their professional careers, they first define themselves as husband, wife and parents.

Their eldest son, Jed, now carries on the family's legacy begun by his grandfather Edward J. DeBartolo Sr., his Uncle Eddie DeBartolo Jr. and his parents, by serving as CEO of the 49ers. Their son, Tony, is currently an entrepreneur in the high-tech industry in the Bay Area, and is involved with support programs for incarcerated juveniles alongside team pastor Earl Smith. Their twin daughters, Jenna and Mara are pursuing careers in oenology in the Napa Valley. All of the York children share their parents' passion for community service and are very active in the 49ers Foundation. Denise and John, have one grandchild, Jaxon, the son of Jed and his wife, Danielle.

JED YORK

CHIEF EXECUTIVE OFFICER

BUILDING A CHAMPIONSHIP TEAM

As chief executive officer of the San Francisco 49ers, Jed York oversees all aspects of the organization. York is in his fourth year in the position and has made bold decisions to return the team to its winning tradition and ultimately the Super Bowl. York recognizes and shares the ongoing passion of the team's faithful fans.

York has been a driving force behind the 49ers recent success on and off the field. Many now point to 2011 as a significant year in the history of the storied franchise, as he led the organization through a year of great change and prosperity. York's promotion of Trent Baalke to general manager, and the hiring of Jim Harbaugh as head coach, set the wheels in motion for the team's resurgence on the field. The team has won back-to-back NFC West Division titles, advanced to two NFC Championship Games and a Super Bowl, while posting a 27-9-1 overall record.

In the boardroom, York's strong leadership has produced extraordinary results. On April 19, 2012, the 49ers and the Santa Clara Stadium Authority broke ground a year ahead of schedule on the team's new home, Levi's® Stadium, after securing a construction loan and $200 million in NFL support. Since that time, the 49ers have built on the momentum, securing favorable long-term financing and a naming rights partnership that is a "perfect fit" for the venue.

RECOGNIZING THE 49ERS FAITHFUL

A 49ers fan since birth, York recognizes that the success of the 49ers hinges on the team's faithful fans, and he is committed to honoring them for their passion and enthusiasm. One of his most popular moves was directing the organization to create new uniforms for the 49ers that connect the team's future aspirations to its championship glory years of the 1980s and 1990s. He also created the ticket sales and services department to give each season ticket holder a personal representative and point of contact within the organization.

Most recently, York has focused the 49ers organization's efforts on creating the ultimate fan experience at Levi's® Stadium. In conjunction with the SCSA, the new stadium has been designed and built on the pillars of innovation and sustainability in order to create the ultimate experience for all visitors. The goal is to make Levi's® Stadium the premier, outdoor sports and entertainment venue in the world, while incorporating all that is special about the Bay Area and Silicon Valley. The stadium is set to feature amenities such as a world-class Wi-Fi network, which will allow all visitors the ability to customize their own experience through the use of their personal handheld devices. Additionally, the 49ers are currently developing an App which will offer fans premium, original content on their own devices, the ability to order concessions and merchandise from their seats and the option to enjoy a paper-less, cash-less game day experience.

Under York's leadership, the team established the Edward J. DeBartolo Sr. 49ers Hall of Fame in 2009, to commemorate the significant accomplishments of some of the team's biggest stars and key contributors. Named for his grandfather and the beloved patriarch of the 49ers, the Hall of Fame automatically inducted those 49ers greats that had either had their jersey numbers retired by the team or have been inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame. York, shortly thereafter, announced the Hall of Fame's inaugural inductee, his uncle, Edward J. DeBartolo Jr., who was enshrined during the 2009 season.

CARRYING ON THE FAMILY'S LEGACY

York's roots with the 49ers run deep. He is the oldest child of Denise and John York, the co-chairmen of the team. York's uncle and godfather, Eddie DeBartolo, also known to fans as "Mr. D," has long served as a mentor.

York began his career as a financial analyst at Guggenheim Partners, a diversified financial services firm. He worked in the firm's New York office in several areas, including private wealth management, hedge funds risk analysis, and collateralized debt obligations.

Born and raised in Youngstown, OH, York was a student athlete at Cardinal Mooney High School where he was captain of the baseball team as well as student body president. After high school, York decided to carry on a family tradition by attending the University of Notre Dame, where he earned a degree in both finance and history. York was a member of Phi Alpha Theta, the National History Honors Society.

York credits his parents, his uncle Eddie, and his grandfather Edward DeBartolo Sr. as being positive role models and for teaching him character values such as integrity, a strong work ethic, and respect for others. He is pleased to carry on his family's commitment to community by serving as a board member at Tipping Point Community, the Common Wealth Club, Bay Area Council, Silicon Valley Leadership Group, and the Council on Foreign Relations.

Besides his tremendous passion for the 49ers, York enjoys traveling, fishing, and playing cards, which he learned from his grandfather.

Jed lives in the Bay Area with his wife, Danielle, and son, Jaxon.

GIDEON YU

PRESIDENT

Gideon Yu is in his second season as president of the San Francisco 49ers. Yu became a co-owner of the franchise in early 2012.

As president of the 49ers, Yu leads all business, financial and strategic operations of the team. In his time with the 49ers, he has led the team's efforts in financing Levi's® Stadium, including securing an $850 million stadium construction loan, the largest ever in professional sports, a $200 million financing package from the NFL and the largest long-term stadium financing in NFL history. Yu also directed the 49ers drive to accelerate the opening date of Levi's® Stadium from the 2015 to 2014 season.

Yu has also led the team's technological and sustainability visions. Under his direction the 49ers have laid the foundation to transform the franchise and Levi's® Stadium into the most technologically advanced in sports. Additionally, the 49ers will have among the most sustainable stadiums in all of sports, being LEED Gold and deriving all of the gameday electrical load, on an annual net basis, from solar power – achieving a net neutral draw on the energy grid.

Prior to his career in sports, Yu was a technology executive and investor, most notably the Chief Financial Officer of both Facebook and YouTube, the first two internet companies to achieve one billion active users. He has also worked at such companies as Yahoo! and Disney and led the initial investment in and was the first external board member of Square.

In 2011, Yu was named to the "Executive Dream Team, Startup Edition" by Fortune Magazine, and listed among the "Names You Need To Know" by Forbes Magazine.

Yu earned his BS in Industrial Engineering and Engineering Management from Stanford University, and his MBA from Harvard Business School. He is active philanthropically, sitting on the boards of the Tipping Point Community, UCSF Foundation, and BUILD. Yu also served on the Bay Area's Super Bowl Bid Committee, which was successful in bringing Super Bowl L to the region.

A native of Nashville, Tenn., Yu and his wife, Susie, have a son, Jonathan, and a daughter, Emily.

You can follow Gideon on Twitter @gideonyu.

TRENT BAALKE

GENERAL MANAGER

A veteran of 16 NFL seasons, Trent Baalke enters his ninth year with the 49ers and his third as the team's general manager.

The 2011 NFL Executive of the Year, as selected by Pro Football Weekly and the Pro Football Writers of America, Baalke signed a contract extension with the 49ers in February of 2012 that runs through the 2016 season.

Since 2010, the year Baalke began to oversee all player acquisitions as the team's vice president of player personnel, the 49ers draft and free agent classes have produced significant returns. In that span, five of the players acquired have accounted for six All-Pro selections, while six of those players have earned Pro Bowl honors. In all, the 49ers have produced 17 All-Pro selections and 20 Pro Bowl acknowledgements over the last three seasons.

At the completion of the 2012 season, 41 players acquired under Baalke's direction remained on the 49ers active roster. Among that group were 17 draft picks, including six regular starters and six key contributors. Under Baalke's watch, the 49ers have selected 36 players in the last four drafts. Of those drafted players, 29 entered training camp with the team in 2013, nine of whom have already logged starts for the Niners.

Focused on maintaining a strong core of veteran players to provide experience and leadership, Baalke has extended the contracts of a number of 49ers over the last four years, including – All-Pros LB Patrick Willis, DT Justin Smith, LB NaVorro Bowman, CB Carlos Rogers and LB Ahmad Brooks, Pro Bowlers TE Vernon Davis and RB Frank Gore, and Pro Bowl alternates DT Ray McDonald and G Alex Boone.

Prior to his promotion to vice president of player personnel, Baalke was the 49ers director of player personnel from 2008-09, where he oversaw both the college and pro personnel departments. He first joined the franchise in 2005 as the team's western region scout, a position he held through 2007.

Baalke spent four years as a member of the Washington Redskins scouting staff, serving as the college scouting coordinator in his final season. From 2001 to 2003, he served as Washington's national scout and traveled throughout the country in search of rising talent. Before joining the Redskins, Baalke spent three seasons (1998-2000) as a scout with the New York Jets.

From 1990 to 1995, Baalke held the position of defensive line/strength and conditioning coach at South Dakota State. In that role, he helped promote players such as former Pro Bowl guard Adam Timmerman and current NFL kicker Adam Vinatieri to NFL scouts. Baalke then spent time as the athletic director at Shanley High School in Fargo, ND, before moving on to the Jets.

Baalke began his coaching career as a graduate assistant defensive line coach at North Dakota State, in 1989. The team finished with a 14-0 record and a Division II National Championship.

A double major at Bemidji State (MN), Baalke received his bachelor's degree in health and physical education. He went on to earn his master's degree in secondary education and sports administration while coaching at North Dakota State. Baalke played outside linebacker and was an All-Northern Sun Conference and All-Midwest Region honoree at Bemidji.

Trent and his wife, Beth, have two daughters, Katy and Cassie.

PARAAG MARATHE

CHIEF OPERATING OFFICER

Paraag Marathe (PUH-rawg, muh-RAH-tay) is in his 13th year with the 49ers, and his third as the team's chief operating officer.

Marathe was elevated to his current role in February of 2011, after spending a year as the 49ers executive vice president of football and business operations. Since that time, the 49ers have experienced tremendous progress off the field, with the construction of Levi's® Stadium being the focal point of the club's efforts.

Spearheading five key business units – business operations, production, marketing, ticketing and suites, and stadium operations – Marathe's leadership has been integral to the club's short-term and long-term business strategy. During his tenure as COO, the team has had consecutive years of Candlestick Park sellouts, while simultaneously launching a successful sales campaign for Levi's® Stadium. Under Marathe's guidance, the 49ers have launched a retail operation, which now includes three stores in the Bay Area. The club is also focused on creating the ultimate gameday experience for its 2014 inaugural season at Levi's® Stadium, which will include a new 49ers Museum, team-owned restaurant, and a best-in-class mobile application to enhance the fan experience.

On the football side, Marathe is the club's chief contract negotiator and salary cap architect, and also runs the club's football analytics efforts. Marathe is responsible for the club's compliance with the NFL's collective bargaining agreement and works with general manager Trent Baalke on various player personnel duties.

Marathe has played an integral role in helping the 49ers maintain a solid veteran nucleus, negotiating contract extensions in recent years with a number of key players, including – All-Pros LB Patrick Willis, DT Justin Smith, LB NaVorro Bowman, CB Carlos Rogers and LB Ahmad Brooks, Pro Bowlers TE Vernon Davis, RB Frank Gore, and OT Joe Staley and Pro Bowl alternates DT Ray McDonald, OT Anthony Davis and G Alex Boone. Additionally, Marathe's work during free agency has helped to land veteran players who went on to have significant impacts as starters, such as S Donte Whitner, CB Carlos Rogers, C Jonathan Goodwin and WR Mario Manningham.

Prior to joining the 49ers, Marathe worked at management consulting firm Bain & Company from 1999-2001, as a Senior Associate Consultant, where he advised clients in a variety of industries including private equity, venture capital, computer software, retail, sports footwear, consumer products, and health clubs. Before that, Marathe worked in the sports consulting group at the International Management Group (IMG), from 1997-1999, where he concentrated primarily on stadium naming rights deals, corporate sponsorships, and athlete endorsements.

A native of Saratoga, CA, Marathe's passion for the 49ers was instilled at a very young age. His Bay Area roots run deep, having received his bachelor's degree with high honors from the Haas School of Business at the University of California-Berkeley and his MBA from Stanford University's Graduate School of Business.

Marathe and his wife, Naya, live on the Peninsula.

BRAD SEELY

ASSISTANT HEAD COACH/SPECIAL TEAMS COORDINATOR

25TH NFL SEASON // 3RD WITH 49ERS

Considered one of the most successful special teams coaches in NFL history, Brad Seely is in his third year with the 49ers as assistant head coach/special teams coordinator.

Under Seely's direction in 2012, the 49ers fielded one of the strongest special teams units in the NFL. Andy Lee led the NFL with 43.2 net punting average, while also ranking fifth in the league with a 48.0 gross punting average, on his way to All-Pro honors. San Francisco also led the NFL in starting field position (31.8-yd. line) and ranked second in the NFL in opponents starting field position (24.9-yd. line).

In 2011, the 49ers special teams unit emerged as one of the best in the NFL. K David Akers set the NFL single-season record for most field goals (44) and points with no touchdowns (166). P Andy Lee set the NFL record with a 44.0 net punting average, while the 49ers led the NFL in average starting field position (33.5-yd. line) and opponents average starting field position (24.3-yd. line). Both Lee and Akers earned All-Pro and Pro Bowl selections. Seely was named Special Teams Coach of the Year by Rick Gosselin of the Dallas Morning News, whose special teams rankings are widely regarded.

Seely brought 22 years of NFL special teams coaching experience to the 49ers. Prior to joining the team, he served as the special teams coordinator for the Cleveland Browns from 2009-10, where he worked with WR/KR Joshua Cribbs, who earned Pro Bowl selections in each of the last two seasons. Seely's special teams unit led the NFL in kickoff coverage, while ranking fifth in the NFL in punt coverage in 2010.

In 2009, Seely was named Special Teams Coach of the Year after leading the Browns to a league best special teams ranking according to the formula comprised by Rick Gosselin of the Dallas Morning News. It marked Seely's fifth top-five finish for his special teams units since 1990.

Prior to joining the Browns, Seely spent 10 seasons as the New England Patriots special teams coach (1999-08), where he was part of three Super Bowl championships. Over the span of his tenure in New England, the Patriots led the NFL in kickoff return average (23.5), were fourth in field goal percentage (83.4%) and ranked eighth in punt return average (9.9). In addition, his units registered 11 returns for touchdowns, including eight on kick-offs, a figure that tied for second in the NFL over that 10-year stretch. Seely also helped produced a total of 3 special teams Pro Bowlers (K Adam Vinatieri - 2004, LB Larry Izzo - 2004 and K Stephen Gostkowski - 2008). He also tutored the AFC's leading kickoff returner on two occasions (WR Bethel Johnson - 2003 and RB Kevin Faulk - 2002) and leading punt returner (WR Troy Brown - 2002).

Seely worked with the Carolina Panthers from 1995-98, where he helped coach an expansion team to an NFC Championship Game appearance in just its second season. In 1996 and 1997, Panthers kickoff returner Michael Bates became the first player in 35 years to lead the league in kick return average in consecutive seasons, earning two consecutive trips to the Pro Bowl for his efforts. In 1996, Seely earned Special Teams Coach of the Year honors. He also had the league's best kicker, as John Kasay set a then NFL single-season record with 37 field goals. In addition to the success of Bates and Kasay, Carolina also boasted one of the league's top coverage units as the Panthers led the NFL in opponents average punt return (5.4 avg.) and ranked fifth in opponents average kickoff return (20.1 avg.).

Seely began his NFL career in 1989 with the Indianapolis Colts, serving as their special teams/tight ends coach for five years (1989-93). During his time with the Colts, he assisted in the development of two Pro Bowl special teamers, P Rohn Stark and WR Clarence Verdin. In 1992, the Colts had the NFL's top special teams unit based on rankings by the Dallas Morning News. Seely then coached the Jets' special teams for one year (1994), and in that season, New York ranked fifth in the league in kickoff return defense (19.6 avg.) and sixth in punt return defense (6.8 avg.).

Seely's collegiate coaching career began as an assistant coach at South Dakota State in 1978. He then moved on to become a graduate assistant at Colorado State in 1979, before being named the Rams offensive line coach in 1980. Seely then served as the offensive line coach at Southern Methodist (1981), North Carolina State (1982), University of Pacific (1983) and Oklahoma State (1984-88).

A native of Vinton, IA, Seely earned all-conference honors as an offensive guard at South Dakota State University while majoring in economics and physical education. He and his wife, Patti, have three daughters, Sarah, Hannah and Brynn.

VIC FANGIO

DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR

27TH NFL SEASON // 3RD WITH 49ERS

With a plethora of NFL coaching experience, Vic Fangio is in his third season as defensive coordinator of the San Francisco 49ers.

In 2012, Fangio led a 49ers defensive unit that ranked second in the NFL in both points allowed (17.1 points per game) and first downs allowed (284), third in total defense (294.4 yards per game), tied for third in third down defense (33.0 pct.) and fourth in both rush defense (94.2 yards per game) and pass defense (200.2 yards per game). San Francisco was one of two teams in the NFL to rank in the top five in all six categories (Denver).

In Fangio's first two seasons in San Francisco, the 49ers are the only team to rank in the top five in the following seven categories: points allowed (15.7 points per game - 1st), rush defense (85.7 yards per game - 1st), yards allowed (301.3 yards per game - 2nd), first downs allowed (551 - 2nd), 20-plus yard plays allowed (99 - 2nd), takeaways (63 - 4th) and third down defense (34.1 pct. - 4th).

The 49ers defense boasted six AP All-Pro selections in 2012 (First-Team: LB NaVorro Bowman, S Dashon Goldson, LB Aldon Smith and LB Patrick Willis; Second-Team: LB Ahmad Brooks and DT Justin Smith) and six Pro Bowl honorees (Bowman, Goldson, Aldon Smith, Justin Smith, S Donte Whitner and Willis).

In 2011, the 49ers defensive unit ranked first in the NFL against the run (77.3 yards per game), tied for first with 38 takeaways and second in points allowed (14.3 points per game). The defense did not allow a rushing touchdown through the first 14 games of the season, setting a new NFL record. The unit allowed just three rushing touchdowns all season, which is the lowest total allowed since the NFL went to a 16-game schedule in 1978. The 49ers defense also led the NFC in points allowed (14.3), yards allowed per game (325.9), opposing quarterback rating (73.6), first downs allowed (267) and ranked second in red zone defense (41.2 pct.).

Under Fangio's direction, the 49ers defense had four players named to the All-Pro team and four selected to the Pro Bowl. Justin Smith became the first player ever to be named First and Second-Team All-Pro at different positions in the same phase of the game (First-Team All-Pro at defensive tackle; Second-Team All-Pro at defensive end). Smith was also selected to his third consecutive Pro Bowl. CB Carlos Rogers, Whitner, Goldson, Ald. Smith, Bowman and Willis joined Justin Smith on the NFC Pro Bowl squad.

Fangio enters his 27th season coaching in the NFL, which includes 14 years of experience as a defensive coordinator for four NFL teams - Carolina (1995-98), Indianapolis Colts (1999-2001), Houston Texans (2002-05) and San Francisco (2011-12). As a defensive coordinator, prior to his stint with San Francisco, Fangio has directed defensive units that have led the NFL or ranked among the top three teams in seven or more major statistical categories.

Fangio was the defensive coordinator for Stanford in 2010, where he led one of the nation's top defenses. He was unanimously selected as college football's Defensive Coordinator of the Year by three different media entities.

The Cardinal defense made significant strides under Fangio's guidance, improving from a 90th ranked unit nationally in 2009 to a defense that ranked in the top-25 nationally in six major defensive categories in 2010. Stanford finished the year ranked 10th in scoring defense (17.4 points/game), 11th in sacks (36), 16th in passing defensive efficiency (112.79), 19th in rushing defense (120.8 yards/game), t-19th in interceptions (18) and 21st in total defense (322.8 yards/game). Within the Pac-10 Conference, the Cardinal improved from 8th to 1st in both scoring defense and sacks, while moving from 9th to 2nd in takeaways and yards allowed. In addition, Stanford posted three Pac-10 shutouts on the year; marking the first time ever the Cardinal had held opponents scoreless in three contests in a single season.

Prior to joining Stanford, Fangio served on the Baltimore Ravens coaching staff from 2006-09 as a special assistant to the head coach and linebackers coach. In his four seasons with Baltimore, the Ravens led the NFL in total defense in 2006, ranked second in 2008 and third in 2009.

Fangio spent the previous four seasons as the defensive coordinator of the Houston Texans (2002-05). His 2002 defense ranked eighth in the AFC overall and fourth in the conference in pass defense. The Texans scored three defensive touchdowns against the Pittsburgh Steelers at Heinz Field in Week 14 en route to a 24-6 victory.

In 2004, the Texans set a team record and ranked fifth in the NFL with 22 interceptions, five of which were returned for touchdowns. Houston did not allow a touchdown for 13 straight quarters from Week 13 to 16, posting the longest stretch by any team in the league that season.

Fangio served as the defensive coordinator of the Indianapolis Colts from 1999-2001. The Colts posted a 13-3 record in Fangio's first season after going just 6-26 the previous two years. Indianapolis won its first division title in 15 years, while the Colts defense improved from last to 15th under his guidance. The 2000 Colt defense tallied 42 sacks and made strides in all other statistical categories.

In 1995, Fangio was named defensive coordinator of the expansion Carolina Panthers. The Panthers tied for seventh in total defense and ranked sixth in scoring defense, 10th in rushing defense, fifth in takeaways and second in defensive passer rating in its inaugural season.

In 1996, the Panthers won the NFC West title and reached the NFC Championship game in just their second year of existence. The Panther defense allowed just 218 points on the year, ranking second in the NFL. Carolina also yielded just five touchdowns and 56 points in the second half of games for the entire season, breaking an NFL record set by the 1985 Chicago Bears that still stands today. The Panthers defense also led the NFL in sacks and 3rd down defense. Fangio's defense featured three All-Pro linebackers in Lamar Lathon, Sam Mills and Kevin Greene.

Fangio spent nine seasons as the linebackers coach of the New Orleans Saints, starting in 1986. In his second year, the Saints advanced to the playoffs for the first time in franchise history and came back the following year to finish with a 10-6 record. Fangio coached the vaunted "Dome Patrol," which included All-Pro linebackers Rickey Jackson, Pat Swilling, Sam Mills and Vaughan Johnson. The group was the only linebacking unit from one team voted to the Pro Bowl on the first ballot. That group was later voted the best linebacking unit in NFL history by NFL Network.

After attending East Stroudsburg University, Fangio began his coaching career in 1979 as the linebackers coach at his alma mater, Dunmore (PA) High School, and was later promoted to defensive coordinator in 1980. He spent 1982 as the defensive coordinator at Milford (CT.) Academy before landing his first collegiate coaching position at the University of North Carolina, where he served as a graduate assistant in 1983.

Following a one-year stay in Chapel Hill, Fangio spent the 1984 and 1985 seasons as a defensive assistant with the Philadelphia/Baltimore Stars of the USFL, helping the team to back-to-back league titles.

Fangio was inducted into the Northeast Pennsylvania Hall of Fame in 1993. Vic has a son, Christian, and a daughter, Cassie.

GREG ROMAN

OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR

16TH NFL SEASON // 3RD WITH 49ERS

Greg Roman is in his third year with the 49ers as the team's offensive coordinator.

The 2012 season displayed Roman's expertise and vast knowledge in various offensive systems as QB Colin Kaepernick transitioned into the starting role midway through the season. Roman added new wrinkles to the offense to capitalize on Kaepernick's multitude of talents, taking the league by storm en route to the team's first Super Bowl appearance since 1994. The offense ranked in the top half of the league in multiple offensive categories for the second consecutive season under Roman, including 4th in rushing yards per game (155.7), 10th in time of possession (30:49), 11th in total yards per game (377.6) and 11th in points per game (24.8). Including the postseason, the 49ers broke an NFL record by recording 100 rushes of 10+ yards, setting a new mark since the stat began being tracked in 1991.

As the 49ers captured their second consecutive NFC West title, the offense continued to display historical performances under Roman. Against the Buffalo Bills on October 7, 2012, the offense set the all-time franchise record with 621 total yards and became the only team in NFL history to rush for 300+ yards and pass for 300+ yards in the same game. In the NFC Divisional matchup vs. Green Bay, the 49ers set the franchise record for total yards in a playoff game with 579 yards. The 49ers sent three offensive players to the Pro Bowl – RB Frank Gore, LG Mike Lupati and LT Joe Staley, with Staley and Lupati also earning All-Pro honors.

Under Roman's direction in 2011, the 49ers notched a 13-3 record as the offense ranked in the NFL's top 10 in points per game (23.8 - tied for 10th), rushing yards per game (127.8 - 8th) and time of possession (32:04 - 4th). Additionally, the offense committed just 10 turnovers (5 fumbles, 5 interceptions), which ranks tied for first in NFL history for the fewest turnovers in a season, also setting a franchise record.

In Roman's first year with the 49ers, Gore was named to his third career Pro Bowl and surpassed Hall of Famer Joe "The Jet" Perry as the franchise's all-time leading rusher. QB Alex Smith flourished in Roman's system, setting career highs in completions (273), passing yards (3,144) and quarterback rating (90.7). Smith also set the franchise record for fewest interceptions thrown in a season (5).

TE Vernon Davis grew in the offense throughout the season. He took his game to the next level in the playoffs, registering 10 receptions for 292 yards and four touchdowns in two games. Davis became just the fifth player in the Super Bowl era to register at least two receiving touchdowns in consecutive postseason games in the same season. Staley also flourished under Roman, as he was named Second-Team All-Pro and was selected as a starter in his first career Pro Bowl.

In what marks his 16th season coaching in the NFL, Roman has been a member of the coaching staffs of the Carolina Panthers (1995-2001), Houston Texans (2002-03) and Baltimore Ravens (2006-07). He also spent two seasons (2009-10) on Jim Harbaugh's coaching staff at Stanford.

Roman joined the Cardinal in 2009 as the running game coordinator, with position responsibilities of tight ends and offensive tackles. In 2010, he kept those responsibilities, but also added the duties of associate coach and assistant head coach of the offense.

During his time at Stanford, the Cardinal posted a 20-6 record, which was the best over a two-year span in the University's history. He mentored two Heisman runner-up candidates in QB Andrew Luck (2010) and RB Toby Gerhart (2009). Over those two seasons, the Cardinal allowed a total of 13 sacks on offense, which marked the fewest over that time span in the nation. Stanford allowed just seven sacks in 2009 and six sacks in 2010, ranking 2nd in the nation both years.

Roman oversaw a Cardinal offense in 2010 that ranked 9th nationally in points scored (40.3 points/game), 14th in total yards per game (472.5), 17th in rushing yards per game (213.8) and 1st in time of possession (34:34). Under his guidance, Stanford offense produced a school-record 524 points. Roman mentored a tight end trio of Coby Fleener, Konrad Reuland and Zach Ertz, who combined for a total of 833 receiving yards on 65 catches with 13 touchdowns.

A year prior, Roman's sophisticated blocking schemes and knowledge of the running game were major factors in the Cardinal amassing a single-season school record of 2,837 yards on the ground in 2009. At season's end, all five members of the offensive line garnered postseason honors, while Stanford's tight ends combined to catch 38 passes for 557 yards and four touchdowns.

Prior to arriving at Stanford, Roman served as the assistant offensive line coach for a Baltimore Ravens team that captured the 2006 AFC North Division title with a regular season mark of 13-3. He helped the Ravens improve to 17th in the NFL in total offense and 2nd in fewest sacks allowed with 17, setting a franchise record. Baltimore also led the NFL in time of possession and set team records for completion percentage (62.6%), third down conversions (96), fourth-down percentage (72.7%) and fewest turnovers (23). The offensive line helped quarterback Steve McNair set a team record for pass completion percentage (63.0%) and most passes without an interception (162). In addition, left tackle Jonathan Ogden was voted to his 10th-straight Pro Bowl.

Prior to joining the staff in Baltimore, Roman enjoyed a four-year coaching stint with the Houston Texans, serving as the team's tight ends (2002-03) and quarterbacks coach (2004-05). As tight ends coach, Roman tutored Billy Miller, who led the Texans with 91 receptions over two seasons. He also guided former 2002 NFL first round draft pick David Carr, who had his best season under Roman in 2004 when he passed for 3,531 yards and an 83.1 quarterback rating.

Roman launched his coaching career with the Carolina Panthers in 1995, the team's inaugural season in the NFL, when he was named the strength and conditioning assistant/defensive quality control coach, while also working with the defensive backs and the linebackers. In 1996, the Panthers set a NFL record for most wins by an expansion team, as Carolina won the NFC West crown and advanced to the NFC Championship game. He then moved to the offensive side of the ball as Carolina's offensive quality control coach for two seasons (1997-98) before assuming the role of offensive assistant for the 1999 and 2000 campaigns. As the team's offensive assistant, he worked with both the run-and-pass game strategy and implementation, helping the Panthers finish 2nd in the NFL in passing offense and 5th in yards per rush.

Roman worked as the team's assistant offensive line coach in his final season with the Panthers in 2001.

A three-year letter-winner and two-year starting defensive lineman at John Carroll University from 1990-93, Roman earned All-Ohio Conference honorable mention honors following his senior season. He also helped the Blue Streaks capture a share of the OAC championship.

During his junior year at John Carroll, Roman participated in Project H.O.P.E. (Helping Others Through Physical Education) which aids the developmentally disabled in northeast Ohio.

A native of Ventnor, N.J. and a graduate of Holy Spirit High School, Greg and his wife, Dana, have three children, Connor, Gregory and Emily Grace.

GEEP CHRYST

QUARTERBACKS

21ST NFL SEASON // 3RD WITH 49ERS

Geep Chryst is in his third season with the 49ers as the team's quarterbacks coach.

Chryst has played a significant role in the development of QBs Colin Kaepernick and Alex Smith over the past two seasons. In Week 11 of the 2012, Kaepernick took over the reins of the offense from Smith and helped propel the 49ers offense to Super Bowl XLVII, adding a fresh, explosive element to the unit. Chryst's QB duo of Kaepernick and Smith, tied for the fewest interceptions in the NFL (8), ranked 4th in QB rating (101.2), and 4th in completion percentage (66.3).

In 2011, Chryst helped guide Smith to his best NFL season, setting career highs in passing yards (3,144), completions (273), and passer rating (90.7). He also set the franchise record for fewest interceptions thrown in a single-season with just five. Smith's five interceptions are tied for third in NFL history (min. 400 atts.) and his interception percentage of 1.1 also ranks third in NFL history (min. 400 atts.). Most importantly, he posted a 14-4 overall record as the starter, in 2011.

With over 20 years of coaching experience, including 19 years in the NFL, Chryst most recently served as the tight ends/offensive quality control coach for the Carolina Panthers (2006-10). In 2009, Chryst was part of an offensive coaching staff that helped the Panthers become the first team in the history of the NFL to garner two running backs with more than 1,100 yards rushing in the same season. His tight end unit also posted the most productive receiving season for Panthers tight ends in a decade that year.

Before joining Carolina in 2006, Chryst served as the Arizona Cardinals quarterbacks coach (2001-03) and San Diego Chargers offensive coordinator/quarterbacks coach (1999-2000). Chryst implemented the no-huddle offense in San Diego in 1999, which led to Harbaugh enjoying the second-highest passing output (2,761 passing yards) of his 15-year career. The Chargers also completed the most passes (332) in 13 years with Chryst directing the offense and Harbaugh became the first quarterback in team history since Hall of Famer Dan Fouts to pass for 400 yards in a game, that year.

Chryst spent three seasons with the Cardinals, serving as the team's tight ends coach from 1996-97 before becoming the quarterbacks coach in 1998. He began his NFL coaching career with the Chicago Bears in 1991 as the director of research/quality control, a position he held until 1995. In the spring of 1992, Chryst, after being out of uniform for eight years, took a 15-day hiatus from the Bears to long snap in three playoff games for the short-handed Orlando Thunder of the World League. Interestingly, he had made his professional coaching debut with the Thunder in 1991, serving as the wide receivers/running backs coach.

Chryst began his coaching career at University of Wisconsin-Platteville in 1987 before moving over to the University of Wisconsin-Madison in 1988. Chryst then spent two years at the University of Wyoming, serving as the offensive line coach in 1989 and the quarterbacks coach in 1990.

A three-year starter at linebacker for Princeton University, Chryst also played baseball for two seasons for the Tigers. He earned a bachelor's degree in history from Princeton as well as a master's degree in educational administration from the University of Wisconsin.

REGGIE DAVIS

TIGHT ENDS

3RD NFL SEASON // 3RD WITH 49ERS

A former NFL tight end, Reggie Davis is in his third season as tight ends coach for the 49ers.

Davis continued to get the most out of his tight ends during the 2012 season in all phases of the game. TE Vernon Davis ranked 3rd in the NFL averaging 13.2 yards per reception during the regular season, and continued his dominance in the postseason by tying the Super Bowl record for receiving yards by a tight end (104 yards). Davis also registered his 4th-career 100-yard receiving game in the postseason, which is tied for first in NFL history among tight ends.

ED DONATELL

SECONDARY

23RD NFL SEASON // 3RD WITH 49ERS

Ed Donatell is in his third season with the 49ers as the team's secondary coach.

Working with assistant secondary coach Greg Jackson, Donatell helped guide the 49ers to the best pass defense in the NFC and the fourth-best in the NFL, in 2012, allowing just 200.2 yards per game. That total is the lowest given up by the 49ers since 1997 (165.4 yards per game). The 49ers secondary also boasted two Pro Bowl selections (S Donte Whitner and S Dashon Goldson) and a First-Team All-Pro (Goldson).

In 2011, the 49ers secondary tallied 22 interceptions, which ranked second among all NFL secondaries. Goldson and CB Carlos Rogers each recorded a career-high six interceptions, and were both selected to the Pro Bowl for the first time in their careers. Rogers was named a starter in Hawaii, while also being selected Second-Team All-Pro. The defense finished the season ranked fourth in the NFL in percentage of pass attempts intercepted (3.9).

With over three decades of coaching experience, including 22 years in the NFL, Donatell has worked with several of the most highly regarded defensive backs in pro football history, including Ronnie Lott, Steve Atwater, LeRoy Butler, Darren Sharper, Ty Law, Lawyer Milloy, Champ Bailey and Brian Dawkins.

Donatell most recently served as the secondary coach with the Denver Broncos from 2009-10. Over the course of two seasons with the Broncos, the team ranked seventh in the NFL in opponent completion percentage (58.8) and ninth in passing yards per game (223.7).

Prior to working as the defensive coordinator for the University of Washington in 2008 and a special assistant for the New York Jets in 2007, Donatell served as the defensive coordinator for the Atlanta Falcons from 2004-06.

In his first season with Atlanta in 2004, the Falcons advanced to the NFC Championship Game and led the NFL in sacks (48) for the first time in club history. During his final year as the Falcons defensive coordinator in 2006, the club led the NFL in third-down percentage (30.2), while ranking sixth in the league in yards per carry allowed (3.8).

Donatell spent four seasons as Green Bay's defensive coordinator (2000-03), helping the Packers lead the NFL with 116 takeaways from 2001 to 2003. Green Bay advanced to the playoffs during each of those three seasons, including the 2001 and 2002 campaigns when they won the NFC North title. In 2002, Donatell's defense set a Green Bay record with 52 sacks and led the NFL with 45 takeaways. That year, Sharper earned his second Pro Bowl selection under Donatell after tying for the NFC lead among safeties with seven interceptions.

In Donatell's first stint with the Broncos (1995-99) he served as the team's secondary coach and won back-to-back Super Bowls in 1998 and 1999. The Broncos ranked seventh in the league in both passing yards per game (199.6) and passing yards per attempt allowed (6.5), en route to earning three playoff berths under Donatell. The Broncos also ranked in the top 10 against the pass in four of Donatell's five seasons as defensive backs coach.

Donatell made his NFL coaching debut as the secondary coach with the New York Jets from 1990-94, where he worked with Lott in the final two seasons of his career.

Prior to making the jump to the NFL, Donatell spent 11 seasons in the collegiate ranks. He served as the defensive backs coach at Cal State Fullerton (1989), the University of Idaho (1986-88) and the University of Pacific (1983-85). He also was a graduate assistant at the University of Washington (1981-82) and Kent State (1979-80).

TIM DREVNO

OFFENSIVE LINE

3RD NFL SEASON // 3RD WITH 49ERS

With an extensive collegiate coaching background that spans two decades, Tim Drevno is in his third NFL season as the 49ers offensive line coach. In his role, he works alongside fellow offensive line coach, Mike Solari.

In 2012, Drevno and Solari directed an offensive line that many regarded as the best in the NFL. The O-line was named John Madden's most Valuable Protectors for the 2012 season, and the 49ers were one of just three teams to have the same starting five offensive line for every game. All five starting linemen were selected to the Pro Bowl (G Mike Iupati and T Joe Staley as starters; C Jonathan Goodwin, G Alex Boone and T Anthony Davis as alternates). Additionally, Iupati was selected First-Team All-Pro, while Staley was named to the Second-Team.

The 49ers offensive line helped pave the way for RB Frank Gore as he became the franchise's all-time leading rusher in 2011. Members of the offensive line were also honored as Staley was named Second-Team All-Pro and was selected to his first career Pro Bowl, while Iupati and Goodwin were selected as alternates.

Prior to joining the 49ers, Drevno served as a member of Jim Harbaugh's coaching staff at Stanford from 2007-10. Over the course of his final two seasons with the Cardinal, Drevno coached a Stanford offensive line that allowed just 13 sacks during that span, ranking 2nd in the nation in both 2009 (7) and 2010 (6). In addition, the Cardinal offensive line led the way for a ground game that set a school record with 2,837 rushing yards (11th nationally - 218.2 yards/game) in 2009, followed by 2,779 yards in 2010.

Drevno mentored center Chase Beeler, who earned first-team All-American AFCA, AP and Sporting News, and second-team Walter Camp All-America in 2010. A year prior, all five members of the offensive line garnered postseason honors following the 2009 season. Prior to taking over the Cardinal offensive line in 2009, Drevno served as tight ends coach from 2007-08.

Prior to his arrival at Stanford, Drevno was the offensive coordinator and offensive line coach at the University of San Diego (2003-06). The Toreros won back-to-back NCAA Division I-AA Mid-Major national titles and Pioneer League championships in 2005 and 2006. Under his direction as offensive coordinator, the Toreros led the nation in total offense twice, finished 3rd once and 9th on the other occasion.

The 2006 San Diego squad that finished 11-1 overall led all NCAA Division I-AA teams in passing offense (293.3 yards/game), total offense (494.25 yards/game) and scoring offense (42.83 points/game). Quarterback Josh Johnson was one of four offensive All-Americans on the team and led all NCAA Division I-AA quarterbacks in passing yards (3,320), passing efficiency (169.0), touchdown passes (34), and total offense (336.7 ypg). He also posted 721 yards and 11 touchdowns rushing and one touchdown receiving. Johnson went on to be selected by the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in the fifth round of the NFL draft in 2008.

San Diego set numerous offensive school records in 2005, including points per game (42.6) and total offense (485.2 yards/game). In 2004, the Torero offense averaged 432.4 yards of total offense per game to rank 9th in the nation. The Toreros were also 11th in scoring offense (36.1 points/game) and 12th in passing offense (275.4 yards/game). Drevno directed USD's West Coast offense to 483.3 yards per game to lead the nation and a Pioneer Football League best 39.9 points per game in 2003, when the squad finished 8-2 and was co-champs of the Pioneer Football League's North Division.

Drevno was the offensive line coach at Idaho for three seasons (2000-02) prior to joining the USD staff. The Vandal offense ranked 6th in the nation in 2001 and 8th in 2000. He coached three NFL players while at Idaho, including Jake Scott, Rick Demulling and Patrick Venzke.

Prior to his tenure at Idaho, Drevno's previous coaching stops included San Jose State (offensive line - 1999), UNLV (running backs - 1998) and Montana State (tight ends - 1993-95; running backs 1996-97).

Drevno began his collegiate playing career at El Camino College, where he helped lead his club to a national title in 1987 and earned All-Mission League honors the following season. He then went on to start on the Cal State Fullerton offensive line for two seasons. Drevno was an all-league player at South Torrance High School.

Drevno earned his bachelor's degree in criminal justice from Cal State-Fullerton in 1992. Tim and his wife Shannon are the parents of three children, McKenna, Zachary and Baylee.

GREG JACKSON

ASSISTANT SECONDARY

3RD NFL SEASON // 3RD WITH 49ERS

Greg Jackson is in his third season as secondary coach for the 49ers.

Working alongside secondary coach Ed Donatell, Jackson helped guide the 49ers to the best pass defense in the NFC and the fourth-best in the NFL, in 2012, allowing just 200.2 yards per game. That total is the lowest given up by the 49ers since 1997 (165.4 yards per game). The 49ers secondary also boasted two Pro Bowl selections (S Donte Whitner and S Dashon Goldson) and a First-Team All-Pro (Goldson).

In 2011, the 49ers secondary tallied 22 interceptions, which ranked second among all NFL secondaries. Goldson and CB Carlos Rogers each recorded a career-high six interceptions, and were both selected to the Pro Bowl for the first time in their careers. Rogers was named a starter in Hawaii, while also being selected Second-Team All-Pro. The defense finished the season ranked fourth in the NFL in percentage of pass attempts intercepted (3.9).

Jackson joined San Francisco after having spent eight years coaching in the collegiate ranks. In 2010, he was the nickel back/assistant linebackers coach for a University of Wisconsin team that finished the year ranked seventh in the nation with an 11-2 record.

Prior to joining the Badgers, Jackson coached at Tulane University, serving as the linebackers/kickoff team coach (2009), the safeties/kickoff team coach (2008) and the defensive backs coach (2007). Jackson spent three seasons as the defensive backs coach at Louisiana-Monroe (2004-06), where he coached All-Sun Belt Conference defensive back Chris Harris, who led the country with seven interceptions, in 2004. He also spent one year as the defensive backs coach for the University of Idaho (2003).

Jackson enjoyed a 12-year career as a NFL safety. He originally entered the league as a third-round draft choice of the New York Giants in 1989, with whom he played until 1993. Jackson then went on to play for the Philadelphia Eagles (1994-95), New Orleans Saints (1996) and San Diego Chargers (1997-2000). He was a teammate of 49ers head coach Jim Harbaugh during his final two years with the Chargers. In his career, Jackson played in 168 games (129 starts) and registered 32 interceptions.

Jackson enjoyed a productive collegiate career at LSU from 1985-88, helping the Tigers to a combined 36-10-2 record over that span. LSU won the Southeastern Conference championships in 1986 and 1988, and played in bowl game every year.

Jackson, a safety, was a first-team All-American in 1988, leading the nation with seven interceptions. His 219 interception return yards is the second-highest single-season total in SEC history.

A native of Miami, FL, Jackson earned a bachelor's degree in communications broadcasting from Fairleigh Dickinson University, in 2004.

Jackson and his wife, Dina, have two children, Greg Jr. and Jayden, while his oldest son, Jamal, is a football student-athlete at Appalachian State University.

JIM LEAVITT

LINEBACKERS

3RD NFL SEASON // 3RD WITH 49ERS

With over 30 years of coaching experience in the collegiate ranks, Jim Leavitt is now in his third season as the linebackers coach for the 49ers.

In 2012, Leavitt oversaw a linebacking corps that featured two, First-Team All-Pro middle linebackers in LB Patrick Willis and LB NaVorro Bowman. Both Willis (starter) and Bowman were also selected to the Pro Bowl. Bowman led the team with a career-high 183 tackles and Willis added 171 tackles.

In his first season in San Francisco, Leavitt's unit featured two, First-Team All-Pro selections in Willis and Bowman. Bowman, in his first year as a starter, led the team with 173 tackles, while adding two sacks and two fumble recoveries. Willis ranked second on the team with 121 tackles and set career-highs with four forced fumbles, two fumble recoveries and 12 passes defended. The 49ers also ranked first in the NFL in run defense, in 2011.

Prior to joining San Francisco, Leavitt was the head coach at the University of South Florida, a position he held since the program's inception in 1995. In 13 seasons, he led the Bulls to a 95-57 record.

The program began play in 1997 at the division I-AA level and immediate success propelled the Bulls to a national ranking for 24 consecutive weeks. In 2001, South Florida became a Division I-A independent before moving to Conference USA, in 2003. Leavitt's continued success helped South Florida move into the Big East prior to the 2005 season. That year, Leavitt led the Bulls to their first ever Bowl appearance.

Since becoming a member of the Big East Conference in 2005, Leavitt led the Bulls to a 40-24 record, including five consecutive Bowl appearances, posting a 3-2 record in those games. South Florida's ascension into the top 25 from entry into I-A/FCS was the fastest in NCAA history, surpassing Boise State's rise by a mere seven weeks. The Bulls achieved another record on September 30, 2007, when they became the fastest program of the modern era to reach the top 10, landing at No. 6 in the AP Poll and No. 9 in the Coaches' Poll. On October 14, 2007, South Florida received its first ever BCS ranking as the No. 2 team in the nation behind only the Ohio State Buckeyes. That week, the team was also ranked No. 2 in the AP Poll and No. 3 in both the Coaches' and the Harris Interactive Poll.

Prior to becoming the head coach at South Florida, Leavitt worked under legendary coach Bill Snyder at Kansas State from 1990-95. Leavitt served as the linebackers coach for two seasons before becoming the defensive coordinator. He was instrumental in building a Wildcat defense that improved from 93rd in the nation in 1993 to the number one ranked unit in 1995.

His coaching career began as a graduate assistant at the University of Missouri (1978-79). Leavitt followed that by serving as the defensive coordinator at the University of Dubuque (IA) from 1980-81. He then spent five seasons at Morning Side College (IA), working as the special teams coordinator for one year before being named the defensive coordinator in 1983.

In 1988, Leavitt turned his attention towards obtaining his PhD in psychology from the University of Iowa, an endeavor he had been pursuing sporadically since 1982. By 1989, Leavitt simply needed to complete his dissertation when Iowa head coach Hayden Fry offered him a graduate position. With the coaching bug in his blood, Leavitt jumped at the opportunity and was able to fast track his coaching career in I-A football. Following the '89 season, Leavitt was named to Bill Snyder's staff at Kansas State.

A native of Harlingen, TX, Leavitt is married to his wife, Jody, and the couple has two daughters, Sofia and Isabella. Leavitt also has another daughter, Deandra.

ERIC MANGINI

SENIOR OFFENSIVE CONSULTANT

17TH NFL SEASON // 1ST WITH 49ERS

Eric Mangini is in his first season with the 49ers after being named the team's senior offensive consultant on June 4, 2013.

Mangini brings with him a wealth of football coaching experience, including stints as a head coach with the Cleveland Browns (2009-10) and New York Jets (2006-08). In his 16 years as an NFL coach, he has been a part of six teams that qualified for the playoffs, including five division titles and three Lombardi trophies. Prior to joining the 49ers, Mangini worked as an NFL analyst at ESPN since 2011.

As a NFL rookie head coach with the New York Jets in 2006, Mangini took a team that went 4-12 the previous season and directed it to a 10-6 regular season record and a playoff appearance. He was later recognized as AFC Coach of the Year by the Kansas City Committee of 101. Eight different Jets earned Pro Bowl honors over the three years that Mangini was head coach. Of the eight, three were drafted in Mangini's first two seasons with the team (C Nick Mangold, CB Darrelle Revis and KR Leon Washington), while four others (DT Kris Jenkins, QB Brett Favre, RB Thomas Jones and G Alan Faneca) were acquired while he was the head coach.

Prior to being named head coach of the Jets, Mangini spent six seasons with the New England Patriots as their defensive backs coach (2000-04) and defensive coordinator (2005), where he was part of three Super Bowl Championships. In Mangini's five seasons in charge of the team's secondary, the unit earned five Pro Bowl selections and evolved into one of the NFL's most successful defensive backfields. The Patriots recorded 99 interceptions from 2000-04, the fifth-highest total in the NFL over that span. Their 14 interception returns for touchdowns in those five seasons tied with Tampa Bay for the most in the NFL.

Mangini served as a defensive assistant with the Jets from 1997-99, after spending 1996 as an offensive assistant with the Baltimore Ravens. He began his NFL coaching career with the Browns as a coaches' assistant in 1995, after serving as a ball boy and public relations intern with the team the previous year.

A native of Hartford, CT, Mangini played collegiately at Wesleyan University, and graduated with a degree in political science. A nose tackle on the football team, Mangini still holds school records for single-season (11.5) and career (36.5) sacks.

A true philanthropist, Mangini has had a hand in helping out his community everywhere he has coached. In 2002, he along with his brother, Kyle, founded the Carmine & Frank Mangini (CFM) Foundation to benefit under-resourced children. Funds from the foundation are put towards computer scholarships for students and mini grants for teachers and coaches to pursue projects that may be beyond their current budget.

During his time in New York, Mangini hosted the Charity Bowl at Chelsea Piers in New York City in May of 2007 and then again in 2008. The proceeds benefited non-profit organizations committed to providing athletic and academic opportunities to deserving children.

The Mangini's have also been involved with many other charitable endeavors, including the Big Brothers Big Sisters of Northeast Ohio and the Adopt-A Family Program through The Littlest Heroes.

He and his wife, Julie, have three sons, Jake, Luke and Zack.

JOHN MORTON

WIDE RECEIVERS

11TH NFL SEASON // 3RD WITH 49ERS

John Morton is in his third year with the 49ers as the team's wide receivers coach.

The wide receiving corps continued to take great stride in 2012 under the tutelage of Morton. WR Michael Crabtree became the first 49ers wide receiver to surpass the 1,000-yard mark since 2003, notching career highs in receptions (85), receiving yards (1,105) and touchdowns (9).

Under Morton's direction in 2011, Crabtree led the team with then career-highs in receptions (72) and receiving yards (874), while adding four touchdowns.

Morton spent the previous four years at the University of Southern California as the school's wide receivers coach. He also held the position of the Trojans passing game coordinator in 2007-08 and 2010, while serving as the school's offensive coordinator in 2009. Under Morton's tutelage, WR Damian Williams earned All-Pac-10 first team honors and, along with WR Patrick Turner, was a third round draft pick in the 2009 NFL Draft.

Prior to joining USC, Morton served at the passing game coordinator/offensive assistant with the New Orleans Saints in 2006, helping the Saints earn a berth in the NFC Championship game that season.

Morton worked under Jim Harbaugh at the University of San Diego as the passing game/wide receivers coach in 2005. That year, QB Josh Johnson set school records in completions (260), completion percentage (70.1) and passing yards (3,256), while WR Adam Hannula set a school record in 73 receptions.

From 1997-2004, Morton worked for the Oakland Raiders in several capacities and served alongside Harbaugh for two years (2002-03). He began in the Raiders personnel department and then worked as an offensive assistant, coaching the wide receivers for two years (1998-99). Morton then became the offensive quality control coach in 2000 and again worked with the wide receivers until 2001. He was then elevated to senior offensive assistant/wide receivers coach in 2002, where he coached Jerry Rice, who earned Pro Bowl honors, and Tim Brown, on a team that earned a trip to the Super Bowl. Morton was later named the team's tight ends coach in 2004.

Morton originally signed with Oakland as an undrafted rookie wide receiver in 1993, and spent part of the next two seasons (1993-94) on the Raiders practice squad. He also spent time with Green Bay in 1993 and was in training camp with the Jacksonville Jaguars in 1995. Morton returned to training camp with the Raiders again in 1996. He played for the CFL's Toronto Argonauts in 1995 and 1996, and later with the World League's Frankfurt Galaxy in the spring of 1997.

Morton played at Western Michigan for two seasons (1991-92), where he finished 10th on the school's all-time receiving list (78 receptions) and eighth in receiving yards (1,278), earning All-Mid-American Conference honors as a senior, in 1992. He later received a bachelor's degree in general studies from Western Michigan in 1997. Morton came to Western Michigan after two years (1989-90) at Grand Rapids (MI) Community College, where he received his associate's degree in 1990.

Morton and his wife, Shannon, have two daughters, Tierney Rose and Sage Marie.

TOM RATHMAN

RUNNING BACKS

16TH NFL SEASON // 11TH WITH 49ERS

Tom Rathman rejoined the 49ers as the team's running backs coach, in 2009, after serving the previous two seasons in the same capacity with the Oakland Raiders. It marks Rathman's second coaching stint in San Francisco, having also coached the running backs for the team from 1997 to 2002.

Under Rathman's tutelage, RB Frank Gore has solidified his reputation as one of the NFL's premier backs, after being selected to his fourth Pro Bowl, in 2012. Gore continued to move up in the franchise's records books by notching his 51st career rushing touchdown, passing Roger Craig (50) and Hall of Famer Joe Perry (50). Gore finished the season with 1,214 rushing yards to rank 5th in the NFC and 10th in the NFL, also marking the sixth time he has eclipsed the 1,000-yard mark. The team finished the year ranked 4th in the NFL with 2,491 rushing yards (155.7) behind Gore, FB Bruce Miller and the league's best offensive line.

In 2011, Gore was selected to his third career Pro Bowl as he became the franchise's all-time leading rusher, again surpassing Hall of Famer Joe "The Jet" Perry. Gore also became the first player in franchise history to rush for over 100 yards in five consecutive games. Rathman also played a key role in developing starting FB Bruce Miller as he made the transition to the offensive side of the ball after starring at defensive end in college. The offense finished the season with the league's eighth-best run game.

Gore was having one of the best seasons of his career in 2010 before being placed on Injured Reserve with a hip injury. Despite playing in only 11 games, he earned Pro Bowl recognition as an alternate at season's end. At the time of his injury, Gore ranked fifth in the NFC in rushing yards (853) and second in yards from scrimmage (1,305).

A year prior, Gore became the first player in 49ers history to rush for more than 1,000 yards in four seasons (2006-09), as the fifth year veteran posted 1,120 rushing yards and a career-high 10 rushing touchdowns on the season, despite missing two games due to injury. For his efforts, Gore was named an alternate for the 2010 Pro Bowl, and eventually played in the honorary game. He also was twice named NFC Offensive Player of the Week (2 & 14).

While with the Raiders, Rathman oversaw a rushing attack that ranked 10th (124.2 ypg) in the NFL in 2008 after ranking 6th (130.4 ypg) a year prior. Rathman played an instrumental role in developing RB Justin Fargas, who rushed for 1,009 yards in 2007 and 853 yards in 2008.

Prior to joining the Raiders, Rathman served as the running backs coach for the Detroit Lions from 2003 to 2005. In 2004, Rathman tutored RB Kevin Jones, who rushed for 1,133 yards, including an NFL-leading 825 yards on 153 attempts (5.4 avg.) over the final seven games of the season. Jones' performance in his first NFL season was tops among rookies in the NFL that year and the best rookie season by a Lions running back since RB Barry Sanders in 1989.

During Rathman's first coaching stint with the 49ers, San Francisco's rushing attack finished in the top 10 among NFL teams in five of the six seasons under his guidance, including top-ranked seasons in 1998 (159.0 ypg) and 1999 (130.9 ypg), to go along with a 2nd ranked unit in 2001 (140.3).

In 2001, Rathman was instrumental in guiding RB Garrison Hearst, the two-time NFL Comeback Player of the Year, to his second career Pro Bowl selection. He coached RB Charlie Garner to his second consecutive 1,000-yard season and his first career Pro Bowl selection in 2000 after gaining 1,142 yards on 258 carries and a career-high seven touchdowns. Garner also eclipsed his career-highs with 68 receptions for 647 yards and three touchdowns.

Prior to his coaching career, Rathman enjoyed an NFL playing career of his own that spanned nine seasons (1986-94) as a full-back. He entered the league as a third round pick by San Francisco, where he spent the first eight years of his career helping the 49ers capture two World Championships (Super Bowl XXIII and XXIV) and seven NFC West titles. In 1989, he led all NFL running backs in receiving with 73 receptions for 616 yards. Rathman played his final season in the NFL with the Los Angeles Raiders in 1994, closing out his NFL career with 2,020 rushing yards, 320 receptions for 2,684 yards and 34 total touchdowns.

In between his playing and coaching career in the NFL, the Grand Island, Nebraska native helped rebuild the Menlo College (CA) program by serving as the team's offensive coordinator in 1996 after serving as the running backs coach at Serra High School in San Mateo (CA) in 1995.

A three-year letterman at Nebraska, Rathman rushed for 1,425 yards and averaged more than six yards per carry.

Rathman and his wife, Holly, have three daughters: Nicole, Alexandra, and Samantha.

MIKE SOLARI

OFFENSIVE LINE

27TH NFL SEASON // 9TH WITH 49ERS

Mike Solari rejoined the 49ers in 2010 as the team's offensive line coach after having previously served as the tight ends/assistant offensive line coach for San Francisco from 1992-96 under legendary coach

In 2012, Drevno and Solari directed an offensive line that many regarded as the best in the NFL. The O-line was named John Madden's most Valuable Protectors for the 2012 season, and the 49ers were one of just three teams to have the same starting five offensive line for every game. All five starting linemen were selected to the Pro Bowl (G Mike Iupati and T Joe Staley as starters; C Jonathan Goodwin, G Alex Boone and T Anthony Davis as alternates). Additionally, Iupati was selected First-Team All-Pro, while Staley was named to the Second-Team.

The 49ers offensive line helped pave the way for RB Frank Gore as he became the franchise's all-time leading rusher in 2011. Gore, who was also selected to the Pro Bowl, set the franchise record rushing for over 100 yards in five consecutive games. He finished the season ranked sixth in the NFL with 1,211 rushing yards in 2011. The offense finished the season with the league's eighth-best run game. Members of the offensive line were also honored as Staley was named Second-Team All-Pro and was selected to his first career Pro Bowl, while Iupati and Goodwin were selected as alternates.

In 2010, Solari relied on his extensive experience as he helped shuffle an offensive line that was plagued by injury, while also integrating first round draft picks T Anthony Davis and G Mike Iupati into the starting lineup. After a season-ending injury to starting center Eric Heitmann in training camp, Solari was able to quickly find a replacement in David Baas, who hadn't started a game at center since college. Baas went on to start all 16 games for the 49ers and earned the coveted Bobb McKittrick Award as voted upon by his teammates.

Prior to joining the 49ers, Solari spent two seasons (2008-09) as the offensive line coach for the Seattle Seahawks. Under his direction, tackle Walter Jones was selected to the Pro Bowl in 2008.

Following his initial stint with the 49ers, Solari spent nine seasons as the offensive line coach for Kansas City (1997-2005). With Solari directing the Kansas City offensive line, the team averaged 126.8 rushing yards per game, ranking fourth in the NFL during that time span.

Solari's line produced a trio of Pro Bowl offensive linemen in 2004 and 2005, in guards Will Shields and Brian Waters, as well as tackle Willie Roaf. Kansas City became the first club to accomplish that feat since Dallas from 1993-96. As a result of his offensive line's dominance, the Chiefs offense led the league in total offense in 2004 (franchise-record 418.4 ypg) and 2005 (387.0 ypg).

The Daly City, CA, native was later promoted by the Chiefs to offensive coordinator in 2006. During his 11-year tenure in Kansas City, the team finished in the top 10 in rushing on seven occasions, in the top five four times, and ranked 6th in the NFL in total offense (359.2 yards per game) over that span. Solari was one of just six assistant coaches in team history to record more than a decade of service with the franchise.

While with the 49ers from 1992 to 1996, Solari was largely responsible for the development of tight end Brent Jones, who made four Pro Bowl appearances, and was instrumental in the team's successful Super Bowl XXIX season.

Solari began his NFL coaching career with the Dallas Cowboys in 1987, where he was the assistant offensive line/special teams coach for two seasons. He moved on to the Phoenix Cardinals to work with Gene Stallings for one season, before joining him at the University of Alabama (1990-91).

In 1976, Solari's coaching career began at Mission Bay (CA) High School, followed by stints at Mira Costa Junior College (1978) and U.S. International (1979). The following year, he helped lead Boise State to the NCAA Division I-AA Championship. He spent additional time on the collegiate level at Cincinnati (1981-82) and Kansas (1983-85), and later served as the offensive coordinator at the University of Pittsburgh (1986).

A former offensive lineman at San Diego State, Solari was a teammate of former Chiefs head coach and current ESPN analyst Herm Edwards, as well as Carolina Panthers head coach John Fox.

Solari is married to wife, Patti, and the couple has three children, Tamara, Stephanie and Michael.

JIM TOMSULA

DEFENSIVE LINE

7TH NFL SEASON // 7TH WITH 49ERS

Jim Tomsula is in his seventh season with the 49ers as the team's defensive line coach, after having also served as San Francisco's interim head coach for the final game of the 2010 season.

Since Tomsula's arrival, the 49ers run defense and pass rush have evolved into one of the most feared in the NFL. During his six seasons with the team, the defense has allowed a mere 3.65 yards per carry, to rank second in the NFL during that span. In terms of yards per carry allowed, San Francisco's defense ranked 5th (3.8) in 2007, 8th (3.8) in 2008, 3rd (3.6) in 2009, 2nd (3.5) in 2010, 1st (3.5) in 2011 and 3rd in 2012 (3.7), a notable improvement from ranking 16th (4.1) in 2006 prior to Tomsula's arrival.

In 2012, Tomsula led a defensive line that was anchored by DT Justin Smith. Smith was named to his fourth consecutive Pro Bowl as a starter, in 2012, and was named Second-Team All-Pro at both defensive tackle and defensive end. In 2011, Smith became the first player ever named First and Second-Team All-Pro at different positions in the same phase of the game, earning First-Team All-Pro at defensive tackle and Second-Team All-Pro at defensive end.

The 49ers set the NFL record, in 2011, by not allowing a rushing touchdown in their first 14 games of the season. The team only allowed three rushing touchdowns all year, the fewest allowed in the NFL since the league went to a 16 game schedule in 1978. The 49ers finished the season ranked first in the NFL against the run (77.3 yards per game), first in yard per carry allowed (3.5) and fourth overall, allowing just 308.2 yards of offense per game. The unit also finished second in the league in points allowed per game (14.3 and tied for seventh in sacks (42).

In 2010, the 49ers ranked 6th in the NFL in run defense, allowing just 1,547 rushing yards (96.7 ypg), marking the lowest rushing total allowed by the team since 1997 (1,366 yards). DT Justin Smith was named to the Pro Bowl for the second consecutive year after recording 8.5 sacks, the most since his rookie season.

A year prior, the 49ers ranked 6th (97.0 ypg) in the NFL against the run, as Smith finished the year among the team leaders in tackles (90), while also posting 6.0 sacks, 2 FFs and 2 FRs. For his efforts, he appeared in the 2010 Pro Bowl as an alternate.

Also charged with the development of the team's pass rush, Tomsula has helped the 49ers increase their sack totals from 65 over his first two seasons to 80 the past two years. After ranking tied for 3rd in 2009 with 44 sacks, the 49ers posted 36 in 2010 for a two-year total that ranked 7th in the NFL over that span.

The epitome of a journeyman, Tomsula has coached 28 seasons of football at the high school, college and professional levels since the Fall of 1989. During that span he spent one entire year out of football (1996) and has held a multitude of coaching titles including - head coach, assistant head coach, defensive coordinator, special teams coach, linebackers coach, defensive line coach and strength and conditioning coach.

Tomsula joined the 49ers after enjoying one of the most successful stints in NFL Europa history. Prior to being named the head coach of the Rhein Fire in 2006, which made him the youngest coach in NFL history at age 38, Tomsula served as the Berlin Thunder's defensive coordinator for two seasons, winning World Bowl XII in his first season with a defense that ranked first in the NFL against the run.

Tomsula joined the NFL in 1998 as the defensive line coach of the England Monarchs. He then went on to serve in the same capacity for five seasons with the Scottish Claymores, where he established a reputation for producing some of the league's most dominant lines. He also played a leading role in mentoring and teaching young talent in the league's National Player Development program.

Between NFL Europa seasons, Tomsula spent each fall as a member of Division II Catawba College's coaching staff, as coaching in the NFL was not a year-round post. While at Catawba, he was part of numerous college all-star games in a coaching capacity.

Tomsula was a defensive lineman at Catawba College in Salisbury, NC, after transferring from Middle Tennessee State. In 1989, he started his coaching career as an assistant at his alma mater after a knee injury ended his playing career. He went on to coach the defensive line coach at Woodland Hills (PA) High School in 1990.

Interestingly, Tomsula spent two seasons out of football. He served as a sales rep for Thera-Kinetics, a medical equipment company, in 1991, until he landed a job as an assistant at Charleston Southern University, SC, (1992-95). In order to make ends meet in Charleston, Tomsula held many odd jobs such as delivering newspapers for The Post and Courier, serving as a night janitor at an insurance agency, and cutting firewood. After his stint at Charleston Southern, he returned to his hometown of Pittsburgh, PA, where he cleaned the floors at a department store until landing a job as a sales rep at Cisco Foods. Tomsula returned to the coaching ranks in 1997, as the volunteer assistant defensive line coach at Catawba. With no income from his coaching passion, he again picked up a part-time job as an entry-way carpeting salesman and even lived out of his car at times.

He and his wife, Julie, reside in San Jose with their daughters Britney and Brooke, and son Bear.

- Established the Anquan Boldin Foundation in 2004, which is dedicated to expanding the educational and life opportunities of underprivileged children. Core services of the foundation support after-school programs, full-time scholarships with the support of the University of Phoenix, and dental care and food programs. More information on the Anquan Boldin Foundation is available at www.Q81.org.
- In April of this year, Boldin hosted the ninth annual Q-Festival, with proceeds benefiting his foundation. The weekend-long event takes place in Boldin's hometown area of South Florida and includes free activities for youth and families. This year's activities included a golf tournament, a celebrity basketball game at his alma mater, Pahokee High School, and a "Fun Day in the Park." The golf tournament alone raised $71,000 and over 3,000 participants attended the three-day event. "We had a great turnout, each year it continues to grow," said Boldin. "We probably had about 20 NFL guys come out and participate. We had nothing but great feedback from the community and as usual I'm looking forward to it again next year."

- This past March, Boldin went on a trip to Senegal, with Arizona Cardinals WR Larry Fitzgerald, to try to help understand and change the mining policies that allow the natives to be stripped from their land and left with nothing. "We wanted to go over there, see the entire process, see how things are run and just come back to the U.S. and advocate for the people who really don't have a voice. We have a trip scheduled to Washington D.C. so that we can actually talk to congress and try to get the policies changed."
- Boldin was inducted into the Palm Beach County Sports Hall of Fame on March 25, 2012, and was honored as a 2012 Distinguished Alumni by the Education Foundation of Palm Beach County, Inc. Another special honor that Boldin has earned in his hometown of Pahokee, FL, is the name of Pahokee High School's football stadium, Anquan Boldin Stadium.
- In April 2012, Boldin made a mission trip to Ethiopia, also with Arizona Cardinals WR Larry Fitzgerald, to bring attention to the horrible drought in East Africa. "One of the villages that we went to had a canal around their crops and they had a huge problem with hippos," he said. "So they needed some kind of protection to keep the hippos out. We went there, bought fences, and built fences around the crops so that the hippos couldn't damage the crops anymore." He also helped build retaining walls in one village so that when it did eventually rain, the villagers could catch the water and grow vegetation.
- He was named the Baltimore Ravens' 2012 and 2010 Walter Payton Man of the Year, as well as the Arizona Cardinals Walter Payton Man of the Year in 2004, for his efforts on and off the field.
- After the destruction of Hurricane Katrina in 2005, Boldin, along with several teammates, visited hurricane refugees that were displaced to Phoenix, AZ. He helped serve food and drinks to the Louisiana residents, while also donating money to the Hurricane Relief Disaster Fund.

ALEX BOONE

GUARD/TACKLE
H: 6-8 W: 300
BORN 5.4.87 // LAKEWOOD, OH // ST. EDWARD HS, CLEVELAND, OH
OHIO STATE // 4TH YEAR // ACQUIRED FA IN '09

In just four seasons, Alex Boone has developed into a Pro Bowl alternate at guard after originally signing as a rookie free agent tackle with the 49ers, in 2009. That year, he spent the entire season on the team's practice squad. When Boone reported to mini-camp the following year, he had lost 40 pounds of fat and replaced it with 25 pounds of lean muscle. He competed at both right and left tackle, and eventually proved his worth as he earned a spot on the 53-man roster. In 2011, Boone entered each game in short-yardage situations, and contributed on special teams. He was rewarded with a four-year contract extension on December 8, 2011, that runs through 2015. Boone became solidified as the starting right guard in 2012, and was part of a 49ers offensive line that used the same five starters for all 16 games and was regarded by most as the best unit in the league.

- For fans traveling to the San Francisco Zoo, they can keep an eye out for the zoo's endangered black rhinoceros named Boone, whom the zoo chose to name after the 49ers guard. In January of 2013, the San Francisco Zoo invited Alex to be the zookeeper for a day, where he fed giraffes, polar bears and other animals, learned the tools of the trade and met the black rhino who now shares his name. The black rhinos are the most aggressive species of rhinoceros. Black rhinos are known for their power in plowing through and running over things, which matches Boone's playing style on the gridiron to blast open holes and get into the open field when pulling on sweep plays. "We're very similar. It's very fitting. I'm very humbled and very honored to have a rhino named after me," Boone said. "I got to feed him, got to pet him, a very soft face, the horn, unbelievable to touch that. It's an honor and a blessing to have such a beautiful animal named after me." This also earned Alex the nickname "The Rhino."

- During the 2010 offseason, following his rookie season, Alex returned home to Lakewood, OH, where he began working out with former NFL O-lineman LeCharles Bentley. With Bentley's help and guidance, Alex returned for training in the best shape of his life, dropping 40 pounds before putting 25 pounds of muscle back on. "LeCharles helped me realize what it takes to be successful in the NFL," Alex said. "He has helped me with my footwork, my initial burst and my quickness. I know I'll be ready for whatever the coaches throw at me this season."
- The one person Alex always admired and wanted to be like was his grandfather. "My grandfather raised my brother and I with good morals and good values," said Alex. "He was always there for us." Alex saw him as a smart person who everyone looked up to. A very religious man, the two of them prayed together regularly and attended church every Sunday. His grandfather passed away when he was young, which left a void in his life. "It crushed me. I never really had to be by myself." Alex vividly remembers the moment he heard the news. "I remember I was eating pizza and I was 13 years old." Talking to his grandmother about him has been a breath of fresh air, reassuring Alex that his grandfather will always be with him. "He was a funny guy who loved to laugh. He was real jokester. I try to be like him every day."

Talent, hustle, toughness and determination are all attributes 49ers linebacker NaVorro Bowman has displayed during his first three seasons in the NFL. He was named First-Team All-Pro in both 2011 and 2012, and was selected to his first Pro Bowl in 2012. A rock in the middle of the 49ers defense, he led the team in tackles in each of the last two seasons. On November 27, 2012, Bowman was rewarded with a five-year contract extension through 2018, solidifying one of the league's most talented linebacking groups for years to come. Growing up in the crime-infested neighborhood of District Heights, MD, Bowman relied on sports and a strong support system to keep him pointed in the right direction. He now shares his insights with the youth of the Bay Area and his hometown.

- Two important and influential people in NaVorro's life recently and abruptly passed away. His father passed away from a blood clot that reached his heart, while his high school coach died in a car accident before Penn State's bowl game in 2009. "Dealing with as much adversity as I have in a short period of time has made me the man I am today. It's made me stay on track and strive to do those things that will possibly help me be successful, not just on the football field, but off the field also."

// GOLDMINE

- NaVorro was born and raised just outside of Washington D.C. in a high-crime area. It was a tough environment to avoid, but sports became his outlet and a means for not giving into the streets and drugs. "My parents had been with me since day one. Also, having a support system like my high school coach. He really let me know early on that I had something special and I shouldn't mess it up."
- NaVorro earned his degree in criminal law and justice, and one day would like to use that to help out his hometown. With all of the violence and drugs in District Heights, MD, he believes being from that area will help others listen to him and understand that there are other ways to live life than what they currently know. "That's one of the reasons I got in that field - to open doors and possibly be able to get into a young child's head from my neighborhood."

// GOLDMINE

- Brock's path to the NFL was not an easy one by any means. From the small country town of Gulfport, MS, he traveled 30 miles north to Mississippi Gulf Coast Community College in Perkinston, MS, where he spent two seasons before transferring to the University of Minnesota. Why would a southern boy decide on Minnesota? "I wanted to see what a big city felt like," Brock said. After one year, he transferred back down south to Belhaven University in Jackson, MS, a small Christian NAIA school.
- In February of 2011, Belhaven retired Brock's jersey for his accomplishments on both the collegiate and professional levels. He is the only player in the history of the school's program to have played in the NFL.
- Brock's passion for sports was developed at an early age and he would like to remain in athletics either as a coach or personal trainer after his playing career is through. "I want to teach people what I know and watch them perform and compete," Brock said. His father encouraged him join as football league in elementary school, and he also played basketball and ran track for his school's team. Recreationally, he played kick ball and baseball in his neighborhood. "My friends were all competitive with each other," he said. "We all wanted to be the best in the group."

// 2012

- Forced a fumble on Rams RB Isaiah Pead on a KR late in the 4th qtr. that the 49ers recovered vs. StL (11/11), marking his 1st career FF.
- Finished the season tied for the team lead with 15 special teams tackles (FB Bruce Miller - 15).

// 2011

- Registered his first career INT vs. Sea. (9/11 - QB Tarvaris Jackson), leaping into the air on a hail mary pass to end the 1st half.
- With an INT vs. Dal. (9/18), Brock became the first 49er to register an INT in consecutive games (9/11 vs. Sea.) since CB Dre' Bly (12/20/09 at Phi. and 12/27/09 vs. Det.).

// 2010

- Made his NFL debut vs. Den. (10/31).
- Saw extended action at defensive back in season finale vs. Arz. (1/2), posting 3 tackles.

Totaled 72 tackles, 7 INTs and 2 FFs in 17 games at MGC. Spent his junior season at Minnesota, totaling 73 tackles, 6 PDs, 1 INT, 3 FFs and 1 FR, before transferring to Belhaven. In 11 games as a senior at Belhaven, posted 51 tackles, 13.5 TFLs, 2.5 sacks, 6 INTs, 10 PDs and 1 FR, while also returning 29 kicks for 505 yds.

TARELL BROWN

CORNERBACK

H: 5-10 W: 193

BORN 1.6.85 // NEW YORK CITY, NY // NORTH MESQUITE HS, MESQUITE, TX
TEXAS // 7TH YEAR // ACQUIRED D-5 IN '07

Tarell Brown has become a mainstay in the 49ers secondary since taking overall a starting role at cornerback in 2011, having started all 32 games since that time. Over the past two years, Brown has recorded 6 interceptions and 29 pass break-ups, and logged a career-high 59 tackles, in 2012. Brown is known for possessing a tremendous work ethic, a trait that helped him overcome a significant amount of adversity throughout his young life. Following his rookie season, Brown was presented with the team's coveted Thomas Herrion Award, which is given to a player, by the coaching staff, who has taken advantage of every opportunity, turned it into a positive situation and made their dream into a reality.

// TRANSACTIONS

Originally a 5th-round (147th pick overall) draft choice by SF in 2007... Signed a three-year contract extension through 2013 on 10/28/09.

// AWARDS & HONORS

2007: Thomas Herrion Award

// GOLDMINE

- In 2007, Tarell was the recipient of the Thomas Herrion Award, honoring the rookie or first-year player who has taken advantage of every opportunity, turned it into a positive and made their dream come true like Thomas Herrion. The award is voted on by the coaches.
- In June 2010, Tarell was recognized for his contributions to his hometown, receiving a proclamation from the city of Mesquite.
- Tarell won the Punt, Pass & Kick Championship at Texas Stadium as a 9-year-old after advancing through the city and regional finals. He was then flown to San Diego for the National Championships, where he placed 3rd.
- Tarell is a tremendous example of perseverance. At the age of 9, Tarell's mother was killed as she was getting into her car to go to work early one morning. Following his mother's death, Tarell moved in with his father, Robert, who not only saw football as an escape for his son, but also as an opportunity for him to earn a scholarship and a solid education. Just prior to the NFL Draft, his father died of a heart attack on Valentine's Day. "A day doesn't go by that I don't think about my mother and father. Everything I do nowadays is dedicated to my parents. I know without them, I wouldn't be where I'm now."

- When his NFL career is over, Tarell is looking forward to working with kids. "I want to open up a gym and train athletes, train kids. I like to be around kids and I still want to be surrounded by sports. Maybe have a little AAU basketball team and travel around to different cities and states."
- Tarell hosted his 5th Annual Summer Sportsfest in Dallas in June of 2012. The highlights of the weekend included free football and cheerleading camps, in addition to a celebrity basketball game featuring a large group of NFL players. Proceeds raised through the raffle and celebrity basketball game benefitted Tarell's Born Again Foundation. The foundation is dedicated to becoming the nation's foremost full-service, ex-offender program. It provides an opportunity for all ex-offenders who desire a significant change to make a positive transition into a new life. The foundation offers job counseling, educational and vocational training, and personal and family support to all who desire to not be defined by negativity in their past. // TRANSACTIONS

Originally signed as an undrafted free agent by SF on 5/4/12.

// GOLDMINE

- Football runs in the bloodlines of the Celek family. Garrett's older brother, Brent, plays tight end for the Philadelphia Eagles. Growing up, the brothers were constantly involved in athletics. "My dad was always pushing us just to be into sports. It didn't matter if it was soccer, baseball, football or basketball. As long as we were doing something and we were having fun with it, he was the happiest guy in the world," Celek said. Garrett didn't begin playing football until high school, but Brent's success became a driving motivation for him. "He got a scholarship to Cincinnati my freshman year in high school," Garrett said. "Right then I had my goals set. I needed to make it to college, and once I got to college, my brother got drafted in the NFL. There's my next goal. I've got to make it to the NFL, I've got to do what my brother did. Honestly, I've been trying to follow in his footsteps and because of him I'm here today. I wouldn't be who I am without him."
- The Celek family has a lake house in Northern Michigan where everyone gathers on vacation, cooks out and goes jet skiing. Closer to the Bay Area, Garrett recently became a dog owner with a Chesapeake Bay retriever that occupies most of his current free time. "I love playing with her and teaching her tricks."
- Garrett has a strong passion for the packaging industry, which he majored in at Michigan State and plans to go into after his football career. The growing industry looks to cut shipping costs on products and is commonplace in the food and medical fields. "There's so many different areas you can get into, it's crazy. I enjoy the science behind it. It was a great major for me to choose and the possibilities are endless."

MICHAEL CRABTREE

WIDE RECEIVER

H: 6-1 W: 214

BORN 9.14.87 // DALLAS, TX // CARTER HS, DALLAS, TX
TEXAS TECH // 5TH YEAR // ACQUIRED D-1 IN '09

As the 10th overall pick in the 2009 NFL Draft by San Francisco, Michael Crabtree has showcased his rare combination of size, hands and run-after-the-catch ability during his first four seasons with the 49ers. A reliable receiver, Crabtree has caught a pass in each of his 58 NFL games played, which includes recording at least three receptions in 49 of those contests. He excelled in 2012, as he led the team in receptions and receiving yards for the second straight season. Crabtree set career highs last year with 85 receptions for 1,105 yards and 9 touchdowns. He became the first 49ers wide receiver to record a 1,000 yard season since Terrell Owens in 2003. Widely considered one of the most prolific receivers in college football history, Crabtree earned the coveted Biletnikoff Award - given to the nation's best receiver - in each of his two seasons played at Texas Tech.

- In 2012, Crabtree teamed with the video game "The Hip-Hop Dance Experience," to create a new touchdown dance, the Crab Shake. Each time Crabtree performed the routine in a game, the gaming company donated $1,000 to Crabtree's favorite charity, the Boys & Girls Club. With help from Bay Area musician Too Short, he worked with a choreographer to perfect his dance moves. "Gotta show the Bay Area some love. I'm from Texas and the Crab Shake is straight from the south side, but the music, that's the Bay right there," Crabtree said. "The south side mixed with the Bay Area, to me, that's the best of both worlds." He also competed with Broncos LB Von Miller and Eagles RB LeSean McCoy to win fan votes on Twitter for the best dance moves.

With every Crab Shake touchdown dance, he chose to donate $1,000 to the Boys & Girls Club because the organization meant so much to him from his own personal experiences. Growing up, Michael found refuge at his local Boys & Girls Club in Dallas. "This is real, because every day when I was growing up, I was at the Boys & Girls Club just playing everything," he said. "We played pool and ping pong. We were running and racing, playing football and basketball and boxing. I just grew up there, and they were even there for me when I needed tutoring, so I felt it was only right that I support them back. That's what's so great about this, I'm dancing and celebrating in the end zone, and I'm giving back at the same time. It really means a lot to me." In 2012, he rewarded the club with a career-high 9 touchdowns.

- A Jordan Brand athlete, Michael has big plans for unveiling some cleats during the 2012 season. Michael knows fashion and really gives his input on the details of the shoe design, "I tell them what material and color I want and where. I may tell them that I want this leather, this part suede and this part mesh." He hopes to set his own trends, "If everybody is doing it, then I'm not going to wear it."

Michael received a basketball scholarship as well as football coming out of high school, so it's understandable how humbling it is to wear the Jordan brand. "It's the best of both worlds right now. Jordan is real big on who represents him with his brand. He looks for sharp guys with good character."

- A nationally-ranked basketball player at Carter HS in Dallas, TX, Michael was rated among the top 50 prospects in Texas and received several scholarship offers from major colleges. As a senior, he averaged 20.8 points, 6.7 rebounds and 3.1 assists per game. Michael limited his college options to those that would allow him to play both basketball and football. He chose Texas Tech because both Bob Knight and Mike Leach recruited him.
- Michael has so many pairs of shoes he can't put a number on it. Shoes take up his parents' garages, his house in Dallas, and any other place he can store them. Some may say that's excessive, but they may not know the real reason behind his shoe collection. "Growing up I didn't have many shoes. I used to love shoes and cherish the ones that I had. I'd clean them up every day and polish them." Crabtree has big plans for a shoe rack at his home in the Bay Area so he can put them all on display. The shoes are not in boxes though, "I want to see them, my closet is going to look like Niketown."
- Michael's desire to play football can be traced to video games when he was young. "Growing up, all I did was play video games. I was a big Madden fan, and even before that, I was a big Tecmo Bowl guy," Crabtree said. "Tecmo Bowl, that was the game. It was so simple, but at the same time, I think that's what made it so much fun. There weren't even any flags, you could run all around the field with Bo Jackson. I love that game." Even now, he'll have fans come up to him to talk not just his play on the football field, but Crabtree's digital character in the video game and in fantasy football. He said he'd like to have the Crab Shake dance be used in the upcoming Madden game and laughed about being rated higher in the game. "They need to give me some more speed in there. I check the ratings, and I couldn't believe my score. My speed is a little suspect in that game, but I'm going to keep my cool [laughing]," he said, jokingly.

TIGHT END

H: 6-3 W: 250

BORN 1.31.84 // WASHINGTON D.C. // DUNBAR HS, WASHINGTON, D.C.
MARYLAND // 8TH YEAR // ACQUIRED D-1A IN '06

Vernon Davis has solidified himself as the most versatile and explosive tight end in the game. Selected by the 49ers with the 6th overall pick in the 2006 NFL Draft, Davis's star has shined when the lights have been the brightest. After registering 10 catches for 292 yds. and 4 TDs during the 2011 playoffs, becoming just the fifth player in the Super Bowl era to register at least 2 receiving TDs in consecutive postseason games in the same season, he raised the ante the following year. Davis followed up his first trip to the playoffs with 254 rec. yds. in the 2012 postseason, joining Cardinals WR Larry Fitzgerald as the only two players in NFL history to register 4, 100-yd. receiving games in their first five playoff contests. Davis led the team in both receiving yards and touchdowns in 2009 and 2010, and was rewarded with a five-year contract extension on September 11, 2010. Davis is just as active off the field as he is on it, pursuing everything from curling and painting to humanitarian trips overseas.

- Davis opened his own Jamba Juice location in Santa Clara, CA, on March 1 of this year. "Not only are you helping people with a job opportunity, you are helping them to stay healthy and live an active and healthy lifestyle," Davis said about his new business.
- On December 10, 2012, Davis celebrated the grand opening of his new art gallery, Gallery 85, which is located in San Jose's upscale Santana Row and features pieces by Davis himself.

Vernon has always had an affinity for art and is an avid admirer of Michelangelo and the Renaissance period. In 2010 and 2011, he got the opportunity to give back to his passion for art. Director of Cultural Affairs for the San Francisco Arts Commission Luis R. Cancel, in conjunction with the Young at Art Festival, a project of the San Francisco Unified School District and the Fine Arts Museum of San Francisco, announced the launch of "Art Impact." Vernon was the inaugural speaker for Art Impact, and the San Francisco Unified School District created a scholarship in Vernon's name, called the Vernon Davis Visual Arts Scholarship, which will provide tuition support to a San Francisco youth interested in pursuing a career in the visual arts. In May of 2011, he handed out his first scholarship to San Francisco high school student, Sheryl Quock, a promising fashion designer.

- After a breakout season in 2009, Vernon was named the recipient of the Len Eshmont Award, the 49ers most prestigious annual honor. The Len Eshmont Award honors the player who best exemplifies the "inspirational and courageous play" of Len Eshmont and is voted on by the players.
- Vernon was named an honorary captain of the USA Curling Team at the 2010 Winter Olympics in Vancouver, BC, Canada. He attended the games and served as an ambassador for the team in order to help gain support for the sport.
- During the 2010 offseason, Vernon also traveled to Afghanistan with five fellow NFL players as part of the NFL-USO tour. They first stopped at Al Udeid Air Force Base, 40 miles outside of Doha, Qatar, then traveled on to Bagram Air Force Base in Afghanistan. The trip gave Vernon perspective and knowledge of the efforts being put forth by our military in the Middle East.
- Vernon is not one to sit back and relax during the offseason. In March of 2010, he joined his younger brother, Vontae, and six other NFL players on a humanitarian trip to Uganda and Rwanda. The crew spent 10 days distributing 22,000 hearing aids throughout the African regions as part of the Pros for Africa organization. "It was amazing. It was breathtaking because you look at these kids who can't hear anything and you plug these hearing aids in their ears and all of a sudden they're responding. You can't do anything but be thankful to be able to help them hear and respond. It brought a lot of emotion. I'm already an emotional guy."
- During the 2010 offseason, Vernon and Vontae hosted a football and mentoring clinic at Howard University in their native Washington, D.C. "It means a lot to me, because I know how important it is to go out and give back and share some of the lessons and just the gifts that you always wanted as a kid," Davis said. "Growing up in a low-income, poverty area in the inner city of Washington, D.C., I know what it's like. When I think of the kids, it touches me in ways you can't even imagine."
- When Vernon was a freshman in college he wanted to honor the person who raised him to be the person he is today, his grandmother, Adaline. He decided to get a tattoo on the inside of his left arm with her name. His grandmother's reaction wasn't a good one at first, but she understood why he did it because in Vernon's words, he could look onto the inside of his left arm just to think of her. "She's really influenced me and really pushed me, made me open my eyes and see that besides football, there are other things that I can get involved with if I don't make it." Adaline was the one who raised most of his siblings and gave Vernon direction in his life, teaching him to set goals and molding him into the person he is today.

- During the 2008 and 2011 seasons, Dawson teamed up with the Adoption Network to invite families who have recently adopted children to each Browns home game so they can form new memories as a family. "The reason behind all this is my wife was adopted so we have a pretty special place in our hearts for families trying to adopt," Dawson said.
- Was active in the Cleveland community and founded the "Dawson's 4 Adoption" season ticket program which provided tickets, apparel and food for the Adoption Network Cleveland organization.
- His wife, Shannon, is a professional singer, who performed as a backup singer for Wayne Newton in Las Vegas. She's currently recording a country/contemporary Christian mix album that's set to come out at the end of the summer.
- Dawson's two main hobbies now are actually his first two part-time jobs growing up. His first official job, in middle school, was driving the tractor that picks up the golf balls at the driving range. "For every tray of balls I would bring in and pour in the washer, I'd get $3," said Dawson. "The busier the driving range, the more money I made." His other job was mowing lawns. He and a friend would mow about 30 lawns every week during the summers. "I love golf and I love yard work," he said.

- In the offseason, Divens coaches his son Isaiah's basketball team in Murfreesboro, Tennessee. Basketball was Lamar's first love, where he played power forward. He didn't start playing football until he was a freshman in high school.
- In the future, Divens hopes to own his own barbershop. He began cutting hair in high school and it's developed into a big hobby of his. "At the end of summer, all the kids would go to the neighborhood barbershop to get a back to school haircut," Divens said. Divens' father, Billy Ray, would cut his hair and then Lamar started to take on the craft. He trimmed hair for his family and would cut teammates hair in college.
- A master cook, Lamar also picked up grilling from his father, Billy Ray. "I don't like cooking on a stove, but I'll grill all day," Lamar said. "My dad was the cook in my house, cooking every weekend. Rain, sleet, snow and sun, he's out there on the grill." Lamar says boneless, skinless chicken thighs are his best dish.

BORN 9.24.87 // JACKSON, MS // TERRY HS, TERRY, MS
MISSISSIPPI STATE // 4TH YEAR // ACQUIRED D-6A IN '10

Anthony Dixon is deceptively agile and quick for a back his size. Since entering the NFL in 2010 as the 1st of 3, 6th-round draft choices (173rd overall), he has appeared in every game (48 regular season & 5 postseason games). In 2012, Dixon recorded 78 yards on the ground and 2 TDs, while making significant contributions on special teams, ranking 4th on those units in production points (621). Dixon had to overcome a variety of obstacles growing up, which included being homeless for quite some time. He and his three brothers have proven to be extremely resilient, as each has gone on to have successful athletic careers.

// AWARDS & HONORS

2010: Thomas Herrion Award (Co-recipient with DT Will Tukuafu)

// GOLDMINE

- Anthony was put in a unique situation when he was 10 years old. His parents had divorced the previous year and debts piled on to where the family became homeless. "As soon as we hit rock bottom, I knew what time it was," explained Dixon. "It was time for me to step up and become the man of the house. I'm just trying to provide for my family and provide for my momma so she doesn't have to go through that again. I'm really just sacrificing my body for them." Dixon had a lot of free time on his hands growing up while his mom worked three different jobs. It was his responsibility to watch his younger brothers until his mom got home from work. "I had to grow up before it was my time, but it made me stronger today just seeing that and going through that."
- Anthony was the co-recipient (with FB Will Tukuafu) of the 2010 Thomas Herrion Award. The award is presented annually to a rookie or first-year player who has taken advantage of every opportunity, turned it into a positive and made their dream come true.
- Dixon has become the self proclaimed "cook" for his teammates during the offseason. Picking up tips here and there at a young age from his mother, Velma, father, Anthony, and uncle, Tommy. Growing up in the south, grilling and cooking was a frequent occurrence. "It's not hard, all you have to do is sit there, flip it, get it nice and it will do its own thing," Dixon said. "Once I figured that much out, I said, I like this. I can do this, it's easy."

DEMARCUS DOBBS

TIGHT END/DEFENSIVE TACKLE

H: 6-2 W: 282

BORN 11.30.87 // SAVANNAH, GA // CALVARY BAPTIST HS, SAVANNAH, GA
GEORGIA // 3RD YEAR // ACQUIRED FA IN '11

As an undrafted free agent, Demarcus Dobbs took advantage of every opportunity presented to him throughout the 2011 training camp to earn a spot on the 49ers 53-man roster. With Dobbs, QB Scott Tolzien and NT Ian Williams making the 2011 opening day roster, it marked the first time since 2001 that the 49ers had at least three undrafted rookie free agents make the team (4 in 2001 - DT John Schlect, LB Quincy Stewart, LB Shane Elam and P Jason Baker). In 2012, Dobbs proved even more valuable to the 49ers by becoming a rare, two-way player at both tight end and defensive tackle while also appearing on special teams, where he played in every phase of those units.

// TRANSACTIONS

Originally signed as an undrafted free agent with SF on 7/27/11.

- After growing up in foster care and overcoming a multitude of obstacles that would discourage almost anyone, Dobbs poured himself into his schoolwork and vowed to graduate high school – something no one in his family had yet accomplished. While working diligently in school, he managed to shine on the football field as well, earning a football scholarship to the University of Georgia. Dobbs excelled academically at Georgia, just as he had done his whole life. He majored in consumer economics and earned his degree a year early so that he would be able to have internships and job experience during his final year of football eligibility. After graduation, Dobbs was hopeful – but always realistic – about his chances of playing in the NFL. Many speculated he would be drafted, but when he did not receive a phone call from a team on draft night, Dobbs did not give up. He and his agent looked over NFL rosters and decided that he would fit best in San Francisco. They could not have been more accurate. Dobbs worked tirelessly during 49ers training camp and preseason. He impressed players, coaches and staff with his determination and athletic ability. “I’ve always been a guy to work hard,” Dobbs said. “I was voted the Defensive Leadership Award by the coaches at Georgia. I’ve always been a guy that gave great effort on the field. When I got here, I knew each day I was going to push hard and whatever happens, happens. As long as I can say that I gave my all and I did all I could do.”

As a senior, appeared in 13 games (10 starts), recording 28 tackles and 15 quarterback pressures. In 2009, started all 13 games, notching 39 tackles including 4.5 sacks and 14 quarterback pressures. Also was the recipient of Joseph E. Espy Football Scholarship. As a sophomore, appeared in 13 games (4 starts), recording 19 tackles, eight quarterback hurries and an INT (returned for a TD). As a freshman, appeared in 13 games providing depth on the defensive line and played on special teams. Red-shirted in 2006.

A versatile defender who played both defensive end and outside linebacker for Notre Dame, Darius Fleming ranked 10th in Notre Dame history with 15.0 career sacks. After being drafted by the 49ers in the 5th round (165th overall), he missed his rookie season of 2012 with a knee injury suffered during training camp. Fleming posted 158 career tackles for the Irish, and was named team's Lineman of the Year in 2011, after recording 55 tackles.

- Fleming attempted playing football in sixth grade, but even when his team would have a comfortable lead, his coach refused to put him in the game. He decided to wait until high school to give it another shot. "It's wasn't easy to quit in sixth grade, but I just thought it wasn't for me," said Fleming. "I picked it back up in high school and look at me now."
- Fleming has been riding horses since he was six years old and competed in rodeos until he was 12. "I was a western rider, so I never did jumps or any kind of English events," he said. "I would do any kind of barrel races and relay races." Even at such a young age, money could be won for top performance at the rodeos. "That's one sport that you could actually win money at that young age," said Fleming. "I would be 12 years old, placing in 3rd place and winning $120, and to me that was a lot of money."

Jonathan Goodwin is entering his third season with the 49ers after spending five years with the New Orleans Saints. A smart and savvy veteran, Goodwin has been responsible for all the calls and adjustments made by the offensive line. In the heart of the trenches, the 12-year pro has started the last 70 regular season games in which he has appeared, the 5th-longest active streak in the NFL among centers. He was selected to the Pro Bowl following the 2009 season and was a member of the New Orleans Saints Super Bowl XLIV Championship Team.

// CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

As the heart of the 49ers offense for the past eight seasons, four-time Pro Bowl running back Frank Gore has established himself as one of the premier running backs in the NFL. The franchise's all-time leading rusher (8,839 yds.), he tallied his team-record sixth 1,000-yard season in 2012, rushing for 1,214 yds. In 2011, Gore posted a new team record by hitting the century mark in five consecutive games. The former 3rd-round pick is the first 49er in team history to record four consecutive 1,000-yd. rushing seasons (2006-09).

// GOLDMINE

- In 2006 and 2010, Frank was named the recipient of the 49ers Bill Walsh Award. The Bill Walsh Award is voted on by the coaches and awarded to the 49ers team MVP. Frank is one of two players in franchise history to win the award twice (LB Patrick Willis).
- Frank was named 15th winner of the annual Garry Niver Award by reporters covering the team who represent the SF Chapter of the Pro Football Writer's Association in December of 2007. The award is given in honor of the late Garry Niver, the San Mateo Times reporter, and goes to the player who shows "cooperation and professional style" in dealing with Pro Football writers on the job.

- During the 2010 offseason, Frank tried his hand at coaching for the first time as the defensive coordinator of the Little 49ers in a Miami youth league. Although his players were only 4 years old, Frank was still teaching them what's important. "The most important part is that the kids enjoy it. You can see how excited they get when they do something right."
- Frank's determination to run over defenders comes from his tough upbringing in Miami, FL. Some considered his football career over when he suffered two serious knee injuries at the University of Miami; however, he relied on his mother Liz's strength to help him through. "She had been on dialysis [awaiting a kidney transplant] since I was in the 11th grade and raised three kids as a single woman," Frank said. Unfortunately, Liz lost her battle with kidney disease before the 49ers second game of the 2007 season against the St. Louis Rams. Playing with a heavy heart, Frank responded by rushing for 81 yds. and 2 TDs, including a 43-yd. score on a 4th-and-1 carry, helping the 49ers to a 17-16 victory.

- Hall had only one Division I football offer, which came from the Air Force, where he graduated as a second lieutenant. He spent the next two years stationed at Hill Air Force Base in Salt Lake City, Utah. He was second in command of 350 troops as an aircraft maintenance officer of the 421st Black Widows. Chad faced a tough decision between trying to walk on to a football program or join the military. "I called everyone close to me and asked their opinions," Hall said. "I'm glad I did it. I made friends for life and it got me here." While also at the Air Force Academy, Hall took astronomical engineering and academy flight screening classes in the summer. It helped bring Hall halfway to a pilot's license. He learned the principles of flying a plane while giving him the opportunity to fly a plane solo.
- When Hall began his football career, he didn't start off as a wide receiver. As a 45-pound six-year old, Hall started playing tackle football. He played nose guard and right guard on a 70-pound team. "My dad wanted me to start in the trenches," Hall said. Despite the size difference, Hall held his own. "I have loved the game ever since, the camaraderie, all the friends you make, the brotherhood," Hall said. "You win together, you lose together. At the end of the day I'm doing what I love."

- Jewel picked up football when he was six years old in large part to his father, who played in a semi-pro league for the Indianapolis Tornados. When Jewel saw his father on the football field, he knew he wanted to follow that path. "He's been shaping me and molding me my whole life," Hampton said. "He's taught me everything I know about the game and he's still teaching me, giving me little pointers." Since that time, he's been working to play at the highest level. "There's really nothing I'm as passionate about than football because I've been doing it my whole life," he said. "It's what I've always wanted to do. I always strived for completing my goal. Football's always a team builder, teaching you how to communicate and get along with other people."
- Hampton has persevered through two knee injuries in college from 2009 to 2010, one in each knee. He transferred from Iowa to Southern Illinois after the second injury and eventually was invited to the NFL Combine. He signed with the 49ers and found RB Frank Gore's story an inspiration to him. "The Niners showed a lot of interest in me, more than any other team. I felt like they liked me a lot out here and would give me a real shot. They had a lot to offer." Like Hampton, Gore suffered knee injuries to both knees while at Miami. "I heard that he had a story that was similar to mine. It gave me a lot of optimism to know that he'd done it and I could have that longevity over my career."

- Placed on the Reserve/Non Football Injury list on 8/27 and promoted to SF active roster on 11/27.
- Was inactive for the final 5 regular season games and all 3 postseason contests.

PARYS HARALSON

LINEBACKER

H: 6-0 W: 255

BORN 1.24.84 // FLORA, MS // MADISON CENTRAL, MADISON, MS
TENNESSEE // 8TH YEAR // ACQUIRED D-5 IN '06

A tough, savvy veteran, Parys Haralson developed a meticulous work ethic at a young age, laboring in his grandfather's junkyard. That work ethic came in handy when he was sidelined for the 2012 season with a triceps injury suffered in the preseason, and was forced to spend the year rehabbing and serving as a "player coach" to his teammates. Haralson recorded a career-high three forced fumbles in 2011, adding 39 tackles and a pair of sacks. A 5th-round pick in 2006, Haralson entered the starting lineup in 2007 and has posted 21.5 career sacks, ranking t-4th among 49ers LBs since 1982. In 2008, he posted a career-high 8.0 sacks, which tied for the 2nd-most among NFC linebackers.

// TRANSACTIONS

Originally a 5th-round (140th pick overall) draft choice by SF in 2006...Signed a four-year contract extension through 2013 on 4/16/09.

// GOLDMINE

- Parys' diligent work ethic was instilled at the age of 14. While growing up in Flora, MS, his uncle and grandparents gave him an early introduction to life in the real world. He worked with his uncle at Sun Belt Bolts and Screws until he was 18 years old. After that, he labored in his grandfather's junkyard. Parys says his family helped instill the blue-collar foundation he leans on now as an NFL player. "You had to have a strong work ethic because it was an 8-hour job in the hot Mississippi sun. Sometimes I didn't want to go, but my grandparents made me go because if I didn't work for what I wanted, they weren't going to give it to me." Those lessons taught Parys that good things don't come without hard work and perseverance.
- Thanks to the upbringing by his mom and grandparents, Parys will always remember where he came from – and now it's his opportunity to give back. Parys aspires to start his own foundation to benefit the children in his hometown of Flora, MS. "There are a bunch of kids in my hometown. They are athletic, but they just run around and play football. No one really teaches them the techniques and the specialized training for each position." When he goes home, Parys spends time working out at his old high school and his middle school, taking time to show the students everything it takes to be successful. "You can see how excited the kids get when I walk in. I know that they look up to me and I take that responsibility seriously. I want to show them everything it takes to be successful and show each of them that they have the ability to be successful." As part of his foundation, Parys is looking to run a football camp, teaching kids the importance of eating healthy and staying in shape, while also teaching them proper football techniques.

MIKE IUPATI

GUARD

H: 6-5 W: 331

BORN 5.12.87 // AMERICAN SAMOA // WESTERN HS, ANAHEIM, CA
IDAHO // 4TH YEAR // ACQUIRED D-1B IN '10

Mike Iupati has already made a name for himself in just three NFL seasons, having been named First-Team All-Pro and earning a starting spot on the 2012 NFC Pro Bowl roster. A mild-mannered native of American Samoa off the field, Iupati plays with a nasty streak on the field. He has started all 48 games, and all five postseason contests, since his rookie year in 2010. Selected 17th overall in the 2010 NFL Draft, Mike Iupati showcased his rare combination of size and athleticism as he was named the team's starting left guard during his rookie training camp. He and T Anthony Davis, are two of only four members of the 2010 NFL Draft class to start every game from 2010-12 (Jax. DT Tyson Alualu & Sea. S Earl Thomas).

- When Iupati entered the NFL his hair was very long, reaching the middle of his back. He had not cut it since the summer before his sophomore year at Idaho. When he returned to the Bay Area to begin the 2012 offseason program, he was sporting a buzz cut. "I needed a new start and thought now was the right time. I donated my hair to Locks of Love so that some kid would be able to make good use of it."
- Mike's brother did all of the tattoos on his arm and leg. All of the art on his body is reflective of Samoan culture. "Some of them are Fala, the centipede, the waves, the ocean, fish. It goes back to what we normally use." The lion on his leg was artwork that Mike liked and asked his brother to put a Polynesian design around it.
- Although Mike has not lived in American Samoa for several years, his mother will never let him forget his culture. "My mom was tough on us, but it's discipline. That's why a lot of Polynesians are disciplined when they come to the U.S. You have to always respect your elders. It's our culture."

- Growing up in the village of Nuuli in American Samoa, Iupati took English as a second language, but was still way behind the curve when he arrived in the United States prior to his freshman year of high school. When it came time to head to college and pursue a football career, he was behind academically due to the language barrier. Iupati began looking into junior colleges. While at a recruiting barbecue at Ceritos College, he met Johnny Nansen, an assistant coach at Idaho, who later convinced him to sign with the Vandals as a Prop 48. Four years later Iupati was a first round NFL draft pick.

H: 5-9 W: 195

BORN 10.22.89 // NEW BOSTON, TX // LIBERTY-EYLAU HS, TEXARKANA, TX
OREGON // 2ND YEAR // ACQUIRED D-2 IN '12

LaMichael James made the most of his opportunities in 2012, after his NFL debut against the Miami Dolphins on December 9. His speed and elusiveness allowed him to tally over 500 all-purpose yards in just four regular season games at running back and kick returner. In college, James became the first two-time consensus All-America selection in Oregon history. In 2011, James led the nation, averaging 150.4 rushing yards per game, and ranked 2nd in the NCAA with 1,805 rushing yards. The recipient of the Doak Walker Award as the nation's top running back in 2010, James became just the third player in Pac-10/12 Conference history to rush for over 5,000 yards in his career.

// TRANSACTIONS

Originally a 2nd-round (61st overall) draft choice by SF in 2012.

// GOLDMINE

- One of James' biggest loves is building and restoring classic cars. In his collection, he owns a 1972 Impala, 1977 Chevelle and 1984 Monte Carlo. "It was just something that people do back in Texarkana," he said. "Everybody likes to trick their cars out, and bringing them up from nothing is a big thing there." It's become a hobby that he said relaxes him when he's away from football.
- Away from the gridiron, James has a passion for working in juvenile justice. "Hopefully, I'll be able to work with troubled kids that might not have a great background or a great home front," he said. "Hopefully I can make a difference in their lives."
- LaMichael James grew up in Texarkana, Texas. On the border of Texas and Arkansas, he described it as a tight-knit community with an emphasis on having a family atmosphere. All of his friends lived in the same neighborhood and pushed each other to stay active and involved. "We all played every sport. 'You do it, I do it.' It was one of those type of deals," James said. "That really kept me out of trouble and kept me focused with an eye on the prize." During the 2012 NFL Draft, James was invited to take part in the league's primetime event at New York's Radio City Music Hall, but James opted to stay home in Texarkana and witness the event with all the people he grew up with. "I'm never going to be bigger than the situation," James said. "I never want to turn my back on where I come from. That's where I've been my whole life. The people that have been there for me my whole life and have seen me grow up from a little boy, I wanted to share those moments with them."

A.J. JENKINS

WIDE RECEIVER

H: 6-0 W: 200

BORN 9.30.89 // JACKSONVILLE, FL // TERRY PARKER HS, JACKSONVILLE, FL
ILLINOIS // 2ND YEAR // ACQUIRED D-1 IN '12

A.J. Jenkins was selected by the 49ers in the 1st round of the 2012 NFL draft with the 30th overall pick. As a second-year pro, he looks to build on the experience of learning all three wide receiver positions as a rookie. A three-time Academic All-Big Ten honoree, Jenkins became just the second player in Illinois history to register 90 receptions in a season, as a senior. His 1,276 receiving yards ranked second in school history.

// TRANSACTIONS

Originally a 1st-round (30th overall) draft choice by SF in 2012.

// GOLDMINE

- Jenkins spent the 2013 offseason training with QB Colin Kaepernick and WRs Ricardo Lockette and Chad Hall in Atlanta, where they went over the playbook, ran routes and hit the weight room. Jenkins added four pounds of muscle to his frame in preparation for the season. "I was just working my butt off trying to put on some pounds, trying to gain some weight so I can be able to go across the middle, trying to work on my overall game," he said. "Learning the playbook gave me the confidence to go out there knowing what I'm doing. I'm a lot better than I was last year around this time."
- When Jenkins was six, his father encouraged him to play football. A.J. started off as a baseball player, but didn't enjoy it. "My dad told me to do something that I like because 'You're going to be doing something when you come home from school,'" he said. A.J.'s father was also a fireman, which is something A.J. said he'd be doing if he wasn't playing football. "I grew up around my dad doing great things for the community," Jenkins said.
- A.J. has multiple nicknames including "Grandpa" and "E.T." His aunt called him Grandpa when he was young because he acted older than he really was. His other nickname, E.T., was given to him in high school on a bus ride to school. "This guy saw my hands and told me I had long fingers just like E.T. Everyone started laughing and the name spread throughout the school. People rarely call me A.J."

BRIAN JENNINGS

TIGHT END/LONG SNAPPER

H: 6-5 W: 242

BORN 10.14.76 // MESA, AZ // RED MOUNTAIN HS, MESA, AZ
ARIZONA STATE // 14TH YEAR // ACQUIRED D-7B IN '00

A two-time Pro Bowl selection, most recently in 2011, Brian Jennings has already snapped to 9 placekickers and 4 different punters throughout his professional career. Since being selected in the 7th round of the 2000 NFL Draft, he has been a reliable mainstay on the 49ers special teams units. Jennings is currently the longest-tenured player on the roster and ranks 3rd among active NFL players for most consecutive games played. Remarkably, Jennings has been charged with just one fumble in his career, in 2001, on a good snap that went through the punter's hands.

- Brian has touched the lives of numerous people as a member of the 49ers, taking part in dozens of speaking engagements and charity events throughout his career. He looks to continue inspiring people once his playing days are over as well. Over the past four years, Brian has been working on his own book. "I believe everyone can find their purpose and live an inspired life. I feel my life has been blessed in so many ways and I want to share it with people. No matter what troubles come your way, you can realize your potential. In my writing, I combine examples throughout history with my own personal story, while using spiritual health and wellness as the vehicle."
- Brian doesn't spend much time relaxing during the offseason. He earned his certification as a yoga instructor in 2008 after taking part in a 200-hour program that lasted five months. With a modern approach, Brian cranks up lively music in the classes he teaches in Scottsdale, AZ. He has plans to open his own yoga studio in the near future.

- Jennings developed a new idea that has been in demand now that colleges are offering scholarships for long snappers. He and his designer created a long snapping football, appropriately titled 'The Jennings141 grip-trainer football.' "It's a regulation size football, either college size or junior, but the instructions are written on the ball which is unique. The instructions on the ball will teach how to build the proper grip." The ball is currently being manufactured as he just received a patent a short time ago, but he plans to make the ball available through his website. Jennings formed his own company, Jennings 141, which among various efforts has produced instructional videos for long snapping. Visit BrianJennings.com or Jennings141.com to learn more.
- Over the past couple of seasons, Brian has hosted a long snapping camp with about 20 participants. This allows him to teach the intricacies of the position on a one-on-one basis. "During the camp I deconstructed the long snap. So, we go through stations of the pieces of the long snap and I teach them how to do each piece. Then it's for them to put it all together and master it on their own."

COLIN Kaepernick

QUARTERBACK

H: 6-4 W: 230

BORN 11.3.87 // MILWAUKEE, WI // PITMAN HS, TURLOCK, CA
NEVADA // 2ND YEAR // ACQUIRED D-2 IN '11

Colin Kaepernick quickly grew into one of the most exciting and explosive players in the NFL after taking over the reins of the 49ers offense in week 11 of the 2012 season. Gifted with a rocket arm, blazing speed, killer instincts and poise beyond his years, Kaepernick guided the 49ers to the NFC Championship and a berth in Super Bowl XLVII in just his 10th career start, the 3rd fewest of any starting Super Bowl QB. In 2012, he went 7-3 as a starter and posted a QB rating of 90.0-or-better in 8 of the 10 games started. Kaepernick also tallied 3 rushes of 50-or-more yards, including the postseason, and had 22 completions of at least 25 yards. He set the all-time single-game rushing record (regular or postseason) for a QB with 181 yards against the Green Bay Packers in the NFC Divisional Playoff game.

// TRANSACTIONS

Originally a 2nd-round (36th overall) draft choice by SF in 2011.

// AWARDS & HONORS

2012: USA Today All-Joe Team

// GOLDMINE

- In July of 2013, Colin held his first annual Against All Odds golf tournament at Del Rio Country Club in Modesto, CA to benefit Camp Taylor, a camp for children with heart defects. The inaugural event raised over $200,000 to assist children and their families through Camp Taylor.
- In the summer of 2010, Colin was drafted by the Chicago Cubs in the 2009 MLB Draft and was offered $30,000 to go to Arizona for a month and throw a few bullpen sessions. Looking ahead to his senior season as Nevada's quarterback, he declined the offer saying, "What would that say about me as a leader of the team?"
- One of Colin's hobbies and favorite activities off the field is collecting and watching movies. "I own around 250 movies," said Colin. His favorites are no surprise, action and comedy, specifically the movie Step Brothers. What might be a surprise to some people, is the 6-4, 250 lb QB, also enjoys watching cartoons and Disney movies. "Some movies I own that most people wouldn't think I like are The Incredibles, Finding Nemo, Despicable Me and How To Train Your Dragon."
- Even as a 4th grade student at Dutcher Elementary School in Turlock, CA, Colin knew he was going to play for the 49ers. In a letter that students had to write to their future selves, that despite his small stature at the time, Colin saw something special in himself. He wrote, "I'm 5-2, 91 lbs and a good athlete. I think in 7 seven years i will be between 6 ft. to 6-4, 140 lbs. I hope I go to a good college in football, then go to the pros and play on the Niners or the Packers, even if they aren't good in seven years."

// CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- In his first career postseason start, set the NFL single-game rushing record (regular season and playoffs) by a QB with 181 yds vs. GB (1/12/13). It was also the 49ers single-game postseason rushing record.

Having mastered the constant challenge of punting through the unpredictable weather conditions of Candlestick Park, 4-time All-Pro Andy Lee is making his case as one of the best punters in NFL history. He has the second-highest net punting average in NFL history (39.2) and ranks fourth all-time in gross avg. (45.9). Since being selected in the 6th-round of the 2004 NFL Draft, he has earned Pro Bowl honors in three of the past six seasons ('07, '09, '11). In 2011, Lee posted a net punting avg. of 44.0, setting the NFL single-season record. He followed it up with a 43.2 net avg. in 2012, the 3rd-highest single-season total in NFL history, on his way to earning his 4th AP All-Pro selection. He is the franchise leader in punts, punting yardage, gross avg., touchbacks, punts downed inside the 20 and net avg. Lee was rewarded for his efforts with a six-year contract extension on 5/23/12, keeping him with the club through 2018.

// GOLDMINE

- Andy is considered a 'hometown hero' by his native Westminster, SC. The town mayor, Rusty Cater, presented Andy with a key to the city and a declaration commemorating "Andy Lee Day" on July 12, 2008.
- Andy never attended an NFL game growing up in South Carolina. Even when he went on to become a standout punter on the collegiate level at the University of Pittsburgh, he was still a stranger to live NFL action. The first professional game he ever witnessed in person was as a player with the 49ers in 2004. In fact, Andy didn't even set out to play football at all. "I was more of a baseball guy growing up. I actually wanted to be a Major League Baseball player. I played quarterback in 8th grade, and the coach asked, 'Who wants to try out for the punting position?' I didn't know you were supposed to spiral a punt, or turn it over, or any of that."

DEFENSIVE TACKLE

H: 6-3 W: 290

BORN 9.2.84 // PAHOKEE, FL // GLADES CENTRAL HS, BELLE GLADE, FL
FLORIDA // 7TH YEAR | ACQUIRED D-3B IN '07

Ray McDonald has been a formidable force for opposing offensive lines to deal with over the last two seasons, having started 31 of 32 regular season games in that span. In 2012, McDonald played a significant role on the defense, posting a career-high in tackles (106) while adding 2.5 sacks and a forced fumble. A model of determination and resiliency, he has missed just two games to injury during his five-year career, after having overcome multiple significant knee injuries while in college. Over the past four seasons, he is one of only eight NFL defensive linemen to score at least two touchdowns. The 49ers grabbed McDonald as a 3rd-round pick (97th overall) in 2007. After earning a starting role at LDE in 2011, he was rewarded with a 5-year contract extension on July 29, 2011.

// TRANSACTIONS

Originally the second of two 3rd-round (97th pick overall) draft choices by SF in 2007...Signed a 5-year deal with SF on 7/29/11.

// AWARDS & HONORS

2012: Hazeltine Iron Man Award, 49ers Blue Collar Player of the Year - Defense

// GOLDMINE

- McDonald's durability and toughness earned him the 49ers Hazeltine Iron Man and Blue Collar Defensive Player of the Year Awards for the 2012 season. During the year, McDonald started all 16 games and recorded 2.5 sacks, while taking on constant double teams to free up his teammates. The Hazeltine Iron Man Award is given annually to the most courageous and inspirational defensive player as voted upon by the defensive coaches.
- Ray comes from an athletic family as his father, Ray Sr., played wide receiver for the Florida Gators in the mid-80s and was featured on the cover of Sports Illustrated (Nov. 11, 1985) after catching both scores in a 14-10 victory at Auburn in 1985. Ray's grandfather, Willie McDonald, played running back at Bethune Cookman and his uncle was a cornerback at UCF. Ray didn't have strong aspirations of playing football professionally until later in high school, when his father began to prepare him for the pro game. "He didn't really push me into playing football when I was growing up, but I told him I really wanted to take off with football. So he dedicated his whole year to working me out."
- Ray has had his share of success growing up playing football. While in high school, he won a state championship four straight years, and then a national title at Florida, but still strives to achieve the ultimate prize of an NFL championship. "I have individual goals, but it all comes down to winning. I come from a winning tradition. All I'm missing out on is an NFL Championship."

- Since the 2008 offseason, Ray has looked for other ways to improve himself as a pass rusher. He has been boxing with the 49ers strength and conditioning staff in order to add more moves to his pass rushing repertoire. "It's something that I can add to my tray with hand-eye coordination. It helps with my endurance and my hand placement and I have enough force to knock someone off balance."
- Despite entering the NFL with great concerns regarding the health of his knees, which hurt his draft stock and forced him to be selected in the 3rd round in 2007, McDonald has missed just two games in his five-year career to injury.

BRUCE MILLER

FULLBACK

H: 6-2 W: 248

BORN 8.6.87 // CANTON, GA // WOODSTOCK HS, WOODSTOCK, GA
CENTRAL FLORIDA // 3RD YEAR | ACQUIRED D-7A IN '11

When Bruce Miller was drafted by the 49ers in the 7th round (211th overall) of the 2011 draft, he immediately made the transition from standout college defensive end to NFL fullback. The Woodstock, GA, native caught on so quickly that he earned a starting role by Week 3 of his rookie season and has missed just one game in 2 years. A two-time Conference USA Defensive Player of the Year, Miller led all active collegiate players during his time at Central Florida with 35.5 sacks.

// TRANSACTIONS

Originally the first of three 7th-round (211th overall) draft choices by SF in 2011.

// GOLDMINE

- Miller hopes to go back and coach his high school's football team. He said high school is the most crucial time where athletes need good coaches. "There's a big development stage between freshman and senior year of high school," he said. "Many important parts of kids' lives happen in that time. When you get to college, pretty much what you come in with is what you have. It'd be fun to be a part of." However, Miller described himself as a late bloomer who really developed athletically in college rather than in high school. "My coaches were very influential and played a big role in my life."
- Bruce wasn't the most highly recruited player coming out of high school. In fact, saying he was under the radar was an understatement; Bruce wasn't even on the radar. UCF defensive coordinator Dave Huxtable, however, was evaluating other Georgia players and noticed Bruce on film. "He was playing tight end," Huxtable said. "Running and catching balls and making players miss. He was on the kickoff cover team and he was the first one down there on the kickoff cover team plays. Then I got to watch him play basketball. He's a 6-2 center, but he's underneath there just battling on the boards. He's a special guy." Huxtable was one of Bruce's major influences in becoming the two-time Conference USA Defensive Player of the Year. "He played a huge roll for me," said Bruce. "I always looked at him for motivation and help. I went to Coach Hux because of the bond we made during recruiting and then playing for him at linebacker."
- Miller has been one of the 49ers most active players at community events in the Bay Area. "They're a lot of fun to take part in," he said. "Just having something to give and talking to people is my favorite part."

MARLON MOORE

WIDE RECEIVER

H: 6-0 W: 190

BORN 9.3.87 // SACRAMENTO, CA // NATOMAS HS, SACRAMENTO, CA
FRESNO STATE // 4TH YEAR | ACQUIRED FA IN '13

A Sacramento native and former Fresno State Bulldog, Marlon Moore called it a “dream come true” to have the opportunity to return to Northern California to join the 49ers, the team he grew up rooting for. Miami signed Moore as an undrafted free agent in 2010, and he went on to play in 29 games in three seasons with the Dolphins.

- They say a picture is worth a thousand words. For Marlon Moore, a picture solidified his desire to play football. When he was younger, he saw a picture of his father, Ernie, playing football recreationally while he was stationed in Hawaii with the U.S. Army. “When I saw a picture of him doing that, it just sparked my interest and made me want to go play. He gave me the opportunity,” he said. “He’d seen that I really wanted to do it and he told me to go for it. He’s the reason I’m here today. He told me to keep pushing for my goal.” Tragically, Marlon’s father, Ernie Moore, passed away from liver cancer in October of 2008 after being diagnosed with the disease just months earlier in July. “The only thing I can say is I wish my father was here to watch me be able to accomplish this dream and compete at the highest level.” Ernie remains Marlon’s motivation on the football field. “My dad just wanted me to continue working and focus on my dream because it was also his dream as well. So, I give a lot of love to my father, and my mother and my brother for where I’m at now.”
- A Sacramento native, Moore grew up rooting for the 49ers and began watching the team in the 1990’s. “The winning tradition that this team had started when I was a kid and it definitely manifested to now. Being a California kid and watching these guys growing up put me in a good spot coming here,” he said. “It’s a dream come true, knowing that my family is right across the bridge and not too far from me, knowing I’ll be able to see them and they’ll also be able to see me live out one of my dreams.”
- Moore’s biggest hobby is fishing. He grew up fishing in Sacramento and has tried out many lakes in Northern California such as Clear Lake, the Stockton Delta, Isleton and Rio Vista. Marlon’s father, Ernie, would take him bank and boat fishing. “He kept me right by his side. I picked it up and it’s what I love to do,” he said. “It’s relaxing.” With his catches, Marlon learned how to cook.

- In the future, Moore wants to return to his high school in Sacramento and help coach football. “If I can go back and change one kid’s life, whether it’s being about football or telling them my experience with academics, I want to see if I can make a difference,” he said. In college, Moore got a taste of coaching. During the summers, he helped run football camps with his teammates. “We had those kids working hard in the summer and they really enjoyed it,” he said. “Any mind I can mold and help go in a positive direction, that’s a plus in my life.”

TRENTON ROBINSON

SAFETY

H: 5-9 W: 193

BORN 2.16.90 // BAY CITY, MI // BAY CITY CENTRAL HS, BAY CITY, MI
MICHIGAN STATE // 2ND YEAR | ACQUIRED D-6A IN '12

The 49ers 6th round pick (180th overall) in the 2012 NFL Draft, Trenton Robinson made his NFL debut in Week 1 at Green Bay. He went on to play in 3 games for San Francisco as a rookie, seeing time on special teams. A First-Team All-Big Ten selection at Michigan State in 2011, Robinson led the Spartans with 4 INTs while adding 80 tackles, as a senior.

// TRANSACTIONS

Originally the first of two 6th-round (180th overall) draft choices by SF in 2012.

// GOLDMINE

- From an early age, Robinson has been surrounded by tremendous support whether in Bay City, Michigan or at Michigan State. "I wouldn't be where I'm at without my family and friends in Bay City," Robinson said prior to draft day. "It's hard to get to this level, and you can't do it alone." When Robinson was in high school, his mother, Tammy, moved to San Antonio, Texas, he stayed in Bay City to finish school. He moved in with his friends who opened their homes to him. "They've been phenomenal to me. They treated me like one of their own," Robinson said. He made sure to surround himself with honest and dependable people and found the entire community was on his side, encouraging him to make the most of the opportunity he was given. "I remember some of the older guys who maybe didn't go down the right path telling me, 'Don't try to be like me. Do your thing, Trenton.' It was like they were not going to let me steer off the path. I remember those talks, they meant a lot to me."
- Robinson's mother, Tammy, trained in the military and gave her son a strong foundation as a child. She received daily progress reports from the school and would secretly peek in on his classroom during the day. "They didn't have a lot of material things, but they were not going to lack in education," Mary Heidtman, Trenton's fifth grade teacher said. "His mother insisted her son was going to put forth every effort into school and do the best he could do." Robinson was raised with eight siblings and many cousins. His mother, aunts and uncles taught him the importance of a tight-knit family. "We raise all of our children together, so they have a very strong family background," said his mother. "That's why Trenton has strong values and strong morals, and he brings out the greatness in his brothers and sisters."

CORNERBACK
H: 6-0 W: 192
BORN 7.2.81 // AUGUSTA, GA // BUTLER HS, AUGUSTA, GA
AUBURN // 9TH YEAR | ACQUIRED FA IN '11

All-Pro Carlos Rogers combines his veteran experience and high football IQ with a nose for the football. He has started every game since joining the 49ers, recording 7 INTs and 2 TDs in two years. In 2012, Rogers tallied 69 tackles and recovered three fumbles. In 2011, he earned 2nd-Team AP All-Pro honors and his first Pro Bowl selection as a starter. Rogers entered the NFL as the 9th overall pick in the 2005 draft by Washington, and went on to play six seasons for the Redskins, before signing a one-year contract with the 49ers in 2011. The Niners re-signed Rogers to a four-year contract on March 16, 2012, which runs through the 2015 season.

- One of the things Carlos misses most about his hometown of Augusta, GA, is the southern food. "Being from the South, I love soul food," said the veteran cornerback. Carlos looks forward to his parents cooking every year during the holidays for dishes suches as collard greens, mac 'n' cheese, sweet corn bread and chicken. For Thanksgiving, Carlos' parents whip up black eyed peas, pecan pie and sweet potato pie. Carlos is determined to find a restaurant that reminds him of his southern roots. "The one thing I miss most is soul food and if I find a place out here, they will see me a lot."

- After graduating from high school, Carlos attended Hargrave Military Academy (VA) in 2000. Hargrave's football program is not the simple route, but the path to success for many young men looking for stronger college qualifications and the opportunity to test their football skills to the limit. "It opened up my eyes and I realized life shouldn't be all about football, but also about getting a good education," Carlos said. From learning how to march, to putting on a uniform, he experienced some military training and discipline every morning before class. "I lived in a dorm and for an hour of the day, we would march." His clothes, along with his bed sheets, needed to be neatly folded and placed at the foot of the bed every morning. "It was important for me to learn their ways. The instructor taught us how to clean our room, fold our clothes and clean dust from under our bed." Carlos believes the program helped him build a vastly stronger knowledge base and better self-discipline for further success in college. "It made college so much easier. You get a sense of what the military go through and I gained a lot of respect for them."

GUARD

H: 6-6 W: 325

BORN 1.30.82 // FULLERTON, CA // LA SERNA HS, WHITTIER, CA
OREGON // 9TH YEAR // ACQUIRED FA IN '13

Adam Snyder returns to the 49ers after spending the 2012 season with the Arizona Cardinals. The eight-year veteran has the ability to play every position on the offensive line and has made starts at each. In 2012, Snyder started 14 total games during the regular season, making 11 starts at right guard and his first three career starts at center. His versatility, experience and knowledge of the game provide the 49ers with a valuable resource on the offensive line.

// TRANSACTIONS

Originally the second of two 3rd-round (94th overall) draft choices by SF in the 2005 NFL Draft...Signed a five-year unrestricted free agent contract with Arz. on 3/14/12...Waived by Arz. on 4/29/13... Signed two-year deal with SF on 5/6/13.

// AWARDS & HONORS

2011: Madden Most Valuable Protectors Award (Week 5)

// GOLDMINE

- During his first stint with the 49ers, Snyder partnered with the Canine Companions for Independence, a non-profit organization which provides assistant and service dogs. Adam and his family hosted a fund raising party at his home, where he invited the people who used the service dogs. The Snyder family also owns two retired service dogs as pets.
- Ever since his freshman year in high school, Adam has made annual camping trips into the middle of the desert with his family and friends. "We've been setting up camp at the same place near Chiriaco Summit for years. It's basically in the middle of nowhere and we just ride 4x4's and enjoy one another's company."
- Growing up in Whittier, CA, Adam lived a short distance from the coast. He and his friends would often make the short drive to the beach, where they'd spend some time soaking in the rays and surfing. Due to the cold water in Oregon, Adam didn't surf in college, but he picked the sport back up when he was drafted by the 49ers in 2005. "On one of my first trips to Santa Cruz, I met a local shaper named Doug Haut. He shaped me a board and it kind of took off from there. I surfed quite a bit my first couple years in the league and try to get out there when I can these days." Adam now has a collection of five surfboards – three 10-footers, a nine-footer and a seven-foot fish – that he rides at the local breaks. His wife, Erika, learned how to surf in Hawaii and the couple enjoys the sport together.

- Since his early childhood, Adam has had aspirations to one day become a police officer. "It's been a line of work that has interested me for a long time. I imagine the camaraderie you build between your fellow officers is similar to the solidarity that's created among teammates on a football team. Everyone has each other's back." If Adam has any questions about joining the force, he doesn't need to turn far. His good friend and former 49ers teammate, Patrick Estes, joined the Santa Clara Police Department. Adam went on ride-alongs to get an up-close understanding of what being a police officer entails.
- Adam gained good work experience growing up in Whittier. He briefly served as a doughnut filler at Krispy Kreme Doughnuts before working a seasonal job at Honey Baked Hams, where he unloaded 50-60 pound boxes of meat into the freezer. Adam's most enjoyable job was at Rockview Dairy. "It wasn't your ordinary dairy, like milk and eggs. It was actually like a grocery store, it had everything. The coolest part was that it was a drive-thru. You'd just drive up, place your order and I'd go pick out the items from the back. I think it's weird that I haven't seen a similar type of place anywhere else."

JOE STALEY

TACKLE

H: 6-5 W: 315

BORN 8.30.84 // ROCKFORD, MI // ROCKFORD HS, ROCKFORD, MI
CENTRAL MICHIGAN // 7TH YEAR // ACQUIRED D-1B IN '07

Tasked with the duty of protecting the quarterback's blind side, two-time All-Pro Joe Staley has excelled in his role since being selected as the second of San Francisco's two 1st-round draft picks in 2007. In addition to being named All-Pro in 2011 and 2012, he was also selected to the Pro Bowl both years, earning the starting nod in the latter. Staley led an offensive line that helped the 49ers rush for 2,491 yards in 2012, ranking 4th in the NFL. As a rookie, he started all 16 contests at right tackle before switching to left tackle in his second year. A product of Central Michigan, Staley became the first player in school history to be drafted in the 1st round of the NFL Draft.

- During his time in the NFL, Staley has been known to sacrifice his privacy to help accommodate his teammates. In the past years, he has invited many young players to live with him free of cost. The long list of tenants includes current 49ers FB Brit Miller. "It helps out some guys so they can just focus on football," Staley said. "They don't have to worry about the rent and where the money is going to come from."
- This offseason, Staley was an ambassador for San Francisco's first Electric Run, a 5K race that benefits Smile Train, the world's largest cleft lip and palate charity. The race, which was held at Candlestick Park, raised $10,000 for Smile Train and more than 8,000 people participated in the event. "Anything that benefits children is just a great cause and I was very excited to put my name down for the charity and the event itself," Staley said.

// GOLDMINE

- Entering his sophomore season at Central Michigan, Staley and the football program experienced a coaching change. New head coach Brian Kelly and offensive line coach Jeff Quinn asked the young tight end to make the switch to offensive tackle. He agreed and the transformation began. The 250-pound tight end began to wake up at 2 a.m. to consume a 2,000 calorie weight-gaining shake and would later work out twice a day to prepare his body for its new life in the trenches. In the first offseason, Staley added 20 pounds to his lean frame. By the time he was a senior, he reached 290 pounds and went on to become the first Chippewa to be drafted in the first round of the NFL Draft.

- In high school, Thomas played quarterback. His division rival happened to be Andrew Luck, who eventually became his teammate at Stanford. As a QB, Thomas got to see the field from the opposite perspective, which he believes helps him on defense now. "I understand what receivers are trying to do to get open and where cornerbacks are looking," Thomas said. "It took a while to make the transition but I understood leverages that offenses want to put defenses in certain situations.
- Thomas began playing football thanks to his father, who has a successful career in the sport as a youth. "He never pushed me to play football, but he would tell me, 'If you want to, I can teach you certain things,'" Michael said. "He would always be there for me. I thank my whole family as a support system."

SCOTT TOLZIEN

QUARTERBACK
H: 6-3 W: 213
BORN 9.4.87 // ROLLING MEADOWS, IL // WILLIAM FREMD HS, PALATINE, IL
WISCONSIN // 3RD YEAR // ACQUIRED WAI. IN '11 - SD

Scott Tolzien's "gym rat" mentality has proven to be a valuable asset in learning the complexities of the 49ers offense over the last two seasons. The 49ers claimed him off waivers in September of 2011, after he spent training camp with the San Diego Chargers as an undrafted free agent. Tolzien starred at Wisconsin and studied at the time under offensive coordinator Paul Chryst, the brother of 49ers quarterbacks coach Geep Chryst. Along with DT Demarcus Dobbs and NT Ian Williams, it marked the first time since 2001 that the 49ers had at least two undrafted free agents make the team.

// TRANSACTIONS

Originally signed as an undrafted free agent with SD on 7/26/11... Waived by SD on 9/3/11... Claimed by SF on 9/4/11.

// GOLDMINE

- Tolzien lists coaching as his post-football career goal, but at a very young age he took to the athletic fields in a much different capacity than coach or player. In the 8th grade, he took a test that would launch his youth baseball umpiring career, a post held until college. "It was a great learning experience for me and good money for a young kid. It was tough for those kids to throw strikes and you had to keep your composure with the coaches always barking."
- Scott made a lifelong friend during the 2009 football season, a six-year old boy named Jaxson Hinkens. Hinkens had recently been diagnosed with stage four high-risk neuroblastoma and tumors riddled his body. Following surgery to remove tumors from his spine, Jaxson was invited to visit a Wisconsin Badgers football practice. The first person to greet him on the field was Tolzien. A bond immediately formed. Following Jaxson's second round of chemotherapy, Scott began a long string of hospital visits to spend time with his new friend. Along the way, Jaxson taught Scott to "Fear Nothing," a motto the friends adopted. "I never once heard him complain. He wasn't just fighting for a victory, he was fighting for his life." The two still keep in touch, more than three years after first meeting on the football field.
- Tolzien is one NFL player who will never forget where he came from, especially because he still keeps in touch with his elementary school, his 2nd grade teacher and her students. During Scott's sophomore year, Barb Grisaffe asked her former pupil if he would like to take part in Willow Bend Elementary School's "No Excuses" program, which tries to educate the kids on the benefits of going to college and getting their education. He gladly agreed and shortly thereafter created a blog where he would share with the 1st and 2nd grade students his college experience through words and photos. To this day he continues to make visits to the school and trade emails with the students.

SAFETY

H: 5-10 W: 208

BORN 7.24.85 // CLEVELAND, OH // GLENVILLE HS, CLEVELAND, OH
OHIO STATE // 8TH YEAR // ACQUIRED FA IN '11

Donte Whitner's athletic career almost ended before it even had a chance to start. When he was just 6 years old, he was hit by a car while chasing a ball into the street. With multiple fractures in both legs, doctors told his mother that he would never be able to walk normal again. Donte has used that story as motivation throughout his life to prove the doubters wrong. A first-time Pro Bowler in 2012, he recorded a career-high 119 tackles and 2 forced fumbles, while also scoring on a 42-yard interception return in New Orleans. In 2011, Whitner's first with the 49ers, he won the Garry Niver Award, which is given to the player who displays the most professionalism and cooperation in dealing with media. He was originally selected 8th overall in the 2006 NFL Draft by Buffalo and went on to help the Bills finish in the top 10 in pass defense in three of his five years (7th in '06, 2nd in '09, 3rd in '10) with the team.

- Watching Donte sprint from sideline to sideline on Sundays makes it hard to believe there were doubts about whether he would be able to walk again after suffering a near fatal accident as a youth. At the age of 6, Donte was run over by a car after darting into the middle of the street to chase a ball. For the next three months, Donte's mother, Deborah, carted her son around their Cleveland neighborhood in a wagon. Donte, who suffered multiple fractures to both legs, was forced to wear a body cast and doctors cautioned Deborah that her son might never walk normally again.

Kenny Wiggins enters his third consecutive training camp with San Francisco, having been signed by the team as an undrafted free agent in 2011. After being released prior to the regular season that year, he joined the Baltimore Ravens practice squad for the final five weeks of the 2011 season. He returned to training camp in San Francisco in 2012, and went on to spend the entire season on the team's practice squad.

// GOLDMINE

- Looking at his 6-6 frame, it makes sense that Kenny began his athletic career as a basketball player. He wasn't allowed to play youth football because he was too big. So, he didn't start playing organized football until he was in high school. Wiggins was cut from his 8th grade basketball team and thought it could have been the end of his hoops career. From the start of 8th grade until the beginning of his freshman year of high school, Wiggins grew 6 inches in a year, shooting up from 6-0 to 6-6. After playing football in the fall and at 6-6, his high school basketball coach encouraged him to try hoops for the winter. He played both football and basketball throughout high school and received college offers for both sports.
- Wiggins said he entered college as a developmental project. Fresno State's starting tackle at the time, Bobby Leopor, took Wiggins under his wing to refine his skills and help him with the little details such as footwork, hand placement and fundamentals. It helped Wiggins eventually become a starter for the Bulldogs. "I took what he told me to heart. I drew a line in the sand and realized who I wanted to be. Bobby still remembers that day," Wiggins said. "We're still great buddies today and we talk about that moment all the time."
- Growing up in Elk Grove, CA, a suburb of Sacramento in Northern California, Wiggins was a 49ers fan. In his family photo albums, Kenny has photos in compete Niners gear as a two-year old. "Sitting in the same locker room as Jerry Rice, Joe Montana and Steve Young gives me the chills," he said. "The first day I pulled up here to go to practice, when I found out I was going to be a Forty Niner, I sat in the parking lot for 10 minutes just soaking it in, thinking, 'This is crazy.'"

Served a major role on a line that helped pave the way for the 17th-ranked offense, including the 7th-best rushing attack and the nation's leading rusher, RB Ryan Mathews, who finished with 1,808 ground yds. and 19 TDs. Saw action in 2007, appearing in five contests, and redshirted in 2006.

// AWARDS & HONORS

2012: Thomas Herrion Award

// GOLDMINE

- Wilhoite took an interesting road to the NFL that began at Division II Washburn University in Topeka, KS. With two redshirt years, one due to an injury, Wilhoite spent six years developing his skills as a safety. Despite playing in the Cactus Bowl, the Division II all-star game, he did not latch on with a NFL team following his final season, in 2010. He later signed with the nearby Omaha Nighthawks of the UFL. "I had never played linebacker in my life until I got to the UFL. I used that experience as a research project. There were former first round picks on the team that I could learn what the NFL was like. The coaches had all worked in the NFL, so I made sure to pay attention to them in case I ever got a shot."
- Michael was the recipient of the 2012 Thomas Herrion Award. The award is presented annually to a rookie or first-year player who has taken advantage of every opportunity, turned it into a positive and made their dream come true like Thomas Herrion and is voted on by the coaches. After signing with the 49ers as an undrafted free agent from Washburn, Wilhoite made the 49ers practice squad and became a special teams captain after he was promoted to the team's active roster in December.

// 2012 (SAN FRANCISCO)

- Promoted to SF active roster on 11/30 after spending the first 12 weeks of the season on the SF practice squad.
- Made his NFL debut at StL (12/2) and tied the team lead with 2 special teams tackles.
- In just 5 games, recorded 7 special teams tackles, to rank 7th on the team.
- Tallied 4 special teams tackles in the postseason, tied for the team lead (TE Delanie Walker - 4).

// 2011 (SAN FRANCISCO)

- Spent the remainder of the season on the 49ers practice squad after signing on 12/14/11.

// 2011 UFL (OMAHA NIGHTHAWKS)

- Signed with the Nighthawks as an undrafted free agent and appeared in 4 games.

// COLLEGE

Wilhoite played in 44 games (35 starts) at Washburn University and recorded 211 tackles and 3 interceptions. A three-year captain (2008-10), Wilhoite was an honorable-mention all-conference pick in 2010. As a senior, he posted 81 tackles for the Ichabods after missing the 2009 season due to a stress fracture in his right shin. In 2008, he started 11 games recording 57 total tackles en route to honorable mention all-MIAA honors. Started all 12 games in 2007 and recorded 58 tackles, 3 INTs, 3 PDs, 2 FRs, and a FF. He became the first Ichabod to return an INT for a TD in a post-season game as he picked off a pass returning it 27 yds. against West Texas A&M. Played in 9 games after making the switch from free safety to outside linebacker in 2009, recording 6 stops. Sat out the season as a redshirt freshman in 2005.

// PERSONAL

- Graduated from Highland Park (KS) HS.
- Awarded Six-Second Competitor of the Year (2008) at Washburn for his strong work ethic.
- Wilhoite's early life growing up in a trailer park in Manhattan, KS, may sound tough to some, but not him, "It was actually really good. We weren't blessed with cash, but I had parents who loved and cared for me. I enjoyed life and was always outside playing football, basketball, baseball and swimming."
- Following his junior year in high school, Michael decided to move to Topeka to live with his grandparents, Shirley and Orville Buchheim, so that he could play basketball at highly rated Highland Park HS for head coach Ken Darding.
- A mass media major at Washburn, he would one day like to be a sports commentator. While in school completed an internship at WIBW radio where he did everything from pre- and post- production to occasionally participating on air.
- As a senior in college, helped coach a high school girls basketball team.
- Enjoys reading the Bible and non-fiction books.
- Had a paper route in the first grade.
- Worked at Red Lobster growing up. "I loved the job. I got to talk to people and I really wanted to make sure that their experience was really nice. They were spending good money, so I wanted to take care of them."
- While in high school, his baseball coach, Gwynn Riffel, gave him a part-time job handling landscaping at his home. To this day, Wilhoite leans on Riffel for life advice.
- Born Michael Wilhoite (12/7/86) in Topeka, KS.
- Majored in mass media with a minor in sociology.

IAN WILLIAMS

93

NOSE TACKLE

H: 6-1 W: 305

BORN 8.31.89 // ALTAMONTE SPRINGS, FL // LYMAN HS, LONGWOOD, FL
 NOTRE DAME // 3RD YEAR // ACQUIRED FA IN '11

Ian Williams has continued to grow and develop since signing with the 49ers as an undrafted free agent out of Notre Dame, in 2011. Along with DT Demarcus Dobbs and QB Scott Tolzien, it marked the first time since 2001 that the 49ers had at least two undrafted free agents make the team. The team rewarded him with a two-year contract extension on March 7, 2013, keeping him in the red and gold through 2015. While at Notre Dame, former 49er Bryant Young coached Williams during his junior year. Ian still talks to Young regularly, seeking his advice.

// GOLDMINE

- Ian learned that one of the most important things you have to learn when entering the NFL is time management, and attributes much of the early lessons he's learned to the older veteran players. "Just seeing the older players has helped me. You'd think once you've been in the League for a few years, guys start to relax, but that's not the case here, especially with Justin Smith. Those are the guys who I'm around every day, Justin and Ray McDonald. Those guys are going hard every single day. They're coming in and doing extra stuff all the time."
- Ian values having relationships with people who have played in the league. Former 49er Bryant Young coached Ian during his junior year at Notre Dame. "Just to have him as a reference and to be able to talk to him about stuff is huge, especially since he was out here for so long. He's like a legend and is going to be a Hall of Famer. It's great to have somebody like that who you're able to talk to and just run things by him."

// AWARDS & HONORS

2012: Ed Block Courage Award

// GOLDMINE

- Kyle's father, Kenny, is a former major league outfielder and currently the executive vice president of the Chicago White Sox. He became the White Sox's general manager in 2000 and helped the team win the 2005 World Series. It was the first World Series championship in Chicago since 1917. "It's been a great opportunity and an advantage to be around some pros and the best guys in the league growing up," said Kyle. It was an opportunity Kyle learned that very few other children get the chance to see. He saw firsthand what it took to be a professional athlete and believes that experience will help him in his current career.
- Kyle was selected in the 47th round of the 2006 MLB Draft by the Chicago White Sox out of high school.
- Williams became a dangerous weapon for the 49ers both on offense and special teams, in 2012, before suffering a season-ending knee injury in Week 12 against the New Orleans Saints. He was selected, by his teammates, as the 49ers recipient of the Ed Block Courage Award, named after the former head athletic trainer of the Baltimore Colts of 23 years. The award is given annually to a player from each NFL team that exemplifies a commitment to sportsmanship and courage. Block was a pioneer in his profession and a respected humanitarian whose most passionate cause was helping children of abuse.

MISSISSIPPI // 7TH YEAR // ACQUIRED D-1 IN '07

Arguably the greatest linebacker in the game today, Patrick Willis' sheer athleticism and knack for the football make him an annual candidate for NFL Defensive Player of the Year. His superman-like performances week-in and week-out have contributed to the six-time All-Pro leading the NFL in tackles on multiple occasions. As the 11th-overall selection in the 2007 NFL Draft, Willis made an immediate impact as a rookie, earning First-Team All-Pro, Pro Bowl and NFL Defensive Rookie of the Year honors. He has continued to build a resume that is destined for Canton. Not only has Willis been named All-Pro every year of his career, but he has also earned Pro Bowl recognition each season, becoming the only 49er to earn Pro Bowl honors in each of their first six seasons. A team captain in 2012, he ranked 2nd on the team in tackles (171) and finished the season with 9 PDs, 2 FFs and 1 FR. The leader of the 49ers defense was rewarded with a five-year contract extension that will keep him in the Bay Area through 2016.

// GOLDMINE

- Patrick and his siblings were separated from his biological father when he was 16. He moved in with his guardians, the Finleys, who were in their 20's when they took in Patrick and his three other siblings. Chris Finley was a math teacher and Patrick's basketball coach in high school. Julie Finley taught 5th grade. He refers to Chris and Julie as mom and dad.
- Patrick believes several of the jobs he held as a youth have made him into the hard-working person he is today. At the ripe age of 10, Patrick worked in a cotton field to help financially support his family. "My grandmother got me a job chopping cotton. I got $110 a week for chopping the weeds around the cotton so it could grow." Patrick's next job was in masonry, where he would mix mortar for the building of structures. He then worked alongside his father, who was a logger. "I would use a chainsaw and cut the limbs off. It was a pretty crazy job, I would get cut up all over." When Patrick was a sophomore and junior in high school, he would perform general maintenance around the school, which included waxing all the floors on the property.
- Patrick was a standout basketball player at Central High School, where he averaged close to 20 points and 10 rebounds per game throughout his career. An all-district, all-region and All-West Tennessee selection, Patrick played every position on the court and was named the district's Most Valuable Player. It wasn't on the blacktop where he crafted his game, but rather on the dirt in front of his house. At the age of 7, Patrick, his brother and his dad constructed a basketball hoop from cedar planks. For the next 10 years, one could often find Patrick and his family playing toe-to-toe on that very same hoop. "That's what kept me busy. We didn't have sport clubs, malls or movie theatres nearby. All we had was each other."
- Competition is what has driven Patrick throughout his life. "I love to compete, no matter what sport it is. Basketball, baseball, football, golf, bowling, fishing, whatever. Basketball was my first love...I played everything, guard, forward, center. In baseball, I played everything too, except for catcher." Patrick set the record for most home runs in his Little League. He started playing golf with his dad, Chris Finley, when he was 16. "Even though I'm not too good, I love to compete."
- One of Patrick's biggest influences growing up was his uncle, Arthur Joe Willis, who was a professional light-heavyweight boxer from 1989-2000, and competed in 33 pro fights. Patrick looked up to his uncle because he was able to make a name for himself as a successful boxer. Arthur matched up against James "Lights Out" Toney in 1990, and Toney later went on to beat former heavyweight champion Evander Holyfield in 2003.

- Since moving to the Bay Area, Patrick has been able to purchase a house of his own. "Buying my house in the Bay Area was awesome, truly a blessing. To grow up in a house like I grew up in and then now to have my real, own house that I can call home feels amazing. I'm truly grateful." Having his own house has served as a great place for his family to come and visit. Pat, being the leader he is both on the field and off, also uses his house to host team get-togethers to bring the guys closer together. "I think having get-togethers at my house, hanging out with teammates and getting to know them off-the-field is big. At the end of the day, one or two guys don't win as a team, three guys don't win as a team, the whole group does. And I think we've built a camaraderie hanging out like we did last year, having get-togethers, just bonding time because it's like family."
- Patrick has a variety of tattoos, with each carrying its own special meaning. One of his most inspirational tattoos is the word 'Believe' on his forearm. "When a person says 'I think,' I feel that leaves room for doubt. If I want to do something, I want to 'believe' I can do it, not just think." Patrick has three tear drop tattoos, which signify three significant people that have passed away in his life – his grandfather, uncle and brother.
- Tragedy struck Patrick's family right before his senior year at Ole Miss. His brother, Detris, drowned in a swimming hole when he was just 17 years old. Detris was a talented FB/LB who was heading into his senior year at Central High School and was a Division I-A prospect. In memory of his late brother, Patrick had the Superman shield tattooed on his chest. "We both loved Superman growing up. We were strong no matter what, but also had our weaknesses." Below Patrick's Superman tattoo reads, "My brother shall rise again." "I believe someday when my time on earth is over, I'll see him again."
- In 2007 and 2009, Patrick was named the recipient of the 49ers Bill Walsh Award. The Bill Walsh Award is voted on by the coaches and awarded to the 49ers team MVP. Willis is one of three players in franchise history to win the award twice (RB Frank Gore, DT Justin Smith).

2013 SAN FRANCISCO 49ERS DRAFT CLASS

ERIC REID

35

SAFETY

H: 6-1 W: 213

BORN 12.10.91 // BATON ROUGE, LA // DUTCHTOWN HS, GEISMAR, LA
LOUISIANA STATE // ROOKIE // ACQUIRED D-1 IN '13

A starter for the LSU Tigers since 2011, Eric Reid earned All-America honors and was a member of the All-SEC Academic Honor Roll in 2011 and 2012. Named a permanent captain by his teammates in 2012, he was a key member of an LSU defense that ranked among the nation's best in points allowed, total yards and rushing yards. Reid became just the second LSU safety to be selected in the first round of the NFL Draft, joining S LaRon Landry, who was selected sixth overall by Washington in the 2007 NFL Draft.

// TRANSACTIONS

Originally a 1st-round (18th overall) draft choice by SF in 2013.

// GOLDMINE

- Jim Harbaugh not only wanted to draft Reid to the 49ers roster coming out of college, but Harbaugh had his eyes on the safety when he was still in high school. As Stanford's head coach, Harbaugh tried to recruit Reid to play college football for the Cardinal. Harbaugh exchanged a few phone calls with Eric and his father, Eric, Sr. as well as many emails with his mother, Sharon. Reid chose LSU to remain close to home. "[Stanford] was actually the only school that recruited me as hard as LSU did. All of the other schools pretty much gave up knowing that I was an in-state guy, but it said a lot about how much [Harbaugh] wanted me to go to Stanford and I appreciated it."
- Ironically, after choosing to stay local for college, Reid hoped to be drafted by the 49ers so he could be in Northern California's Bay Area. Eric's mother, Sharon Guillory-Reid, works as a traveling nurse. Since Eric was in middle school in 2004, she has been traveling back and forth from Baton Rouge, LA, and the Bay Area, working in hospitals in Oakland, San Jose and San Leandro, staying in each state two to three weeks at a time. Now, Eric can remain close to his mother and gain insight on the area.
- Growing up, Eric's parent's taught him the importance of hard work, the value of money and focusing on strong academics. His mother expected him to earn straight A's. When Reid wanted money to buy things, his parents made him get a job. He worked at a water park when he was 15 and at Wal-Mart at age 16. He would work four to eight hours a week, even between his regular high school football practices. Sharon bought him a 2001 Honda Civic, which the family still owns. But Eric had one ultimatum, if he wanted gas to be able to drive the car, he'd have to learn to budget his expenses.
- In addition to instilling high character into Eric, his mother also made an impact on the gridiron. Sharon also played tackle football, spending one season for the Baton Rouge Wildcats of the Women's American Football League. She played tight end and defensive end in the full-contact, tackle league. However, the Wildcats only lasted one season when the team folded due to Hurricane Katrina.

TANK CARRADINE

DEFENSIVE TACKLE
H: 6-4 W: 273

BORN 2.18.90 // CINCINNATI, OH // TAFT HS, CINCINNATI, OH
FLORIDA STATE // ROOKIE // ACQUIRED D-2A IN '13

Nicknamed "Tank" at a young age, Cornellius Carradine was a Third-Team All-American and consensus First-Team All-ACC selection, as a senior. He helped lead a Florida State defense that ranked second in total defense and third in rush defense, in 2012. Prior to enrolling at Florida State, Carradine earned Region VI Defensive Player of the Year honors at Butler Community College in Kansas, in 2010.

// TRANSACTIONS

Originally the first of two 2nd-round (40th overall) draft choices by SF in 2013.

// GOLDMINE

- Born Cornellius Carradine, he was given the nickname "Tank" from his mom. He always used to have a little toy army tank with him. "I could never go anywhere without that army tank," he said. "I just had to have it with me, and I used to always push people over, try to run over people." His mom still has the original toy tank.
- Carradine grew up in a rough neighborhood in Cincinnati, where many of the people he knew got into bad situations with drugs and violence. He grew up without much money and his family struggled to put food on the table. Through it all, he learned to walk the other way. "I saw how certain situations can end up. Talking to the older people and coaches, they told me to do the right thing," he said. "Good things happen when you try to do the right things. That was the biggest thing I learned." Football was the biggest opportunity which propelled Carradine out of the area, earning him a college scholarship, where he earned a degree in sociology from Florida State. "People kept telling me, 'Man, I wish I had that opportunity to play this sport.' I'd seen my opportunity and knew the chances I had, knew what I would be doing if I didn't accomplish these goals. That's why I thrive on football. I give it all I've got and I try to play every play like it's my last. I respect this game because of what this game has gotten me through. I take advantage of it by doing the right thing, being a positive player and being good to my teammates and for the organization."

- After going through a rough childhood, Tank has a passion for telling his story to kids. He volunteers his time at charity foundations and football camps. "If kids can hear the importance of doing the right thing, if I can help them succeed in life, if they can get it when they're young, they'll live up to those things instead of trying to get knowledge as they got older," he said. "Then it might be too late, because they've already been on their own in certain situations."
- Tank loves animals, and has a large collection of exotic pets, including snakes, lizards, ferrets, a monkey, a bird, piranhas and a shark. "I could see myself doing animal research working in a zoo," he said.

RICE // ROOKIE // ACQUIRED D-2B IN '13

A two-time First-Team All-Conference USA selection, Vance McDonald made his mark as both a blocker and a receiver at Rice University. He finished his collegiate career ranked in the top 10 in receptions (7th), receiving yards (6th) and TDs (t-5th) in school history. In 2010, McDonald was named the recipient of the George R. // TRANSACTIONS

Originally the second of two 2nd-round (55th overall) draft choices by SF in 2013.

// GOLDMINE

- Vance grew up in Winnie, Texas, which was discovered to have a large oilfield and currently has about 3,500 residents. "We have three stop lights and any fast food restaurant you can possibly imagine and a bunch of hotels," McDonald said to describe Winnie. "It's a place for truckers to stop off and get some rest and a bite to eat driving off to Louisiana. The whole town is just one highway. Everyone knows everyone's business."
- McDonald spent draft day at home in Winnie with his family and closest family friends. "It was a big thing for the small town," he said. When 49ers head coach Jim Harbaugh called, McDonald slipped into his parents room and jokingly didn't tell the rest of his family that the 49ers were on the other line until he got off the phone. "They kept asking me, 'Who is it? Who is it?' It was just an unbelievable time, surrounded by the people that I care about most. It was finally here," McDonald said. "The people I was around made it that much better."
- Growing up, Vance spent a lot of his time at the Drake Planation in Winnie, a large open land full of wildlife such as ducks, geese and deer, which his uncle owned. He went fishing, caught crawfish and rode four-wheelers. "I loved just being an outdoorsman," he said. "It's a big agricultural town."

QUINTON PATTON

WIDE RECEIVER

H: 6-0 W: 204

BORN 8.9.90 // NASHVILLE, TN // LaVERGNE HS, LaVERGNE, TN
LOUISIANA TECH // ROOKIE // ACQUIRED D-4A IN '13

Quinton Patton, who earned First-Team All-WAC honors in each of his two seasons at Louisiana Tech, finished his collegiate career ranked 7th in school history in receptions (183) and receiving yards (2,594). He also hauled in 24 TD receptions, ranking 3rd in Bulldog annals. In 2012, Patton was appropriately nicknamed "The General," serving as the team captain.

// TRANSACTIONS

Originally the first of two 4th-round (128th overall) draft choices by SF in 2013.

// GOLDMINE

- Patton grew up in a couple of rough neighborhoods around Nashville, Tennessee, where drug use and violence ran rampant. "I probably have seen everything, people getting shot, all of it," he said. Quinton's friends realized his athletic abilities and made sure he stayed on the proper path. "They'd always tell me, 'No, you're not going to get into anything because we can see you have something that we don't.'"
- In addition, football helped Quinton stay out of trouble. "I put so much time, so much effort in, believed in myself, and wasn't afraid to take a chance," he said. "My chance is football and I always have fun." Patton lives by advice he received from his junior college football coach: "When hard work becomes fun, success will follow. If you aren't working hard and having fun, you're not going to get anything out of it." It's evident on the practice field and in the locker room. Patton makes his friends, teammates and anyone else he encounters, put on a smile and laugh. "That's what I always go by, that's why you always see me with a smile out here, working, running with a smile, cracking jokes, but I'm still working hard, I'm still getting into it."
- Patton learned to cook from his father, Herman, who worked as a chef at Country Pride, a truck stop restaurant in Antioch, Tennessee. "I always used to be in the kitchen, watching and learning them cook everything." Quinton's favorite dish to make is baked chicken with yams, sweet potatoes and brownies for dessert.

SUNDAY, SEPTEMBER 9

SAN FRANCISCO 30, GREEN BAY 22

LAMBEAU FIELD

The 49ers opened up the 2012 season with a 30–22 victory over the Green Bay Packers, marking the team's first win at Lambeau since 1990. The 49ers got on the scoreboard first with a 40–yd. FG by K David Akers, his first of three on the day from 40+ yds. After forcing Green Bay's second punt in as many possessions, QB Alex Smith engineered a 9–play, 92–yd. drive as he completed 4 of 6 pass atts. for 49 yds., capping it off with a 14–yd. TD pass to WR Randy Moss. The TD recept. by Moss (154) moved him into sole possession of 2nd place on the NFL's all–time TD reception list, trailing only Hall of Fame WR Jerry Rice (197). Green Bay responded with a 10–play, 80–yd. drive of their own as QB Aaron Rodgers found TE Jermichael Finley for a 1–yd. TD pass. San Francisco's next drive was once again led by Alex Smith's precise passing as he took the offense 55 yds. on 42 yds. through the air. Akers capped off the drive with a 43–yd. FG to make the score 13–7. The Niners stingy defense forced a 3–and–out on the Packers next possession, as WR Kyle Williams notched a 20–yd. PR to the 49ers 38 yd. line with 0:18 remaining in the half. On the first play of the drive QB Colin Kaepernick dashed up the field for 17 yds., setting up a 63–yd. FG att. Akers tied the NFL record for the longest FG in NFL history as he connected on the 63–yd. att. to end the half. The Packers started the 3rd qtr. with their second consecutive 3–and–out and gave way to the 49ers offense. San Francisco drove 84 yds. on 9 plays as WR Michael Crabtree, RB Frank Gore and TE Vernon Davis all registered plays of 20+ yds. Alex Smith completed a 4–yd. TD pass to Vernon Davis to finish off the 49ers fifth consecutive possession with a score and increased San Francisco's lead to 23–7 with 8:21 left in the 3rd qtr. After trading two possessions each with no scoring to speak of P Andy Lee launched a 61–yd. punt that was taken back for a 75–yd. TD on the return by Packers WR Randall Cobb. Green Bay made it a one possession game as Rodgers passed to WR Jordy Nelson to convert the two–point try and make the score 23–15 with 11:16 remaining in the 4th. The 49ers were forced to punt with 9:06 left in the 4th qtr. and on the Packers first play of the drive, LB NaVorro Bowman recorded his first career INT, picking off Aaron Rodgers and returning the ball 11 yds. to the Green Bay 23 yd. line. On the ensuing play, Gore rushed down the sideline for a 23–yd. TD to put San Francisco up 30–15 with 8:50 remaining in the game. The run by Gore gave him a total of 112 yds. for the game and marked his 30th career 100–yd. rushing game. His 30, 100–yd. games are the most in the NFL since 2005. Green Bay went on to score one more TD on a 10–yd. recept. by WR James Jones from Rodgers to pull within 8, but could not mount another scoring drive against the 49ers defense on their final possession.

NOTES: Head Coach Jim Harbaugh became just the second coach in franchise history to win opening day games in each of his first two seasons (George Seifert – 1989–90)...The 49ers have won consecutive season openers for the first time since 2002–03 (2002 – W at NYG; 2003 – W vs. Chi.)...The 49ers notched their first win at Lambeau Field since 11/4/90...K David Akers tied the NFL record for the longest FG in NFL history with a 63–yd. SUNDAY, SEPTEMBER 16 DETROIT 19, SAN FRANCISCO 27 CANDLESTICK PARK

The 49ers improved to 2–0 to open the 2012 season for the first time since 2009. The 49ers beat the Detroit Lions 27–19 under the lights on NBC's "Sunday Night Football." San Francisco got off to an early start by capitalizing on their first possession of the game on a 4–play, 67–yd. drive capped off by a 21–yd. TD pass from QB Alex Smith to TE Vernon Davis. The opening TD drive took just 1:12, marking the 49ers' fastest TD drive on their first drive of the game since 12/24/05 at StL (1–73, 0:16). Detroit's next two possessions resulted in 38 and 41–yd. FGs by K Jason Hanson to make the score 7–6 with the 49ers leading. With 2:33 remaining in the 1st qtr., S Dashon Goldson picked–off Lions QB Matthew Stafford and returned the ball 20–yds. to the Lions 23–yd. line. A few plays following the INT, RB Frank Gore registered his 45th career rushing TD as a 49er, with a 1–yd. TD run. Gore's 45th rushing TD moved him into a tie for 3rd place with RB Ken Willard on the 49ers franchise record for career rushing TDs. He now trails only RB Roger Craig and RB Joe Perry who each had 50 rushing TDs. Gore's TD run extended the 49ers' lead to 14–6 to start the 2nd qtr. After receiving the ball to start the 2nd half, Alex Smith led a balanced drive down the field, completing 4 of 4 pass atts. for 34–yds. and getting good production, on the ground, from Gore and RB Kendall Hunter who each ripped off runs 10+ yds. San Francisco responded with a 10–play march of their own, as Gore and Hunter accounted for 44 of the 55–yds. gained on the drive. Akers successfully knocked through a 48–yd. LB Aldon Smith and DT Ray McDonald combined to sack Stafford for a loss of 9–yds., forcing the Lions to settle for a Hanson 48–yd. FG to put the score at 20–12 in the 49ers favor. The 49ers put together one of their best offensive drives of the season as Smith and Crabtree connected on 3rd–and–7, 3rd–and–14 and 3rd–and–9 to setup Vernon Davis for a 23–yd. TD recept. The TD extended San Francisco's lead to 27–12 with 3:11 left in the 4th. After giving up a TD to the Lions in the final minutes of the game, the Niners recovered Detroit's last effort kick to seal the game. SAN FRANCISCO 34, NEW YORK JETS 0

METLIFE STADIUM

The 49ers improved their record to 3–1 to start the season for the second consecutive year, beating the New York Jets in convincing fashion 34–0. The last time San Francisco started 3–1 in back-to-back years was 2001–02. The Jets first possession of the game went 33–yds. on 7–plays before LB Aldon Smith recorded his first sack on a Jets 3rd–and–3 to force a punt. With 3:04 remaining in the 1st qtr., RB Frank Gore rushed for 5–yds. to begin the first scoring drive of the game. Three plays later, WR Mario Manningham took an end around down the sideline for a 28–yd. gain into Jets territory. QB Colin Kaepernick capped off the drive with a 7–yd. TD run, his first career TD, putting the 49ers ahead 7–0 with 13:43 remaining in the 2nd qtr. Kaepernick broke through the Jets defense multiple times for big gains, rushing 5 times for a career high 50 yds. On the Jets next possession, TE Dedrick Epps caught a 9–yd. pass from QB Tim Tebow, but the ball was knocked loose by S Dashon Goldson, which was recovered by CB Carlos Rogers and returned 1–yd. to the Jets 47–yd. line. New York's next possession began on its own 45–yd. line, but was quickly brought to a halt. LB Ahmad Brooks helped to force a 3–and–out with another sack on 3rd–and–short. The Jets had one more possession before the end of the half, but once again San Francisco's defense proved tough on 3rd down. LB Aldon Smith sacked QB Mark Sanchez, forcing another fumble, this time recovered by DT Justin Smith on the 49ers 26–yd. line. With 1:11 remaining before half, QB Alex Smith engineered an efficient drive to setup a 36–yd. FG for K David Akers, which he sailed through the uprights as the 1st half ended to give the 49ers a 10–0 lead. On the fourth play of the 2nd half, Sanchez's pass was tipped by DT Ray McDonald and intercepted by LB Patrick Willis. The INT was Willis' 6th of his career and 1st this season. With 6:15 remaining in the 3rd qtr. San Francisco took over at the Jets 48–yd. line. Alex Smith completed back-to-back passes of 12 and 25–yds. to setup Gore for a 2–yd. TD run to extend the lead to 17–0. The first play of the 4th qtr. was another stellar play by the San Francisco defense as Jets WR Santonio Holmes fumbled the ball, which was scooped–up by Carlos Rogers and returned 51–yds. for a TD. The FR by Rogers was his 2nd in the game, tying his career high in a single season and setting a new career high for FRs in a single game. Rogers' TD was the 3rd TD of his career and 1st career FR for a TD. The 49ers next possession led to another Akers FG, this time from 40–yds. The FG was setup by a strong run game, with 7 rushes accounting for 46–yds., spread amongst three different players. The 49ers rushing attack against the Jets was historical, as San Francisco gained 245 yds. on the ground, the most rushing yds. allowed in a single game by a Jets team under Rex Ryan. New York's ensuing possession stalled after only three plays, which led to a blocked punt by LB Larry Grant that resulted with the 49ers taking over at the Jets 4–yd. line. The blocked punt was Grant's 1st of his career and it was the first blocked punt recorded by the 49ers since 10/3/10 at Atl. Three plays later, RB Kendall Hunter registered his 3rd career TD and 1st of the season, on a 1–yd. TD run, stretching the eventual final score to 34–0. The 49ers shutout was only the 2nd shutout ever at MetLife Stadium since its opening in 2010.

BUFFALO 3, SAN FRANCISCO 45

CANDLESTICK PARK

The 49ers improved to 4–1 for the 2nd season in a row, beating the Buffalo Bills 45–3 in a record-setting day at Candlestick Park. The 49ers took to the air on their 2nd drive of the game as QB Alex Smith connected with TE Vernon Davis for a 53-yd. strike through the air, setting up a 1st-and-goal at the Bills 8-yd. line. K David Akers registered the first points of the game on a 19-yd. FG with 7:29 remaining in the 1st qtr. Akers has now made at least 1 FG in all 21 games as a 49er, tying the franchise record for the most consecutive games with a FG [Bruce Gossett (11/19/70 – 10/1/72)]. The Bills and 49ers traded possessions before Buffalo got on the scoreboard with 10:50 remaining in the 2nd qtr. on K Rian Lindell's 31-yd. FG. After the Bills FG, San Francisco began their next drive from their own 26-yd. line. The first play from scrimmage, Smith completed a 36-yd. pass to WR Michael Crabtree and on the ensuing play Smith went deep to WR Kyle Williams for a 43-yd. TD to make the score 10–3 after the 2–play, 00:52 drive. After stalled drives for both teams, LB Patrick Willis came up with a big hit to jar the ball loose from TE Scott Chandler as S Dashon Goldson recovered the ball and returned it 5-yds. to the Buffalo 28-yd. line with 00:29 remaining in the 1st half. On the ensuing play, Smith threw his 2nd TD of the game, this time a 28-yd. strike to Crabtree to extend their lead at the end of the half to 17–3. The red and gold gained 320 net yds. (83 rushing, 237 passing) of offense in the first half, the most by the team since 9/27/98 vs. Atl. (394 net yds. – 128 rushing, 266 passing). The 49ers' 237 net passing yds. in the 1st half were the most by the club since 9/27/98 vs. Atl. (266 net passing yds. in the 1st half). Buffalo received the ball to start the 2nd half and on the Bills third play LB Ahmad Brooks recorded his 3rd sack (23.0 career) of the 2012 season. Three plays later Buffalo was forced to punt and the 49ers took over at their own 34-yd. line. The 49ers offense continued to shine as Davis hauled-in a 24-yd. recept. to start the drive. On 2nd-and-10 from the 49ers 43-yd. line, Gore gashed the defense for 31-yds. on the ground. He finished it off two plays later with a 1-yd. TD run to push the lead to 24–3 with 10:01 remaining in the 3rd qtr. The turnover-hungry San Francisco defense took the ball away from the Buffalo offense after 5 plays, on CB Chris Culliver's INT. Smith and the 49ers offense kept the momentum, as they marched 94-yds. on 13-plays, capped-off by WR Mario Manningham's 10-yd. TD recept. from Smith. The TD was Manningham's 1st TD as a 49er. Smith finished the game with a 156.2 QB rating, a career high and the highest single-game performance in the NFL since 12/26/10 [Bengals QB Carson Palmer – 157.2 vs. SD]. He currently ranks first in the NFL with a 108.7 QB rating through 5 weeks. The red and gold quickly forced a three-and-out on the Bills next possession. Following the punt, the 49ers ground game pounded the ball down the field. Grinding out 67-yds. rushing on 7-plays, the 49ers again found themselves in the end zone on QB Colin Kaepernick's 16-yd scramble for a TD to make the score 38–3 with 10:00 remaining in the 4th qtr. The Bills were forced into their second consecutive three-and-out on their next possession. San Francisco stuck to the run with its last possession of the game, rushing 10 times on an 11-play drive that was highlighted by RB Anthony Dixon's 4-yd. TD run, his 1st of the season and brought the final tally of the game to 45–3. With the win, the 49ers improved to 11–1 at home since 12/1/10. San Francisco's current .917 winning pct. at home is the 3rd best in the NFL during that span [GB – 13–1 (.929); Bal – 13–1 (.929)]. The 49ers offense amassed 621 net yds. (311 rushing, 310 passing), setting the single-game franchise record. San Francisco became the first team in NFL history to post 300-or-more yds. rushing and passing in the same game.

NEW YORK GIANTS 26, SAN FRANCISCO 3

CANDLESTICK PARK

In the rematch of last year's NFC Championship Game, the 49ers made uncharacteristic turnovers as the Giants pulled off a stunning victory on the road at Candlestick Park. The 49ers started the game strong, driving 59-yds. on 12-plays, but failed to come away with any points as K David Akers missed a 43-yd. FG wide right. San Francisco's defense forced a 3-and-out on the Giants first offensive possession to give the 49ers offense the ball for the second time. QB Alex Smith engineered a precise offensive attack down the field, passing for 41 yds. Smith connected with WR Randy Moss on a 20-yd. strike, his first of two 20+ yd. receipts. on the day. Moss recorded 75 yds. rec. on the day, becoming just the fourth player in NFL history to surpass 15,000 career rec. yds. (15,032). He trails only WR Jerry Rice (22,895), WR Terrell Owens (15,934) and WR Isaac Bruce (15,208) for the most rec. yds. in NFL history. The 49ers finished the 61-yd. drive with a 42-yd. FG by K David Akers to make the score 3-0 with 2:04 remaining in the 1st qtr. With the FG, Akers has now made at least 1 FG in all 22 games as a member of the 49ers, breaking the franchise record for the most consecutive games with a FG [K Bruce Gossett (11/19/70 through 10/1/72)]. In the 2nd qtr. an INT thrown by Alex Smith led to a New York scoring drive, capped off by a 6-yd. TD pass from Manning to WR Victor Cruz, making the score 7-3 with 10:08 remaining in the 2nd qtr. After San Francisco failed to get anything going on offense, the Giants put together another scoring drive, this time leading to K Lawrence Tynes knocking a 34-yd. FG through the uprights to push the score to 10-3 in the Giants favor with 3:04 remaining in the half. The 49ers were forced to punt back to New York after failing to get a 1st down, and with 15 seconds remaining in the half the Giants setup for a 40-yd. FG. On the FG attempt, CB Tarell Brown blocked Tynes' kick, his 1st career blocked FG and the first by the 49ers since DT Ray McDonald blocked a 44-yd. attempt by K Ryan Longwell at Min. (9/27/09). The 3rd qtr. was all Giants as New York returned the opening kickoff 66 yds. to start the 2nd half. The good starting field position was capitalized on with a 1-yd. TD run by RB Ahmad Bradshaw to finish the 7-play, 32-yd. drive. The next two offensive possessions for the 49ers ended in INTs, both of which led to Tynes FGs of 30 and 22-yds. to stretch the score to 23-3 with 7:43 remaining in the 3rd qtr. On the second play of the 49ers next possession, Smith launched a 55-yd. pass to Moss for a completion, marking Smith's longest completion of the season and Moss' longest recept. as a 49er. San Francisco failed to take advantage of the long gain by Moss and turned the ball over on downs. The Giants and 49ers traded possessions as both offenses struggled to put any points on the scoreboard until Tynes added to the Giants lead with his 4th FG of the game, this time from 32-yds. The FG was the last scoring play of the game as the Giants left Candlestick Park with their 4th win of the season, handing the 49ers their 2nd defeat.

The 49ers improved to 6–1 in NFC West divisional games under head coach Jim Harbaugh, as they opened up division play with a physical battle against the Seattle Seahawks on Thursday Night Football en route to a 13–6 victory. The Seahawks first possession went 10–plays for 62–yds. ending with a 52–yd. FG by K Steven Hauschka to give Seattle a 3–0 lead with 5:34 remaining in the 1st qtr. San Francisco answered back on its ensuing possession with an 11–play, 60–yd. drive of its own, capped off by K David Akers' 38–yd. FG, knotting the score at 3–3 with :31 remaining in the 1st qtr. Akers FG extended his 49ers franchise record to 23 consecutive games with at least 1 FG made. The Seahawks opened the 2nd qtr. with its second consecutive drive leading to a FG, a 35–yd. kick by Hauschka making the score 6–3. The 49ers and Seahawks stout defense's dug in, leading to five possessions resulting in no change on the scoreboard, as the 1st half expired. RB Frank Gore, led the 49ers first possession of the 2nd half with 50 total yds. on the 10–play, 86–yd. drive. Gore rushed for 131 yds. on 16 carries (8.2 avg.), marking Gore's 32nd career 100–yd. game and 3rd of the season. TE Delanie Walker, capped off the drive with a 12–yd. TD recept. from QB Alex Smith to give the 49ers a 10–6 lead with 4:36 remaining in the 3rd qtr. It was Walker's 1st TD of the season and 6th of his career. On Seattle's ensuing possession, S Dashon Goldson intercepted QB Russell Wilson and returned the ball 1–yd. to the San Francisco 27–yd. line. The INT was Goldson's 2nd of the season and 13th of his career. On offense, the red and gold continued to open up running lanes for Gore, as he broke off a 37–yd. run to the Seattle 8–yd. line. Three plays after Gore's long run, Smith threw an INT and Seattle CB Brandon Browner returned the ball to the Seahawks 3–yd. line. After the turnover, the 49ers defense stiffened and forced a 3–and–out to keep the pressure on the Seahawks. On the Niners next possession, they continued to pound the ball on the ground as RB Kendall Hunter and Gore helped position the offense for Akers to knock through a 28–yd. FG, his 2nd FG of the game, to make the score 13–6 with 5:28 remaining in the 4th qtr. The 49ers finished the day by rushing for 175 yds. on 32 carries (5.5 avg.). Under Harbaugh, the 49ers improved to 17–0, including the postseason, when Gore and Hunter combine for more than 20 carries. On its next possession, the Seahawks were unable to move the ball against the San Francisco defense and were forced to punt as the 49ers took over with 2:05 left in the game. Seattle used its last two timeouts to stop the clock and force P Andy Lee to punt. Lee booted a 66–yd. punt, pinning Seattle inside the 20–yd. line for the 4th time of the game. With the game on the line, San Francisco's defense shut down the Seahawks. LB Aldon Smith recorded a sack for a loss of 7 yds. Smith's sack gives him 5.5 on the season and 19.5 for his career. The sack was followed by a false start penalty, putting the Seahawks in 3rd–and–17 from their own 4–yd. line. Seattle was unable to convert for a 1st down and the 49ers took over as the game ended with San Francisco in the victory formation. The 49ers defense did not allow a TD for the 3rd time this season, limiting the Seahawks to only 2 FGs. The last time the 49ers held opponents without a TD in at least three of the team's first seven games was 1976 [2 FGs vs. NYJ (10/3); and 1 FG vs. NO (10/17)]. The 49ers win against the Arizona Cardinals marked San Francisco's 42nd win on Monday Night Football, the 2nd most in NFL history behind the Dallas Cowboys (43 wins). With the win, the 49ers improved to 5-1 against the Cardinals on Monday Night Football, including going 4-1 against Arizona on MNF since 2007. The 49ers second possession resulted in the game's first points, as the Niners drove 10-plays, for 77-yds. capped off by WR Michael Crabtree's 3-yd. TD recept. from QB Alex Smith. The 49ers improved to 12-3 under head coach Jim Harbaugh when scoring first. Smith's TD pass was the start to a historical day through the air for the 49ers QB, as he completed 18 of 19 atts. for 232 yds., 3 TDs and a QB rating of 157.1. Smith set the single-game NFL record with a 94.7 comp. pct. with a minimum of 15 atts. With 9:52 remaining in the 2nd qtr., WR Ted Ginn Jr. returned an Arizona punt 35-yds. to the Cardinals 45-yd. line. The good starting field position setup a 43-yd. FG for K David Akers. Akers has now made at least 1 FG in all 24 games as a 49er, extending the franchise record for most consecutive games with a FG. The stifling San Francisco defense forced a 3-and-out on the Cardinals ensuing possession. The 49ers defense was at the top of its game on Monday night, holding Arizona to just 7 yds. rushing, tying the fewest rushing yds. allowed in a single game in franchise history [7 at NO (10/1/72)]. The 7 rushing yds. allowed was the lowest output allowed in the NFL at that point, surpassing the Tampa Bay Buccaneers, who held Car. to 10 rushing yds. (9/9/12). Following the Arizona punt, Smith led the offense down the field, going a perfect 6 of 6 through the air. The drive resulted in a 9-yd. TD pass from Smith to Crabtree, stretching the 49ers lead to 17-0 with 1:47 remaining in the 1st half. Crabtree registered the second, 2 TD performance of his career, hauling in 5 receipts. for 72 yds. His only other 2 TD game was at StL. (1/1/12). Crabtree has now played in 50 regular season games and has recorded at least 1 recept. in every game of his career. The Cardinals attempted to make a dent in the 49ers lead before the end of the half, but QB John Skelton was forced to launch a 'hail mary' pass on 4th down that was intercepted by CB Chris Culliver as the half expired. Culliver's INT was his 2nd of the season, and 3rd of his career. Culliver also set a new career high, along with CB Tarell Brown, by each registering 5 PDs. According to the NFL Gamebook statistics, the 5 PDs by Brown and Culliver are tied for the most in the NFL this season, along with Den. CB Tracy Porter [5 PDs vs. Pit. (9/12)]. As the 3rd qtr. began, the 49ers defense continued its excellent play, forcing another Arizona punt. The 49ers offense picked up right where it left off, as Smith completed two long passes, one for 30-yds. to Crabtree and the next to WR Randy Moss for a 47-yd. TD. With the TD, Moss now ranks tied for 4th in NFL history with 156 total TDs, and has now registered 18 TDs in 19 games on Monday Night Football. Smith's 3rd TD pass tied his career high in a single game, marking the 8th time in his career he has accomplished that feat. The Cardinals' next offensive possession resulted in its only points of the game, as K Jay Feely connected on a 28-yd. FG, to make the score 24-3 with 1:00 remaining in the 3rd qtr. The Cardinals' next possession did not yield the same result, as LB Ahmad Brooks (4th of the season, 24th of his career) and LB Aldon Smith (7.5 on the season) notched back-to-back sacks to force a punt. Smith recorded his 2nd sack of the game on Arizona's following possession, sacking Skelton for an 8-yd. loss. He now has 21.5 career sacks and reached 20.0 career sacks in just 24 games, becoming the 2nd fastest in 49ers history, behind Hall of Famer Fred Dean who reached 20.0 sacks in 23 games from 1982-83. The 49ers improved to 7-1 in NFC West divisional games under head coach Jim Harbaugh and 2-0 against the NFC West this season.

SUNDAY, NOVEMBER 11

ST. LOUIS 24, SAN FRANCISCO 24 (OT)

CANDLESTICK PARK

The 24–24 stalemate marked the 14th tie for the 49ers since joining the NFL in 1950 and first since 1986 [10–10 at Atl. (10/19)]. It also marked the 49ers first tie at Candlestick Park since 1972 [20–20 vs. NO (10/22)]. St. Louis got off to a fast start, scoring on a 36–yd. TD pass from QB Sam Bradford to WR Brian Quick. The Rams next possession went 7–plays, for 93–yds., ending with a 7–yd. TD run by RB Steven Jackson to make the score 14–0 at the end of the 1st qtr. The 49ers answered on their next possession, driving 78–yds. on 12–plays, capped off by QB Alex Smith's 14–yd. TD pass to WR Michael Crabtree. Crabtree's TD recept. came on 3rd–and–7, marking his 3rd TD on 3rd down this season, ranking 1–3rd in the NFL. Crabtree has tallied a TD in each of his last 5 games against St. Louis. Following the TD drive, Smith left the game due to injury. The San Francisco defense stiffened following the offense's TD, forcing two consecutive 3–and–outs and what would have been a third if not for P Johnny Hekker's 1st down completion on a Rams fake punt. Three plays after the fake punt, LB Aldon Smith ended the Rams drive and the 1st half with his first of 2.0 sacks in the game. Smith has recorded 9.5 sacks for the season and 23.5 for his career. Smith's 9.5 sacks ranks 3rd in the NFL and 1st in the NFC. The first possession for each team, to start the 3rd qtr., resulted in no change on the scoreboard. With 8:43 remaining in the 3rd qtr., St. Louis began a 16–play drive that milked 8:25 off the clock and resulted in a 27–yd. FG by K Greg Zuerlein, stretching the lead to 17–7. On the 49ers next possession, Alex Smith's backup, QB Colin Kaepernick, led the Niners down the field, completing 5 of 5 pass atts. for 67–yds. Kaepernick finished the drive with a 7–yd. TD run, as he successfully dove inside the pylon with 8:48 remaining in the 4th qtr. On the ensuing kickoff, RB Isaiah Pead fumbled the ball at the St. Louis 28–yd. line. CB Tramaine Brock (1st career FF) forced the fumble, it was recovered by S Darcel McBath (1st career FR) and returned 8–yds. to the Rams 20–yd. line. The 49ers first play following the fumble resulted in a 20–yd. TD run by RB Frank Gore. Gore rushed for 97 yds. on 21 carries. The 20–yd. TD run marked his 5th TD of the season and 48th of his career. He currently trails just RB Joe Perry (50) and RB Roger Craig (50) for the most rushing TDs in franchise history. The TD made the score 21–17 in San Francisco's favor with 8:29 left in the 4th qtr. The Rams answered the 49ers score with a score of their own, going 14–plays, for 81–yds. capped off by a 2–yd TD pass from Bradford to WR Austin Pettis. The long St. Louis drive left only 1:13 on the clock, as the 49ers trailed 24–21. Kaepernick engineered an 8–play, 63–yd. drive under pressure, accounting for 54 yds., to set K David Akers up for a 33–yd. game–tying FG to force overtime. In the extra period, St. Louis won the toss and elected to receive. On the Rams first play, Amendola recorded an 80–yd. recept. down to the 49ers 2–yd. line, but an illegal formation penalty against the Rams erased the long catch and brought the ball back to the St. Louis 13–yd. line. A few plays later, San Francisco forced a Rams punt, setting up good field position for the 49ers offense. The 49ers drove down to the St. Louis 23–yd. line, to set Akers up for a 41–yd. FG attempt that was wide left. The Rams took the ball, drove to the San Francisco 40–yd. line and Zuerlein also missed the potential game–winning FG as neither team was able to score before the clock ran out, resulting in a tie. The 49ers have not lost in 12 consecutive home games against division opponents, the longest active streak in the NFL.

NOTES: The San Francisco 49ers record against the St. Louis Rams now stands at 62–61–3, including 31–31–2 at home. The last time the 49ers and the Rams played to a tie was in 1968 [20–20 (11/17)]...San Francisco is now 8–1–1 in NFC West divisional games under head coach Jim Harbaugh, including 2–0–1 this season...WR Michael Crabtree led the team with 5 recepts. for 70 yds. and 1 TD....QB Colin Kaepernick came off the bench, replacing an injured QB Alex Smith, and completed 11 of 17 atts., for 117 yds. and a QB rating of 84.7. He also added 8 carries for 66 yds. and 1 TD...Since 2011, the 49ers are now 18–1–1 when RB Frank Gore and RB Kendall Hunter combine for 20 carries or more.

MONDAY, NOVEMBER 19 CHICAGO 7, SAN FRANCISCO 32 CANDLESTICK PARK

The 49ers improved their prime time record to 63–32 and 38–15 at home with their 32–7 victory against the Chicago Bears on Monday Night Football. Head coach Jim Harbaugh improved his regular season coaching record to 20–5–1 and became the fastest active NFL head coach to reach 20 victories, doing so in 26 games. Pittsburgh head coach Mike Tomlin was the previous active leader, who won 20 of his first 29 games. In his first career start, QB Colin Kaepernick led the 49ers offense to 4 consecutive scoring drives on their first 4 possessions of the game, marking the 1st time the offense had accomplished that feat since 10/27/02 vs. Arz. Kaepernick took charge in the first San Francisco possession, as he completed 4 of 5 pass atts. for 45 yds. setting up K David Akers for a 32–yd. FG that sailed through the uprights. Chicago's first possession on offense was a quick 3–and–out as a result of LB Aldon Smith's sack on 3rd–and–2. It was Smith's first of 5.5 sacks on the night, the most in Monday Night Football history. Smith now has 15.0 sacks on the season which ranks 1st in the NFL. Smith's 29.0 career sacks are the 3rd–highest total in NFL history for players in their first 2 seasons (DE Reggie White – 31.0; Derrick Thomas – 30.0). On the ensuing possession, Kaepernick engineered his second scoring drive in as many possessions. On 3rd–and–7 he completed a 57–yd. pass to WR Kyle Williams down to the Bears 3–yd. line. The 57–yd. recept. was a career long for Williams. On the following play, TE Vernon Davis hauled in a 3–yd. TD pass from Kaepernick, his 1st career passing TD, to make the score 10–0 with 6:19 remaining in the 1st qtr. Davis recorded 6 receipts. for 83 yds. Davis now has 5 TDs on the season and 40 TDs in his career. After another possession resulting in no points for the Bears, the 49ers began to open up running lanes for RB Frank Gore and RB Kendall Hunter as they accounted for 47 yds. on the ground during the 49ers third possession. Hunter finished off the drive with a 14–yd. TD run on an 8–play, 96–yd. march down the field. The 96–yd. drive was the 49ers longest since producing a 97–yd. drive at NO [9/28/08 – 6–play, 97–yd. drive (2:18) that ended with a 5–yd. TD pass from QB J.T. O'Sullivan to WR Isaac Bruce]. Since 2011, the 49ers are 19–1–1 when Gore and Hunter combine for 20 carries or more. Chicago's next possession began with Aldon Smith's second sack of the game, which caused QB Jason Campbell to fumble, but the Bears retained possession on the Campbell recovery. Smith tallied 2 FFs during the game, setting a single–game career high. He now has 3 FFs on the season and 5 for his career. Two plays later CB Tarell Brown broke on a Campbell pass, intercepted it and returned the ball 5–yds. to the Chicago 44–yd. line. A 14–yd. run by Gore and 20–yd. recept. by WR Michael Crabtree from Kaepernick setup Akers for a 37–yd. FG, his 2nd made FG of the game, stretching the 49ers lead to 20–0 with 6:37 remaining in the 2nd qtr. San Francisco forced the Bears offense to two more 3–and–outs, keeping their 20–0 lead intact at the end of the first half. Chicago's first possession after halftime was once again brought to an end on a 3rd down sack by Aldon Smith. On the 49ers second offensive play of the 2nd half, WR Mario Manningham registered a 37–yd. recept. down to the Chicago 14–yd. line. Three plays later, Kaepernick threw his 2nd TD pass of the game to Crabtree on a 10–yd. completion making the score 27–0. The Bears answered with a 13–play drive of their own, scoring on a 13–yd. TD pass from Campbell to WR Brandon Marshall with 3:51 remaining in the 3rd qtr. After one of the few 3–and–outs by the 49ers offense all game, on 3rd–and–3 Campbell's pass was picked off by S Dashon Goldson at the Chicago 37–yd. line. Goldson's INT marked his 3rd on the season and 14th of his career. The good starting field position led to a 32–yd. FG by Akers, his 3rd FG of the game. He has now made at least 1 FG in all 26 games as a 49er, extending the franchise record for consecutive games with a made FG. The Bears next possession involved the last scoring play of the Monday night game. After Aldon Smith and DT Justin Smith combined for a sack on 2nd–and–20, the Bears were pushed back to their own 8–yd. line. The ensuing play resulted in Aldon Smith's 2nd FF caused by a sack in the game. The ball was recovered by Bears G Chilo Rachal in the end zone and he was tackled by DT Ray McDonald for the safety making the score 32–7.

NOTES: The 49ers improved to 32–29–1 overall and 22–12 at home against the Chicago Bears...San Francisco improved to 5–1 in prime time and 3–0 on Monday Night Football under head coach Jim Harbaugh... Smith's 5.5 sacks are the 2nd most by a 49er in a single game in franchise history, trailing just DE Fred Dean's 6.0 sacks vs. NO (11/13/83)...Smith's 29.0 career sacks are the most by any player in consecutive seasons in franchise history. The previous record was held by DE Chris Doleman (27.0 sacks from 1997–98).

SUNDAY, NOVEMBER 25

SAN FRANCISCO 31, NEW ORLEANS 21

MERCEDES-BENZ SUPERDOME

The 49ers improved to 47–24–2 overall and 24–13 on the road against the New Orleans Saints with a hard-fought 31–21 victory against the Saints at the Metrodome. San Francisco's defense forced New Orleans to two consecutive 3-and-outs on their first two possessions of the game. QB Colin Kaepernick made his second NFL start of his young career, completing 16 of 25 pass atts. for 231 yds., 1 TD, 1 INT and a QB rating of 90.6, while also adding 6 carries for 27 yds. and 1 TD on the ground. On the second play of the 49ers second possession, Kaepernick connected with WR Mario Manningham for 40 yds. and then again on the next play for 13 yds., putting the ball on the New Orleans 7–yd. line. From there, Kaepernick ran it in for a 7–yd. TD run. It was his 4th rushing TD of the season, marking the most by a 49ers QB since Jeff Garcia tallied 7 rushing TDs in 2003. New Orleans answered the 49ers score with a 10–play, 79–yd. drive of their own, capped off by a 6–yd. TD pass to TE David Thomas from QB Drew Brees. The 49ers and Saints' offenses both stalled on each of their next possessions leading to a mishandled punt by WR Ted Ginn Jr. that was recovered by New Orleans S Rafael Bush on the San Francisco 11–yd. line. Two plays later, Brees completed a 10–yd. TD pass to WR Marques Colston, making the score 14–7 in favor of New Orleans. With :43 remaining in the 2nd qtr., Kaepernick was picked off by CB Patrick Robinson at the New Orleans 44–yd. line. Two plays after the INT, Brees was intercepted by LB Ahmad Brooks and Brooks returned it 50–yds. for a TD, tying the score at 14 apiece going into halftime. The INT returned for a TD was Brooks' 1st career TD, 1st INT of the season and 2nd of his career. The 49ers began the 2nd half with the ball, as Kaepernick led a balanced attack down the field. On 3rd–and–2, TE Delanie Walker hauled in a 45–yd. recept. from Kaepernick down to the New Orleans 27–yd. line. Three plays after Walker's catch, Gore registered a 6–yd. TD recept. from Kaepernick. It was Gore's 10th career TD recept. and 1st of the season. On the first play of the Saints' ensuing possession, DT Justin Smith notched his 1st sack of the game. Smith registered a season high 1.5 sacks in the game and now has 74.5 sacks in his career. Following the sack, Brees was intercepted by S Donte Whitner and returned 42–yds. for a TD, stretching the 49ers lead to 28–14 with 11:42 remaining in the 3rd qtr. It was Whitner's 1st INT of the season and 8th of his career. It marked his 2nd career TD and 1st since 9/20/09 vs. TB (as a member of the Buffalo Bills). The 2 INTs returned for TDs marked the first time the 49ers had accomplished that feat since 10/22/95 vs. StL (LB Ken Norton Jr. – 21–yd. and 35–yd. INT returns). On their next possession, New Orleans drove 8–plays for 80–yds. and scored on a 2–yd. pass to FB Jed Collins from Brees. The 49ers began the 4th qtr. with the ball, as Kaepernick and Gore marched down the field 85–yds to setup K David Akers for a 27–yd. FG that put San Francisco ahead 31–21 with 7:53 remaining in the 4th qtr. With the FG, Akers has now made at least 1 FG in all 27 games as a 49er, extending the franchise record for consecutive games with a made FG. The 49ers defense was stifling for the remainder of the 4th qtr., as they sacked Brees 3.0 times and did not allow the Saints to pass midfield. The 49ers defense tallied 5.0 sacks on Brees, the most against the Saints since 10/30/11 at StL (6.0 sacks). The 49ers have won 8 of their first 11 games for the 2nd consecutive season (9–2 in 2011), the first time the team has accomplished that feat in back–to–back years since 1997–98.

SUNDAY, DECEMBER 2

SAN FRANCISCO 13, ST. LOUIS 16 (OT)

EDWARD JONES DOME

The 49ers and Rams had to play deep into overtime for the second time this season, as St. Louis outlasted San Francisco in a tough divisional matchup. Both defenses played well, resulting in only one scoring play during the 1st half. After forcing the Rams to a 3-and-out, the 49ers took over on their own 40-yd. line. On the first play of the drive, RB Frank Gore gained 23-yds. on the ground, putting the ball at the St. Louis 37-yd. line. The offensive line continued to open up holes for Gore, as he ran for 18 more yds. on 3 carries and capped off the drive with a 1-yd. TD run, making the score 7-0 with 3:01 remaining in the 1st qtr. After the San Francisco TD, the Rams offense was held to its second consecutive 3-and-out. With 2:31 remaining in the 2nd qtr., the 49ers defense recorded its third 3-and-out in four defensive series, with LB Aldon Smith forcing a long 3rd down after registering his 17.5th sack of the season. His 17.5 sacks ties the 49ers single-season franchise record (Fred Dean - 1983). Smith now has 31.5 career sacks, surpassing Hall of Fame DE Reggie White (31.0) for the most sacks by a player in their first two years in NFL history. On the 49ers second possession of the 3rd qtr., Kaepernick was flagged for intentional grounding in the end zone, which resulted in a safety making the score 7-2 with 4:36 left in the 3rd qtr. San Francisco answered with its next offensive possession, marching 94-yds. on 13 plays to setup K David Akers for a 23-yd. FG. WR Michael Crabtree caught 4 passes for 69 yds. during the drive. For the game, Crabtree tallied 7 receipts. for 101 yds., marking his 2nd 100-yd. game of the season and 5th of his career. The Rams were unable to get on the scoreboard with their next offensive possession, but they did after recovering a fumble by Kaepernick on 3rd-and-3 and CB Janoris Jenkins returned the loose ball 2 yds. for a TD. QB Sam Bradford completed the 2-point conversion attempt to TE Lance Kendricks to knot the score at 10 apiece with 3:04 remaining in the 4th qtr. Kaepernick showed poise on the next possession, following the fumble, as he rushed for 50 yds. down to the St. Louis 14-yd. line. Kaepernick rushed for 84 yds. on 9 carries. His 84 yds. on the ground are the most by a 49ers quarterback since Steve Young rushed for 102-yds. vs. NO (12/23/90). Akers was able to put the 49ers up by 3 with a 33-yd. FG with 1:38 remaining. The Rams managed to drive 45 yds. on 7 plays to set Zuerlein up for a 53-yd. FG that sailed through the uprights as the clock expired to send the game into overtime. In overtime, it took 14:30 of 15 minutes to decide the outcome of the game, as Zuerlein made a 54-yd. FG to end the game with a final score of 16-13.

SUNDAY, DECEMBER 9 MIAMI 13, SAN FRANCISCO 27 CANDLESTICK PARK

With the win against the Miami Dolphins on Sunday, the 49ers reached 9 victories in a season for the 24th time in franchise history and 2nd year in a row. This marks the first time that San Francisco has won 9 or more games in back-to-back years since 2001–02. The 49ers also extended their streak of consecutive home victories in December to 10, dating back to 12/15/07 (20–13 vs. Cin.). The 10–game December winning streak is the longest in franchise history and 2nd longest active streak in the NFL (New England – 19). In the 1st qtr., both teams moved the ball, but neither was able to register any points on the scoreboard. LB Aldon Smith recorded his 1st of 2.0 sacks in the game, on the first play of the 2nd qtr. With 2.0 sacks on the day, Smith has now tallied 19.5 sacks on the season, setting the new single-season franchise record, surpassing HOF DE Fred Dean (17.5 sacks in 1983). Two plays following Smith's sack, K Dan Carpenter made a 28–yd. FG to make the score 3–0 with 13:35 remaining in the 2nd qtr. With a balanced attack led by QB Colin Kaepernick, the 49ers answered the Miami FG on their next possession, driving 68–yds. on 10–plays, capped off by K David Akers 30–yd. FG. Akers has now made at least 1 FG in all 29 games as a 49er, extending the franchise record for consecutive games with a made FG. WR Michael Crabtree got the 49ers next possession started with a 25–yd. recept. from Kaepernick. During the game, Crabtree tied his career high with 9 receipts. for 93–yds. WR Randy Moss also contributed on the drive, recording 2 receipts. for 30–yds to help put Akers in range to knock through his 2nd FG of the game, this time from 37–yds. out, making the score 6–3 going into halftime. The 49ers forced the Dolphins to a 3–and–out with their first possession of the 3rd qtr. San Francisco's ensuing possession stalled, but on P Andy Lee's 55–yd. punt, RB Marcus Thigpen fumbled the ball and S C.J. Spillman registered his 1st career FR at the Miami 9–yd. line. Two plays later, RB Frank Gore scored on a 1–yd. TD run stretching the 49ers lead to 13–3 with 11:21 remaining in the 3rd qtr. Gore's TD was his 50th career rushing TD. He is now tied with HOF RB Joe Perry and RB Roger Craig for the most rushing TDs in franchise history. On the ensuing kickoff, Thigpen returned the ball 56–yds. to the San Francisco 49–yd. line. The 49er defense stiffened following the return, only giving up 14–yds. on 6 plays and held the Dolphins to a 53–yd. FG by Carpenter, to make the score 13–6. The 49ers continued to attack following the Miami FG, as Gore accounted for 50 yds. on San Francisco's next possession. Gore rushed for 63 yds. on 12 carries and now has 1,035 yds. rushing on the season, marking his 6th career 1,000–yd. season, the most by any player in franchise history. Gore's 6, 1,000–yd. rushing seasons rank 2nd among all active players (Rams RB Steven Jackson – 7). Following a 19–yd. run by Gore, RB Anthony Dixon capped off the 13–play, 83–yd. drive with a 1–yd. TD run. The TD was Dixon's 2nd TD of the season and 6th of his career. The Dolphins responded to the Dixon TD with a 13–play, 75–yd. drive of their own, ending with a 3–yd. TD pass to TE Anthony Fasano from Tannehill. The TD made the score 20–13, San Francisco leading, with 8:01 remaining in the 4th qtr. The two teams traded possessions and with 2:19 remaining in the contest, Kaepernick bolted down the sideline for a 50–yd. TD run to put the game out of reach. The 50–yd. TD run is the longest TD run by a quarterback in franchise history. The TD run by Kaepernick was his 5th rushing TD of the season, the most by a 49ers quarterback since QB Jeff Garcia tallied 5 in 2001. San Francisco remains perfect in games following a loss under head coach Jim Harbaugh. Since 2011, the 49ers are 6–0 in games following a defeat. SUNDAY, DECEMBER 16

SAN FRANCISCO 41, NEW ENGLAND 34

GILLETTE STADIUM

The 49ers snapped New England's 20-game home winning streak in December with a 41-34 victory in Foxborough on Sunday Night Football. It was the Patriots' first loss at home in December since 12/22/02 (vs. NYJ). On the 49ers' first offensive possession, QB Colin Kaepernick completed 4 of 5 passing atts. for 60 yds., capped off by a 24-yd. TD pass to WR Randy Moss. During the drive, Moss had 2 receipts. for 36 yds. and now has 15,220 career rec. yds., surpassing WR Isaac Bruce for the 3rd most in NFL history. With 8:02 remaining in the 1st qtr., QB Tom Brady was picked off by CB Carlos Rogers which was returned 53-yds. to the New England 5-yd. line. It was Rogers' 1st INT of the season and 15th of his career. It marked Brady's first INT in 230 consecutive atts. at home. With 1:09 remaining in the 1st qtr., the 49ers defense forced the New England offense to turn the ball over for the second time in the opening qtr., as LB NaVorro Bowman recorded his 1st career FF, stripping the ball from Patriots RB Shane Vereen which was scooped up by CB Chris Culliver, marking his 1st career FR. The Patriots got on the scoreboard with 8:35 remaining in the 2nd qtr. on a 32-yd. FG by K Stephen Gostkowski. The 49ers answered on their ensuing possession, going 80 yds. on 3 plays, as Kaepernick completed a 34-yd. TD pass to TE Delanie Walker to make the score 14-3 with 7:06 remaining in the half. After the TD, the 49ers defense held New England to a 3-and-out and took over from the San Francisco 22-yd. line. With 6:04 remaining in the 1st half, the 49ers run game kicked into gear, accounting for 68 yds. on the drive, to put Akers in position for a 20-yd. FG to end the 1st half and stretch San Francisco's lead to 17-3. The team came out of the locker room ready to extend their lead and only four plays into New England's first possession of the 3rd qtr., S Donte Whitner jarred the ball loose from RB Stevan Ridley. The ball was recovered by S Dashon Goldson and returned 66-yds. to the Patriots' 6-yd. line. On the next play following the fumble, RB Frank Gore picked up the fumbled snap and ran it in from 9 yds. out. Gore now has 61 career TDs (50 rushing; 10 rec., 1 return), ranking t-4th in franchise history for the most career TDs. On the second play of New England's ensuing possession, LB Aldon Smith registered his 1st career INT, on a tipped Brady pass, and returned it 6 yds. to the Patriots' 27-yd. line. On the ensuing play following the INT, Kaepernick connected with WR Michael Crabtree for a 27-yd. TD, extending the lead to 31-3. Following the Crabtree TD receipt., the Patriots went on to score 28 unanswered points in the 2nd half to knot the game up at 31 apiece. After the Patriots tied the game with 6:45 remaining in the 4th qtr., rookie RB LaMichael James returned the Gostkowski kickoff 62-yds. to the New England 38-yd. line, to put the 49ers offense in striking distance. The next play, Crabtree hauled in a 38-yd. receipt. from Kaepernick for a TD to break the tie and make the score 38-31. Crabtree led the team with 7 receipts, for 107 yds. and 2 TDs. He has now set single-season career highs in receipts. (73) and TDs (7). Following a Patriots' 3-and-out, Akers knocked a 28-yd. FG through the uprights to give San Francisco a 41-31 lead with 2:00 remaining in the 4th qtr. With 2 FGs at New England, Akers has now made at least 1 FG in 31 consecutive games, dating back to 1/2/11 vs. Dallas as a member of the Philadelphia Eagles. He tied Fred Cox (Min., 1968-70) for the 2nd longest streak of consecutive games scoring a FG in NFL history. SUNDAY, DECEMBER 23 SAN FRANCISCO 13, SEATTLE 42 CENTURYLINK FIELD

The 49ers played in a hostile environment at CenturyLink Field and departed from Seattle with only their fourth loss of the 2012 season. The team fell behind early in the game and was never able to get within striking distance. Down 21–0 early in the 2nd qtr., LB Patrick Willis picked off a pass by QB Russell Wilson and returned the INT 2 yds. to the Seattle 16–yd. line. The INT was Willis' 2nd of the season and 7th of his career. Four plays following Willis' INT, K David Akers was able to connect on a 33–yd. FG attempt to get the 49ers on the scoreboard. With the FG, Akers has now made at least 1 FG in 32 consecutive games, dating back to 1/2/11 vs. Dal., as a member of the Philadelphia Eagles. He now owns the 2nd longest streak of consecutive games scoring a FG in NFL history. San Francisco's next possession began at its own 33–yd. line following a 35–yd. kickoff return by RB LaMichael James. James registered 172 yds. on kick returns during the game and amassed a career–high 201 total yds. (172 returns, 15 rushing, 14 rec.). With only 1:50 remaining in the 1st half, QB Colin Kaepernick successfully executed the 2–minute offense, driving 31–yds. in 7–plays to setup Akers for a 54–yd. FG that sailed through the uprights. The FG was Akers' 9th from at least 50–yds. as a member of the 49ers, the 2nd most 50–plus yd. FGs in 49ers history (K Joe Nedney – 10). It also marked Akers' 24th career 50–plus yd. FG, which ranks 4th among all active kickers. The 49ers' final scoring drive began with 6:57 remaining in the 4th qtr. as the Seahawks led 42–6. Kaepernick was able to march down the field with help from TE Delanie Walker. Walker recorded 3 receipts. for 50 yds. on the 90–yd. 13–play drive. Walker's 3rd catch on the drive was an 18–yd. TD receipt. thrown by Kaepernick to make the score 42–13. The TD receipt. was Walker's 3rd of the season and 8th of his career. He finished the game with 4 catches for 54 yds. Walker's 3 rec. TDs this season ties a career high (3 – 2011).

SUNDAY, DECEMBER 30 ARIZONA 13, SAN FRANCISCO 27 CANDLESTICK PARK

With the 27–13 victory against the Cardinals, the 49ers clinched the NFC West Division title for the 19th time in franchise history. It also marked the first time San Francisco has won consecutive division titles since winning the NFC West four straight times from 1992–95. The Cardinals went up early, as K Jay Feely connected on 2 FGs to put Arizona up 6–0 to begin the game. With 8:08 remaining in the 2nd qtr., the 49ers took over at their own 20–yd. line. On the first play of the drive, QB Colin Kaepernick threw a 31–yd. pass to WR Michael Crabtree. On the ensuing play, Kaepernick found Crabtree again, this time for a 49–yd. TD. For the game, Kaepernick completed 16 of 28 pass atts. for a career–high 276 yds., 2 TDs and a QB rating of 114.6. San Francisco began the 3rd qtr. with the ball and marched down the field with Kaepernick leading the way as he completed passes of 20 and 28–yds. to WR Randy Moss and Crabtree. The 9–play, 54 yd. drive setup K David Akers for a 43–yd. FG to put the 49ers up 10–6. The 49ers stingy defense forced the Cardinals to a 3–and–out, and on San Francisco's ensuing possession, the offense continued its 2nd–half success. TE Delanie Walker hauled in a pass from Kaepernick for 27 yds., down to the Arizona 9–yd. line. Three plays later, Kaepernick hit Crabtree for a 7–yd. TD. Crabtree tallied 8 receptions for a career–high 172 yds. and 2 TDs in the regular season finale. The 172 rec. yds. were the most by a 49ers WR since 11/3/02 at Oak. (WR Terrell Owens – 12 recpts. for 191 yds.). It marked Crabtree's 7th career 100–yd. game and 4th of the season. It also was his 3rd multi–TD game of the season and 4th of his career. The 49ers defense held the Cardinals to its second consecutive 3–and–out, which led to the 49ers third consecutive scoring drive, to open the 2nd half. RB Frank Gore recorded 51 total yds. on the drive, capped off by a 2–yd. TD run, stretching the score to 24–6 with 13:02 left in the 4th qtr. Gore's TD run was his 51st career rushing TD, surpassing HOF RB Joe Perry (50) and RB Roger Craig (50) for the most rushing TDs in franchise history. Gore now holds the franchise record for rushing yds. (8,839), atts. (1,911) and rushing TDs (51). Following the 49ers kickoff, DT Ray McDonald recorded his 1st FF of the season (3rd career), jarring the ball loose from WR Michael Floyd and it was recovered by S Donte Whitner at the Arizona 34–yd. line. Whitner's FR was his 1st of the season and 5th of his career. The takeaway deep in Cardinals territory setup Akers for a 26–yd. FG, his 2nd FG of the game. On the Cardinals next possession, CB Tarell Brown picked off QB Brian Hoyer and returned it 12 yds. to the Arizona 45–yd. line, ending any hopes of a Cardinals' comeback. The INT was Brown's 2nd of the season and 11th of his career. The 49ers remained unbeaten in their last 13 home games against NFC West Division opponents, improving to 12–0–1 during that stretch. It's the NFL's longest active home winning streak against divisional opponents. The 49ers have also won their last 11 home games in December, the longest active streak in the NFL.

NOTES: Head coach Jim Harbaugh became the 8th head coach in NFL history to win division titles in each of his first two seasons...Harbaugh is just the third coach to win two division titles in each of his first two seasons after inheriting a team with a losing record (Chuck Knox – Rams were 6–7–1 in 1972; Ted Marchibroda – Colts were 2–12 in 1974)...Harbaugh improved his regular season coaching record to 24–7–1. The 24 wins are tied for the 3rd most wins in a coach's first 2 seasons in NFL history...San Francisco improved to 26–17 overall and 15–8 at home all–time against the Arizona Cardinals...Crabtree finished the season with career highs in recpts. (85), rec. yds. (1,105) and TDs (9). He became just the 9th player, and first since 2003, to register a 1,000–yd. season (last by WR Terrell Owens – 1,102 rec. yds.)...DT Ricky Jean Francois notched his 2nd sack of the season, giving him a new single–season career high...LB Ahmad Brooks brought down Hoyer, giving him 6.5 sacks on the season and 26.5 for his career...S Donte Whitner played in his 100th NFL game while CB Carlos Rogers made his 100th career start...DT Tony Jerod–Eddie made his NFL debut.

SATURDAY, JANUARY 12
GREEN BAY 31, SAN FRANCISCO 45
CANDLESTICK PARK - NFC DIVISIONAL PLAYOFF

With the win against the Green Bay Packers, the San Francisco 49ers advanced to the NFC Championship Game for the second year in a row, marking the first time San Francisco has reached the NFC Championship Game in consecutive seasons since 1992–94. The Packers got off to a quick start after QB Colin Kaepernick threw an INT on just the fourth play of the game that was returned for a TD by Packers CB Sam Shields. Kaepernick responded immediately like he has all season and turned in one of the best performances by a 49ers QB in franchise history. Kaepernick led the offense on an 8–play, 80–yd. drive that he capped off with a 20–yd. TD run to tie the score at 7 apiece early in the 1st qtr. The team converted on two 3rd–and–longs on the drive, setting the tone for the day by finishing 8 of 13 on 3rd down (62%). With 11:52 remaining in the 2nd qtr., Green Bay WR Jeremy Ross muffed a punt that was recovered by S C.J. Spillman at the Packers 9–yd. line. The takeaway led to a 12–yd. TD pass from Kaepernick to WR Michael Crabtree just three plays later. On the ensuing Green Bay possession, QB Aaron Rodgers threw a deep pass down the middle of the field that was intended for WR Jordy Nelson, only to be picked–off by CB Tarell Brown. Brown returned his 2nd career postseason INT 39 yds. to the Green Bay 48–yd. line. The Kaepernick to Crabtree connection continued to be successful as they connected for a 20–yd. TD strike, making the score 21–14 following the 8–play, 48–yd. drive. Crabtree led the team with 9 receipts. for 119 yds. and 2 TDs on the day. This marked his first career multi–TD performance and first career 100–yd. game in the postseason. With only 2:33 remaining before halftime, the 49ers marched down the field 62–yds. in 11–plays, to setup K David Akers' 36–yd. FG as the time expired in the 2nd qtr. The FG gave the 49ers a 24–21 lead over the Packers at half. Akers now has 36 made field goals on 43 atts. in his playoff career, which are both the 2nd most in league history [Adam Vinateri (48 FGM – 58 FGA)]. On the third play of San Francisco's second possession of the 3rd qtr., Kaepernick kept the ball on a zone read around the right side and dashed 56–yds. to the end zone for his 2nd rushing TD of the game. The 56–yd. TD run marked the longest run by a QB in franchise postseason history and the 3rd longest overall. Kaepernick also set the NFL single–game record for a QB with 181 rushing yds. on 16 carries. On the 49ers' next possession after the Packers punt, Kaepernick found TE Vernon Davis for a 44–yd. receipt. that moved San Francisco to the Packers 15–yd. line. In 3 postseason games, Davis has amassed 336 rec. yds., marking the most by a TE in his first 3 playoff games in NFL history. The previous mark of 305 rec. yds. was held by Phi. TE Keith Jackson (1988–90). Following Davis' catch, RB Frank Gore finished off the drive on the first play of the 4th qtr., punching it in from 2 yds. out, stretching the 49ers lead to 38–24. Gore notched his first career 100–yd. game in the postseason, rushing for 119 yds. on 23 carries. The 49ers became the first team in NFL history to ever have two, 100–yd. rushers [QB Colin Kaepernick (181 yds. rushing), RB Frank Gore (119 yds. rushing)] and one, 100–yd. receiver [WR Michael Crabtree (119 yds. receiving)] in a playoff game. The 49ers began their next drive from their own 7–yd. line and moved the ball down the field with their punishing run game that accounted for 67–yds. on the drive. RB Anthony Dixon found the end zone on a 2–yd. TD run to finish off the 11–play, 93–yd. drive to make the score 45–24. It was the 49ers third consecutive drive resulting in a TD and second consecutive TD drive of 93–yds. San Francisco rushed for 323 yds. on the night, setting the franchise single–game postseason rushing record. The previous mark was 211 yds. rushing vs. Miami in Super Bowl XIX. The 49ers amassed 579 total yds. of offense (323 rushing and 256 passing), setting another new single–game postseason franchise record. The previous record was 537 yds. (211 rushing and 326 passing) vs. Miami in Super Bowl XIX.

NOTES: San Francisco became the first NFC team to reach the conference finals in back–to–back years since the Philadelphia Eagles did so from 2001–04...It marked the Niners' 14th trip to the NFC Championship Game, which is tied for the second most conference championship game appearances in the NFL since 1970 (Pit. – 15, Dal. – 14)...The 49ers also advanced to the conference championship game for the 12th time since 1980, the most appearances in the NFL during that span...The 49ers improved to 20–9 at home in the playoffs. The 20 wins tied the Pittsburgh Steelers for the most postseason home victories in NFL history...San Francisco improved to 27–18 (.600) all time in the playoffs. The 27 postseason wins are the 4th most in NFL history and the 49ers .600 winning percentage is t–3rd best in league history [Carolina Panthers (6–4, .600)].

SAN FRANCISCO 28, ATLANTA 24

GEORGIA DOME - NFC CHAMPIONSHIP GAME

With the win against the Atlanta Falcons at the Georgia Dome, the San Francisco 49ers advanced to the Super Bowl for the sixth time in franchise history and for the first time since the 1994 season. The 49ers started slow, spotting Atlanta a 17-0 lead after the Falcons scored on their first three possessions. On San Francisco's third possession the 49ers offense began to click. TE Vernon Davis hauled in a pinpoint pass from QB Colin Kaepernick for 27 yds. down to the Atlanta 15-yd. line. Davis had 3, 25+ yd. receipts. in the game, giving him 9 in 4 postseason games, which ranks 2nd in 49ers postseason history, trailing only WR Jerry Rice (14, 25+ yd. receipts. in 23 games). Two plays following Davis' catch, the 49ers got on the scoreboard with a 15-yd. TD run by RB LaMichael James. It was James' first career TD. James became the first 49ers rookie to register a TD in the postseason since FB William Floyd tallied a 1-yd. TD run vs. Chi. (1/7/95) (NFC-D). The 49ers next possession began on their own 18-yd. line with 6:24 remaining in the 2nd qtr. Vernon Davis stepped up once again, accounting for 48-yds. on 3 receipts., including a 4-yd. TD catch to finish the drive and pull the 49ers within 3, as the score read 17-14 at the 2-minute warning. Davis recorded 5 receipts. for 106 yds. and 1 TD, marking his first postseason TD this season, and 5th of his career. Davis' 5 career postseason TDs ranks t-4th in franchise history. With the Falcons scoring right before the half, it was important the 49ers came out of halftime with an answer, and answer they did. Kaepernick marched the 49ers offense right down the field, driving 82 yds. on 7 plays, capped off on a 5-yd. TD run by RB Frank Gore to make the score 21-24 with 10:51 remaining in the 3rd qtr. The San Francisco defense also had answers, forcing turnovers on the Falcons first two possessions of the 2nd half. CB Chris Culliver picked-off QB Matt Ryan and LB Aldon Smith recovered a muffed snap to stymie the Falcons offense during the 3rd qtr. With 11:59 left in the 4th qtr. WR Ted Ginn returned a Matt Boshier punt 20 yds. to the Atlanta 38-yd. line, giving the 49ers offense good starting field position. San Francisco's physical offensive line began to take over and wear down the Atlanta defense, opening big holes for Gore, James and RB Anthony Dixon as they gained all but 8 yds. on the go-ahead drive. Gore registered his 2nd TD run of the game on a 9-yd. burst into the end zone to give San Francisco the lead 28-24 with 8:27 remaining in the game. Gore carried the ball 21 times for 90 yds. and his 2 TDs marked his first career multi-touchdown performance in the postseason. The Falcons took over after the Gore TD and sustained a 14-play drive down to the 49ers 10-yd. line. On the 14th play of the drive, the Falcons faced a 4th-and-4 with 1:13 remaining. WR Roddy White was unable to hang onto the ball due to LB NaVorro Bowman's blanketing defense. The Falcons got the ball back following an Andy Lee punt and had one last shot with :06 ticks left on the clock, but CB Perrish Cox tackled WR Julio Jones at San Francisco's 35-yd. line before he could attempt a lateral as the clock struck :00. The 17-point comeback led by Kaepernick, who completed 16 of 21 passes (76.2 comp. pct.) for 233 yds. and 1 TD and had a QB rating of 127.7, was the 2nd largest deficit overcome to win a conference championship (2006 - Indianapolis trailed New England by 18 points). Kaepernick entered Sunday's game with 7 career regular season starts, the 4th fewest for a starting QB entering a Conference Championship Game in NFL history. With the win, he now has the 3rd fewest starts by a QB to reach the Super Bowl in NFL history. (Jeff Hostetler, NYG, 1990 - 4; Vince Ferragamo, LA Rams, 1979 - 5).

SUNDAY, FEBRUARY 3

BALTIMORE 34, SAN FRANCISCO 31

MERCEDES-BENZ SUPERDOME - SUPER BOWL XLVII

The San Francisco 49ers and the Baltimore Ravens squared off in one of the most extraordinary Super Bowl's in recent history where two brothers squared off as head coaches. The 49ers found themselves facing an early deficit, which would eventually be too much to overcome. Early in the 1st qtr., San Francisco answered a Ravens TD drive with a scoring drive of their own as QB Colin Kaepernick engineered a 12-play, 62-yd. drive that was finished off by K David Akers' 36-yd. FG, making the score 7-3. Super Bowl XLVII marked just Kaepernick's 10th NFL start. His 9 starts entering the game were the 3rd fewest for a starting QB entering a Super Bowl in NFL history. After 2 more TD passes by QB Joe Flacco, the 49ers found themselves in a 21-3 hole with 1:45 left in the 2nd qtr. Kaepernick showed poise and led the 2-minute drill efficiently by completing 4 of 5 pass atts. for 56 yds. to move the 49ers into FG position. Akers added 3 more points with a 27-yd. FG as time expired in the half with San Francisco trailing Baltimore 21-6. Following a Ravens kickoff return for a TD to open the 2nd half, the Superdome went dark with 13:28 remaining in the 3rd qtr. A power failure at 7:38 p.m. CT caused a 30-minute delay and was not resolved until 8:08 p.m. Following the stoppage in play, momentum swung dramatically in the 49ers favor. On the Niners' next possession, Kaepernick rushed for 20 yds. and threw for 43 yds., 31 of which came on a TD pass to WR Michael Crabtree, to make the score 28-13. Crabtree tallied 5 repts. for 109 yds., marking his 2nd 100-yd. game this postseason. On the Ravens next offensive possession, San Francisco forced Baltimore into a 3-and-out thanks to a sack by LB Ahmad Brooks on 3rd-and-10. P Sam Koch's 34-yd. punt on 4th down was returned 32 yds. by WR Ted Ginn Jr., setting up the 49ers offense to takeover at the Ravens 20-yd. line. Two plays after Ginn's return, RB Frank Gore capitalized on the short field with a 6-yd. TD run, making it a one possession game. Gore rushed for 110 yds. on 19 carries and set the franchise Super Bowl record for most rushing yds. in a game. On the second play of Baltimore's ensuing possession, CB Tarell Brown forced and recovered a fumble that he jarred loose from RB Ray Rice on the Ravens' 24-yd. line. The takeaway led to a 34-yd. FG by Akers, his 3rd of the game. With 3 FGs and 2 PATs in the game, Akers now has 175 career points in the postseason, the 2nd most in NFL history. Akers has also scored a point in all playoff games (24) he has played in, the 2nd longest streak in NFL history. With their next possession, the 49ers began to gash the Ravens defense for big plays. WR Randy Moss hauled in a 32-yd. recept., followed by a 21-yd. run by Gore, which led to a 15-yd. TD run by Kaepernick to bring the 49ers within a 2-point conv. of tying the game with 10:04 remaining in the 4th qtr. An incomplete pass on the 2-point try made the score 31-29 with the Ravens still hanging on as San Francisco continued its fierce comeback. Kaepernick's 15-yd. TD run marked the longest TD run by a QB in Super Bowl history. The 49ers potent offense made them the first team in Super Bowl history to have a 300-yd. passer (QB Colin Kaepernick - 302 yds.), a 100-yd. rusher (RB Frank Gore - 110 yds.) and 2, 100-yd. receivers (WR Michael Crabtree - 109 yds. and TE Vernon Davis - 104 yds.) in a single game. With 4:23 remaining in the game, Baltimore's K Justin Tucker tacked on a 38-yd. FG to extend their lead to 34-29. A 24-yd. completion to Crabtree and a 33-yd. rush by Gore put the 49ers offense in position for the go-ahead TD with 2:39 remaining, on the Ravens' 7-yd. line. The 49ers were unable to get into the end zone and turned the ball over on downs. After taking a safety, to run the game clock down to :04, the Ravens were forced to punt to the 49ers. Ginn returned the kickoff 31-yds. to the 50-yd. line as time expired for the last play of the game. This marked the first loss for the 49ers organization in a Super Bowl, making the franchise's record an impressive 5-1.

NOTES: RB Frank Gore's 6-yd. TD run marked his 4th rushing TD of the postseason...TE Vernon Davis recorded 6 repts. for 104 yds. He tied the Super Bowl record for rec. yds. by a tight end...Davis registered his 4th career 100-yd. game in the postseason. He also had 7 carries for 62 yds. and 1 TD...DT Ray McDonald notched his first sack of the postseason, bringing down Ravens QB Joe Flacco. He now has 3.5 career postseason sacks...K David Akers now has (39) made fields goals on (46) attempts in his playoffs career. Both are the 2nd most in league history (Adam Vinatieri (48 FGM - 58 FGA)).

In the most memorable playoff game to date, the 49ers and Cowboys staged an epic battle. In what was a fitting end for some and a heartbreaking one for others, it was the 49ers who came out on top 28–27. QB Joe Montana capped a brilliant day with a six-yard touchdown pass to WR Dwight Clark late in the fourth quarter to overcome a six-point deficit. “The Catch,” as it would come to be known, capped a 13-play, 89-yard drive that took over four minutes off the clock. Montana finished the day with 286 yards on 22-of-35 passing and three touchdowns. Clark posted eight receptions for 120 yards and two touchdowns.

January 24 at Silverdome
(Pontiac, MI)

QB Joe Montana accounted for two first half touchdowns and K Ray Wersching added two field goals as San Francisco built a 20–0 lead at the half and held on for a 26–21 victory over the Bengals for its first Super Bowl Championship. Montana scored on a one-yard run in the first quarter and in the second he led the team on a 12-play, 92-yard drive that resulted in an 11-yard scoring toss to FB Earl Cooper. For the game, Montana completed 14-of-22 passes for 157 yards. Wersching also had an impressive outing. The veteran kicker connected on all four field goal attempts in the game, hitting from 22, 26, 40 and 23 yards. The 49ers defense kept the potent Bengals attack in check for much of the game. Cincinnati QB Ken Anderson warmed up in the second half with three touchdowns, two of them on pass plays to TE Dan Ross, but two fourth quarter field goals by Wersching put the game out of reach. LB Jack Reynolds keyed the 49ers defense with seven tackles and one sack. LB Bob Leopold also recorded seven tackles and NT Archie Reese added six stops.

Mark Moseley connected on a 25-yard field goal with 40 seconds remaining to hand San Francisco a heartbreaking 24–21 defeat in the NFC Championship Game at RFK Stadium. The defeat was especially hard to swallow after the 49ers fought back from a 21–0 deficit with 21 fourth-quarter points. QB Joe Montana hit WR Mike Wilson on a five-yard scoring strike 30 seconds into the fourth, snapping the shutout. On the next 49ers possession, Montana hit WR Freddie Solomon on a 76-yard bomb to pull within seven at 21–14. The Redskins went three-and-out on their next possession, which led to another Montana-to-Wilson touchdown and a tie ballgame. Unfortunately for the 49ers, the Redskins would launch a six-minute drive that led to the Moseley field goal and the end of the season. Montana finished the game with his typically excellent numbers: 27-of-48 for 347 yards and three touchdowns. Solomon caught eight passes for 106 yards and one touchdown. DT Pete Kugler led the defensive charge with 10 tackles. He was joined by S Carlton Williamson with eight tackles and LBs Riki Ellison and Keena Turner had six stops each.

Super Bowl XXIII
January 22 at Joe Robbie Stadium
(Miami, FL)

In what proved to be the most exciting Super Bowl game of the decade, it was the play of a collected veteran that delivered San Francisco its third NFL Championship. QB Joe Montana connected on 23–of–36 passes for 357 yards, but no completion would be more important than his last. The game opened at a stand still with neither team having any ability to move the ball offensively. San Francisco opened the scoring on a 41–yard field goal by K Mike Cofer late in the first quarter. The Bengals responded with K Jim Breech's 34–yard field goal and the teams headed to the half locked in a 3–3 tie. The third quarter began with the teams trading field goals before the Bengals broke the touchdown drought. Following a 49ers field goal, Cincinnati KR Stanford Jennings took the Cofer kickoff and returned it 93 yards for a touchdown. It didn't take long for San Francisco to respond. Montana hit WR Jerry Rice for a 31–yard completion and followed that with a swing pass that RB Roger Craig turned into a 40–yard gain. Two plays and 16 seconds later, Montana found Rice in the corner of the end zone for a 10–yard touchdown. An 11–play, 46–yard drive by the Bengals resulted in a 46–yard field goal by Breech, giving Cincinnati a 16–13 lead and leaving the 49ers just 3:20 on the clock. San Francisco received the kickoff and returned it to the 20, but a penalty moved the ball back to the eight–yard line. What happened next is legendary. Montana connected on five consecutive passes to move the ball to the Bengals 35. A holding penalty moved the ball back 10 yards, but Montana responded with a 27–yard completion to Rice and another first down. A quick hit to Craig followed by a timeout left the Niners with second and two from the Bengals 10–yard line. Following the timeout, Montana hit WR John Taylor in the middle of the end zone for a touchdown and San Francisco had its third Super Bowl title of the decade.

49ers 41, Minnesota Vikings 13
NFC Divisional Playoff
January 6 at Candlestick Park
(San Francisco, CA)

QB Joe Montana threw four touchdown passes and RB Roger Craig rushed for 118 yards as the 49ers advanced to the NFC Championship Game with a convincing 41–13 win over the visiting Minnesota Vikings at Candlestick Park. The Vikings opened the scoring on a K Rich Karlis field goal nine minutes into the first quarter, but from that point on it was all San Francisco. The 49ers erupted for 28 consecutive points before halftime to put the game away early. Just 20 seconds after the Vikings initial score, Montana connected with WR Jerry Rice for the first of his four touchdown passes of the afternoon. The play started simply enough before, in true Rice fashion, he turned a seven–yard gain into a 72–yard touchdown. Following an interception by S Chet Brooks, Montana hit TE Brent Jones for an eight–yard touchdown pass and the rout was on. Montana would add touchdown passes to WR John Taylor and another to Rice before handing the game over to reserve QB Steve Young. On the day, Montana completed 17–of–24 passes for 241 yards. The 49ers defense would also contribute a score, courtesy of S Ronnie Lott, who intercepted a QB Tommy Kramer pass and returned it 58 yards for a touchdown.

WR Jerry Rice scored three touchdowns, FB Tom Rathman scored twice and QB Joe Montana earned his third Super Bowl MVP award as the San Francisco 49ers cruised to their fourth NFL Championship of the decade with a resounding 55–10 win over the Denver Broncos. The game was played before a crowd of 72,919 at the Louisiana Superdome in New Orleans, LA. Rice scored on touchdown catches of 20, 38 and 28 yards en route to a seven-reception, 148-yard outing. Washington added a 44-yard field goal by K Chip Lohmiller just before the end of the first quarter to take a 10–7 lead. That would be all of the scoring for the Redskins as the 49ers would reel off 21 consecutive points over the next three quarters. Montana hit WR Jerry Rice on a 10-yard strike to complete a 10-play drive, giving San Francisco its first lead of the game four minutes into the second quarter. Five minutes later, the 49ers would extend their lead to 21–10 thanks to an eight-yard touchdown pass from Montana to WR Mike Sherrard. Following a scoreless third quarter, DT Michael Carter intercepted a Rypien pass that had been tipped by DE Charles Haley and returned it 61 yards for a touchdown. CB Don Griffin and DE Kevin Fagan had seven tackles each to lead the 49ers defense.

NFC Championship
January 20 at Candlestick Park
(San Francisco, CA)

Kickers and defense were the story of the day at Candlestick as the Giants used five field goals from K Matt Bahr and the Giants defense held San Francisco to 39 yards on the ground to defeat the 49ers 15–13. In the first two quarters, it was Bahr and 49ers K Mike Cofer who provided all the scoring. Bahr connected on a pair of field goals from 28 and 42 yards out. Cofer added field goals of 47 and 35 yards, and the teams entered the half in a 6–6 tie. San Francisco opened the scoring in the third quarter on a 61-yard touchdown pass to WR John Taylor from QB Joe Montana to take a 13–6 lead. From that point on, it was all New York and Matt Bahr. Bahr kicked field goals of 46 and 38 yards to pull the Giants within one at 13–12 with 5:47 remaining. San Francisco took over at its own 20-yard line, but five plays later DT Erik Howard forced a 49ers fumble and LB Lawrence Taylor recovered at the Giants 43-yard line with 2:36 remaining. A pair of QB Jeff Hostetler completions to TE Mark Bavaro and WR Stephen Baker had the Giants in field goal range at the 49ers 29-yard line with 1:10 remaining in the contest. Three plays later Bahr added his fifth field goal of the day, this one from 42 yards away, as time expired. Montana completed 18-of-26 passes for 190 yards and one touchdown. Taylor caught two passes for 75 yards, including the 61-yard touchdown. WR Jerry Rice added five catches for 54 yards. Defensively, San Francisco was led by LB Bill Romanowski's seven tackles. QB Steve Young threw for 227 yards, including two touchdown passes, and rushed for an additional 73 yards to lead San Francisco to a hard fought 20–13 win over the visiting Redskins at Candlestick Park. Young tossed a five-yard touchdown pass to WR John Taylor to open the scoring at the 11:48 mark of the first quarter. NFC Championship

January 23 at Texas Stadium

The Cowboys broke a 7–7 tie by scoring 21 unanswered points in the second quarter and that proved to be the difference in their 38–21 win over the visiting 49ers. The game was played before 64,902 at Texas Stadium. The Cowboys opened the scoring on a five–yard touchdown run by RB Emmitt Smith at 8:14 of the first quarter. San Francisco responded with a seven–yard touchdown reception by FB Tom Rathman from QB Steve Young early in the second quarter to tie the score. That would be as close as the 49ers would get, as Dallas answered with a 21–point outburst in the final 10 minutes of the second quarter to take a 28–7 halftime lead. San Francisco scored its second touchdown of the game at the 5:47 mark of the third quarter. RB Ricky Watters capped a six–play, 43–yard drive with a four–yard scamper into the end zone. Dallas sealed the game by scoring 10 consecutive points on a 42–yard touchdown reception by WR Alvin Harper from reserve QB Bernie Kosar and adding a 50–yard field goal from K Eddie Murray. The 49ers would add another touchdown on a one–yard plunge by Young, capping a 17–play,

NFC Divisional Playoff
January 7 at Candlestick Park
(San Francisco, CA)

FB William Floyd rushed for three touchdowns and the 49ers defense held Chicago to just 247 yards in a 44–15 rout of the Bears. Floyd's three scores established him as the first rookie to hit paydirt three times in an NFL playoff game. The Bears actually took an early 3–0 lead on a 39–yard field goal by K Kevin Butler. The Niners bounced back, however, lighting up the scoreboard for 37 unanswered points to put the game away. San Francisco's first points were the result of a 13–play, 68–yard drive that ended with a two–yard run by Floyd. CB Eric Davis then intercepted QB Steve Walsh on the Bears next possession and moments later, QB Steve Young connected with TE Brent Jones for an eight–yard scoring play. The Niners continued to roll in the second quarter, increasing the lead to 30–3 at the half on touchdown runs by Floyd and Young, sandwiched around a K Doug Brien field goal. Floyd's third touchdown of the game midway through the third quarter increased the lead to 37–3 and completed the afternoon's work for many of the San Francisco starters. LB Gary Plummer led a spirited defensive effort, tying the 49ers single–game postseason record with 13 tackles. The 49ers defense also sacked Chicago quarterbacks four times, led by DE Tim Harris' two.

NFC Championship
January 15 at Candlestick Park
(San Francisco, CA)

CB Eric Davis returned an interception 44 yards for a touchdown and forced a fumble that San Francisco converted into another touchdown. Those plays set the stage for a defensive effort that produced five takeaways in San Francisco's 38–28 NFC Championship Game win over the Dallas Cowboys. The game was played before a Candlestick Park–record 69,143 (since broken). On the third play of the game, Davis, playing a disguised zone coverage, stepped in front of a QB Troy Aikman pass and sprinted to the end zone. Three plays later, he stripped the ball from WR Michael Irvin and S Tim McDonald recovered. Five plays later, QB Steve Young hit FB Ricky Watters in the flat on a play that produced a 29–yard touchdown and a 14–0 lead. The ensuing kickoff saw 49ers RB Adam Walker jar the ball loose from Dallas returner Kevin Williams and K Doug Brien recovered the fumble. It took seven plays before FB William Floyd plunged in from the one to make it 21–0 with 7:33 remaining in the first quarter. Dallas began its comeback on the next series. Facing third and 23 from the San Francisco 44, Aikman hit Irvin for a touchdown that cut the score to 21–7. Following a Brien field goal of 34 yards, RB Emmitt Smith capped a 63–yard drive with a four–yard run that narrowed the gap to 24–14. The crucial point in the game came seconds before the first half expired. With eight seconds remaining, Young found WR Jerry Rice for a 28–yard score, giving the 49ers a 31–14 lead heading into the locker room. The teams traded touchdowns in the second half with the 49ers holding off a strong Dallas charge in the fourth quarter. Young completed 13–of–29 passes for 155 yards and two touchdowns. He also rushed for 47 yards and another score. Watters led the ground game, compiling 72 yards, while TE Brent Jones and Floyd each had three receptions. Defensively, LB Ken Norton Jr. paced the squad with 10 tackles, while Davis and McDonald added seven. Davis also had two interceptions and a forced fumble. CB Deion Sanders had an interception, along with five passes defended, while DT Rhett Hall and DE Tim Harris each had two sacks.

49ers 49, San Diego Chargers 26
Super Bowl XXIX
January 29 at Joe Robbie Stadium
(Miami, FL)

QB Steve Young set a Super Bowl record with six touchdown passes and WR Jerry Rice hauled in three scoring passes for the second time in his career in the world championship game. The 49ers stars led an offensive explosion that carried the team to a 49–26 win over San Diego. San Francisco wasted little time getting on the scoreboard as it took just three plays following the game's opening kickoff to crack the Chargers end zone. Following a FB William Floyd four–yard run and an 11–yard pass from Young to WR John Taylor, Young connected with Rice streaking down the middle of the field for a 44–yard scoring strike. Following a San Diego punt, San Francisco was back in the end zone again after only three plays as Young, once again, challenged the middle of the Chargers defense, this time with a pass to RB Ricky Watters, which netted a 51–yard score. The Chargers made things close for awhile, however, putting together a 13–play, 78–yard drive that concluded with a RB Natrone Means one–yard touchdown plunge to make it 14–7 after one quarter of play. The 49ers began to break the game open in the second quarter. They followed the San Diego touchdown with a 70–yard drive that culminated with a five–yard scoring pass from Young to Floyd. Two possessions later, following a partially blocked punt by RB Adam Walker, the Niners drove 49 yards for another score on an eight–yard toss from Young to Watters. K John Carney's 31–yard field goal with less than two minutes remaining in the half closed the margin at intermission to 28–10. The Niners put the game away in the third quarter, running the lead to 42–10 on a pair of long drives that ended with Watters' third score of the evening, a nine–yard blast up the middle, and a 15–yard pass from Young to Rice. Rice caught his third touchdown of the night on a seven–yard toss from Young in the fourth quarter, enabling Young to break QB Joe Montana's record of five Super Bowl touchdown passes. Young was named the game's Most Valuable Player, while Rice turned in the second best receiving performance in Super Bowl history with 10 catches for 149 yards, while tying his own record with three scoring receptions.

Green Bay Packers 27, 49ers 17
NFC Divisional Playoff
January 6 at 3Com Park
(San Francisco, CA)

Aided by a swarming defense that caused four turnovers, the Green Bay Packers defeated the 49ers 27–17 at 3Com Park. A record crowd of 69,311 saw the Packers advance to the NFC Championship Game, while the 49ers one–year reign as world champions ended with an overall record of 11–6. Green Bay took its opening drive and marched to the San Francisco 26 before settling for a field goal attempt. However, K Chris Jacke's 44–yard attempt was blocked by S Tim McDonald and the 49ers took over at their 34. On the first play from scrimmage, QB Steve Young hit FB Adam Walker in the flat, but LB Wayne Simmons jarred the ball loose and CB Craig Newsome returned the fumble 31 yards for the touchdown. Green Bay also scored on its next two possessions, a three–yard pass from QB Brett Favre to TE Keith Jackson and a 13–yard toss from Favre to TE Mark Chmura. San Francisco scored its first points of the game late in the half when K Jeff Wilkins nailed a 21–yard field goal with two minutes remaining. The 49ers took their first possession of the third quarter and marched 80 yards for a touchdown, when Young plunged in from the one, cutting the deficit to 21–10. On the 14–play drive, Young was 9–of–10 and ran the ball twice. Again, the Packers responded to the challenge, using a pair of Jacke field goals (27 yards in the third quarter, 26 yards in the fourth quarter), and boosted Green Bay's lead to 27–10. San Francisco's final score of the season came on a two–yard plunge by RB Derek Loville with 50 seconds remaining in the game. Young completed 32 passes in an NFL postseason record 65 attempts, for 328 yards and two interceptions. He also led the 49ers in rushing, gaining 77 yards in nine attempts, including a 40–yard sprint after he was flushed from the pocket. WR Jerry Rice led the receivers with 11 catches for 117 yards, while TE Brent Jones gained 112 yards on eight receptions. Defensively, DT Dana Stubblefield recorded a team–high 10 tackles and a sack for a loss of five yards, while LB Ken Norton Jr. added nine tackles.

49ers 14, Philadelphia Eagles 0
NFC Wild Card
December 29 at 3Com Park
(San Francisco, CA)

On a wet and windy Sunday at 3Com Park, San Francisco opened its 1996 postseason by defeating the Philadelphia Eagles 14–0 in the NFC Wild Card Game. Led by their marquee players QB Steve Young and WR Jerry Rice on offense, and a defense that recorded the team's first postseason shutout since the 1984 NFC Championship Game, the 49ers advanced to the NFC Divisional Playoff round. Following a scoreless first quarter, Young led the offense on a 10–play, 74–yard drive that concluded with the Pro Bowl quarterback scoring on a gutsy nine–yard run off a quarterback draw. On that play Young broke four tackles while fighting his way to paydirt. Twice in the second quarter the Eagles mounted long drives only to be denied just short of the endzone by Niners interceptions. Philadelphia's first trip ended with CB Marquez Pope intercepting a QB Ty Detmer pass on San Francisco's seven–yard line. Late in the quarter the Eagles marched 59 yards on 10 plays moving to the 49ers five–yard line. Facing third and four, Detmer's attempt to WR Chris T. Jones was picked off by DE Roy Barker, who had dropped off into zone–blitz coverage. The only scoring in the second half occurred on the Niners second possession of the third quarter. On that drive, Rice made a spectacular one–handed catch that resulted in a 36–yard gain. He scored on a three–yard pass from Young on the next play from scrimmage. Young finished as the game's leading rusher with 65 yards, while also completing 14–of–21 tosses for 161 yards. Rice had four catches for 50 yards and his 19th career postseason touchdown (17th receiving). RB Terry Kirby added 43 yards rushing. The Niners defense, which held Eagles RB Ricky Watters to 57 rushing yards, was led by LB Ken Norton Jr.'s team postseason–record 12 solo tackles. DT Bryant Young registered two sacks and LB Lee Woodall added a sack among his six total stops.

Green Bay Packers 35, 49ers 14
NFC Divisional Playoff
January 4 at Lambeau Field
(Green Bay, WI)

Missed opportunities, including a total of five turnovers, spelled defeat for the San Francisco 49ers in their NFC Divisional Playoff Game with the Green Bay Packers. Played before a record Lambeau Field crowd of 60,787, the 49ers fell 35–14 in a game that featured 34–degree weather (with a wind chill of nine–degrees) and driving rain. It didn't take long for the Packers to take a lead. After forcing San Francisco to punt on its first series, WR Desmond Howard took P Tommy Thompson's punt, split the coverage down the middle of the field and raced for a 71–yard touchdown. Then, with seven minutes remaining in the opening stanza, Howard struck again. He returned a punt 46 yards to the San Francisco seven, and two plays later, QB Brett Favre threw a four–yard scoring pass to WR Andre Rison to make it 14–0. San Francisco then mounted a comeback in the second quarter. Trailing 21–0, the tide began to turn when 49ers special teams standout Curtis Buckley recovered a muffed punt at the Green Bay 26. Moments later, QB Elvis Grbac, replacing the injured QB Steve Young (ribs), hit RB Terry Kirby with an eight–yard pass, cutting the deficit to 21–7 at the half. On the opening kickoff of the third quarter, San Francisco CB Steve Israel recovered a loose ball on the Packers four, setting the stage for Grbac's scamper into the end zone. The 49ers fate was sealed, however, on the ensuing Packers drive. Marching 72 yards in 12 plays (10 of which were runs), Green Bay scored when FB Edgar Bennett fumbled before crossing the goal line; but before the 49ers defenders could react, WR Antonio Freeman fell on the loose ball, giving the hosts a 28–14 advantage. Bennett scored on an 11–yard run, and two more fumbles in the fourth quarter snuffed out any hope the 49ers had in getting back into the game. Young played the first nine plays at quarterback before giving way to Grbac late in the first quarter. Grbac completed 19–of–36 passes for 125 yards with one touchdown and three interceptions and led the team in rushing with 32 yards. Backfield mates Kirby and RB William Floyd had six receptions each, while WR Jerry Rice had a team–high 36 yards receiving. Defensively, LB Ken Norton Jr. posted eight tackles and LB Gary Plummer added seven. All–Pro DT Bryant Young left the game late in the first quarter because of a neck injury. He was taken to the hospital for tests, which were negative.

49ers 38, Minnesota Vikings 22
NFC Divisional Playoff
January 3 at 3Com Park
(San Francisco, CA)

RB Terry Kirby rushed for a career–high 120 yards and scored two touchdowns, leading the San Francisco 49ers to a 38–22 victory over the Minnesota Vikings in the NFC Divisional Playoffs at 3Com Park. In addition to Kirby's heroics, QB Steve Young completed 21–of–30 passes for 224 yards and a touchdown, WR J.J. Stokes had 101 yards receiving and LB Ken Norton Jr. returned an interception 23 yards for a touchdown. San Francisco's first score came compliments of a Minnesota special teams miscue. P Mitch Berger's punt sailed off the side of his foot and into the crowd after going only 12 yards. The 49ers took over on the Vikings 26, and four plays later, FB William Floyd scored from the one and the 49ers led 7–0. Less than a minute later, the visitors tied the game on a 66–yard scoring pass from QB Randall Cunningham to WR Cris Carter. In the second quarter, the 49ers again took advantage of a poor kick by Berger — this time a punt of 29 yards — to take a 14–7 lead. Moving 61 yards in only four plays, and aided by three Minnesota penalties, Kirby scored the first of his two touchdowns on a one–yard plunge. The game–breaker occurred two plays later when the San Francisco defense flushed Cunningham out of the pocket and forced him to throw a pass over an onrushing DE Roy Barker and into the hands of Norton, who ran untouched into the end zone. In the third quarter, K Gary Anderson connected on a 34–yard field goal to build the lead to 24–7, but Cunningham and Carter hooked up again for a score, closing the gap to 24–14. On the ensuing series, the 49ers marched 75 yards in seven plays, highlighted by two Kirby runs of 22 and 14 yards. Young then hit WR Terrell Owens with one of the prettiest touchdowns of the year, as the second–year receiver shook off a defender then dove into the end zone for the score. Kirby finished the scoring in the fourth quarter with another one–yard run. CB Tyrone Drakeford had six tackles and a pair of passes defended to pace the defense. Barker also recorded San Francisco's only sack of the game.

Green Bay Packers 23, 49ers 10
NFC Championship
January 11 at 3Com Park
(San Francisco, CA)

RB Dorsey Levens rushed for 114 yards and WR Antonio Freeman caught four passes for 104 yards and a touchdown to lead visiting Green Bay to a 23–10 win in the NFC Championship Game. The game was played before 68,987 under windy and rainy conditions at 3Com Park. The Packers opened the scoring late in the first quarter. After San Francisco punted on its first series, QB Brett Favre led Green Bay on a 10–play, 76–yard drive that resulted in a K Ryan Longwell 19–yard field goal. Favre completed three–of–four passes for 37 yards in the series. Green Bay continued its scoring in the second quarter. S Eugene Robinson intercepted a QB Steve Young pass and returned it 58 yards to the San Francisco 28. Two plays later, Favre threw a 27–yard scoring pass to Freeman to make the score 10–0. San Francisco then broke the drought with a scoring drive beginning with 4:23 remaining in the second quarter. Following a missed field goal by Longwell, the 49ers took possession at their own 38. A pair of Young completions for 32 yards had the Niners in Packers territory, but two holding penalties brought the ball back to the original line of scrimmage. On a key third down with 26 yards to go, Young completed a 48–yard pass to WR Terrell Owens to the Packers 10–yard line. The drive resulted in a 28–yard field goal by K Gary Anderson. Green Bay answered on its next possession. Freeman returned the kickoff 18 yards to the Packers 27. Two plays later, Favre hit Freeman for a 40–yard completion to the San Francisco 25. Longwell connected on a 43–yard field goal to make the halftime score 13–3. After a scoreless third quarter, Green Bay extended its lead to 16–3 on a 25–yard field goal by Longwell. The Packers added seven more after a five–yard touchdown run by Levens to make the score 23–3. San Francisco closed out the game by scoring on the ensuing kickoff. Chuck Levy returned Longwell's kick 95 yards for a touchdown. Levy's return was the second longest postseason return for San Francisco, trailing the 97–yard touchdown return by Vic Washington vs. Dallas in 1972. Young completed 23–of–38 passes for 250 yards and one interception. RB Terry Kirby ran for a team–high 21 yards on six carries. WR J.J. Stokes caught six passes for 87 yards, including a long of 43. Defensively, San Francisco was led by S Merton Hanks with eight tackles. LB Ken Norton Jr., LB Lee Woodall, LB Gary Plummer and S Tim McDonald had seven tackles each.

49ers 30, Green Bay Packers 27
NFC Wild Card
January 3 at 3Com Park
(San Francisco, CA)

QB Steve Young threw three touchdown passes, including a 25–yard strike to WR Terrell Owens with three seconds remaining, as San Francisco edged Green Bay, 30–27. On a crystal clear day in the Bay Area, it was the Packers who opened the scoring on a 23–yard field goal from K Ryan Longwell midway through the first quarter. San Francisco answered with help from a big play on defense. S Merton Hanks forced a fumble by RB Dorsey Levens and the ball was recovered by DE Chris Doleman at the Green Bay 19–yard line. Three plays later Young connected with TE Greg Clark from one yard out for the touchdown and a 7–3 lead. Just four seconds into the second quarter, the Packers regained the lead on a two–yard scoring toss from QB Brett Favre to WR Antonio Freeman. San Francisco tied the score on the first of three K Wade Richey field goals, this one from 34 yards out with 6:53 remaining in the half. The Packers surged back ahead with 36 seconds remaining when Levens bowled into the end zone from two yards out to take a 17–10 halftime lead. The third quarter opened with Favre being pressured into an errant pass that was intercepted by LB Lee Woodall. Five plays later, the score was tied for a third time when Young hit Clark from eight yards out for the score. The 49ers reclaimed the lead midway through the quarter on a team postseason record and career–long 48–yard field goal from Richey. In a game that saw five lead changes and three ties, the fourth quarter became particularly dramatic. Longwell answered Richey's 48–yard kick with a 37–yard effort of his own to tie the game at 20–20 at the beginning of the fourth. On the ensuing possession, San Francisco marched 51 yards in 10 plays and capped the drive with a 40–yard field goal by Richey to reclaim the lead at 23–20. With 4:19 remaining in the game, Green Bay took over at its own 11–yard line. From there, Favre would lead his team on a nine–play, 89–yard scoring drive. The drive was capped when Favre hit Freeman from 15 yards out for the touchdown and a 27–23 lead with 1:56 remaining in the game. The Packers touchdown set up one of the most memorable sequences in 49ers history. San Francisco took possession at its own 24–yard line with 1:50 remaining and three timeouts to its credit. On the final play, Young dropped back, stumbled and threw a 25–yard touchdown strike to Owens who was sandwiched in the end zone by S Pat Terrell and S Darren Sharper.

Atlanta Falcons 20, 49ers 18
NFC Divisional Playoff
January 9 at Georgia Dome
(Atlanta, GA)

With San Francisco's NFL–leading run game a mere shell of itself, the Atlanta Falcons forced three turnovers and held off the 49ers, 20–18, in the NFC Divisional Playoff at the Georgia Dome. San Francisco's hope of controlling the game on the ground came to a screeching halt on the first play of the game when RB Garrison Hearst fractured the tibia in his left leg on an inside run that had gained seven yards. With Hearst out and RB Terry Kirby hobbled with a bruised leg, the 49ers managed just 46 yards on the ground. Atlanta's rushing attack flourished in the first half thanks to the power running of RB Jamal Anderson, who scored on a two–yard run in the first quarter to give the Falcons a 7–0 lead. Atlanta increased its lead to 14–0 when Anderson finished off a 34–yard run with a spread eagle dive into the end zone with 3:12 left in the second quarter. The touchdown run capped a seven–play, 82–yard drive. San Francisco snatched the momentum from the Falcons by putting together a pair of scoring drives just before the half. The 49ers answered Atlanta's second touchdown march with a nine–play, 80–yard drive that concluded with the familiar end zone combination of QB Steve Young to WR Jerry Rice from 17 yards out. It was Rice's 20th career postseason touchdown. With just under one minute to play in the first half, DE Charles Haley chased QB Chris Chandler and deflected his pass into the waiting arms of DT Junior Bryant, who returned it four yards to the Atlanta 36–yard line. K Wade Richey made it a 14–10 game at the half with a 36–yard field goal as time expired. The 49ers carried that momentum into the third quarter, nearly tripling Atlanta's offensive output in the second half (187 yards to 68). But turnovers did not allow them to complete the comeback. The Falcons thwarted two drives with a pair of interceptions, including one by S Eugene Robinson that was returned 77 yards to set up a K Morten Andersen 29–yard field goal. Leading 17–10, Andersen added another 32–yard field goal to give the Falcons a 10–point edge with 10:33 remaining. San Francisco responded to Atlanta's three pointer with a 13–play, 87–yard drive that Young finished himself with an eight–yard touchdown run. A two–point pass from QB Ty Detmer to TE Greg Clark made it 20–18 with 2:57 left. After Atlanta used up 2:19 of the clock, the 49ers got the ball back at their own four–yard line but were only able to move to the 26 before Young's hail mary attempt was intercepted as time expired. After rushing for 83 yards on 13 carries in the first half, Anderson was limited to 30 yards on 16 carries in the second half by San Francisco's defense. LB Winfred Tubbs made a game–high 10 tackles, while DE Chris Doleman made six stops and one sack.

Green Bay Packers 25, 49ers 15
NFC Wild Card
January 13 at Lambeau Field
(Green Bay, WI)

In their first postseason appearance since 1998, the 49ers dropped a hard-fought 25–15 decision to the Green Bay Packers in the NFC Wild Card Game at Lambeau Field. With a game-time temperature of 28 degrees, the 49ers won the opening coin toss and elected to receive. The two teams traded punts until Green Bay marched 40 yards in seven plays to score the first points of the game when QB Brett Favre hooked up with WR Antonio Freeman on a five-yard touchdown pass. DT Dana Stubblefield blocked the extra point to keep the score 6–0. After another 49ers punt, the Packers began their third possession of the game from their own 19-yard line. On the second play from scrimmage, Favre was intercepted by CB Ahmed Plummer, who returned it to the Green Bay 22. San Francisco K Jose Cortez had his 34-yard field goal attempt blocked and the score remained 6–0. After the Packers were forced to punt, San Francisco took possession at its own 14 with 7:06 remaining in the half. QB Jeff Garcia went 6-of-9 for 61 yards and RB Garrison Hearst had a two-yard touchdown plunge with 15 seconds remaining in the half, to cap off a 15-play, 86-yard drive. After a Cortez extra point, the 49ers went in with a 7–6 halftime lead. On their first possession of the second half, the Packers moved the ball down to the San Francisco eight-yard line where K Ryan Longwell nailed a 26-yard field goal for the 9–7 lead. After the 49ers couldn't get anything going on offense, they punted back to Green Bay. It took only four plays for the Packers to take advantage with a 19-yard touchdown pass from Favre to TE Bubba Franks. The two-point conversion failed and the score remained 15–7. Two series later, the 49ers marched 61 yards in six plays, culminating with Garcia hitting WR Tai Streets on a 14-yard touchdown strike and again on the two-point conversion to tie the score at 15. The Packers answered on their next possession with a 10-play, 45-yard drive as Longwell connected on a 45-yard field goal to push the score to 18–15. With 5:03 remaining in the game, the 49ers had moved the ball down to the Green Bay 41, when Garcia's pass intended for WR Terrell Owens was tipped by CB Mike McKenzie into the hands of CB Tyrone Williams at the Green Bay seven-yard line. Favre led the Packers on an eight-play, 93-yard drive ending with an RB Ahman Green nine-yard touchdown run and the 25–15 lead. RB Paul Smith took the ensuing kickoff on the 13-yard line and ran it back 16 yards before being hit by WR Cory Bradford and fumbling. The Packers recovered the fumble and ran out the clock for the 25–15 victory.

49ers 39, New York Giants 38
NFC Wild Card
January 5 at 3Com Park
(San Francisco, CA)

Buried in a 24-point playoff hole, the 49ers exploded to record the second largest comeback in postseason history with a dramatic 39–38 victory over the New York Giants in the NFC Wild Card Game. The 49ers trailed 38–14 with four minutes left in the third quarter, but scored 25 straight points on two touchdown passes and a scoring run by QB Jeff Garcia, as well as two, two-point conversion catches by WR Terrell Owens. The game ended just as exciting. After Garcia drove his team 68 yards in just over two minutes for the winning score, QB Kerry Collins got New York to the San Francisco 28 with six seconds left. LS Trey Junkin, signed earlier in the week, made a low snap that P Matt Allen couldn't handle. Allen then threw a desperate pass that fell incomplete. The 49ers rally was the biggest in NFC playoff history. Garcia finished the day 27-of-44 for 331 yards and three touchdowns. He rushed for 60 yards, including a 14-yard score on the first play of the fourth quarter. Two of Garcia's touchdown throws went to Owens, who had nine catches for 177 yards. Collins was 29-of-43 for 342 yards and four touchdowns, and expertly guided New York to a lead that seemed insurmountable. WR Amani Toomer caught eight passes for 136 yards and three touchdowns and RB Tiki Barber added 115 yards rushing and 62 yards receiving. San Francisco rallied with purpose and poise. Owens caught a 26-yard touchdown pass late in the third quarter to start the rally and made big catches on every drive—right up to the final minutes, when Garcia found WR Tai Streets for the winning score. After Owens caught a 26-yard touchdown pass and a two-point conversion with 2:03 left in the third, Garcia rushed for a 14-yard score and threw another conversion pass to Owens five seconds into the fourth quarter. K Jeff Chandler added a 25-yard field goal with 7:49 left. Collins responded and drove New York 38 yards, but Bryant – kicking out of a poor hold thanks to a poor snap by Junkin—missed a 42-yard field goal with 3:01 left. Garcia took over, converting two straight third downs for the NFL leaders in that category. TE Eric Johnson caught a 25-yard pass to the New York 25 and Garcia scrambled 12 yards to set up his winning pass to Streets.

NFC Divisional Playoff
January 12 at Raymond James Stadium
(Tampa, FL)

San Francisco's Super Bowl hopes ended with a 31–6 loss against the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in the NFC Divisional Playoff Game on the road at Raymond James Stadium. The 49ers trailed 28–6 heading into halftime and although the defense held Tampa Bay to only three points in the second half, San Francisco was held scoreless en route to the Buccaneers victory. Tampa Bay started the scoring with a two-yard touchdown run by FB Mike Alstott on a 12-play, 74-yard drive. San Francisco answered with a 12-play, 63-yard drive capped by a 24-yard field goal by K Jeff Chandler. The highlight of the drive was a 30-yard pitch and catch by WR Tai Streets from QB Jeff Garcia. Tampa Bay exploded for 21 points in the second quarter, highlighted by two touchdown passes by QB Brad Johnson. Johnson connected on a 20-yard pass to WR Joe Jurevicius and a 12-yard pass to TE Rickey Dudley. In between the two scores, Chandler kicked his second field goal of the game for San Francisco, this time from 40 yards out. Alstott added another two-yard touchdown run to end the first half and K Martin Gramatica added a 19-yard field goal to close the scoring for both teams. 49ers 36, New Orleans Saints 32
NFC Divisional Playoff
January 14 at Candlestick Park
(San Francisco, CA)

A 14-yd. TD pass from Alex Smith to TE Vernon Davis with 0:09 left in the game capped off one of the most memorable games in postseason history, as the 49ers defeated the New Orleans Saints, 36–32. Powered by Smith, who threw for 299 yds., three TDs and added another one on the ground, the 49ers triumphed in its first playoff game in nine years, moving within one win of the Super Bowl. The Niners scored on their second drive of the game, on a 49-yd. TD pass from Smith to Davis. On the Saints next drive, QB Drew Brees committed his first postseason INT in five years, thanks to S Dashon Goldson, giving San Francisco the football deep in New Orleans' territory. Scoring on a TD pass to WR Michael Crabtree, Smith took advantage of the costly turnover, making the score 14–0. On the ensuing kickoff return, S Madieu Williams stripped the ball away from Saints WR Courtney Roby and the loose ball was recovered by LB Blake Costanzo. The takeaway led to a 25-yd. FG by K David Akers. The Saints answered, scoring two TDs before half time, on a 14-yd. pass to TE Jimmy Graham and a 25-yd. pass to WR Marques Colston, making the score 17–14 at the half. San Francisco scored the only points of the 3rd qtr. on a 41-yd. FG by David Akers. The 4th qtr. started out with each team trading FGs. Then would come the four lead changes in the last five minutes of the game. New Orleans struck first on a 44-yd. TD pass to RB Darren Sproles, with 4:02 left on the clock. With the 49ers trailing 24–23, down for the first time in the entire game, Smith scored on a 28-yd. rushing TD. A missed two-point conversion put the 49ers up 29–24 with just 2:11 remaining. Brees took the lead back on a 66-yd. score to TE Jimmy Graham with 1:37 left. RB Darren Sproles then made a catch out of the backfield for the two-point conversion to give the Saints a 32–29 advantage. Facing elimination, Smith connected with Davis twice on their final drive, with the last throw jetting through double coverage for a game-winning 14-yd. TD.

New York Giants 20, 49ers 17 (OT)
NFC Championship
January 22 at Candlestick Park
(San Francisco, CA)

When asked what his message was to his players after falling short to the New York Giants in the NFC Championship game, Harbaugh stated, "As Sir Andrew Barton said, 'Fight on my men, we're hurt but not slain. We'll lay down and bleed a while. Then we'll rise and fight again.'" Harbaugh, of course was referring to his team's blue-collar mentality after the Giants escaped rain-soaked Candlestick Park with a 20–17 overtime victory. Harbaugh got the Niners to the brink of the Super Bowl in his rookie year, taking over a 6–10 team and going 13–3 to win the NFC West. The extra minutes at Candlestick Park went in favor of the opponent in a year where most didn't expect a storybook season. The 49ers defense played stoically, recording six sacks on Giants QB Eli Manning, which ranked t–2nd for the most sacks in a postseason game in franchise history (6 – four times, last vs. Den. – 1/29/90). TE Vernon Davis gave the 49ers a 7–0 lead with 7:11 remaining in the 1st qtr. after running a pattern down the right sideline and outracing the secondary for a 73-yd. TD recept. from QB Alex Smith. On their ensuing drive, the Giants drove from their own 31 to the San Francisco 34-yd. line. On 3rd–and–1, Manning and the Giants failed to get a first down despite two opportunities. The Giants eventually evened the score on a 10-play, 69-yd. drive when TE Bear Pascoe caught Manning's short pass at the 6-yd. line and stepped into the end zone for the TD. The Giants added a FG with two seconds remaining in the 2nd qtr. to give them a 10–7 edge going into the locker room. Davis' second TD of the game, gave the lead back to the Niners at 14–10 with 5:18 remaining in the 3rd qtr. San Francisco's 3-play, 54-yd. TD drive was set up by a short pass to RB Frank Gore, who turned it into a 24-yd. gain. On the next play, Davis went in motion from right to left and caught a lofted pass to the end zone by Smith. The Giants took the lead back after the ball inadvertently glanced off WR Kyle Williams on a punt, giving the ball back to the Giants on their 29 yard line. Manning connected a 17-yard pass to WR Mario Manningham to give the Giants a 17–14 lead with 8:41 remaining. Williams' 40-yd. return on the ensuing kickoff enabled the 49ers to start their next possession at their own 45. On consecutive plays, Smith scrambled for 17 yds. and RB Kendall Hunter ran for 18 more, resulting in a K David Akers game-tying FG with 5:39 to go, 17–17. After both teams went 3–and–out on their first overtime possession, a Giants takeaway on a Williams fumble, forced by LB Jacquian Williams on a punt return, gave the Giants possession at their own 36 with 9:32 remaining. After converting one first down, K Lawrence Tynes sent the season-ending 31-yd. FG through the uprights.

49ers 45, Green Bay Packers 31
NFC Divisional Playoff
January 12 at Candlestick Park
(San Francisco, CA)

With the win against the Green Bay Packers, the San Francisco 49ers advanced to the NFC Championship Game for the second year in a row, marking the first time San Francisco has reached the NFC Championship Game in consecutive seasons since 1992–94. The Packers got off to a quick start after QB Colin Kaepernick threw an INT on just the fourth play of the game that was returned for a TD by Packers CB Sam Shields. Kaepernick responded immediately like he has all season and turned in one of the best performances by a 49ers QB in franchise history. Kaepernick led the offense on an 8-play, 80-yd. drive that he capped off with a 20-yd. TD run to tie the score at 7 apiece early in the 1st qtr. The team converted on two 3rd and longs on the drive, setting the tone for the day by finishing 8 of 13 on 3rd down (62%). With 11:52 remaining in the 2nd qtr., Green Bay WR Jeremy Ross muffed a punt that was recovered by S C.J. Spillman at the Packers 9-yd. line. The takeaway led to a 12-yd. TD pass from Kaepernick to WR Michael Crabtree just three plays later. On the ensuing Green Bay possession, CB Tarell Brown picked off QB Aaron Rodgers pass and returned his 2nd career postseason INT. The Kaepernick to Crabtree connection continued to be successful as they connected for a 20-yd. TD strike, making the score 21–14. Crabtree led the team with 9 recepts. for 119 yds. and 2 TDs on the day. On the third play of San Francisco's second possession of the 3rd qtr., Kaepernick kept the ball on a zone read around the right side and dashed 56-yds. to the end zone for his 2nd rushing TD of the game. The 56-yd. TD run marked the longest run by a QB in franchise postseason history and the 3rd longest overall. Kaepernick also set the NFL single-game record for a QB with 181 rushing yds. on 16 carries. RB Frank Gore finished off the following drive on the first play of the 4th qtr., punching it in from 2 yds. out, stretching the 49ers lead to 38–24. Gore notched his first career 100-yd. game in the postseason, rushing for 119 yds. on 23 carries. The 49ers became the first team in NFL history to ever have two, 100-yd. rushers [QB Colin Kaepernick (181 yds. rushing), RB Frank Gore (119 yds. rushing)] and one, 100-yd. receiver [WR Michael Crabtree (119 yds. receiving)] in a playoff game. RB Anthony Dixon found the end zone on a 2-yd. TD run to finish off the 11-play, 93-yd. drive to make the score 45–24. San Francisco rushed for 323 yds. on the night, setting the franchise single-game postseason rushing record.

49ers 28, Falcons 24
NFC Championship
January 20 at Georgia Dome
(Atlanta, GA)

The 49ers started slow, spotting Atlanta a 17–0 lead after the Falcons scored on their first three possessions. On San Francisco's third possession the 49ers offense began to click. TE Vernon Davis hauled in a pinpoint pass from QB Colin Kaepernick for 27 yds. down to the Atlanta 15–yd. line. Davis had 3, 25+ yd. repts. in the game, giving him 9 in 4 postseason games, which ranks 2nd in 49ers postseason history, trailing only WR Jerry Rice (14, 25+ yd. repts. in 23 games). Two plays following Davis' catch, the 49ers got on the scoreboard with a 15–yd. TD run by RB LaMichael James. It was James' first-career TD. The 49ers next possession began on their own 18–yd. line with 6:24 remaining in the 2nd qtr. Vernon Davis stepped up once again, accounting for 48–yds. on 3 repts., including a 4–yd. TD catch to finish the drive and pull the 49ers within 3, as the score read 14–17 at the 2–minute warning. Davis' 5 career postseason TDs rank 1–4th in franchise history. With the Falcons scoring right before the half, it was important the 49ers came out of halftime with an answer, and answer they did. Kaepernick marched the 49ers offense right down the field, driving 82 yds. on 7 plays capped off on a 5–yd. TD run by RB Frank Gore to make the score 21–24 with 10:51 remaining in the 3rd qtr. The San Francisco defense also had answers, forcing turnovers on the Falcons first two possessions of the 2nd half. CB Chris Culliver picked-off QB Matt Ryan and LB Aldon Smith recovered a muffed snap to stymie the Falcons offense during the 3rd qtr. With 11:59 left in the 4th qtr. WR Ted Ginn returned a Matt Bosher punt 20 yds. to the Atlanta 38–yd. line, giving the 49ers offense good starting field position. San Francisco's physical offensive line began to take over and wear down the Atlanta defense, opening big holes for Gore, James and RB Anthony Dixon as they gained all but 8 yds. on the go-ahead drive. Gore registered his 2nd TD run of the game on a 9–yd. burst to the end zone to give San Francisco the lead 28–24 with 8:27 remaining in the game. The Falcons took over after the Gore TD and sustained a 14–play drive down to the 49ers 10–yd. line. On the 14th play of the drive, the Falcons faced a 4th and 4 with 1:13 remaining. WR Roddy White was unable to hang onto the ball due to LB NaVorro Bowman's blanketing defense. The Falcons got the ball back following an Andy Lee punt and had one last shot with :06 ticks left on the clock, but CB Perrish Cox tackled WR Julio Jones at San Francisco's 35–yd. line before he could attempt a lateral as the clock struck :00. The 17–point comeback led by Kaepernick was the 2nd largest deficit overcome to win a conference championship (2006 – Indianapolis trailed New England by 18 points).

Baltimore 34, 49ers 31
Super Bowl XLVII
February 3 at Superdome
(New Orleans, LA)

The San Francisco 49ers and the Baltimore Ravens squared off in one of the most extraordinary Super Bowl's where two brothers squared off as head coaches. The 49ers found themselves facing an early deficit, which would eventually be too much to overcome. Early in the 1st qtr., San Francisco answered a Ravens TD drive with a scoring drive of their own as QB Colin Kaepernick engineered a 12–play 62–yd. drive that was finished off by K David Akers' 36–yd. FG, making the score 7–3. After 2 more TD passes by QB Joe Flacco, the 49ers found themselves in a 21–3 hole with 1:45 left in the 2nd qtr. Kaepernick showed poise and led the 2–minute drill efficiently by completing 4 of 5 pass atts. for 56 yds. to move the 49ers into FG position. Akers added 3 more points with a 27–yd. FG as time expired in the half with San Francisco trailing Baltimore 21–6. Following a Ravens kickoff return for a TD to open the 2nd half, the Superdome went dark with 13:28 remaining in the 3rd qtr. A power failure at 7:38 p.m. CT caused a 30–minute delay and was not resolved until 8:08 p.m. On the Niners' next possession, Kaepernick tossed a 31–yd. TD pass to WR Michael Crabtree, making the score 28–13. San Francisco forced Baltimore into a 3–and–out with a sack by LB Ahmad Brooks on 3rd–and–10. P Sam Koch's 43–yd. punt was returned 32 yds. by WR Ted Ginn Jr., setting up the 49ers offense to takeover at the Ravens 20–yd. line. Two plays later, RB Frank Gore capitalized on the short field with a 6–yd. TD run. On the second play of Baltimore's ensuing possession, CB Tarell Brown forced and recovered a fumble that he jarred loose from RB Ray Rice on the Ravens' 24–yd. line. The takeaway led to a 34–yd. FG by Akers, his 3rd of the game. With their next possession, WR Randy Moss hauled in a 32–yd. repts., followed by a 21–yd. run by Gore, which led to a 15–yd. TD run by Kaepernick. An incomplete pass on the 2–point try made the score 31–29 with the Ravens still hanging on as San Francisco continued its fierce comeback. Kaepernick's 15–yd. TD run marked the longest TD run by a QB in Super Bowl history. With 4:23 remaining in the game, Baltimore's K Justin Tucker tacked on a 38–yd. FG to extend their lead to 34–29. A 24–yd. completion to Crabtree and a 33–yd. rush by Gore put the 49ers offense in position for the go-ahead TD with 2:39 remaining, on the Ravens' 7–yd. line. The 49ers were unable to get into the end zone and turned the ball over on downs. After taking a safety to run the game clock down to :04, the Ravens were forced to punt to the 49ers. Ginn returned the kickoff 31–yds. to the 50–yd. line as time expired for the last play of the game.

The 49ers and Chargers played to a scoreless tie in the first half. The defensive struggle continued into the second half and the score remained 0–0 at the end of the third quarter. On San Diego's first possession of the fourth quarter, Dan Fouts guided them on a 16-play, 80-yard scoring drive, capped by a Bo Matthews two-yard touchdown run. San Francisco answered on its next possession with a 64-yard scoring drive. Paul Hofer caught an eight-yard touchdown pass from Scott Bull to make the score 7–6. The extra point was blocked, but the Chargers Tom Graham was flagged for offsides. After the penalty was marked off, Steve Mike–Mayer connected to tie the game at seven with just over a minute left in regulation. San Diego won the overtime coin toss and elected to receive. The Chargers began their first possession on their own seven-yard line where Fouts guided them on a nine-play, 93-yard drive, which was capped by a Mercury Morris 13-yard touchdown run for the 13–7 win.

San Francisco 10, New Orleans 7

The 49ers got their first ever overtime victory at New Orleans. The Saints got on the board early in the first quarter on an eight-yard run by Tony Galbreath. The Saints appeared to grab a commanding lead at the end of the first half when Richard Mauti returned a Tom Wittum punt 65 yards for a touchdown 10 seconds before halftime. But a New Orleans clipping penalty nullified the score. The 49ers tied it up in the third quarter with a five-yard romp by Delvin Williams. Neither team would score again in regulation and the game went to overtime knotted at seven. The Saints won the overtime coin toss, but were unable to move the ball, giving it back to the 49ers. San Francisco started from its own 41-yard line and moved the ball down to the Saints 16, where Ray Wersching connected on a 33-yard game-winning field goal.

Atlanta 10, San Francisco 10

San Francisco visited Atlanta for a battle with the division rival Falcons and took an early 7–0 lead on a Roger Craig one-yard romp. The Falcons responded with a punishing 17-play, 44-yard drive that resulted in a 47-yard field goal by Mick Luckhurst. San Francisco maintained its lead in the second quarter with a 53-yard, 13-play drive, which led to a 24-yard Ray Wersching field goal and a 10–3 lead. The defenses dominated the second half, holding the offenses scoreless for all of the third quarter and most of the fourth. With just over a minute remaining in regulation, the Falcons took advantage of great field position and scored on a 39-yard touchdown pass from Dave Archer to Sylvester Stamps to tie the game at 10. The Falcons won the overtime coin toss and elected to receive. After generating only one first down, the Falcons were forced to give up possession. The 49ers mirrored the Falcons on their first possession of overtime and punted with 6:42 remaining. Both teams had possession two more times in overtime, but could not produce a score as the game ended in a 10–10 tie.

Denver 16, San Francisco 13

Two of the best teams in the NFL faced off in an inter conference battle as the Denver Broncos visited Candlestick Park. The 49ers started the scoring with a 37-yard Mike Cofer field goal with 4:52 remaining in the first quarter. The Broncos answered early in the second with a 27-yard field goal by Rich Karlis to knot the game at three. With San Francisco's second possession of the second quarter, Joe Montana opened up the offense and led the 49ers 95 yards and capped it off with a six-yard quarterback sneak for a 10–3 lead at halftime. The only scoring in the third quarter came on Karlis' 27-yard field goal with five minutes remaining, cutting the 49ers lead to 10–6. Cofer quickly answered with a 27-yard field goal with one minute on the clock in the third quarter for the 13–6 lead. After an injury, John Elway returned to hit Vance Johnson with an eight-yard touchdown pass. Neither team could score in the final minutes of regulation and headed into overtime. On San Francisco's first possession, Andre Townsend sacked Montana, injuring his ribs. Steve Young took over, and on his first play threw an interception to Mark Haynes ending the threat. After a five-and-out drive by the Broncos, the 49ers took over on their own five-yard line. A second Young interception, deep in Broncos territory, helped set the stage for Karlis to connect on a 22-yard game-winning field goal.

Philadelphia 37, San Francisco 34

Turnovers and an ill-timed penalty marred the 49ers first overtime game in four years. The Philadelphia Eagles struck early and often, first on a 34-yard Roger Ruzek field goal five minutes into the game. On San Francisco's first possession, Steve Young was hit and fumbled the ball, which was recovered by Byron Evans who returned it 30 yards for a touchdown and a 10-0 lead. With Bubby Brister at the helm, the Eagles drove 76 yards in the opening minutes of the second quarter and connected with Calvin Williams for a 13-yard touchdown to push the lead to 17-3. Brister again guided Philadelphia to an eight-play, 64-yard touchdown scoring drive to take a commanding 21-point lead. The 49ers end zone drought ended with just less than two minutes remaining in the half when Young hit Jerry Rice for a three-yard touchdown that brought the score to 24-10 at halftime. San Francisco started the second half with a 60-yard kickoff return by Dexter Carter to give the 49ers the ball on Philadelphia's 38-yard line. Capping off a punishing 38-yard, nine-play drive, Ricky Watters ran 11 yards for the score. After a Philadelphia punt, John Taylor caught a 38-yard touchdown pass to tie the game at 24. Philadelphia took advantage of a Young injury by intercepting a Steve Bono pass. The Eagles worked quickly, moving 69 yards in just two plays to take a 31-24 lead. San Francisco gave Philadelphia good field position again with a fumble on its own 40, allowing the Eagles to increase their lead to 10 with a Ruzek 32-yard field goal in the third quarter. Set up by a Don Griffin interception, Bono drove the 49ers 42 yards and scored on a one-yard keeper that closed the gap to 34-31. After a Philadelphia punt, the Niners drove down and tied the game on a Cofer 29-yard field goal with 15 seconds left in regulation. San Francisco won the overtime coin toss and elected to receive, but failed to score on two overtime possessions. On Philadelphia's second possession of overtime, they drove to San Francisco's 20-yard line. With four seconds showing on the clock, the Eagles set up for a 38-yard field goal. Ruzek missed the field goal wide right, but Merton Hanks was flagged for roughing the kicker. After a 10-yard penalty, Ruzek hit a 28-yarder with no time left on the clock for the 37-34 win.

The two most dominating teams in the NFL met in a mid-season battle for NFC supremacy as the Dallas Cowboys traveled to 3Com Park. The 49ers jumped out to a quick lead after a Jeff Wilkins 28-yard field goal. They extended their lead to 10-0 on a 29-yard touchdown strike from Steve Young to Iheanyi Uwaezuoke. Quiet for most of the first half, the Cowboys finally got on the board with a 72-yard scoring drive that ended on a Troy Aikman three-yard touchdown run, which cut the deficit to 10-7 at halftime. Oakland 34, San Francisco 28

In a game for the ages, the 49ers fell in overtime to the visitors from across the Bay, the Oakland Raiders. The Raiders jumped out to the early 6-0 lead on two Sebastian Janikowski field goals. The 49ers answered back, scoring 14 unanswered points to close out the first half. The Raiders dominated the third quarter, holding onto the ball for more than 11 minutes and scoring two touchdowns. After another score by the Raiders to start the fourth, the 49ers started their comeback. After a Jeff Garcia-to-Terrell Owens scoring toss and another score on a nine-yard touchdown run by Charlie Garner, San Francisco tied the game at 28. On their next possession, the Raiders drove down to San Francisco's 23-yard line, but on fourth-and-10, Janikowski missed a 41-yard field goal wide left. The 49ers, with a chance to win the game, took possession and moved the ball down to the Oakland 29-yard line. On fourth-and-one, the Raiders defense stiffened and stopped a leaping Charlie Garner for no gain. The Raiders took over on downs, but couldn't get their offense going and were forced to punt back to the 49ers, who ran out the clock and forced the game into overtime. The Raiders won the toss and marched down to the 49ers 25-yard line. Janikowski came on to attempt the game-winning field goal, but missed wide right, his second missed field goal of the day. The 49ers took over and drove all the way to the Raiders 11-yard line. On first down, Wade Richey attempted the game-winning field goal, but was blocked and possession went back to the Raiders. Following two pass completions and a pass interference call on the 49ers, the Raiders finally put the game away with a 31-yard scoring toss from Rich Gannon to Tim Brown for the win.

San Francisco 25, Carolina 22

In their fourth overtime game of the season, setting a new team record, the 49ers pulled out an exciting 25-22 victory over the Carolina Panthers. The game was a see-saw battle with each team going back and forth until the fourth quarter. The Panthers went ahead late in the fourth quarter after a Jeff Garcia interception. Wesley Walls scored on a 24-yard pass, but the two-point conversion failed, leaving the Panthers with a slim 19-14 lead. On the next 49ers drive, Garcia was intercepted again, this time deep in 49ers territory. The San Francisco defense held Carolina to only a field goal and the 49ers were down 22-14 with just 1:52 remaining in the game. Garcia started the offense on its own 34-yard line and began the two-minute drill. The 49ers moved down the field to the Panthers seven-yard line, where Garcia threw a fade route to Terrell Owens, who snatched it out of the air with one second remaining on the clock to cut the score to 22-20. Garcia then found Eric Johnson in the end zone for the two-point conversion to send the game into overtime. San Francisco won the coin toss and started its drive at its own 26-yard line. Garcia completed three-of-four passes for 27 yards, while Garrison Hearst rushed twice for 34 yards to bring the 49ers down to Carolina's nine-yard line. In an early-season division battle, the St. Louis Rams prevailed over the 49ers in overtime in a back and forth battle. The Rams went ahead late in the fourth quarter, 24-17, with 3:20 remaining. Undaunted, Jeff Garcia calmly led his team down the field for the game-tying 13-yard touchdown pass to Terrell Owens with 19 seconds remaining in regulation. The 49ers recovered a fumble on the ensuing kickoff and had the ball at midfield. After an incomplete pass, Garcia connected with Cedrick Wilson on a 29-yard pass on second down with nine seconds remaining. Instead of falling to the ground and taking a timeout, Wilson kept running and was tackled as time ran out and the game headed into overtime. The Rams won the toss and received the kickoff, which they returned to their 48-yard line. After a one-yard run by Marshall Faulk, the 49ers were penalized 15 yards for a face mask penalty. Arizona 16, San Francisco 13

In another division battle, the 49ers had their second overtime game of the season, this time at Arizona. The field goal kicking was the story of this game as the 49ers missed both field goal attempts and made only 1-of-2 PATs and the Cardinals made only 3-of-6 field goal attempts. The Cardinals had the lead 13-6 in the fourth quarter when the 49ers tied the game on one of the most improbable touchdowns in team history. Jeff Garcia fumbled at the one-yard line and the ball was recovered by offensive lineman Kwame Harris, who scored his first career touchdown. The game was tied at 13 with 2:25 left to play. The Cardinals had another shot to get into scoring position, but were forced to punt and gave the 49ers one more shot for the victory with almost six minutes remaining in regulation. San Francisco then launched a drive that put the offense at the Arizona 16-yard line. But Owen Pochman missed the potential game-winning field goal, his second missed field goal of the day, this time from 35 yards out. This breathed new life into Arizona, who drove down to the San Francisco 32-yard line. With five seconds remaining in regulation, Tim Duncan attempted the game-winning 50-yard field goal, which was short, and the game headed to overtime. In overtime, the Cardinals won the toss and drove down to the 49ers 22-yard line in eight plays. Duncan set up for another chance at a game-winning field goal, this one from 39 yards out. Rattay coolly directed two late fourth-quarter scoring drives that sent the game into overtime after trailing by 16 points with 8:19 remaining. In overtime, Rattay again led the team downfield and buoyed by a roughing the passer penalty, put them into scoring position where K Todd Peterson banged home the game-winning 32-yard field goal. Rattay finished the game with a CAREER-HIGH 417 yards passing and a quarterback rating of 99.8. He was an impressive 14 of 20 for 115 yards and two touchdowns in the fourth quarter. He also broke QB Joe Montana's team record by completing 38 passes. Montana held the previous mark of 37. Rattay's favorite target on the day was TE Eric Johnson who hauled in a career-high 13 receptions for 162 yards and one touchdown. Johnson caught a six-yard touchdown from Rattay with 4:35 remaining in the game that pulled the 49ers within 10 points. Rattay ran in the two-point conversion and suddenly the 49ers were within eight points. Now they needed a stop and the defense was up to the task, forcing a Cardinals punt. Taking over at the 49ers 28-yard line, Rattay started off with a nine-yard pass to WR Curtis Conway, then scampered 15 more yards before hitting Conway on a 14-yard pass to get the 49ers to the Cardinals 23. From there Rattay found WR Brandon Lloyd in the corner of the end zone and the 49ers were within two points. Lloyd then slipped in front of the defender and caught Rattay's two-point offering sending the game into overtime. The 49ers won the overtime coin toss and never relinquished the ball. A roughing the passer penalty on Arizona's DT Darrell Dockett helped the 49ers cause and Rattay took advantage as he quickly moved the team into scoring position where Peterson knocked home the game-winner.

San Francisco 31, Arizona 28

First-year RB Maurice Hicks earned the game ball after an inspiring 139-yard performance on 34 attempts. He and QB Ken Dorsey carried the 49ers to their second victory of the season, a 31-28 overtime victory in Arizona. San Francisco did have to work for the win, despite taking a 28-3 lead in the third quarter. The Cardinals staged a furious rally and almost answered the 49ers overtime win earlier in the season at Monster Park. But some key plays from the defense and the legs of Hicks proved the difference of the day. Hicks, making his first career NFL start, had four carries for 42 yards in overtime including a significant 17-yard gain that set-up K Todd Peterson's game-winning field goal. Facing 2nd and 3 from the Cardinals 30-yard line, Hicks took the handoff from Dorsey, cut off the tackle to his right and raced downfield before he was knocked out of bounds at the 13. Dorsey finished the game completing 18 of 34 passes for 191 yards and three scores for a passer rating of 99.0. Starting for the injured QB Tim Rattay, Dorsey threw his first career touchdown to WR Brandon Lloyd for the first score of the day. He then connected twice with WR Cedrick Wilson for scores as Wilson led the receiving efforts with five receptions for 83 yards and two scores, including a 19-yard catch to keep the 49ers game-winning drive alive. Dorsey was sacked just once in his 34 passing attempts behind an offensive line that played its best game of the year.

San Francisco 20, Houston 17

The San Francisco 49ers rallied from a 10–0 first quarter deficit for a 20–17 overtime victory over the Houston Texans to close out the 2005 campaign with two consecutive wins for a 4–12 record. The 49ers dominated the line of scrimmage, gaining 182 yards on the ground and controlling the clock for 44:03. The 49ers used a combination of RB Frank Gore (108 yards) and RB Maurice Hicks (64 yards) to take control on the ground. S Mike Adams was the star of the game on defense after finishing with two interceptions, one that was returned for a touchdown and the other that led to the game-winning field goal in overtime. QB Alex Smith helped lead the 49ers to a touchdown at the end of the first half by converting a key third-and-13 situation with a 14-yard strike to WR Brandon Lloyd and then three plays later threw his first NFL touchdown pass when he rolled to his right and found Lloyd in the back of the end zone for a 14-yard score. The 49ers took the second half kick and went on a 14-play, 56-yard drive that ended with a 42-yard field goal by Nedney to tie the game at 10–10. Houston responded when Banks fired a 31-yard pass to WR Corey Bradford to get into San Francisco territory followed by a 25-yard touchdown pass to Bradford to retake the lead at 17–10. Adams, who made his first NFL start at cornerback, intercepted QB Tony Banks at the end of the third quarter and returned it 40 yards for a touchdown to tie the game at 17–17. Then in overtime, Banks went deep but Adams intercepted the pass and alertly lateraled to S Ben Emanuel, who ran 35 yards to the Houston 21-yard line. After two short runs, PK Joe Nedney nailed a 33-yard field goal to give the 49ers the 20–17 victory.

San Francisco 26, Denver 23

The San Francisco 49ers overcame a 13–0 deficit to pull out a 26–23 win over the Denver Broncos at Invesco Field at Mile High. The 49ers played the role of spoilers when the victory knocked the Broncos out of the playoffs. The 49ers come-from-behind win was led by three outstanding individual efforts: RB Frank Gore gained 153 rushing yards, PK Joe Nedney kicked four field goals along with the game winner in overtime, and CB Walt Harris snagged two interceptions, including a 28-yard touchdown return in the third quarter. WR Bryan Gilmore had two key plays in overtime to advance the 49ers into field goal range for the game winning kick. During the first half, strong 49ers goal-line defense helped limit Denver to a pair of field goals on drives that were stopped when the Broncos were in first-and-goal situations. The 49ers defense again held Denver to a field goal in the third quarter when the Broncos had a first-and-goal inside the five-yard line. Denver went ahead 13–0 in the second quarter when CB Champ Bailey took a deflected theft 70 yards into the end zone. Nedney booted a 46-yard field goal to put the score at 13–3 in Denver's favor at the end of the half. San Francisco rallied in the second half, converting its first series into a 12-play, 76-yard touchdown drive. FB Moran Norris caught a short pass from Smith and weaved in and out of traffic for a 32-yard touchdown. The 49ers took the lead on the ensuing drive when Harris picked off QB Jay Cutler and went 28 yards untouched for a touchdown that gave the 49ers a 17–13 lead. Denver responded with a field goal on the next series, but the 49ers added two field goals in the fourth quarter for a 23–16 advantage with 6:14 to play in regulation. Cutler completed a nine-yard touchdown pass to TE Tony Scheffler to tie the game at 23–23 and send it into overtime. Denver won the coin toss, but was forced to punt on two drives before a 12-yard return by PR Brandon Williams allowed the 49ers to start their game-winning drive at their own 39-yard line. Gilmore gained 20 yards on an end route and then caught a 14-yard pass from QB Alex Smith for a first down at the Denver 25-yard line. Two plays later, Nedney kicked a 36-yard field goal to give San Francisco the win.

San Francisco 37, Arizona 31

The San Francisco 49ers completed a series sweep of the Arizona Cardinals with a 37–31 overtime victory to snap an eight-game losing streak at the University of Phoenix Stadium. DE Ron Fields forced QB Kurt Warner to fumble on a sack in the end zone, and LB Tully Banta-Cain recovered the ball for a touchdown in overtime to seal the win. The play was set up after PK Neil Rackers missed a 32-yard field goal in overtime. Rackers was successful on a field goal from the San Francisco nine-yard line, but the Cardinals were penalized for a delay of game penalty, moving the ball back to the 14-yard line where Rackers was wide to the left. A 59-yard punt by P Andy Lee followed by an Arizona penalty forced the Cardinals to begin their next drive at the three-yard line, setting up the 49ers defensive touchdown to get the win. RB Frank Gore went over the 100-yard mark for the first time in 2007, finishing with 116 yards and two touchdowns, including a 35-yard touchdown run with 1:25 to play to give the 49ers a 31–28 lead. Warner completed five passes on the ensuing drive to get Arizona to the one-yard line with six seconds to play. CB Donald Strickland broke up a pass in the end zone to force Arizona to settle for a 19-yard field goal as time expired in regulation. In overtime, Warner completed a short pass to WR Sean Morey, who raced down the sidelines for a 62-yard gain before LP Patrick Willis caught up with him to make a game-saving tackle at the 14-yard line. That set up Rackers game-winning field goal attempt. The 49ers had three first half turnovers with two CB Walt Harris interceptions and a strip by CB Nate Clements to lead to 14 points. San Francisco had a 17–7 lead and appeared to be in position to take a 17–14 halftime lead after Harris' second interception gave the 49ers a first down at their own 41-yard line. QB Trent Dilfer moved the team inside Arizona territory to the 37-yard line with 11 seconds to go to set up a field goal attempt. PK Joe Nedney attempted a 55-yard field goal that went wide, leaving six seconds on the board for the Cardinals. Warner completed a short pass to the sideline and then with two seconds left completed a 48-yard Hail Mary pass to WR Larry Fitzgerald for a touchdown and a 21–17 halftime lead. A 57-yard touchdown pass from Dilfer to WR Arnaz Battle in the third quarter pushed the 49ers back in front, 24–21, heading into the final quarter. Cardinals backup QB Tim Rattay completed a two-yard touchdown on a fourth-down play midway in the fourth quarter to take a 28–24 lead. Gore's 35-yard touchdown with 1:25 recaptured the lead for San Francisco, but Rackers last second field goal sent the game to overtime.

San Francisco 33, Arizona 30

The San Francisco 49ers overcame a 14-point first quarter deficit to win 33–30 in overtime after PK Joe Nedney nailed a 40-yard game-winning field goal. After closing the gap to 20–13 at halftime, the 49ers intercepted Seattle on the first two drives of the second quarter, including one that was returned for a touchdown. On the first series of the second half, CB Walt Harris tipped a QB Matt Hasselbeck pass that was picked off and returned 86 yards for a touchdown by LB Patrick Willis to tie the game at 20–20. On the next series, DE Ray McDonald tipped a pass that was intercepted by Harris at the Seattle 41-yard line to help set up the go-ahead touchdown. QB J.T. O'Sullivan completed back-to-back passes to WR Bryant Johnson to move the 49ers to the 22-yard line to help get into position for a two-yard touchdown run by RB Frank Gore to lift the 49ers in front, 27–20. Seattle responded with a 15-play, 74-yard drive that ended in a touchdown to tie the game at 27–27. After both teams exchanged field goals to get the score tied at 30–30, the 49ers forced Seattle to punt from its own 12-yard line and the 49ers began a drive at the Seattle 49-yard line with 1:09 to play in regulation. The team moved to the 23-yard line with three seconds to play to set up a game-winning field goal attempt. Nedney's 41-yard attempt sailed wide to the right to send the game to overtime. The 49ers won the toss and elected to receive. O'Sullivan completed a 33-yard pass to WR Isaac Bruce on third-and-seven and a five-yard pass to WR Arnaz Battle on a third-and-two situation to push the 49ers to the 23-yard line where Nedney connected on a 40-yard field goal to give San Francisco the win. O'Sullivan registered his first 300-yard game, finishing 20-of-32 for 321 yards with one touchdown. Bruce had his first 100-yard game as a member of the 49ers with 153 yards on four catches, including a 63-yard catch in the second quarter to help get the 49ers in position for O'Sullivan's three-yard touchdown pass to Johnson. Seattle jumped to a 14–0 first quarter after taking advantage of two miscues by the 49ers. LB Manny Lawson blocked a Seattle punt early in the game, however Seattle recovered the loose ball and converted it into a first down inside San Francisco territory on a drive that ended with a Seattle touchdown. On the next series, Seattle forced Gore to fumble deep in Seahawks territory on a play that resulted in a 10-yard touchdown return by DT Craig Terrill.

San Francisco 23, St. Louis 20

The San Francisco 49ers Week 10 matchup would be a battle between NFC West foes as they hosted the division leading St. Louis Rams at Candlestick Park. With the chance to get back into the hunt for the NFC West and compile back-to-back wins for the first time this season, the 49ers would take a big step and put the game in the hands of former Heisman Trophy winner QB Troy Smith. Along with late game heroics that came down to the first overtime contest for the 49ers this season, the game proved to be a classic NFC West shootout. The Rams would also rely on a former Heisman Trophy winner in QB Sam Bradford to come in and test the 49ers at home. With two quarterbacks of storied pasts, the game turned out to be an offensive showcase as both teams would throw for a combined 607 yds., as well as 753 yds. of total offense. All would come down to an overtime FG off the foot of K Joe Nedney, who connected on a 29-yd. game winning kick that gave the 49ers the 23–20 win. With St. Louis winning the toss and electing to receive, Bradford started things off, marching his team down the field. The drive ultimately would be halted, but not before a K Josh Brown's 42-yd. FG put the Rams on the board 3–0 to start the game. Coming off a bye and an extra week to prepare, the 49ers picked up right where they left off in London, as they were able to effectively spread the ball down the field, putting up 421 yds. of total offense. Smith proved to be a major part of the offensive onslaught as he completed 17 of 28 pass atts. for a career-high 356 yds. and 1 TD through the air. Smith's 356 yds. were the most by a 49ers QB since QB Tim Rattay threw for 417 yds. on 38 of 57 pass atts. vs. Arz. (10/10/04). From start to finish, the 49ers found ways to get the ball to multiple players throughout the offense as Smith connected with 5 different receivers who registered 60 yds. rec. or more. It marked the first time in franchise history that at least 5 receivers totaled 60 yds. rec. or more. Smith started the carousel of offensive production with a 32-yd. pass to TE Vernon Davis. On the very next offensive drive, Smith hooked up with WR Josh Morgan for a 65-yd. pass deep down the right side that brought him to the 1-yd. line, setting up a 1-yd. TD run by RB Frank Gore and giving the 49ers a 7–3 lead. The 49ers offense would continue to pour on the yards as they successfully moved the ball down field and allowed Nedney to connect on a 26-yd. FG to put the home team up 10–3 with 12:04 left to go in the half. The Rams eventually would find their way into the end zone as QB Sam Bradford connected with WR Danny Amendola for a 5-yd. TD pass to tie the game at 10 a piece heading into halftime. The 49ers found themselves down heading into the 4th qtr. after Rams RB Steven Jackson scampered for a 13-yd. TD to bring the score to 10–17. With the home team down 13–17 late in the 4th qtr. the 49ers would once again turn to their quarterback. With 2:30 remaining on the clock, the 49ers faced a 3rd and 32 situation at the SF 47-yd. line. Smith then connected on back-to-back passes to Gore of 14 and 23 yds. to move the chains, before firing a 16-yd. TD strike to WR Michael Crabtree to give the 49ers the lead. Rams marched right back down the field and scored off of a 33-yd. FG by Brown, forcing overtime. After St. Louis won the toss, the 49ers defense made a crucial 3 and out stop, which included a 3rd down sack by DT Justin Smith that allowed the 49ers to get the ball back and set up the game winning FG.

September 18, 2011 Dallas 27, San Francisco 24

San Francisco's regime led by Jim Harbaugh and his new but experienced staff, entered the historic rivalry match against the Dallas Cowboys with something to prove at Candlestick Park. The 49ers started off as they had hoped, scoring 2 first-half TDs and blanking America's Team, but big pass plays late in the game would ultimately cause the Niners to fall short as they were edged 27–24 in overtime. Dallas opened the 1st qtr. marching down the field, but came up short after a failed 21-yd. FG attempt by K Dan Bailey. After exchanging the next couple of possessions, QB Alex Smith led the Niners on a 68-yd. drive, capped off by a 1-yd. TD by RB Frank Gore in the 2nd qtr. The 49ers front seven played strong, swarming and stopping the run, allowing Smith and the Niners to regain possession to take a 14–0 lead. The 12-yd. throw from Smith marked the first TD of WR Kyle Williams' career and the team's first passing TD of 2011. QB Tony Romo and the Cowboys answered before the half on a 71-yd. drive, capped off by a 53-yd. TD slant to WR Miles Austin, making it a one score game heading into the half. Dallas lost its starting QB for a brief stretch in the 3rd qtr., when it appeared Romo's rib injury – occurring on the 3rd play of the game – had become too much of a hindrance. Backup QB Jon Kitna started the 3rd qtr. and threw a tying TD pass and 2 INTs in relief. Displaying good ball skills and awareness, CB Tramaine Brock came up with his 2nd INT of the season in as many weeks, reacting to a Kitna tipped pass and coming up with the turnover. Smith and the 49ers took advantage of the Cowboys turnover with a deep pass down the right sideline to TE Delanie Walker for 29 yds. and the go-ahead TD entering the 4th qtr. K David Akers connected on a 55-yd. FG, marking the longest FG in Candlestick Park history, and the Niners built up a 10-pt. cushion. The Cowboys charged back from the 24–14 deficit when Romo hit Austin for a leaping 25-yd. TD, and then directed a 10-play, 44-yd. drive in the final 4 minutes that ended with an overtime-forcing, 48-yd. field goal. After the Cowboys' defense forced a punt on the 49ers first OT drive, Romo found backup WR Jesse Holley in stride for a 77-yd. gain that set up 19-yd. game-winning FG.

January 22, 2012 New York Giants 20, San Francisco 17 NFC Championship Game

When asked what his message was to his players after falling short to the New York Giants in the NFC Championship game, Harbaugh stated, "As Sir Andrew Barton said, 'Fight on my men, we're hurt but not slain. We'll lay down and bleed a while. Then we'll rise and fight again.'" Harbaugh, of course was referring to his team's blue-collar mentality after the Giants escaped rain-soaked Candlestick Park with a 20–17 overtime victory. "They stand toe-to-toe and fight every time they go out onto the field," added Harbaugh. "Be forever proud of our players and coaches the way they compete." Harbaugh got the Niners to the brink of the Super Bowl in his rookie year, taking over a 6–10 team and going 13–3 to win the NFC West. The extra minutes at Candlestick Park went in favor of the opponent in a year where most didn't expect a storybook season. The 49ers defense played stoically, recording six sacks on Giants QB Eli Manning, which ranked 1–2nd for the most sacks in a postseason game in franchise history (6 – four times, last vs. Den. – 1/29/90). TE Vernon Davis gave the 49ers a 7–0 lead with 7:11 remaining in the 1st qtr. after running a pattern down the right sideline and outracing the secondary for a 73-yd. TD receipt. from QB Alex Smith. On their ensuing drive, the Giants drove from their own 31 to the San Francisco 34-yd. line. On 3rd-and-1, Manning and the Giants failed to get a first down despite two opportunities. The Giants eventually evened the score on a 10-play, 69-yd. drive when TE Bear Pascoe caught Manning's short pass at the 6-yd. line and stepped into the end zone for the TD. The Giants added a FG with two seconds remaining in the 2nd qtr. to give them a 10–7 edge going into the locker room. Davis' second TD of the game, gave the lead back to the Niners at 14–10 with 5:18 remaining in the 3rd qtr. San Francisco's 3-play, 54-yd. TD drive was set up by a short pass to RB Frank Gore, who turned it into a 24-yd. gain. On the next play, Davis went in motion from right to left and caught a lofted pass to the end zone by Smith. The Giants took the lead back after the ball inadvertently glanced off WR Kyle Williams on a punt, giving the ball back to the Giants on their 29 yard line. Manning connected a 17-yard pass to WR Mario Manningham to give the Giants a 17–14 lead with 8:41 remaining. Williams' 40-yd. return on the ensuing kickoff enabled the 49ers to start their next possession at their own 45. On consecutive plays, Smith scrambled for 17 yds. and RB Kendall Hunter ran for 18 more, resulting in a K David Akers game-tying FG with 5:39 to go, 17–17. After both teams went 3-and-out on their first overtime possession, a Giants takeaway on a Williams fumble, forced by LB Jacquian Williams on a punt return, gave the Giants possession at their own 36 with 9:32 remaining. After converting one first down, K Lawrence Tynes sent the season-ending 31-yd. FG through the uprights.

St. Louis 24, San Francisco 24

The 24–24 stalemate marked the 14th tie for the 49ers since joining the NFL in 1950 and first since 1986 [10–10 at Atl. (10/19)]. It also marked the 49ers first tie at Candlestick Park since 1972 [20–20 vs. NO (10/22)]. St. Louis got off to a fast start, scoring on a 36–yd. TD pass from QB Sam Bradford to WR Brian Quick. The Rams next possession went 7–plays, for 93–yds., ending with a 7–yd. TD run by RB Steven Jackson to make the score 14–0 at the end of the 1st qtr. The 49ers answered on their next possession, driving 78–yds. on 12–plays, capped off by QB Alex Smith's 14–yd. TD pass to WR Michael Crabtree. Crabtree's TD recept. came on 3rd–and–7, marking his 3rd TD on 3rd down this season, ranking t–3rd in the NFL. Crabtree has tallied a TD in each of his last 5 games against St. Louis. Following the TD drive, Smith left the game due to injury. The San Francisco defense stiffened following the offense's TD, forcing two consecutive three–and–outs and what would have been a third if not for P Johnny Hekker's 1st down completion on a Rams fake punt. Three plays after the fake punt, LB Aldon Smith ended the Rams drive and the 1st half with his first of 2.0 sacks in the game. Smith has recorded 9.5 sacks for the season and 23.5 for his career. Smith's 9.5 sacks ranks 3rd in the NFL and 1st in the NFC. The first possession for each team to start the 3rd qtr. resulted in no change on the scoreboard. With 8:43 remaining in the 3rd qtr., St. Louis began a 16–play drive that milked 8:25 off the clock and resulted in a 27–yd. FG by K Greg Zuerlein, stretching the lead to 17–7. On the 49ers next possession, Alex Smith's backup, QB Colin Kaepernick, led the Niners down the field, completing 5 of 5 pass attempts for 67–yds. Kaepernick finished the drive with a 7–yd. TD run, as he successfully dove inside the pylon with 8:48 remaining in the 4th qtr. On the ensuing kickoff, RB Isaiah Pead fumbled the ball at the St. Louis 28–yd. line. CB Tramaine Brock (1st career FF) forced the fumble, it was recovered by S Darcel McBath (1st career FR) and returned 8–yds. to the Rams 20–yd. line. The 49ers first play following the fumble resulted in a 20–yd. TD run by RB Frank Gore. Gore rushed for 97–yds. on 21 carries. The 20–yd. TD run marked his 5th TD of the season and 48th of his career. He currently trails just RB Joe Perry (50) and RB Roger Craig (50) for the most rushing TDs in franchise history. The TD made the score 21–17 in San Francisco's favor with 8:29 left in the 4th qtr. The Rams answered the 49ers score with a score of their own, going 14–plays, for 81–yds. capped off by a 2–yd. TD pass from Bradford to WR Austin Pettis. The long St. Louis drive left only 1:13 on the clock, as the 49ers trailed 24–21. Kaepernick engineered an 8–play, 63–yd. drive under pressure, accounting for 54 yds. to set K David Akers up for a 33–yd. game–tying FG to force overtime. In the extra period, St. Louis won the toss and elected to receive. On the Rams first play, Amendola recorded an 80–yd. recept. down to the 49ers 2–yd. line, but an illegal formation penalty against the Rams erased the long catch and brought the ball back to the St. Louis 13–yd. line. A few plays later, San Francisco forced a Rams punt, setting up good field position for the 49ers offense. The 49ers drove down to the St. Louis 23–yd. line, to set Akers up for a 41–yd. FG attempt that was wide left. The Rams took the ball, drove to the San Francisco 40–yd. line and Zuerlein also missed the potential game–winning FG as neither team was able to score before the clock ran out, resulting in a tie.

St. Louis 16, San Francisco 13

The 49ers and Rams had to play deep into overtime for the second time this season, as St. Louis outlasted San Francisco in a tough divisional matchup. Both defenses played well, resulting in only one scoring play during the 1st half. After forcing a Rams 3–and–out, the 49ers took over on their own 40–yd. line. On the first play of the drive, RB Frank Gore gained 23–yds. on the ground, putting the ball at the St. Louis 37–yd. line. The offensive line continued to open up holes for Gore, as he ran for 18 more yds. on 3 carries and capped off the drive with a 1–yd. TD run, making the score 7–0 with 3:01 remaining in the 1st qtr. After the San Francisco TD, the Rams offense was held to its second consecutive 3–and–out. With 2:31 remaining in the 2nd qtr., the 49ers defense recorded its third 3–and–out in four defensive series, with LB Aldon Smith forcing a long 3rd down after registering his 17.5 sack of the season. His 17.5 sacks ties the 49ers single–season franchise record (Fred Dean – 1983). Smith now has 31.5 career sacks, surpassing Hall of Fame DE Reggie White (31.0) for the most sacks by a player in their first two years in NFL history. On the 49ers second possession of the 3rd qtr., Kaepernick was flagged for intentional grounding in the end zone, which resulted in a safety making the score 7–2 with 4:36 left in the 3rd qtr. San Francisco answered with its next offensive possession, marching 94–yds. on 13 plays to setup K David Akers for a 23–yd. FG. WR Michael Crabtree caught 4 passes for 69 during the drive. For the game, Crabtree tallied 7 recepts. for 101 yds., marking his 2nd 100–yd. game of the season and 5th of his career. The Rams were unable to get on the scoreboard with their next offensive possession, but they did after recovering a fumble by Kaepernick on 3rd–and–3 and CB Janoris Jenkins returned the loose ball 2 yds. for a TD. QB Sam Bradford completed the 2–point conversion attempt to TE Lance Kendricks to knot the score at 10 apiece with 3:04 remaining in the 4th qtr. Kaepernick showed poise on the next possession, following the fumble, as he rushed for 50 yds. down to the St. Louis 14–yd. line. Kaepernick rushed for 84 yds. on 9 carries. His 84 yds. on the ground are the most by a 49ers quarterback since Steve Young rushed for 102–yds. vs. NO (12/23/90). Akers was able to put the 49ers up by 3 with a 33–yd. FG with 1:38 remaining. The Rams managed to drive 45 yds. on 7 plays to set Zuerlein up for a 53–yd. FG that sailed through the uprights as the clock expired to send the game into overtime. In overtime, it took 14:30 of 15 minutes to decide the outcome of the game, as Zuerlein made a 54–yd. FG to end the game with a final score of 16–13.

SAN FRANCISCO 49ERS FOUNDER Anthony J. (Tony) Morabito (1910-1957)

Tony Morabito dedicated his life to bringing an idea to fruition that others thought preposterous – the membership of the West Coast, in general, and San Francisco, in particular, in a nation-wide professional football league.

Morabito was the sports pioneer of the West, bringing San Francisco its first major league professional team, the San Francisco 49ers, in a professional sports business that was dominated by the East Coast. Before World War II, Morabito was convinced the San Francisco Bay Area was ready for a franchise in the National Football League. The Bay Area was a mecca for college football. Fans came in droves to Kezar Stadium to see the Wonder Teams of California–Berkeley and the Wow Boys of Stanford, led by Frankie Albert. St. Mary's, Santa Clara and the University of San Francisco were also area powerhouses that regularly defeated the University of Washington and Southern California inside the walls of Kezar.

Morabito saw the rise of football in the area and presented a case to birth a professional football team in 1942 to National Football League officials, but he was quickly ushered out of the meeting room with firm politeness. In the spring of 1944, he took another crack, filing an application for an expansion team in the NFL. Morabito and some of his business associates went to Chicago to present their plan in front of League Commissioner, Elmer Layden. The NFL had no teams west of Chicago, and had no plans of changing their geographical structure. Morabito was again shunned.

He was then put in touch with Arch Ward, sports editor of The Chicago Tribune who was trying to organize a rival league, the All–America Football Conference. Morabito told Ward to count him in.

The new league's first meeting was held on June 6, 1944 in St. Louis, D–Day in Europe. Morabito agreed to form a San Francisco franchise in a league that would not begin operations until the end of the war.

It was the right time, and Morabito knew it.

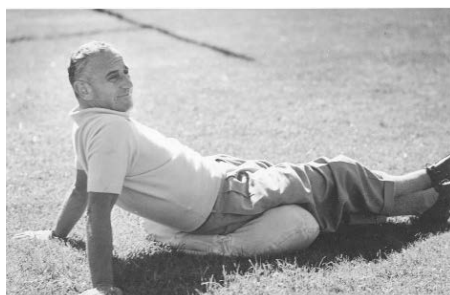

A native of San Francisco, Morabito learned the game of football on vacant lots in the North Beach sector and had some success later as a halfback at St. Ignatius High School. He went on to play for the University of Santa Clara as a freshman in 1927 but his playing career was ended shortly after by a shoulder injury. He received his diploma in 1931 at the height of the Great Depression. He got a job driving a truck for $80 a month while his father, an immigrant from Italy, had built up a flourishing ship's service business on the San Francisco waterfront, only to see it fold in the wake of the depression years.

As the country's economic state began to improve, so did Morabito's. By 1940, when he was 30 years old, he became a success in the lumber carrier business. The army turned him down for duty in 1942 because of partial deafness, which later forced him to wear a hearing aid.

By 1946, the San Francisco 49ers first year of operation, the Bay Area was in the middle of a postwar economic surge. Morabito's lumber yard was in huge demand as houses were springing up to shelter the fast-growing population that was migrating to California.

Morabito owned the new All–America Football Conference franchise with his partners in the Lumber Terminals of San Francisco – Allen E. Sorrell and E.J. Turre – and his younger brother, Victor.

Sorrell suggested the team be named "49ers" after the voyagers who had rushed the West for gold. It is the only name the team has ever been affiliated with and San Francisco is the only city in which it has resided.

49ers Founder, Tony Morabito

The original team logo depicted San Francisco's wild beginnings. It was a goldminer in boots and a lumberjack shirt, firing a pair of pistols. One shot just missed the miner's head, while the other missed his foot. The logo was taken from a design seen on the side of railway freight cars.

With a charter, name and logo, the group recruited Lawrence "Buck" Shaw, Santa Clara's famous "Silver Fox," as the 49ers first head coach. The organization spent $250,000 to get structured before the team even took their first snap. Morabito's approach was considered "first class," by most, and a financial risk by many.

But Morabito charged on, hand-picking an inaugural roster comprised of 32 players including Frankie Albert, Norm Standlee and Bruno Banducci, all from Stanford, and stars from Santa Clara, including Alyn Beals, an end who scored 46 pro touchdowns in four years. Other known players on the roster were Len Eshmont, Johnny "Johnny Strike" Strzykalski and Joe "The Toe" Ventrano.

Morabito watched as his 49ers played their first game on August 24, 1946, a 17–7 exhibition win over the Los Angeles Dons at Balboa Park in San Diego. The 49ers first home game was played at Kezar Stadium on September 1, 1946, a 34–14 exhibition win over the Chicago Rockets in front of 45,000 fans made up of longshoremen, draymen, mechanics and waterfront workers.

The first regular season league game was on September 8, 1946 against the New York Yankees. The 49ers scored first, but lost 21–7 in a game that began in sunshine and ended in the famous Kezar fog.

The 49ers finished 9–5 in their first season under Shaw, and went on to have an 8–4–2 record in 1947, 12–2 finish in 1948 and 10–4 record, including a trip to the Championship Game, in their final season in the AAFC.

At the end of 1949, it was announced that the AAFC had run its course. San Francisco, Cleveland and Baltimore received NFL franchises and would begin play in the NFL in 1950. The merger was what Morabito had hoped for all along as he, his brother Victor and general manager Lou Spadia, continued to hold the reins.

The 49ers struggled during their first season among the NFL elite, finishing with a 3–9 record. The following year though, the 49ers went 7–4–1.

As the seasons went on, Morabito was the heart and soul of the organization, signing on greats like The Million Dollar Backfield: Joe "The Jet" Perry, Hugh "The King" McElhenny and John Henry Johnson. He also attracted some of the NFL's most renowned talents in R.C. Owens, Bob St. Clair, Leo Nomellini, John Brodie and Y.A. Tittle.

The players appreciated his honesty, and trusted his every move and word.

As the 1950's progressed, Morabito was warned by his doctors that a bad heart and the rigors of football were not a healthy combination. But Morabito wasn't going to let a health scare get in the way of his passion. "What the hell, if I'm going to die, I might as well die at a football game," he said.

On October 27, 1957, the 49ers hosted the Chicago Bears at Kezar. The 49ers entered the game with a 3–1 record behind the talents of Owens, Perry, Tittle, McElhenny, Billy Wilson, and others. The Bears had a 14–0 advantage in the first quarter before the 49ers scored to close the deficit at 14–7. Just as the 49ers lined up for the next kickoff, Morabito, who was sitting next to his wife, Josephine, and his brother, Victor, in the guest box, suddenly collapsed. The great heart that had been with the 49ers since the franchise's inception had failed.

Father Bill McGuire of St. James parish was summoned to the guest box and pronounced Morabito his final absolution. Morabito looked up at him and smiled.

"Thank you father," he said.

Those were his last words.

The 49ers were behind 17–7 in the third quarter when the team learned of Morabito's death. His players rallied and came back to defeat Chicago, 21–17, in an emotional last win for their owner. The 49ers finished the season with three straight victories and an 8–4 record, tying Detroit for the NFL Western Division title.

Victor, Tony's younger brother, kept the team in the family until 1964, when he too died of a heart attack. Both Victor and Tony's wives, Jane and Josephine, retained control of the 49ers with Lou Spadia as team president until 1977, when a new team owner, Edward DeBartolo Jr. of Youngstown, Ohio emerged to buy the franchise.

Morabito's conviction, passion and character birthed and kept an NFL franchise in San Francisco, and laid the sturdy foundation that enabled the 49ers to become one of the NFL's premier football powers over the past 60 years.

BOBB MCKITTRICK AWARD

This award is given annually to the 49ers offensive lineman who best exemplifies the dedication, excellence and commitment of offensive line coach Bobb McKittrick, a five-time Super Bowl champion.

In 1999, the San Francisco 49ers, under the direction of Bill Walsh, established the Bobb McKittrick Award. The award is meant to honor those offensive linemen who have best represented the courage, intensity and sacrifice displayed by the late McKittrick during his 21 years of service with the 49ers.

"Bobb gave distinguished service to the organization since our renaissance in 1979," Walsh said. "He was a vital factor in five Super Bowl championships, the evolution of a dynasty and in the production of some of the finest offensive linemen in football. Offensive linemen don't receive the recognition they so richly deserve. This gives us a venue to honor their sacrifices and achievements."

A bronze plaque of McKittrick hangs in the 49ers locker room surrounded by the photographs of the McKittrick Award winners.

ED BLOCK COURAGE AWARD

The Ed Block Courage Award is named after Ed Block, the former head athletic trainer of the Baltimore Colts of 23 years. Block was a pioneer in his profession and a respected humanitarian whose most passionate cause was helping children of abuse. The award is presented in his name each year to the player that exemplified a commitment to sportsmanship and courage. Ed Block Courage Award winners from each of the 32 NFL teams are honored at a banquet in Baltimore, MD. All proceeds from the event benefit the Ed Block Courage Award Foundation's Courage House National Support Network. Named after the NFL team in a respective NFL city, a Courage House is a facility that provides support and quality care for abused children and their families in that community. The 49ers dedicated their Courage House in October 2003 at the Edgewood House in San Francisco.

The Bill Walsh Award was established in 2004 in honor of San Francisco's Hall of Fame Head Coach Bill Walsh, who passed away in 2007. Walsh served as the team's head coach for 10 seasons from 1979–88. In that time, he compiled a record of 102–63–1 and led the team to three Super Bowl victories. He was twice named NFL Coach of the Year (1981, 1984) and was later named Coach of the Decade for the 1980s. The award, which is voted on by coaches only, is given to the 49ers Team MVP, honoring his outstanding individual performance.

EDWARD J. DeBARTOLO SR. 49ERS HALL OF FAME

The San Francisco 49ers are arguably one of the most fabled sports franchises in history. With the multitude of memories that the team's history holds, a place to honor and capture these tremendous times and legendary figures only seems appropriate.

During the 2009 offseason, the San Francisco 49ers and the York family proudly introduced the creation of the Edward J. DeBartolo Sr. 49ers Hall of Fame, named in honor of the beloved patriarch of the storied franchise. The 49ers Hall of Fame was established to recognize players, administrators and coaches who have made exceptional contributions to the organization.

A week after the creation of the new 49ers Hall of Fame, team President & CEO Jed York announced the name of its inaugural inductee, his uncle, Edward J. DeBartolo Jr., known as "Mr. D" to most close to the 49ers family. He was then officially inducted during halftime of the team's home opener versus the Seattle Seahawks on September 20, 2009.

Being inducted into the 49ers Hall of Fame is no easy task, and the selection process reflects the level of honor which it bestows. As a prerequisite for induction, all 49ers Hall of Fame candidates must have displayed one or more of the following qualifications: outstanding production and performance on the field, key contributions to the team's success, and/or the embodiment of the spirit and essence of the San Francisco 49ers.

JOHN BRODIE

Quarterback, 1957–73

49ers Hall of Fame Inductee: 2009

Holds the team record with 17 years of service. Ranks second in team history with 31,548 passing yards and third with 214 touchdown passes. Guided the 49ers to back-to-back NFC Championship games in 1970 and 1971. Was named NFL Most Valuable Player in 1970. Born August 14, 1935 in San Francisco, CA.

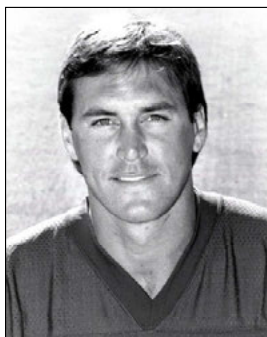

DWIGHT CLARK

Wide Receiver, 1979–87

49ers Hall of Fame Inductee: 2009

Finished with 506 receptions for 6,750 yards and 48 touchdowns. Ranks fourth on 49ers all-time receptions list and third in career receiving yards. Two-time Pro Bowler (1981, 1982) and first-team All-Pro in 1982 and 1983. Born January 8, 1957 in Kinston, NC.

ROGER CRAIG

Running Back, 1983–90

49ers Hall of Fame Inductee: 2011

A member of three Super Bowl Championship teams, Craig ranks third in franchise history with 7,064 rushing yards and first in career rushing attempts (1,686). He also ranks third in franchise history in receptions (508) and total touchdowns (66). Craig became the first running back in NFL history to register 1,000 rushing yards and 1,000 receiving yards in a single season (1,050 rushing yards and 1,016 receiving yards in 1985). He was also selected to the Pro Bowl four times. Born July 10, 1960 in Davenport, IA.

A number of players and coaches have already been recognized in various ways throughout the years for their contributions to the game of professional football and the 49ers organization. Accordingly, the franchise has automatically enshrined members of the 49ers family who have either had their jersey numbers already retired by the organization or have been selected to the Pro Football Hall of Fame in Canton, Ohio. These players include: John Brodie, Dwight Clark, Fred Dean, Jimmy Johnson, John Henry Johnson, Charlie Krueger, Ronnie Lott, Hugh McElhenny, Joe Montana, Leo Nomellini, Joe Perry, Bob St. Clair, Y.A. Tittle, Bill Walsh, Dave Wilcox and Steve Young.

During Alumni Weekend on October 11, 2009 against the Atlanta Falcons, the 49ers honored the automatic enshrinement of the above players during halftime of the game.

Members of the 49ers Hall of Fame were recognized at Candlestick Park, in a special display highlighted by plaques designed in each inductee's likeness.

The 49ers organization will enshrine new members each season.

FRED DEAN

Defensive End, 1981–85

49ers Hall of Fame Inductee: 2009

Pro Football Hall of Fame Inductee: 2008

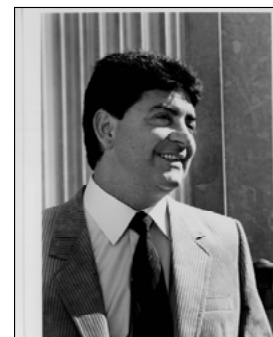

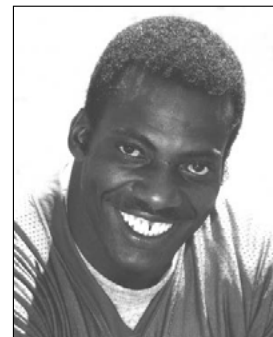

One of the first true pass-rushers in the game, Dean's revolutionary play made an immediate impact upon joining the 49ers in a 1981 mid-season trade. Went on to help 49ers win Super Bowl XVI and Super Bowl XIX. Recorded 93.5 sacks in career, including 40 sacks in five seasons with 49ers to rank 7th on team's all-time list. Posted career-high 17.5 sacks in 1983. Was a four-time Pro Bowler (1979–81, 83) and All-Pro (1979–81, 83). Earned UPI's NFC Defensive Player of the Year (1981). Born February 24, 1952 in Arcadia, LA.

EDWARD J. DeBARTOLO JR.

Owner, 1977–2000

49ers Hall of Fame Inductee: 2009

Widely regarded as one of the most successful owners in the history of pro sports after taking over the 49ers in 1977. In 23 years at the helm, guided 49ers to a 22–11 postseason record and 13 division titles as San Francisco became first franchise in NFL history to win five Super Bowl Championships (1981, '84, '88, '89 and '94). The 49ers reached the playoffs on 16 occasions during DeBartolo's final 18 seasons as owner, posting a 207–72–1 regular season record. Born November 6, 1946 in Youngstown, OH.

Intercepted 47 passes for 615 yards, including five his rookie year. As a receiver in 1962 he caught 34 passes for 627 yards and four touchdowns. Recognized as one of the best man-to-man defenders in NFL history. Played in five Pro Bowls and twice won the prestigious Len Eshmont Award selected by his teammates for inspirational play. Born March 31, 1938 in Dallas, TX.

HISTORICAL HIGHLIGHTS

December 10, the NFL and AAFC announced that the two leagues will merge. The NFL agrees to adopt Baltimore, Cleveland and San Francisco as new franchises.

1950

The 49ers struggled in their NFL debut, winning only three games. A rival coach described them as “not big enough or tough enough.”

1951

In an amazing reversal of form sparked by a great rookie group, the 49ers were in the race until the season's final day and finished only a half game off the top. Led by LB Hardy Brown and his famed shoulder tackle, the club had one of the toughest defensive units in the League. QB Y.A. Tittle and E Billy Wilson began their great 49er careers.

1952

After a blazing start, the 49ers slumped in mid-season. HB Hugh “The King” McElhenny came off the University of Washington campus to become the NFL PLAYER OF THE YEAR and the most feared runner in football.

1953

The 49ers had their best NFL showing posting a 9–3 record, normally good enough for a championship. Detroit, however, was 10–2. Two of San Francisco's losses came with QB Y.A. Tittle sidelined because of a severe facial injury. The three defeats were by a total of nine points. FB Joe “The Jet” Perry became one of the few players in pro history to gain more than 1,000 yards in a single season. E Gordy Soltau was the league's top scorer for the second straight year.

1954

The 49ers jumped out to a blazing start, posting a 4–0–1 record through the season's first five games. However the early momentum was slowed by injuries to three key members of the legendary “Million Dollar Backfield.” QB Y.A. Tittle, HB Hugh McElhenny and FB Joe Perry all missed action with different injuries, but Perry returned to become the first player to record 1,000 yards rushing in consecutive seasons.

1955

With HB Hugh McElhenny hobbled by a foot injury, the 49ers had their second-worst season in history under Norman P. Strader, who succeeded Buck Shaw as head coach.

1956

In head coach Frankie Albert's first year at the helm, the 49ers were in last place at mid-season with a 1–6 record. They went 4–0–1 in their last five games for a brilliant stretch drive.

1957

This undoubtedly was one of the most emotional and dramatic seasons in 49ers history. Every game was a cliffhanger and the Alley Oop pass from QB Y.A. Tittle to rookie HB R.C. Owens became a household byword. Emotions reached a peak when the beloved Tony Morabito collapsed and died of a heart attack at the Chicago Bears game on Oct. 27. Trailing 17–7, the 49ers fought back for a great victory, 21–17. The magnificent E Billy Wilson caught a pass from Tittle for the winning touchdown in the fourth quarter. Tied with Detroit at 8–4 when the season ended, the 49ers lost the playoff game, 31–27, after holding a 27–7 lead in the third quarter.

1958

An up-and-down season finished on a high note with victories over Green Bay and Baltimore. The 6–6 record, however, was blackened by the 33–3 and 56–7 lacerations at the hands of the Los Angeles Rams. Head coach Frankie Albert resigned at the end of the year.

1959

With Howard W. “Red” Hickey in charge, the 49ers were in contention all the way and QB John Brodie came into his own at quarterback when he led the team to a 21–20 upset of Cleveland. HB J.D. Smith, a converted defensive back, became the second 49er to accumulate more than 1,000 yards rushing.

1960

Howard W. “Red” Hickey saved a seemingly hopeless season when he installed his shotgun attack and the club captured four of its last five games, including a 30–22 upset of Baltimore.

1961

The success of Howard W. Hickey's shotgun amazed the football world, especially in a 49–0 victory over Detroit. QB Billy Kilmer, a passing–running rookie from UCLA, was made to order for the new offense. When the shotgun stopped, QB John Brodie took over again in the T formation and had the finest season in 49ers QB annals. Indicating the evenness of NFL competition, the 49ers were playing for a second-place tie, plus a trip to the Runner-up Bowl at Miami, or a fifth-place position on the last day of the season. The Colts again won by three points, but 1961 will remain as one of the most exciting and interesting years in 49ers history.

1962

For the first time since 1956, the 49ers finished a frustrating season with more defeats than victories. In so doing, the honored adage of “it's easier to win at home than on the road,” proved false—the 49ers won only one of seven at Kezar Stadium, but captured five of seven road contests.

1963 – A multitude of injuries to key personnel started the 49ers off to a disappointing 2–12 season. One of the victories, however, was a 20–14 upset of ultimate world champion Chicago, the only league defeat suffered by the Bears all season.

Club Chief Executive Victor P. Morabito died of a heart attack in May. Injuries to key personnel prevented the 49ers from gaining enough offensive momentum to forge a winning season despite having one of the toughest defensive units in the league. Outstanding rookie performances by E Dave Parks, QB George Mira and LB Dave Wilcox also took some of the sting from the 4–10 record.

1965

Outstanding offensive performances enabled the 49ers to jump from the bottom to fourth place in the Western Division as the team led the NFL in both scoring and total offense. QB John Brodie was the most productive passer in the NFL, E Dave Parks led the league in receiving and rookie FB Ken Willard and veteran HB John David Crow, acquired in an off-season trade, led a strong ground game. The 7–6–1 record included a season-opening 52–24 victory over the Chicago Bears, marking the most points scored by the 49ers in NFL play.

After a somewhat slow start, the 49ers got in gear just before the midway point and became one of only two teams to beat the eventual world champion Green Bay Packers. After that, they finished with a respectable 6–6–2 record and were in the battle for second place in the Western Division until the final league game. G John Thomas and E Dave Parks were All-Pro, and they joined G Howard Mudd, C Bruce Bosley, FB Ken Willard and LB Dave Wilcox in the Pro Bowl.

1967

An auspicious start (5–1) disintegrated into disappointment for the 49ers as injuries took a heavy toll and a six-game losing streak took them out of the running. QB George Mira came off the bench to lead the squad to two season-ending victories and salvage a 7–7 record. There were bright spots, however, as QB John Brodie and the 49ers were the only team to beat the power-laden Rams in a league game. G Bruce Bosley played in the Pro Bowl for the second straight season.

1968

Under new coach Dick Nolan, the 49ers posted a 7–6–1 record. The season turned on key wins over the New York Giants, 26–10, and Green Bay, 27–20. Brilliant performances by QB John Brodie, WR Clifton McNeil and RB Ken Willard led a prolific offense, while DT Charlie Krueger, LB Dave Wilcox and DB Kermit Alexander sparked a revitalized defense. McNeil and G Howard Mudd were chosen All-NFL and were joined by Wilcox, Willard and Alexander in the Pro Bowl.

Beset by injuries that nearly decimated the defensive unit, the 49ers struggled through the early part of the season. They went winless in their first five games before beating Baltimore, the first time they had beaten the Colts in 13 previous games. The 49ers finished 4–8–2 and five players—HB Jimmy Johnson, LB Dave Wilcox, G Elmer Collett, RB Ken Willard and rookie WR Gene Washington—were selected to the Pro Bowl. Johnson was also All–Pro and winner of the Len Eshmont Award.

1970

This was the greatest year since the club became a member of the NFL in 1950. The team recorded a 10–3 record and captured the Western Division (NFC) Championship. QB John Brodie was the NFL's Player of the Year, CB Bruce Taylor was NFC Rookie of the Year and Coach Dick Nolan was a near-unanimous choice as NFC Coach of the Year. Brodie, WR Gene Washington, LB Dave Wilcox and HB Jimmy Johnson were All–Pro and joined T Len Rohde in the Pro Bowl.

1971

The 49ers forged a 9–5–0 record and won their second consecutive NFC Western Division title, clinching the crown on the final day by beating Detroit, 31–27, the identical score by which the Lions had knocked the 49ers out of championship play in 1957. The season also was the club's first in its plush new home, Candlestick Park. C Forrest Blue, LB Dave Wilcox and CB Jimmy Johnson were All–Pro and joined in the Pro Bowl by TE Ted Kwalick, WR Gene Washington, RB Vic Washington, DE Cedrick Hardman and CB Bruce Taylor.

1972

Early-season inconsistency, compounded by an injury to QB John Brodie in the fifth game of the season, cast appall on the 49ers prospects for a third-straight NFC Western Division title, but QB Steve Spurrier stepped in for Brodie and turned things around with a brilliant, poised performance. In the final quarter of the final game against Minnesota, the recovered Brodie relieved Spurrier and threw two TD passes in a 20–17 win over the Vikings. The victory clinched divisional title number three, but Spurrier's nine-game contribution was the key. C Forrest Blue, DB Jimmy Johnson, TE Ted Kwalick, WR Gene Washington and LB Dave Wilcox were All–Pro selections.

1973

In what was both a disappointing and significant year, the 49ers were 5–9 after tackling the NFL's toughest schedule, a rash of key injuries and an unsettled quarterback situation. It also marked the end of the brilliant careers of QB John Brodie and DT Charlie Krueger, both of whom retired at year's end. C Forrest Blue and LB Dave Wilcox were voted All–Pro and joined in the Pro Bowl by TE Ted Kwalick, G Woody Peoples and P Tom Wittum.

1974

The 49ers used five different quarterbacks after an injury to starter QB Steve Spurrier, a week before the season opened, sidelined him for most of the year. After winning the first two games, the club lost a team-record seven straight and then closed with a rush, winning four of its last five to finish the season 6–8. RB Wilbur Jackson was named The Sporting News ROOKIE OF THE YEAR and was named to the NFL All–Rookie team along with QB Tom Owen and DB Mike Holmes. C Forrest Blue and P Tom Wittum were All–NFC and selected for the Pro Bowl along with HB Jimmy Johnson. A knee injury forced perennial All–Pro LB Dave Wilcox to retire after a brilliant 11-year career with the 49ers.

A strong defensive performance throughout the season couldn't offset an erratic offense troubled by an unsettled quarterback situation and a rebuilding offensive line. The high point of the 5–9 season was a 24–23 win over Los Angeles to end a 10-game losing streak to the Rams. At season's end, DE Cedrick Hardman was the club's first ever two-time Len Eshmont Award winner.

1976

A turnaround year for the 49ers as the team, under coach Monte Clark, posted an 8–6 record, their first winning season since 1972. With new QB Jim Plunkett at the controls, the 49ers got off to their best start ever (6–1), before hitting a mid-season four-game losing streak knocking the club out of playoff contention. The season saw the emergence of a powerful defensive unit that led the league in quarterback sacks with 61. RB Delvin Williams set a 49ers single-season rushing record with 1,203 yards. DE Tommy Hart was named All–Pro and played in the Pro Bowl along with Williams, DE Cleveland Elam and LB Dave Washington. C Randy Cross was an All–Rookie team selection. Hart became a two-time winner of the Len Eshmont Award and CB Jimmy Johnson retired after a brilliant 16-year career with the 49ers.

1977

In the 32nd year of their existence, the 49ers began a new era. On March 31, 1977, the club became the property of Edward J. DeBartolo Jr. and came under the guidance of Joe Thomas as general manager. The changeover was made more dramatic because the San Francisco 49ers were one of the few NFL franchises which had never previously changed ownership or location. On the field, under Coach Ken Meyer, the 49ers ran hot and cold. The club lost its first five games, then won five of the next six before dropping the final three contests to finish 5–9. SS Mel Phillips was named winner of the coveted Len Eshmont Award. DE Cleveland Elam was selected All–Pro and played for the NFC in the Pro Bowl.

1978

The 49ers suffered through their longest season as the club fell to 2–14 and three coaches were hired and fired in less than 12 months. First Head Coach Pete McCulley departed after nine games with a 1–8 record, and his replacement, Fred O'Connor, was let go at the end of the year as the team won just one of its final seven contests. Bill Walsh was hired as the new coach and general manager. RB Paul Hofer, who replaced RB O.J. Simpson when the newly-acquired star went to the sidelines for the year with a shoulder injury, was named recipient of the Len Eshmont award.

1979

The 49ers suffered through their second consecutive 2–14 season, but there were several indications of improvement. San Francisco went from virtually the worst-ranked offensive team in the league in '78 to one of the most productive in '79, ranking first in passing offense in the NFC and sixth in total offense in the NFL. RB Paul Hofer again was the Len Eshmont Award recipient and individual leader, racking up 615 yards rushing and an additional 662 yards receiving on 58 catches in only seven starts. QB Steve DeBerg broke Fran Tarkenton's NFL record for completions by connecting on 347 passes. K Ray Wersching set a club record with an 83.3 field goal percentage and also led the league with that mark. RB O.J. Simpson retired from the 49ers and the NFL, finishing as the second leading rusher of all time with 11,236 yards.

1980

In their second season of the Bill Walsh era, the 49ers showed gradual improvement in their rebuilding program. A three-game winning streak to open the season, combined with a three-game victory string from Week 12 through Week 14, enabled the Niners to post a 6–10 season, tripling the number of victories from each of the previous two 2–14 campaigns. Week 14 was a day when the 49ers made NFL history. That December 7 at Candlestick Park, the 49ers overcame a 35–7 halftime deficit against the New Orleans Saints to win in overtime, 38–35. The 28-point comeback was the biggest comeback in NFL history. E Jim Stuckey and P Jim Miller were named to All–Rookie teams, while another rookie, FB Earl Cooper, led the NFC in receptions with 83, the most catches ever by an NFL rookie. WR Dwight Clark caught 82 passes to break the team wide receiver mark, and QB Joe Montana set the club passing percentage record at 64.5 with 176 completions in 273 attempts.

It was a year of firsts and bests for the 49ers in 1981. In his third season as head coach and general manager, Bill Walsh guided San Francisco to a 16–3 record (best record in the league that year), the NFC Western Division title (first since '72), the NFC Championship crown (first ever for the 49ers) and the World Championship/Super Bowl XVI win (first ever for the 49ers). Walsh earned every possible NFC Coach of the Year award and all seven NFL Coach of the Year honors, while six 49ers were named to the Pro Bowl—WR Dwight Clark, C Randy Cross, QB Joe Montana, DE Fred Dean, S Ronnie Lott and S Dwight Hicks. Three San Francisco players were selected to All–Pro teams as recognized by the NFL—Cross, Lott and Dean. Montana, who led the NFC in passing in '81, was named MVP of Super Bowl XVI (for leading his team to a 26–21 win over the Cincinnati Bengals of the AFC). Dean was picked UPI NFL Defensive Player of the Year, NFL Outstanding Defensive Lineman of the Year (NFL Players Association) and NFC Defensive Player of the Year (Kansas City Committee of the 101). San Francisco opened and closed the season in Pontiac, MI in drastically different styles. The 49ers lost two of their first three games of 1981, including the season opener on the road against Detroit, then ran off seven wins—before a loss to Cleveland 15–12—and ran off eight more wins (including playoffs, the NFC Champion—ship and Super Bowl XVI). The 49ers won 15 of their last 16 games, beat five opponents twice—including all three postseason foes—and became the first team since Chicago in 1945–47 to go from the worst NFL record (2–14 in 1979) to the league's best (13–3 in '81) in just three seasons. All this happened with three rookies (S Carlton Williamson, CB Eric Wright and Lott) starting in the defensive secondary. Those three rookies, along with Montana, Clark, Cross, WR Freddie Solomon and Hicks, combined with “old veterans” Dean and LB Jack “Hacksaw” Reynolds, formed a nucleus of world championship vintage.

As defending world champions, the San Francisco 49ers did not enjoy the 1982 season, but then not many NFL fans, coaches and players throughout the league did either (except maybe in Washington, where the Redskins were Super Bowl XVII champs). The Niners fell to 3–6 and missed out on the playoffs. In the strike-shortened season, San Francisco went winless at home (0–5) but did manage a 3–1 road record (the Niners were 0–2 prior to the 57-day players' strike and 3–4 following it). WR Dwight Clark had an outstanding season, leading the NFL with 60 receptions and being named consensus All-Pro and NFL Player of the Year by Sports Illustrated. LB Keena Turner (second-team All-Pro), S Ronnie Lott (Pro Bowl), C Randy Cross (Pro Bowl), S Dwight Hicks (Pro Bowl), T Keith Fahnhorst and QB Joe Montana (NFL record for five straight 300-yard passing games) were bright spots in an otherwise disappointing season.

1983

For the second time in three seasons, San Francisco played in the NFC Championship Game. The '83 49ers were 10–6 (third best regular season victory total in club history) and NFC Western Division Champions (fifth time since 1970, second time since 1981). In the playoffs, San Francisco squeezed past Detroit, 24–23, but lost to Washington, 24–21, in the NFC Championship contest. Individual standouts included QB Joe Montana (the league's No. 1 all-time QB entering the 1984 season), S Ronnie Lott (making his third Pro Bowl appearance in as many years), DE Fred Dean (leading the NFC in sacks with 17.5), DE Dwaine Board (second in sacks with 13), CB Eric Wright (team leader in interceptions with seven, two for scores), WR Dwight Clark (team leader with 70 receptions and eight TDs), WR Freddie Solomon (club record 21.4 yards per catch), K Ray Wersching (team-record 126 points, including a perfect 51-of-51 PATs), offensive linemen C Randy Cross, T Keith Fahnhorst and G John Ayers, RB Roger Craig (752 yards rushing, 427 receiving), RB Wendell Tyler (856 rushing yards, 285 receiving) and NFL All-Rookie team pick LB Riki Ellison.

The 49ers experienced the most successful regular season in NFL history by winning a league record 15 games, including all eight road contests—setting yet another NFL standard. The Niners broke 14 team records in '84, while becoming the first NFC team to sweep all of its conference games, and the first NFC West unit to win all contests within the division. Led by RB Roger Craig and QB Joe Montana, San Francisco capped the year by routing the Miami Dolphins in Super Bowl XIX, 38–16. The win was the 18th victory of the '84 campaign, establishing an NFL standard for wins in a single season (including playoffs). San Francisco scored a then team-record 475 points. The 49ers defense was the stingiest in the NFL in '84, allowing a league-low 227 points scored. Honors were numerous, including Pro Bowl recognition for 10 of Bill Walsh's charges—Montana, RB Wendell Tyler, T Keith Fahnhorst, C Randy Cross and C Fred Quillan on offense and S Dwight Hicks, S Ronnie Lott, S Carlton Williamson and CB Eric Wright (the entire Niners secondary), and LB Keena Turner on defense.

At 10–6, San Francisco qualified for postseason play for the fourth time since 1981. Offensively, RB Roger Craig and WR Jerry Rice emerged as potent weapons in the attack. Craig became the first NFL player to surpass 1,000 yards rushing and receiving in the same season. Rice was named NFC ROOKIE OF THE YEAR and set the team record for first-year players with 927 receiving yards. The defense experienced the influx of four new starters in '85 (NT Michael Carter, LB Todd Shell, LB Michael Walter and DE John Harty). Carter won a berth on the Pro Bowl team, as did DBs Eric Wright and Carlton Williamson.

1986

The 49ers captured their fourth NFC Western Division title since 1981. Offensively, the team was led by All-Pro wide receiver WR Jerry Rice, who paced the NFL with 1,570 receiving yards and 15 touchdowns. Those marks established club standards in addition to Rice's team-record 16 total scores. The defense managed 49 takeaways, tying the Kansas City Chiefs for NFL leadership. San Francisco's 39 interceptions and 578 return yards set team records, while five scores on interceptions returns tied another club mark. S Ronnie Lott tied HB Dave Baker's 1960 team record with 10 interceptions. The output by young players was vital due to major injuries suffered by many starting veterans. San Francisco made 20 roster moves during the season, shuffling players in and out of action. QB Joe Montana missed Weeks 2–9 due to back surgery, while backup signal-caller Jeff Kemp did not play Weeks 8–11 due to a hip injury.

1987

The San Francisco 49ers marched to an NFL regular season best 13–2 record. It marked a league-leading third time in the decade of the '80s that the team either tied or posted the best win-loss percentage during the regular season. San Francisco led the NFL with 5,987 total yards and was best among league defenders allowing 4,095 total yards. It was the first time in Niners history that the team led the league in fewest total yards allowed. WR Jerry Rice set NFL records with 22 receiving touchdowns and scoring receptions in 13 consecutive games. The durable wide out received postseason Most Valuable Player awards from nearly every news agency and sports publication. QB Joe Montana won the first NFL passing title of his nine-year career and set a team record with 31 touchdown passes. S Ronnie Lott, Montana and Rice were joined by NT Michael Carter and RB Roger Craig on the NFC squad in the 1988 Pro Bowl.

1988

The 49ers climaxed their 1988 season in thrilling fashion with a dramatic touchdown drive in the waning seconds of Super Bowl XXIII. QB Joe Montana's 10-yard scoring toss to WR John Taylor with 34 seconds remaining in the contest gave the Niners their third Super Bowl win of the decade and the rights to the title “Team of the 1980s.” The world championship game against the Cincinnati Bengals was a microcosm of the entire '88 campaign. San Francisco opened the year strong with a 5–2 record, but by Week 12 were 6–5, two games out of first place with only five contests to play. That week's victory over Washington launched a four-game winning streak that resulted in the Niners moving up from third to first place in the NFC West standings and earning a third consecutive NFC Western Division title. As the season ended RB Roger Craig broke the team's single season rushing record (finishing with 1,502 yards) and K Mike Cofer established new Niners single-season standards for field goals attempted (38) and made (27). WR Jerry Rice went on a playoff tear that included: an NFL postseason record-tying three touchdown receptions against Minnesota, the Montana-to-Rice battery hooked-up on first half touchdowns of 61 and 27 yards at Chicago, and concluded with a Super Bowl XXIII MVP performance of 11 receptions for a Super Bowl record 215 yards and a touchdown. Defenders S Ronnie Lott, DE Charles Haley, NT Michael Carter, along with Rice, Taylor and Craig, were selected to the Pro Bowl.

George Seifert was named head coach of the San Francisco 49ers just four days after the team had won its third World Championship under retiring head man Bill Walsh. Seifert's quest for the title was tested early and often as the 49ers endured nail-biting wins at Indianapolis (30–24) and Tampa Bay (20–16) to open the season. QB Joe Montana threw for 428 yards and five touchdowns, including a team-record four TD tosses in the fourth quarter resulting in a 10-point victory (38–28) in Philadelphia. Under first-year offensive coordinator Mike Holmgren, the Niners accumulated more yardage than any other NFL team. WRs Jerry Rice and John Taylor, RB Roger Craig, G Guy McIntyre and QB Joe Montana were 1990 Pro Bowl participants. Rice's 1,483 receiving yards paced the league. Craig exceeded 1,000 yards rushing for the second consecutive season and running mate FB Tom Rathman led NFC running backs with 73 receptions. Montana had the best season of his career. A consensus Player of the Year, Montana's 112.4 quarterback rating set a then NFL single-season record. Montana was selected by his teammates as the '89 recipient of the Len Eshmont Award. Fueled by Rice's 72-yard first quarter catch-and-run for a score, the 49ers exploded for 27 first half points and cruised to a 41–13 victory against Minnesota in their opening '89 playoff contest. The 49ers faced Los Angeles in the NFC Championship Game. The Niners started slowly, however. Two long, second-quarter scoring drives and a touchdown set up by an interception gave San Francisco a 21–3 lead at intermission. Cofer's three field goals cushioned San Francisco's lead as the team advanced to Super Bowl XXIV with a satisfying 30–3 win. The 49ers displayed optimal performance at the highest level of competition while securing their second consecutive World Championship. The resounding 55–10 defeat of the Denver Broncos in Super Bowl XXIV was a convergence of talent and technique, planning and purpose. San Francisco tied or set nearly 40 Super Bowl records and Montana was honored with the game's MVP award for an unprecedented third time.

The Niners finished the season with an NFL–best 14–2 mark and came within four seconds (in a 15–13 loss to the NY Giants) of earning their third consecutive trip to the Super Bowl. In addition to recording the NFL's best win–loss mark for the second straight season, the 49ers captured the NFC Western Division title for the fifth consecutive year and the eighth time since 1981 ('81, 1983–84, 1986–90). San Francisco claimed its 11th Division crown since the NFL/AFL merger of 1970, more than any NFC Western Division opponent (the Rams were second with eight), and second most in NFL history (behind Miami's 13 AFC East titles). San Francisco opened the 1990 season with a team–record 10 consecutive victories. The 49ers also posted an 8–0 mark on the road, giving them the longest road winning streak in league history (19 games, including postseason) heading into '91. QB Joe Montana and WR Jerry Rice again formed one of the most prolific aerial combinations in pro football. Montana, who was named 1990 Sportsman of the Year by Sports Illustrated, finished his 12th NFL season by throwing for a then team–record 3,944 yards. He also tossed 26 touchdown passes (second in the NFC) and finished as the third highest rated quarterback in the conference. On the receiving end of many of those Montana passes was Rice, who became only the fourth player in league history to reach the century mark in receptions for a single season. Rice hauled in 100 passes for 1,502 yards and 13 TDs, and earned his fifth consecutive trip to the Pro Bowl. In one of the most memorable performances of the season (if not team history), Rice tied an NFL record with five TD receptions in a 45–35 victory at Atlanta, October 14. The defensive side of the ball was led by LB–DE Charles Haley's 58 tackles and an NFC–high 16 sacks. For his efforts, the fourth–year player from James Madison University was named as a starter in the 1991 Pro Bowl. LB Bill Romanowski led the team in tackles with 79, while CB Darryl Pollard registered 74, including a team–high 72 solo stops. A number of team career records fell by the wayside in '90. Montana slipped past QB John Brodie to take over the career passing lead (34,998 yards), while RB Roger Craig became the all–time team record holder in career receptions with 508, moving ahead of WR Dwight Clark's total of 506. The 49ers placed five players on the 1991 NFC Pro Bowl squad, four as starters. Representing the 49ers were Haley, Rice, S Ronnie Lott and G Guy McIntyre, while Montana, selected as a starter, was unable to participate because of a finger injury suffered in the NFC Championship Game.

It was a classic case of "too little...too late" for the San Francisco 49ers in 1991. After losing six of their first 10 games by a total of 26 points, the Niners won their remaining six contests (by a total of 95 points) but missed the playoffs for the first time since 1982. The 49ers finished the 1991 campaign in impressive fashion during that final six–game span, with a margin of victory that averaged almost 16 points. During that final six–game span, the Niners defeated three playoff teams (New Orleans, Kansas City and Chicago) while averaging 31.5 points per game in the process. WR Jerry Rice continued to register his place in club and league history taking over the club's career receiving record with 525 catches. Rice finished third in the NFC with 80 receptions and 1,206 yards, surpassing 1,000 receiving yards for a club–record sixth consecutive season, and he led the NFL with 14 TD receptions. QB Steve Young won the NFL passing title, despite missing six games due to a knee injury. Young, who passed for 2,517 yards and 17 TDs, finished with a 101.8 rating, besting Washington's Mark Rypien (97.9) for the title. When Young was injured at Atlanta November 3, QB Steve Bono (1,617 yards, 11 TDs) came off the bench to rally the team to five consecutive victories. On the defensive side of the ball, S Dave Waymer finished as the leader in total tackles (86), solo tackles (77), interceptions (4), interception return yards (78) and passes defended (16) and tied CB Kevin Lewis for the lead in forced fumbles (3). LB–DE Charles Haley and DE Larry Roberts each posted seven sacks, while CB Don Griffin's 99–yard fumble return against the Bears set a team record and was the third longest return in league history. San Francisco placed three players on the 1992 NFC Pro Bowl squad, two as starters, as Rice, Guy McIntyre and Haley were all selected (Rice and McIntyre as starters). It was the sixth time in Rice's seven–year career that he was selected to play on the islands. McIntyre and Haley were each selected for the third time.

The San Francisco 49ers continued their winning tradition as they once again posted the NFL's best regular season record (14–2), while winning their sixth NFC Western Division title in seven years, and advancing to the NFC Championship Game for the second time in three seasons. In the NFC Divisional Playoffs, the 49ers defeated defending Super Bowl Champion Washington (20–13). However, San Francisco fell to Dallas, 30–20, in the NFC Championship Game at Candlestick Park the following week. WR Jerry Rice continued to etch his name in football history, becoming the NFL's all–time touchdown reception leader with 103. He tied Steve Largent's mark of 100 in Week 13 against the Philadelphia Eagles (11–29), then broke the record the following week vs. the Miami Dolphins (12–6). QB Steve Young, who harvested a total of 34 awards, including the NFL's Most Valuable Player Award, won the NFL passing title for the second straight year, finishing an amazing 16.3 points ahead of his closest competitor. Young, who passed for 3,465 yards and 25 TDs, finished with a 107.0 rating. Following his 101.8 rating in 1991, it marked the first time in league history that anyone had posted back–to–back seasons with ratings higher than 100 each year. RB Ricky Watters gained 1,013 yards to establish a team rushing record for first–year backs. K Mike Cofer's 107 points led the 49ers in scoring for the fifth consecutive year. On the defensive side of the ball, linebacking led the charge as LB Bill Romanowski finished as the leader in total tackles (80) and assists (15). LB Mike Walter (67 solo stops) and LB Tim Harris (17 sacks for 116 yards) also led defensive categories. CB Don Griffin paced the defensive backfield with five interceptions and 19 passes defended. Fans at Candlestick saw the Niners rewrite part of the team's record book in '92 as they set team marks for total offense (598 yards) vs. the Buffalo Bills (Sept. 13) and points (56) in their win over the Atlanta Falcons (56–17, 10–18). San Francisco placed seven players on the 1993 NFC Pro Bowl squad, including four starters and five first–time participants. Rice, G Guy McIntyre, DT Pierce Holt and Young were all named as starters. TE Brent Jones, Watters and T Steve Wallace were also selected. It was the seventh time in Rice's eight–year career that he was selected to play on the islands and McIntyre was named for the fourth time, while the others made their first visits.

The 1993 season was another in a long line of successes for the San Francisco 49ers. Among the team's accomplishments were: a 10–6 record, marking an NFL–record 11th consecutive season with 10 or more victories, the team's 10th NFC West title in 13 seasons and a third appearance in four years in the NFC title game. In addition, San Francisco led the National Football League in scoring and total offense and established or tied five of the team's nine major offensive records. The marks set included most net offensive yards (6,435), most TDs (61), most first downs (372) and highest average gain per play (6.3). The Niners also tied the team mark for net passing yards in a season with 4,302, equaling the record set in 1989. Individually, QB Steve Young became the first player in NFL history to lead the NFL in passing three consecutive seasons, when he posted a 101.5 rating in 1993. In addition, it was his third consecutive season with a rating over 100, also a league first. Young completed 68 percent of his passes (second highest in team history) for a then club–record 4,023 yards. His 29 scoring passes in '93 ranked third on the team's single–season charts. RB Ricky Watters led the ground game for the second consecutive season, narrowly missing the 1,000–yard mark with 950 yards. Watters posted 10 rushing TDs during the season and set an NFL single–game playoff record with a five–touchdown outburst vs. the New York Giants. WR Jerry Rice posted one of his best seasons, recording 98 receptions for 1,503 yards and 15 touchdowns on his way to being named NFL OFFENSIVE PLAYER OF THE YEAR by Associated Press. He also received the team's Len Eshmont Award. Defensively, DT Dana Stubblefield was named the NFL DEFENSIVE ROOKIE OF THE YEAR, capping a season in which he registered 10.5 sacks. LB Bill Romanowski (105) and S Tim McDonald (91) topped the team in tackles. Young, Rice and McDonald were selected to the Pro Bowl, joining T Harris Barton, G Guy McIntyre, TE Brent Jones and C Jesse Sapolu with that honor.

1994

The 1994 San Francisco 49ers completed one of the most impressive seasons in NFL history by capturing their NFL–record fifth Super Bowl Championship at Joe Robbie Stadium in Miami. San Francisco defeated the San Diego Chargers 49–26 in Super Bowl XXIX to put the finishing touches on a 16–3 season and win an unprecedented fifth Vince Lombardi Trophy. The offseason started on a high note. Despite facing an NFL–imposed salary cap in 1994, the 49ers still managed to sign such veteran free agents as LB Ken Norton Jr., LB Gary Plummer, DE Tim Harris, DE Charles Mann, DE Richard Dent, LB Rickey Jackson, C Bart Oates, WR Ed McCaffrey and CB Toi Cook. Then, after some draft day maneuvering, San Francisco came away with two first-round picks in DT Bryant Young and FB William Floyd. Injuries, however, played a key factor early in the campaign. By the end of the second game in Kansas City, the 49ers had lost most of their starting offensive line, as well as the services of Dent, their top pass-rusher, to various injuries. Despite signing CB Deion Sanders prior to Week 3, the problems continued. Still playing with a decimated line, San Francisco suffered its worst loss in almost 14 years when it dropped a 40–8 decision to the Philadelphia Eagles in Week 5 at Candlestick Park. The season turned around the following Sunday at Detroit when the 49ers, trailing 14–0 at one point, rallied to defeat the Lions 27–21. That win started a winning streak that extended 10 games and saw the 49ers finish 13–3 and win the Super Bowl. Among the other highlights from the 1994 season, the 49ers offense was one of the most potent ever. During the 16-game regular season, the 49ers scored a team-record 505 points, a total that ranks as the fourth-highest total in NFL history. The 31.6 points per game average also established a team record. In addition, San Francisco scored 66 touchdowns, shattering the previous team mark of 61. QB Steve Young recorded one of the finest seasons in NFL history. He set a league record with a QB rating of 112.8 and became the first player in NFL history to lead the league in passing four consecutive seasons. He also set team records for completion percentage (70.2) and touchdown passes (35). In Super Bowl XXIX, he passed for a record six touchdowns, while being named the game's MVP. Rookie Floyd emerged as one of the league's brightest young stars, rushing for 305 yards and six TDs. The 49ers went 10–1 after he was named to the starting lineup in Week 6 at Detroit. Young finished third on the team in rushing with 293 yards and led the team with seven rushing touchdowns. WR Jerry Rice set a team record with 112 receptions for 1,499 yards and 13 touchdowns. However, his shining moment came in Week 1 vs. the Los Angeles Raiders when he eclipsed Jim Brown's all-time touchdown mark with 127. Norton Jr. led the 49ers with 92 total tackles and 79 solo stops. S Merton Hanks placed second with 79 tackles (66–13) while leading the team with seven interceptions. DT Dana Stubblefield's 8.5 sacks and 53.5 sack yards led the squad for the second consecutive season. And finally, Sanders, who joined the team in Week 3, shattered the team record with an NFL-high 303 interception return yards on six thefts. Among his three returns for touchdowns (tying a team mark) were efforts of 93, 90 and 74 yards. He was named the NFL Defensive Player of the Year as well as a starter in the Pro Bowl. Other Pro Bowl selections included Young, Rice, TE Brent Jones, Oates, G Jesse Sapolu, Hanks, Stubblefield, S Tim McDonald and RB Ricky Watters. CB Eric Davis had a team-leading 22 passes defended during the regular season and four interceptions in the playoffs.

San Francisco once again captured the NFC West Championship, despite battling through a season in which injuries wreaked havoc time and again. Among the key contributors who were sidelined during the campaign were starting FB William Floyd, whose season ended with a severe knee injury in the October New Orleans game, and QB Steve Young, who missed five games with a shoulder injury. Those injuries, in addition to several others in the offensive line throughout the season, would have crippled most teams; however, the 1995 49ers established a reputation as one of the grittiest in team history. The defensive unit created a new aggressive identity, finishing the season ranked number one in the NFL. Not only did it lead the league in scoring defense, it set team records for fewest rushing yards allowed (1,061) and fewest rushing yards per game (66.3). San Francisco's defense also excelled in takeaways, forcing a total of 34, including a team-record seven (five interceptions, two fumbles) that resulted in touchdowns. Among the standout performers were Pro Bowl selections CB Eric Davis, FS Merton Hanks and SS Tim McDonald, marking the second consecutive season the 49ers secondary included three Pro Bowl picks. LB Ken Norton Jr. racked up 127 tackles and set a team single-game record by returning two interceptions for touchdowns at St. Louis. LB Lee Woodall and DT Dana Stubblefield rounded out the Niners Pro Bowl defensive players. Offensively, WR Jerry Rice posted the finest of his legendary 11 seasons with the 49ers. He became the NFL's career leader with 942 receptions and 15,123 yards, while also establishing the league's single-season standard with 1,848 yards. He was named as a starter in the Pro Bowl for the 10th consecutive season. Young, who returned to quarterback the team for the final four regular season games, was also selected to the Pro Bowl, as was TE Brent Jones, who made the squad as an alternate. One of the highlights of the season was the emergence of QB Elvis Grbac. Playing in place of the injured Young, he directed the Niners to three of their biggest wins of the season at St. Louis, at eventual world champion Dallas and at Miami. Floyd was the recipient of the team's Len Eshmont Award.

One streak continued and another ended for San Francisco in 1996. With a 12–4 record, the 49ers reached double digits in the win column for the 14th consecutive season, the longest streak in the NFL. However, the upstart Carolina Panthers unseated the Niners as NFC West Champions, ending their four-year reign. San Francisco remained one of the league's most dangerous teams with an aggressive defense and a productive offense. Despite losing QB Steve Young for four full games and parts of four others with various injuries, the 49ers offense ranked second in the NFC with 398 points and sixth in the NFL in total offense. WR Jerry Rice became the first player in NFL history to record four 100-catch seasons after making a league-high 108 receptions for 1,254 yards. The 12-year veteran earned his NFL record-tying 11th Pro Bowl invitation and was a first-team All-Pro selection. Young won his fifth NFL passing title with a QB rating of 97.2 and was named to the Pro Bowl for the fifth consecutive season. Defensively, the 49ers had the league's most imposing pass rushing trio in DE Roy Barker, DT Bryant Young and DE Chris Doleman. Barker finished fourth in the NFC with 12.5 sacks, while Doleman's 11 sacks moved him into seventh on the NFL's career list with 115.5. Young was named a starter on the NFC Pro Bowl team and earned first-team All-Pro honors after posting 11.5 sacks and 85 tackles. He also claimed the 49ers Len Eshmont Award as the team's most inspirational and courageous player. The third-year veteran was joined on the Pro Bowl team by FS Merton Hanks, who was invited for the third consecutive season. As usual, Rice's assault on the record books continued. He became the first player in NFL history to register 1,000 career receptions and 16,000 receiving yards. Rice also surpassed K Ray Wersching as the team's all-time leading scorer with 982 points.

Although they appeared vulnerable after first week injuries to QB Steve Young and WR Jerry Rice, the San Francisco 49ers rallied under the direction of rookie head coach Steve Mariucci, reclaimed the NFC West title and advanced to the NFC Championship Game. The 49ers finished with a 13–3 mark, including an 11-game winning streak, despite losing Rice for all but two games. They did it behind a new-found running attack and the league's top-ranked defense. Mariucci became one of 13 head coaches since the NFL–AFL merger in 1970 to lead his team to a division title in his rookie season, and he was the fourth to do it directly out of the college ranks. The former University of California skipper established an NFL record for consecutive wins by a rookie head coach with an 11-game streak (games 2–12). The 49ers claimed their 13th NFC West title in 17 years and posted 10–or-more wins for the 15th consecutive season. Young suffered a concussion against Tampa Bay on opening day, but remained healthy throughout the season and claimed his NFL record-tying (Sammy Baugh) sixth league passing title with a rating of 104.7. The 13-year veteran showed consistency while getting adjusted to a new coach, new running back and two young receivers. The 49ers made a commitment to a power rushing attack by signing G Kevin Gogan during the offseason. The additional size up front allowed the 49ers to finish fourth in the NFC in rushing yards. RB Garrison Hearst (1,019 yards) became the first 49ers running back to rush for 1,000 yards since 1992. With Rice out, WR Terrell Owens and WR J.J. Stokes became the primary receiving targets. Owens led the team with 63 receptions for 936 yards and eight touchdowns, while Stokes posted 58 receptions for 733 yards and four touchdowns. Rice returned for one game against Denver (12–15) and helped the 49ers clinch home field advantage throughout the playoffs with a 34–17 win. Rice became the first non-kicker in league history to reach 1,000 points with a 14-yard touchdown catch in the second quarter of the Broncos contest. The 49ers defense led the league in total yards allowed (250.8), finished second in takeaways (41) and was tied for third in sacks (54). They helped carry the burden as the offense adjusted to new personnel. For the second consecutive season, the 49ers had three players reach double figures in sacks. DT Dana Stubblefield (15.0), DE Chris Doleman (12.0) and LB Kevin Greene (10.5) led the sack attack. Stubblefield finished second in the league in sacks and was named NFL Defensive Player of the Year by Associated Press and earned the Len Eshmont Award as the team's most inspirational player. Of the seven 49ers named to the Pro Bowl, five were from the defense. Stubblefield was joined by Doleman, FS Merton Hanks, LB Lee Woodall and LB Ken Norton Jr. Gogan and Young were San Francisco's offensive selections.

Led by one of the most productive offenses in team and league history, San Francisco posted its 16th consecutive winning season and remained one of the NFL's elite teams. Behind the strong arm of QB Steve Young, the powerful legs of RB Garrison Hearst and the triple-threat receiving corps of WR Jerry Rice, WR Terrell Owens and WR J.J. Stokes, the 49ers rolled to a 12–4 regular season mark and an appearance in the NFC Divisional Playoff Game. Young opened the season in sizzling fashion. The 14-year veteran established an NFL record by throwing for over 300 yards in six consecutive games, breaking the previous record of five held by former 49ers QB Joe Montana. Young finished the season completing 322-of-517 (62.3) passes for 4,170 yards and 36 touchdowns. His final passing rating of 101.1 marked the seventh consecutive season he has surpassed the 100-point barrier and earned him his seventh consecutive trip to the Pro Bowl. The 49ers offensive line, led by Pro Bowl G Kevin Gogan, paved the way for Hearst's record-setting season. Hearst, and his team-record and career-high 1,570 yards rushing, were a major reason the 49ers led the NFL in rushing. His 198-yard performance against the New York Giants on Monday Night Football also set a then team-record and was a personal-best. His four plays of 70 yards or more led the league and helped earn him his first career Pro Bowl selection. The 49ers receiving corps was in the capable hands of Rice, Owens and Stokes. Rice, returning from a serious knee injury in 1997, earned his 12th career Pro Bowl nomination and finished with a team-high 82 receptions for 1,157 yards and nine touchdowns. The athletic Owens asserted himself among the league's best receivers and brightest young stars by catching 67 passes for 1,097 yards and 14 touchdowns. Stokes caught a career-best 63 passes for 770 yards and eight touchdowns. The 49ers defense was paced by the inspiring play of DT Bryant Young. Young was having an exceptional season with 54 tackles and 9.5 sacks before suffering a season-ending leg injury against the New York Giants on Monday Night Football. Young was still named Eshmont Award winner although missing the final four regular season games. LB Winfred Tubbs, in his first season with the 49ers, earned his first career Pro Bowl nomination after finishing with 112 tackles. CB Darnell Walker, FS Merton Hanks, S Zack Bronson and S Tim McDonald led the team with four interceptions each.

San Francisco had a streak of 16 consecutive winning seasons snapped, after finishing the 1999 season with a 4–12 record. A season-ending injury to QB Steve Young in Week 3 sent the 49ers into a tailspin from which they did not recover. Replacing Young proved to be quite a task for QBs Jeff Garcia and Steve Stenstrom. Garcia received the first try at the job and responded admirably, posting a 24–22 victory, with a QB rating of 106.0, over the Tennessee Titans in his first NFL start. Garcia would start the next four games, but was replaced by Stenstrom in Week 10 at New Orleans. With Stenstrom struggling in starts against the Saints, Rams and Packers, the 49ers coaching staff returned Garcia to the starting lineup for a December 5 game at Cincinnati. And what a return it was. Garcia threw for a career-high 437 yards against the Bengals, including throwing two touchdown passes to WR Jerry Rice. The game proved to be an impetus for Garcia, who over the final five games of the season completed 121-of-182 passes for 1,441 yards, eight touchdowns and three interceptions for a quarterback rating of 98.3. During that stint, Garcia completed 66.5 percent of his passes and was sacked just three times for 25 yards. San Francisco also was faced with the task of replacing 1998 Pro Bowl RB Garrison Hearst and his team-record 1,570 yards rushing. A key off-season acquisition of RB Charlie Garner proved more than an adequate replacement. Garner rushed for a career-high 1,229 yards, caught a career-high 56 passes for 535 yards and finished third in the NFL with 1,764 total yards. The San Francisco running attack also was given a boost by second-year FB Fred Beasley's 276 yards rushing and 282 yards receiving, both marks were career-high's. Overall the 49ers led the NFL with 2,095 yards on the ground, becoming the first team to lead the league for consecutive seasons since Buffalo did it in 1991–92. The 49ers also led the league with a per-rush average of 5.0 yards. The San Francisco receiving corps was once again paced by Rice. He finished the year with 67 receptions for 830 yards and five touchdowns. Certainly not the kind of numbers that Rice is accustomed to, but over the final five games of the season, Rice caught 24 passes for 420 yards (17.5) and three touchdowns. In that span he posted two 100-yard games, including a six-reception, 143-yard effort at Atlanta (1–3) in the season finale. WR Terrell Owens added 60 receptions for 754 yards and four touchdowns while J.J. Stokes totaled 34 grabs for 429 yards and two touchdowns, including a five-reception, 130-yard performance at Atlanta (1–3) in the season finale. The 49ers defense struggled for much of the season, but was highlighted by several individual performances. DT Bryant Young was named the Associated Press Comeback Player of the Year and earned a Pro Bowl selection. After overcoming a devastating leg fracture that ended his 1998 season and left his future clouded in doubt, Young answered all questions by earning a Pro Bowl nomination with his 11.0 sacks on the season. S Lance Schulters, in his first season as a starter, responded by finishing second in the NFC with six interceptions, including a game-winning 64-yard return against New Orleans (9–19) in the second week of the season. Schulters was named as the starting free safety for the NFC squad in the 2000 Pro Bowl.

San Francisco opened its sixth decade in the NFL under new leadership. The transfer of ownership from Edward J. DeBartolo, Jr. to his sister Denise DeBartolo York was approved by the NFL May 23, 2000. DeBartolo, Jr. ended his tenure after guiding the 49ers to five Super Bowl Championships and 16 postseason appearances. A young San Francisco team, which at one point started five rookies on defense, showed marked improvement throughout the season, winning four of the last six games, to finish 6–10. The offense again was one of the best in the league, which led to three starters being named to their first Pro Bowl – QB Jeff Garcia, RB Charlie Garner and WR Terrell Owens. Garcia, who was in his first season as the full-time starter, set the pace for the offense all season long. He set career-highs in every category, completing 355-of-561 passes for a team-record 4,278 yards, with 31 touchdowns and only 10 interceptions. He finished the year ranked fifth in the NFL with a 97.6 quarterback rating. Garcia started all 16 games and had six 300-yard passing games, including a 402-yard effort against Chicago in December, which was his third straight 300-yard passing performance and his sixth of the season. His productivity not only led to his first Pro Bowl appearance, but Football Digest also named him the NFL's Most Improved Player. WR Terrell Owens was one of the many beneficiaries of Garcia's success. Owens posted his second career 1,000-yard season, catching a career-high 97 passes for 1,451 yards, which ranked him fourth in the NFL. Owens, who only played in 14 games during the season, also had five 100-yard games and scored a team-high 13 touchdowns. Owens had his best performance of his career against Chicago in December, breaking a 50-year old NFL record with 20 receptions for 283 yards and one touchdown. Owens broke Tom Fears' NFL record of 18 receptions in a game, which he set back in 1950 with the Rams. The 49ers backfield was again in the capable hands of Garner and FB Fred Beasley. Garner earned his first Pro Bowl appearance and became the fourth 49ers running back to rush for 1,000 yards in back-to-back seasons. Garner, behind the stellar play of the 49ers offensive line, ran for 1,142 yards on 258 carries and seven touchdowns. Also a receiving threat, Garner set career-highs with 68 receptions for 647 yards and three touchdowns. In addition, he established a team record with 201 yards rushing vs. Dallas. Beasley also had a solid year, rushing for 147 yards on 50 carries and three touchdowns, while catching 31 passes for 233 yards and three touchdowns. The 49ers defense was young, but got better over the last half of the season. The defense was again paced by the efforts of DT Bryant Young, who posted 51 tackles and led the team in sacks with 9.5. LB Ken Norton Jr. was one of only three players to start all 16 games, extending his consecutive games streak to 160. The 49ers defense started five rookies in the final game at Denver and had seven different rookies start throughout the 2000 campaign. Rookies CB Ahmed Plummer, DE John Engelberger and CB Jason Webster all started at least 10 games. Six rookies—Plummer, Webster, Engelberger, LB Julian Peterson, DT Cedric Killings and S Ronnie Heard—participated in more than 20-percent of the total 1,096 plays.

The San Francisco 49ers made their return to the playoffs after a two-year absence, as the young and improving team posted a 12–4 record. The year marked the return of RB Garrison Hearst, who came back from a devastating ankle injury that kept him out of football for two seasons. Hearst rushed for 1,206 yards, was named Associated Press Comeback Player of the Year and also earned his second career Pro Bowl nomination. In total, the 49ers had six players travel to the islands for the annual all-star game. In addition to Hearst on offense, QB Jeff Garcia and WR Terrell Owens made their second straight appearances, C Jeremy Newberry played in his first Pro Bowl, G Ray Brown made the first Pro Bowl appearance in his 16-year career, and on defense DT Bryant Young made his third Pro Bowl appearance, anchoring the 49ers defense that improved from ranking 29th in 2000 to 13th in 2001. The offense was again in the capable hands of Garcia. The Gilroy native proved that 2000 wasn't a fluke. He completed 316-of-504 passes for 3,538 yards. The third-year veteran also threw 32 touchdowns, becoming the first 49ers quarterback to throw for 30 or more touchdowns in consecutive seasons. Owens was one of Garcia's favorite targets, especially when it came to the endzone. Owens caught 93 balls for 1,412 yards and a career-high and NFL leading 16 touchdowns. While Hearst was the big story, the offensive line, which returned all five starters from the 2000 season, proved to be vital to the team's success. For the fifth consecutive season, San Francisco produced a 1,000-yard rusher, which set a new team record. The defense was still young, but improved as the season progressed. The defensive line added two new starters to the mix, although one of them was not so new. DT Dana Stubblefield returned to the 49ers after spending three seasons with Washington and rookie DE Andre Carter made an impression, especially in the last four weeks of the season when he was named NFC Rookie of the Month. Carter led the team in sacks with 6.5, adding 4.5 of those in the last five games. The unit as a whole improved over the last half of the season, posting a team-record three shutouts in the last month of the campaign. Another big addition was LB Derek Smith, who came over from the Redskins as well. Smith brought with him four consecutive seasons of 100 tackles or more. Smith kept that streak alive as he led the defense with 126 total tackles. Also helping the defense with its improvement was S Zack Bronson and CB Ahmed Plummer. Both players recorded career-highs with seven interceptions each. Bronson also returned two for touchdowns, including a career-high and team record 97-yard return at Chicago.

The San Francisco 49ers entered 2002 with hopes of advancing past the first round of the NFC playoffs. The team accomplished the mission finishing the season with 10 wins and advancing to the NFC Divisional Playoffs in grand fashion with the second largest playoff comeback in NFL history. The 49ers finished the season with a 5-1 division record and won their first division title since 1997. The team's success came from its ability to minimize turnovers, along with a strong running game. The 49ers gained 2,244 yards on the ground for the second consecutive season and RB Garrison Hearst established a career-high with eight rushing touchdowns. Helping Hearst were Pro Bowlers G Ron Stone and C Jeremy Newberry, who anchored an offensive line that was third in the NFL in fewest sacks allowed. San Francisco had the least amount of turnovers in the NFC with 17. In his third season as director of the 49ers offense, QB Jeff Garcia earned his third consecutive Pro Bowl berth. He completed 62 percent of his passes and tied a team record by directing five fourth-quarter comebacks. WR Terrell Owens continued his dominance with a career-high 100 receptions and led the NFL with 13 receiving touchdowns. Owens surpassed 1,000 receiving yards for the third consecutive season and earned his third consecutive Pro Bowl bid. Defensively, LB Julian Peterson had a breakout season with a career-high 104 tackles. He shut down several of the league's top tight ends and made history by playing four positions in a single game against Dallas (12-8). His effort earned him his first career Pro Bowl appearance. DT Bryant Young added an interior presence with his fourth career Pro Bowl nomination and S Tony Parrish proved to be an invaluable pickup with a career-high seven interceptions. He won the Len Eshmont and the Ed Block Courage Award, both firsts for a player in his inaugural season.

Head Coach Steve Mariucci was released from the final year of his contract on January 15, 2003. The 49ers conducted an extensive search for Mariucci's successor and in the end hired Dennis Erickson. Erickson was introduced as the 14th head coach in 49ers team history on February 12, 2003. The Erickson era started with a 7-9 record for the 49ers in 2003. The team struggled on the road, winning only one game, but was impressive at home, scoring more than 45 points in two separate home games. The team was represented in the Pro Bowl, the 23rd consecutive year the 49ers had at least one team representative in the islands. In 2003, WR Terrell Owens made his fourth consecutive Pro Bowl, LB Julian Peterson made his second consecutive trip and FB Fred Beasley made his first career appearance in Hawaii. On offense, QB Jeff Garcia missed three games due to injury, but threw for 2,704 yards and 18 touchdowns. In his place, QB Tim Rattay responded admirably, throwing for 856 yards and seven touchdowns while posting a 2-1 record in those three games. RB Kevan Barlow recorded his first career 1,000-yard rushing season after becoming the main tailback after RB Garrison Hearst went down with a knee injury and missed the final four games. Owens recorded his fourth consecutive 1,000-yard season, amassing 1,102 yards despite missing the final game of the year. The 49ers defense finished the year ranked 13th overall in the NFL and ninth against the run. The unit was led by Pro Bowler Peterson, who led the team in sacks with seven, and S Tony Parrish, who tied for the league lead with nine interceptions. The group as a whole recorded 42 sacks on the year, the highest total since 1998, which was good for second in the NFC and tied for fourth in the NFL. In addition, the 49ers defensive unit allowed only 268 yards per game, the lowest total since 1997. San Francisco also caused turnovers as evidence by its 13 fumble recoveries, its highest total since 1997.

The San Francisco 49ers continued to build depth with a young squad of versatile and talented athletes in 2004. Despite a 2-14 overall record, the group was able to gain significant experience while individuals on both sides of the ball notched career milestones over the 16-game span. The 49ers also swept NFC West rival Arizona in two thrilling overtime battles in the confines of both Monster Park and on the road in Sun Devil Stadium. The team was also represented in the Pro Bowl for the 24th consecutive year as LS/TE Brian Jennings made his first trip to the Pro Bowl. Jennings was chosen to serve as a "need" player in Hawaii by the NFC coaching staff. On offense, TE Eric Johnson returned to the lineup after missing 2003 with a broken collarbone and paced the team with 82 receptions for 825 yards and two touchdowns. His performance was the best-ever by a 49ers' tight end. WR Brandon Lloyd led the scoring attack with six touchdown receptions while RB Kevan Barlow steadied the ground game with 244 carries for 822 yards and seven touchdowns. Under center, QB Tim Rattay battled shoulder, forearm and foot injuries to play in nine games, including a career-best 417-yard performance in the 49ers first of two bouts against Arizona. Rattay rallied the offense from a 16-point fourth-quarter deficit to win 31-28 in overtime. In the process, he completed a team-record 38 passes en route to his first 400-yard game. DT Bryant Young's 11 years of NFL experience served as the veteran voice behind the defensive unit. Young led the line with 79 tackles and three sacks and enjoyed a career game against Chicago after notching 10 tackles and two sacks, his 17th career multi-sack game. For his efforts, Young was presented the team's Len Eshmont and Bill Walsh Awards. It was an unprecedented fifth Len Eshmont award win for Young. DE John Engelberger responded with a career year, with a career-high 64 tackles. He led team with 6.0 sacks. Also a steady rock on defense was SS Tony Parrish, who started all 16 games to give him 112 consecutive career starts, the third-longest active streak at his position. LB Derek Smith also chipped in at the linebacker post, reaching the 100-tackle plateau for the eighth straight year. Smith and fellow LB Jeff Ulbrich led the team with 167 tackles. After a season-ending Achilles injury to LB Julian Peterson, LB Jamie Winborn stepped up with 104 tackles, 4.5 sacks and three forced fumbles. The 49ers also saw much promise from a handful of young participants. Second-year T Kwame Harris played in 14 contests and did not allow a sack in the last five games after returning to the starting lineup on the left side. Also gaining experience on the line was rookie G Justin Smiley who played in all 16 games with nine starts. On the opposite side of the ball, rookie RCB Shawntae Spencer finished third in the league with 12 starts as a rookie. He also led the defensive unit with 12 passes defensed. Second-year DT Anthony Adams continued to flourish in his role, registering a career-high nine stops against Washington. The special teams unit remained staunch, led by the efforts of rookie P Andy Lee. Lee finished the season with a 41.6-yard average, the highest since P Reggie Roby during the 1998 campaign. He led all rookies in the NFC in gross average and boomed an 81-yard punt against Tampa Bay (11-21-04) which was the longest of 2004 and the fourth-longest in team history. Another rookie, S Keith Lewis, also made his presence felt as he became the first player in 49er history to block a punt, force a fumble and recover a fumble in the same season. Lewis was able to accomplish this trifecta on only special teams plays.

The San Francisco 49ers faced a tremendous amount of adversity during the 2005 campaign under new Head Coach Mike Nolan, but utilized both the highs and lows as opportunities to grow and improve. With a mix of veteran experience and young talent, the team doubled their win total from 2004 with a 4–12 record, including a series sweep over NFC West division rival St. Louis, a home win against playoff contender Tampa Bay, and a nail-biting overtime victory in the 2005 season finale against Houston. The 49ers also made a historic trip to Mexico City to play NFC West division rival Arizona in front of an NFL-record 103,467 fans. Even though the 49ers lost a league-high 101 games by starters, including three of the four starters in the secondary, there were many individual and team bright spots, including strong showings from five players who started every game in 2005 (LB Derek Smith, NT Anthony Adams, G Justin Smiley, T Kwame Harris and C/G Eric Heitmann). Of the 11 original 2005 draft selections, 10 went on to spend the 2005 season on the 49ers roster and contributed on offense, defense and special teams. Six of the 10 started in some capacity throughout the season (RB Frank Gore, QB Alex Smith, G David Baas, T Adam Snyder, TE Billy Bajema and CB Derrick Johnson). On offense, four different quarterbacks saw time under center. The most experienced of the four in the quarterback rotation, Tim Rattay, took the initial starting reins and led the 49ers to a 28–25 opening day victory against St. Louis. Shortly after, first overall draft pick Alex Smith made his professional debut, stepping in to relieve Rattay at Arizona in Mexico City. With the eventual trade of Rattay in Week 7 to Tampa Bay, and a knee injury to Smith, both Ken Dorsey and Cody Pickett also stepped in to call plays in the pocket. Smith returned to the starting lineup and gained valuable playing experience, seeing action in nine games with seven starts while showing outstanding poise and maturity in the pocket. WR Brandon Lloyd led the aerial attack with 48 catches for 733 yards including five touchdowns from four different quarterbacks. WR Arnaz Battle also gained ground after rebounding from a knee injury, averaging 11.3 yards per catch while snagging three touchdowns. On the ground, RB's Kevan Barlow, Frank Gore and Maurice Hicks all chipped in 100–yard single–game performances and three touchdowns each. Gore had a stellar first season while pacing all 49ers rushers with 127 carries for 608 yards. After losing C Jeremy Newberry and LT Jonas Jennings to injuries, the offensive line was able to develop some consistency in the second half of the season with rookie LT Adam Snyder and rookie G David Baas making significant strides as starters. Eric Heitmann also held strong as both a guard and center. Defensively, veteran leader DE Bryant Young led the team with eight sacks (including three multi–sack contests), his most since 2000. His 77.5 sacks put him into third place on the 49ers all–time sack leader list. For his stellar performance, Young was voted by his teammates as the 49ers recipient of the Len Eshmont and Ed Block Courage Awards. Also paving the way was LB Derek Smith, whose 163 tackles led the 49ers, his fifth straight time to pace the unit. The team's co–MVP/Bill Walsh Award winner also notched his ninth straight 100–yard campaign. In the absence of an injured Jeff Ulbrich, LB Brandon Moore responded by finishing second on defense with career highs in tackles (93), sacks (5), interceptions (1) and fumble recoveries (1). Before he was lost for the season with a fractured fibula, S Tony Parrish posted two interceptions, re–turning one for a touchdown. His teammates, CBs Mike Adams and Shawntae Spencer led the team with four interceptions and a touchdown return each. The special teams unit played a big part in the team's scoring efforts as co–MVP Bill Walsh Award winner K Joe Nedney accounted for 97 49ers points off of 28 field goals (including a 56–yard career long) and 19 extra points. P Andy Lee's three touchbacks in 107 punts placed him with the third–best ratio of touchbacks–to–punts among punters with 30 or more kicks in 2005. Special teams ace Terry Jackson stayed true to his form by leading the coverage unit with 21 tackles. And rookie return man Otis Amey got the season off to an electrifying start after returning a 75–yard punt for a touchdown in the season opener against St. Louis. Amey became the fifth 49ers rookie to return a punt for a touchdown and the first to do so on his first–ever return. He also became the second 49ers player (behind WR Nate Singleton) to score a touchdown on his first touch.

Under the direction of second–year Head Coach Mike Nolan, the 49ers continued to build a framework for success – that included utilizing young talent sprinkled with enough veteran leadership to mentor and keep the group heading in the right direction. After a 4–12 campaign in 2005, the 49ers significantly increased their win total to seven and closed the year with two, morale–boosting road wins in Seattle and Denver to finish 7–9. The organization picked up some key free agents prior to the start of the 2006 season, including All–Pro and future Hall of Fame G Larry Allen, speedy playmaker CB Walt Harris and 13–year NFL veteran and proven Super Bowl winner QB Trent Dilfer. Their acquisitions paid immediate dividends. Allen and Harris joined second–year RB Frank Gore at the Pro Bowl to mark the 25th time in club history the team has been represented, and Dilfer served as a sturdy mentor to second–year starting QB Alex Smith. The 49ers also added talent through the draft, picking up nine immediate contributors. Eight of the nine draft picks (TE Vernon Davis, LB Manny Lawson, WR Brandon Williams, RB Michael Robinson, DE/LB Parys Haralson, TE Delanie Walker, S Marcus Hudson and DE Melvin Oliver) saw action during the season while three (Davis, Lawson and Oliver) were starters. Offensively, the 49ers grew by leaps and bounds, largely in part to the schemes and game plans run by new Offensive Coordinator Norv Turner. QB Alex Smith began to flourish under Turner's guidance and became the first–ever 49ers quarterback to take every snap for the entire regular season while showing dramatic improvement in year two. He set career highs in every offensive category and led the 49ers to a fourth–quarter comeback win (24–14) in Seattle in his first career primetime game. C Eric Heitmann held strong under center, serving as the line's vocal and emotional leader and Bobb McKittrick Award winner. Leading the offensive production was RB Frank Gore, who plowed behind the line and new free agent FB Moran Norris en route to setting a franchise–record 1,695 rushing yards, tops in the NFC, and another record 2,180 combined yards. His 212–yard performance against Seattle was the highest single–game rushing total in 49ers history and was one of nine 100–yard rushing performances on the season. Gore was voted the team's co–MVP/Bill Walsh Award winner and Ed Block Courage Award recipient. Also chipping in was rookie TE Vernon Davis, who scored on his first NFL touch, a 31–yard touchdown catch in the season opener at Arizona. The defensive unit overcame some early struggles and improved significantly during the second half of the season. LB Brandon Moore led the unit in tackles (114) and sacks (6.5) in his first year as a full–time starter. Consummate veterans LB Derek Smith (93 tackles), DT Marques Douglas (75 tackles, three sacks) and seven–time Len Eshmont Award winner DE Bryant Young (60 tackles, 5.5 sacks) led the group up front while CB Walt Harris and S Keith Lewis (72 tackles, two interceptions, one sack) proved to be new, impact presences in the secondary. Harris finished with one sack and a career–high eight interceptions including a 28–yard touchdown return at Denver. Rookie LB Manny Lawson wrapped his inaugural campaign with 65 tackles, 2.5 sacks, one interception and a blocked punt while rookie DE Melvin Oliver had 50 stops, one sack and a 12–yard fumble return for a touchdown. On special teams, K Joe Nedney amassed 116 points, the second–highest total of his career and eighth most in team history. Nedney was also successful on three onside kicks. RB Maurice Hicks continued to play a key role in the special teams effort. He led the unit with 20 tackles, one fumble recovery and also returned 57 kickoffs for a franchise record 1,428 yards, third best in the NFC. Also making a difference on the special teams unit was rookie RB Michael Robinson, who finished with 16 stops and a 33–yard return for a first down on a fake punt at Seattle.

Head coach Mike Nolan and his team entered the 2007 season believing that anything less than the playoffs would be a disappointment. Unfortunately, the team fell far short of that mark with an overall 5–11 record as four different quarterbacks took the helm of the 49ers offense. 49ers fans did experience some highlights in 2007, including another 1,000–yard rushing season for RB Frank Gore and a stellar season by LB Patrick Willis. The 49ers top pick out of Ole Miss won Defensive Rookie of the Year and Pro Bowl honors. Willis was also the only NFL rookie to be named All–Pro in 2007, becoming the first 49ers defensive rookie to earn the honor since CB Ronnie Lott in 1981. His 226 tackles was an unofficial NFL record and Willis earned numerous additional accolades. P Andy Lee joined Willis at the Pro Bowl as he put together one of the greatest punting seasons in NFL history. Lee set an NFL record for punts downed inside the 20–yard line with 42, while ranking second in gross punting average (47.3) and net punting average (41.0) behind Oakland's P Shane Lechler. The 49ers went 2–1 in primetime games in 2007, winning the season opener on Monday Night Football against the Arizona Cardinals and defeating the Cincinnati Bengals on a Saturday night game in December. QB Alex Smith started the season with a 2–1 record before experiencing a shoulder injury in the fourth game of the season against Seattle. He eventually was placed on Injured Reserve in December and underwent surgery. QB Trent Dilfer stepped in for Smith and led the team with 1,166 passing yards on 113-of-219 passing. Dilfer eventually would suffer a concussion vs. Minnesota (12-9), and QB Shaun Hill replaced the veteran in Week 13 of the season. Hill was sharp during his three games of action, completing 54-of-79 passes for 501 yards with five touchdowns and one interception. However, Hill would also succumb to injury, being sidelined with a back injury for the season finale. QB Chris Weinke saw action in the final game of the season. Despite inconsistency on offense, the 49ers special teams unit was among the league's most elite in 2007. K Joe Nedney connected on 17-of-19 field goal attempts, while Lee booted 49 punts of 50 or more yards (16 more than any other punter). At the conclusion of the season, one of the all-time great 49ers, DT Bryant Young, retired from the NFL after 14 seasons with San Francisco. Young led the 49ers with 6.5 sacks and finished with 89.5 sacks for his career, which is third on the 49ers all-time sack list behind Cedrick Hardman and Tommy Hart. He earned his eighth Len Eshmont Award, given to the player who best exemplifies the inspirational and courageous play of Len Eshmont.

The San Francisco 49ers entered the 2008 season following a simple mantra, 'One game at a time.' Throughout the year, 49ers players and coaches experienced several transitions and tribulations, but did not allow their minds to linger in the past, nor venture too far into the future. The focused approach proved effective as the team won five of its final seven games to close out the season. After a promising 2-1 start to the year, San Francisco dropped four straight contests before making a change at head coach. In his fourth season at the helm of the 49ers, Mike Nolan was replaced by assistant head coach/linebackers coach Mike Singletary. Upon accepting the position, Singletary said the foundation was in place to take the team to the 'next level.' The response by his players and staff proved positive as the 49ers finished with a 5-4 record under Singletary's direction. Immediately following the conclusion of the season finale against Washington, team President Jed York announced to onlooking players and coaches in the locker room that Singletary would remain the 49ers head coach moving forward. The quarterback position was one of the first areas that Singletary addressed when taking over midway through the 2008 season. QB J.T. O'Sullivan started the first eight games of the year and showed an ability to make big plays, but costly turnovers proved to be problematic for the signal caller. O'Sullivan was replaced at the end of the first half of Singletary's first game as head coach against Seattle. Singletary later announced QB Shaun Hill would take over the starting role for the remainder of the season. The move appeared to be the right one as Hill went on to post a 5-3 record and a 87.5 overall passer rating. While Hill made his season debut midway through the year, RB Frank Gore was once again the centerpiece of the 49ers offense. Despite missing two games with an ankle injury, Gore became the first 49ers player to rush for over 1,000 yards in three consecutive seasons, finishing the year with 1,036 rushing yards and 1,409 total yards from scrimmage. WR Isaac Bruce, who earned the team's coveted Len Eshmont Award in his first season in a 49ers uniform after spending 14 years with the Rams, recorded team-highs in receptions (61), receiving yards (835) and touch-down catches (7). TE Vernon Davis, who was named as an alternate for the Pro Bowl, finished the season ranked fourth on the team in receptions (31) and receiving yards (358). On defense, Singletary consulted with defensive coordinator Greg Manusky and transitioned the unit into a more simplified, yet productive 3-4 alignment midway through the season. Over the final nine games of the year, the 49ers improved from 23rd in total defense to finish 13th (326.0) in the NFL. LB Patrick Willis earned his second consecutive Pro Bowl nod after totaling a team-high 185 tackles, while LB Takeo Spikes ranked second on the team with 122 tackles to go along with three interceptions in his first year with San Francisco. LB Parys Haralson had a breakout season with eight sacks, the most by a 49ers linebacker since Kevin Greene posted 10.5 in 1997. The 49ers defensive line got a boost with the offseason signing of DE Justin Smith, who ranked second on the team with seven sacks and fourth on the squad with 104 tackles. As one of the most experienced units in the NFL, the 49ers secondary finished the season strong, allowing an average of 177.4 passing yards per game over the final five contests, which ranked third among NFL teams during that time span. For the second year in a row, the 49ers special teams unit ranked among the best in the NFL. Led by special teams coordinator Al Everest, P Andy Lee, KR/PR Allen Rossum and RB Michael Robinson were all named alternates for the Pro Bowl. Lee finished the season ranked third in the NFL with a career-high and team-record 47.8 gross average.

The 49ers took a step forward in 2009, recording their best finish since 2002 with an 8-8 record in head coach Mike Singletary's first full season, which included a 5-1 record against the NFC West. The 49ers opened the season with a bang against the defending NFC Champion Arizona Cardinals. LB Patrick Willis, who was named to his 3rd consecutive Pro Bowl as a starter at year's end, recorded the first of his career-high 3 INTs on the year to propel his team to a 20-16 road victory. RB Frank Gore also played a large role in the win, scoring the go-ahead TD in the 4th qtr. as part of a 2-score performance. On the season, he went on to set personal bests with 10 rushing TDs and 13 total TDs, while becoming the only 49er ever to post four 1,000-yd. rushing seasons, despite missing two games to an ankle injury. Gore repeated his 2-TD performance the following week in a 23-10 victory at home against Seattle, running for scores of 79 and 80 yds. to join RB Barry Sanders as the only players in NFL history to register 2 TD runs of 75+ yds. in a single game. With the momentum of a spotless division record, San Fran traveled to Minnesota for what would be an action-packed matchup. In a game where an ankle injury felled Gore on his first attempt, TE Vernon Davis rose to the occasion and recorded 2 TDs, one of which gave the 49ers a 4-point lead in the 4th qtr., which they held until Minnesota's last drive. Vikings QB Brett Favre milked every last second as he fired a 32-yd. TD pass with 2 seconds remaining, stabbing the hearts of 49ers fans. The 49ers bounced back the next week against St. Louis, defeating the Rams 35-0 to mark the first shutout by the team since 2002. Following a crushing 45-10 loss to Atlanta at Candlestick Park, San Fran added another weapon to its arsenal as rookie WR Michael Crabtree joined the team over the bye weekend after missing the first 5 games of the season because of a contract impasse. Crabtree hit the ground running and went on to lead all NFL rookies with a 56.8 yds./game avg. over the final 11 contests. In his debut at Houston, the rookie dazzled the crowd with some acrobatic catches, but the show would eventually turn to two 49er veterans. After falling behind 21 points at halftime, Singletary made a change at quarterback, inserting Alex Smith into the lineup for Shaun Hill. Smith, who hadn't seen any action in nearly two years, responded by throwing a career-high 3 TDs in the final 2 qtrs., all of which were caught by Davis. Following the Texans game, Smith would go on to start the remainder of the season and register career-highs in passing TDs (18), completion pct. (60.5) and quarterback rating (81.5), while Davis proceeded to put up historic numbers on his way to being named a starter in his first Pro Bowl. The talented tight end finished the year with 965 yds. and tied the NFL single-season record for TD receptions (13) by a tight end. The next week at Indianapolis, the team lost starting LT Joe Staley on the first offensive play to a knee injury. Behind the crafty play-calling of defensive coordinator Greg Manusky, the 49ers became the only team to hold NFL MVP QB Peyton Manning without a TD on the season. Despite the unit's valiant effort, the 49ers fell 18-14. A 34-27 loss to the Titans at home inspired the squad for a prime-time, Thursday Night Football showdown against Chicago. In what was a microcosm of the defense's season, the unit recorded 5 INTs, including SS Michael Lewis' victory-sealing pick in the end zone. After digging themselves a 23-3 hole at Green Bay, San Fran valiantly battled back in the final 2 qtrs., only to come up short by less than a TD in the 30-24 defeat. The defense exacted revenge at home against Jacksonville the following week, allowing just 3 points as Davis and Gore each scored in the 20-9 victory. Despite a career-high 310 yds. passing from Smith, the 49ers lost in Seattle, 20-17, before returning home for a prime time, MNF rematch against Arizona. A statement game for the defense, the 49ers forced 7 turnovers (5 FRs, 2 INTs), including a franchise record 7 FFs, as the 24-9 win sealed the season sweep of the Cardinals. The Niners penchant for forcing turnovers allowed them to post the NFL's 5th-best turnover ratio in 2009 (33 takeaways; 24 giveaways). In the blizzard-beaten city of Philadelphia the following Sunday, the Niners struggled with turnovers in a 27-13 loss to the Eagles. Facing Detroit a week later, TDs from Davis and Gore led the way as the 49ers outgunned the Lions 20-6. San Fran would move toward its final game in St. Louis with a chance to secure its first non-losing season since 2002. Overcoming a slow 1st half, Alex Smith and Co. put up 28 points in the final half, including a 73-yd. TD catch by Davis to register his record-tying total. Gore capped off the day with 2 TDs and his 5th 100-yd. performance of the year, giving him 20 such career games and tying him with Joe Perry for the franchise record.

The San Francisco 49ers entered the 2010 season with high hopes, having finished the previous season with their best record since 2002 and having five players named to the Pro Bowl. The 49ers dug themselves an insurmountable deficit with a 0–5 start that they ultimately could not overcome. San Francisco finished the year with a 6–10 record and a third place finish in the NFC West. The 49ers opened the season on the road against the Seattle Seahawks. With the arrival of former USC head coach Pete Carroll, the 49ers were not completely certain about what to expect and were stunned by a 31–6 loss. The Niners opened their home slate on Monday Night Football against the Super Bowl Champion New Orleans Saints to Candlestick Park. RB Frank Gore rushed for 112 yds., and 1 TD on the ground and 1 through the air. 49ers QB Alex Smith passed for 275 yards, but his heroics were not enough as New Orleans posted a late FG giving the Saints a 25–22 victory. A dismal offensive performance in a 31–10 loss in Kansas City influenced head coach Mike Singletary to let offensive coordinator Jimmy Raye go and promote QBs coach Mike Johnson to the role of play–caller. In week 4 the Niners traveled to Atlanta. The 49ers started fast but their inability to finish, however, ultimately cost them a win as the Falcons edged them, 16–14. San Francisco returned home for its 2nd primetime matchup in as many home games. NBC's Sunday Night Football pitted them against the Philadelphia Eagles. Again, San Francisco showed up under the brightest of lights, posting 309 yds. through the air including 3 TDs, but a late game INT gave the 49ers their 5th straight loss of the season, 27–24. The 49ers added some rays of hope against the visiting Oakland Raiders. Gore accounted for 149 yds. rushing, leading the 49ers offense to 349 yds. of total offense and earning the Niners their first win of the season, 17–9. The 49ers next test would be at Carolina. The Niners failed to capitalize on a late–game lead and allowed the Panthers to mount a 20–23 comeback victory on a game–winning FG as time expired. Starting QB Alex Smith suffered an injured shoulder during the 4th qtr. At 1–6, the team boarded a plane and traveled to London for a week–long road trip to square off with the Denver Broncos in the 2010 International Series game. With QB Troy Smith at the helm due to the injury to Alex Smith a week earlier, the “home team” defeated Denver, 24–16. After the bye week, the 49ers returned home to defeat division foe St. Louis 23–20 in OT, behind the big–play arm of Troy Smith and the Frank Gore run game. The ensuing 21–0 shutout by Tampa Bay at Candlestick, the first home shutout since 1977, inspired the squad for a prime–time, MNF showdown at Arizona. The defense held the Cardinals to just 13 yds. rushing and forced 2 turnovers. Unfortunately, perennial Pro Bowl RB Frank Gore suffered a fractured hip during the contest ending his season. After a forgettable 34–16 loss to Green Bay at Lambeau Field, San Fran erupted for a season–high 40 points against the visiting Seahawks. Mike Singletary had handed the started QB role back to Alex Smith after the GB loss, and he went on to throw for 255 yds. and 3 TDs in the 40–21 win. Despite the momentum the Niners seemed to gain they lost, 34–7, at San Diego in a Thursday night matchup. Despite a 5–9 record, San Francisco was still in NFC West hunt. Looking for a spark Singletary once again switched QBs, this time to Troy Smith. The spark that was expected never came to be and the 49ers suffered a devastating, 25–17, loss at St. Louis. With the division title and all playoff hopes out of reach, team President and CEO Jed York relieved head coach Mike Singletary of his duties that evening. Defensive line coach Jim Tomsula was later promoted to interim head coach for the final week of the season. The 49ers battled to finish the season with a favorable taste in their mouths vs. Arizona. RB Brian Westbrook notched 2 TDs while Alex Smith threw for 276 yds., 2 TDs and a QB rtg. of 107.8, in a 38–7 win.

The San Francisco 49ers 2011 season began with great hope surrounded by as much, if not more, uncertainty, due in large to the arrival of head coach Jim Harbaugh and the lack of an offseason for the new coaching staff to gel with its players. By season's end, Harbaugh had led his team to a 14–4 record, a NFC West Division Title and a berth in the NFC Championship Game.

Although the 49ers became a blue collar unit focused solely on wins, individual honors were plentiful for the team in 2011. Harbaugh was named AP Coach of the Year at season's end and the team boasted a league–high five First Team AP All–Pros – DT Justin Smith, LB Patrick Willis, LB NaVorro Bowman, K David Akers and P Andy Lee (LT Joe Staley and CB Carlos Rogers were named to the Second Team). San Francisco also posted a NFL–high nine Pro Bowl selections – Smith, Willis, Akers, Lee, Rogers, Staley, S Dashon Goldson, RB Frank Gore, and LS Brian Jennings.

Led by Willis and Smith, both finalists for Defensive Player of the Year, the 49ers defense possessed the most dominant front seven in the game, a unit that produced 40 of the team's 42 sacks and a De– fensive Rookie of the Year finalist, LB Aldon Smith, who set the franchise's rookie sack record (14). The unit began the year without allowing a rushing TD in its first 14 games, a feat never before achieved in league history. The defense's NFL–high 38 take–aways allowed the 49ers to lead the league with a team–record turnover differential (plus–28). By the end of the year, the defense ranked 1st in the NFL against the run, 2nd in points allowed, and 4th in total defense.

The San Francisco offense played a physical brand that controlled the tempo of games, rarely made mistakes and made plays when it was ultimately needed. Six times in 2011, QB Alex Smith, RB Frank Gore and the Niners offense mounted come–from–behind wins. The offense tied NFL single–season records for fewest turnovers (10) and interceptions (5). Gore became the franchise's all–time leading rusher surpassing Joe “The Jet” Perry. Smith put together his finest year as a pro, finishing the season with a 90.7 QB rating, a 61.4 completion percentage and the NFL's lowest interception percentage (1.1). The quarterback also tied the franchise record with four, 4th quarter come–from–behind wins on the road (QB Joe Montana – 4 in 1989).

Special teams lived up to its name for the 49ers in 2011, as the unit finished the season ranked atop the NFL. The team featured two record–setting specialists in Akers and Lee. Akers set the NFL record for most field goals made (44) and most points in single–season, no touchdowns (166), while Lee registered a 44.0 net punt average, also setting a new NFL record. KR Ted Ginn Jr. became the first player in franchise history to record a punt return for a touchdown and a kickoff return for a touchdown in the same game in the season opener versus Seattle.

Inside the friendly confines of Candlestick Park, San Francisco posted a 7–1 record. The Niners never trailed by more than 3 points at home all season and averaged 27.6 points per game, ranking 6th in the NFL. The 49ers also boasted a 6–2 record away from home. The 6 wins on the road were the most by the team since 1996 (6–2).

In the 49ers first postseason game since 2002, they defeated the New Orleans Saints, 36–32. TE Vernon Davis shined as he registered 7 receptions for 180 yards and 2 touchdowns, including the game–winning 14 yarder from Alex Smith with :09 remaining.

A magical season came to an end in the NFC Championship game, as the 49ers fell to the eventual Super Bowl Champion New York Giants in overtime, 17–20.

Carrying the heavy expectations from a trip to the NFC Championship in 2011, the 2012 San Francisco 49ers took a step further and won the NFC for the first time since the 1994 season. Head coach Jim Harbaugh led his team to a 11–4–1 regular season record, a second straight NFC West Title, and the sixth Super Bowl appearance in franchise history.

For the second consecutive season, accolades accompanied team achievement. The 49ers led the NFL with six First–Team AP All–Pro selections – LB Patrick Willis, LB NaVorro Bowman, LB Aldon Smith, G Mike Iupati, S Dashon Goldson, P Andy Lee and three Second–Teamers DT Justin Smith, LB Ahmad Brooks and T Joe Staley. In addition to the All–Pros, the 49ers also had nine players selected to the NFC Pro Bowl team – Bowman, Goldson, RB Frank Gore, Iupati, Aldon Smith, Justin Smith, Staley, S Donte Whitner and Willis. The Niners offensive line was also awarded the 2012 Madden Most Valuable Pro–tectors Award, which recognizes the best offensive line in the National Football League.

The 49ers defense picked up where they left off in 2011, dominant. The unit, which returned 10 of 11 starters from 2011, finished 2nd in the NFL in total points allowed (17.1 pts. per game) and 3rd in total defense (294.4 yds. per game). Aldon Smith broke Hall of Fame DE Fred Dean’s franchise sack record (17.5 in 1983), with 19.5. That mark was 2nd in the NFL in 2012 and 10th in NFL history. A stone–wall rush defense held opponents to an average of just 94.2 yds. per game, which ranked 4th in the NFL and a pass defense that allowed 200.2 yds. per game that also ranked 4th. The defensive unit was one of two teams in the NFL to rank in the top five in all four categories (Denver).

A dynamic and physical rushing attack complemented the Niners defense in 2012. Gore surpassed RB Roger Craig and RB Joe Perry’s franchise record of 50 career rushing TDs by punching in his 51st TD vs. Arz. (12/30). Entering the starting lineup in Week 11 due to an injured QB Alex Smith, QB Colin Kaepernick left opposing defenses in a daze with his versatility. In the Divisional Round of the playoffs vs. GB (1/12/13), Kaepernick set the NFL single–game rushing record by a quarterback with 181 yds. rushing and 2 TDs on 16 carries, as well as completing 17 of 31 atts. for 263 yds., and 2 TDs. Big plays from Kaepernick not only came on the ground, but through the air as he completed 21, 25+ yds. completions, which was good for 2nd in the NFL since taking over the starting job.

Special teams started the season off with K David Akers tying a NFL record long FG when he nailed a 63–yd. kick at GB (9/9). Andy Lee sat atop the NFL with a 43.2 net punting average and landed 36 punts inside the 20–yd. line, 3rd most in the NFL in 2012 and the second highest single season total of his career.

The 49ers were 6–1–1 at Candlestick Park this season, with the defense allowing just 9 TDs, the best in the NFL.

In addition to Kaepernick’s record–breaking performance in the 49ers 45–31 Divisional Round victory vs. the Packers, San Francisco also became the first team in NFL history to ever have two, 100–yd. rushers [QB Colin Kaepernick (181 yds. rushing), RB Frank Gore (119 yds. rushing)] and one, 100–yd. receiver [WR Michael Crabtree (119 yds. receiving)] in a playoff game. The following week, the Atlanta Falcons jumped out to a 17–0 lead in the NFC Championship Game at the Georgia Dome and Kaepernick led the charge by hitting 16 of 21 passes for 233 yds. and 1 TD with a QB rating of 127.7 as the 49ers came back to win 28–24. It was the 2nd largest deficit overcome to win a conference championship in NFL history.

The curtains closed on the biggest stage for the 2012 49ers as they fell to the Baltimore Ravens 34–31 in Super Bowl XLVII. The 49ers became the first team in Super Bowl history to have a 300–yd. passer, a 100–yd. rusher and two, 100–yd. receivers in a single game. Kaepernick threw for 302 yds., RB Frank Gore added 110 yds. rushing, WR Michael Crabtree tallied 109 rec. yds. and TE Vernon Davis recorded 104 rec. yds.
